RYE, N.H., Feb. 28, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large number had been given her by the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured about ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines are equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give me relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Perhaps it may be of benefit, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was affected with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, during which her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to several physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. mav26

From the Portsmouth Journal.

HON. JOHN EASTMAN has addressed a patriotic letter to the Dover Enquirer, expressing the desire that his name should not be used as a candidate for Representative for this Congressional District.

The tax on incomes is exposing vast accumulating wealth in our New England capitol, Boston. There are, as appears, 6 persons whose yearly incomes are over $100,000—3 over 90,000—1 over 80,000—2 over 70,000—6 over 60,000—7 over 50,000—13 over 40,000—41 over 36,000—89 over 20,000; and 100 over 10,000. J. M. Bebee, once a poor boy, has an income of $188,000. His 5 per cent. war tax alone is $9,400.

Among those in Boston who are receiving good incomes, we are gratified to find some who went from Portsmouth and its vicinity. Among the names reported in the Boston papers with incomes above $4000 the past year, we notice:

James T. Fields,	$8,988	Albert F. Sise,	5,285
James W. Emery,	9,653	Wm. H. Hill,	9,509
Chas. Woodbury,	8,859	N.P. Mann,	6,329
M. P. Kennard,	5,374	N. P. Mann, jr.,	5,289
Wm. H. Kennard,	5,018	Shad. Robinson,	18,700
Silas Durkee,	5,044	Wm. Sheafe,	16,500
Geo. K. Hooper,	5,309	Sam'l H. Gookin,	92,000

THE SPECIAL INCOME TAX.—It is telegraphed from Washington that the Treasury Department decides that in assessing a special war tax on incomes of 1863, there shall be deducted from the full amount of income not only the six hundred dollars allowed by law, but also such sum as was paid for house rent or room rent. Persons who have paid a special tax under a different construction of the law by assessors, will be entitled to draw back.

INCOME TAX.—Call on the Collector to-day, at the Custom House, and you will save expense.

WINTER AT LAST.—From Sunday, Nov. 27, to Thursday, Dec. 9, the mercury by day and night was at no time below 32, the freezing point. On Friday morning, Dec. 9th, it descended to 16, the lowest this season.

PROF. DUBOIS is a very skillful blunderer. He amused his audience exceedingly at the Temple, by his lecture last week. We see he purposes to give another lecture at the Temple next Wednesday — be sure to go and hear him. He purposes to give instruction to a class in French, for which he is well qualified. None better than a Frenchman can instruct in the right pronunciation—and no Frenchman can do it better than Prof. Dubois.

Mr. Isaac Palmer, who was run over by the cars near the Eastern R. R. station in this city, (of which some account is copied in another column from the Chronicle,) was from Fall River, Mass., where his family resides. He was an active and industrious man, of about 47 years of age. There are some circumstances about his death which leave a possibility that he had been drugged and placed on the track. It is said that he had money in his pocket on Saturday night; but there was none about him when found. The place where he was found was spread with loose gravel on which might have been seen traces of such convulsed movements as a dying man might be expected to make—but no such traces were visible.

FIRE IN ELIOT.—On Friday night, Dec. 2, about 12 o'clock, the barn of Mr. Timothy Manson, in Eliot, near the Kittery line, was burnt, together with his horse, cow and calf, about sixty hens, a cider-mill, and a quantity of hay. Probably the work of an incendiary.

Neither Washington nor Lafayette ever entered "the house on Hanover, near High-street," as a flying paragraph says.

We omitted last week to notice the reading of Mrs. Whipple at the Temple. Her recitations consisted of patriotic poems, extracts from Shakespeare and a portion of that much admired production of Jean Ingelow, "the Belle of Enderby." It is not too much to say that Mrs. Whipple more than fulfilled the most sanguine expectations of her friends. She exhibited such grace and freedom of manner, with an entire absence of that painful conciousness which it is so distressing to witness, as to put her audience at once at their ease; while the rich tones of a voice of uncommon compass and flexibility and the justness of her emphasis admirably illustrated and interpreted the sentiment of her authors.

We wish Mrs. Whipple much success in her future efforts, and trust that it may be our good fortune to listen to her again.

The Levee of the Portsmouth Division of the Order of S. of T., was successful in an eminent degree. The Court House was beautifully decorated, and on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of last week, was filled to overflowing; many going away unable to gain admittance.

The "Old folks," who presided at the "Farmers' table," reminded the "oldest inhabitants" of their great grand mothers of the last century.

The Glee Club of the Division sung admirably, and added much to the interest of the occasion.

The double tableau of the Stars and Bars, and the Star Spangled Banner, was one of the finest, and the denouement was as beautiful as it was surprising. When the manacles fell from Columbia, and the rebel rag and "Satan" fell together, and the splendid silken flag presented to Co. K, of the 2d, was unfolded to view with its long list of hard fought battles, the enthusiasm was unbounded.

The Division have shown much energy and good judgment in the manner in which they got up their levee, and are well worthy the liberal patronage they received.

THE MAINE U. S. SENATORSHIP.—We learn from Augusta, Me., that Vice-President Hamlin is decidedly ahead in the contest for U. S. Senatorship. In York, Me., all but two of the members elected are for Mr. Hamlin, and a count shows that he will have at least thirty-two majority in the Legislative caucus when called upon to nominate a candidate.

St. John's Church will be open for Divine Service on Sunday evening, Dec. 11th, at 7½ o'clock.

DIVIDENDS.—The Portland, Saco & Portsmouth Railroad Co., have declared a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent., payable Dec. 7.

ECHO POETRY.

The following is a specimen of echo poetry which possesses merit as a literary composition, and on account of the spirit of piety which breathes through it:

If any be distressed, and fain would gather
Some comfort, let him haste unto Our Father.
For we of hope and help are quite bereaven
Except Thou succor us
Who art in Heaven.
Thou showest mercy, therefore for the same
We praise thee, singing
Hallowed be thy name.
Of all our miseries cast up the sum;
Show us thy joys, and let
Thy kingdom come.
We mortal are, and after from our birth;
Thou constant art,
Thy will be done on earth.
Thou made'st the earth, as well as planets seven,
Thy name be blessed here
As 'tis in heaven.
Nothing we have to use or debts to pay,
Except thou give it us,
Give us this day
Wherewith to clothe us, wherewith to be fed,
Far without thee we want
Our daily bread.
We want, but we want no faults, for no day passes
But we do not sin—
Forgive us our trespasses.
No man from sinning ever free did live;
Forgive us, Lord, our sins
As we forgive.
If we repent our faults, thou new'st disdainest us;
We pardon them
That trespass against us;
Forgive us that is past, a new path tread us;
Direct us always in thy faith,
And lead us—
We, thine own people and thy chosen nation,
Into all truth, but
Not into temptation.
Thou that of all good graces art the giver,
Suffer us not to wander,
But deliver
Us from the fierce assaults of world and devil
And flesh, so shalt thou free us
From all evil.

To these petitions let both church and laymen
With one consent of heart and voice say
Amen.

THE NEW YORK NEWSPAPER PRESS. A New York newspaper correspondent writes:

"The coming year is likely to witness a revolution in the newspaper business here, as regards prices, &c. The venerable Journal of Commerce notifies its patrons that its rates of subscription henceforth will be $15 per annum. This is a big jump up, but not more so than is actually necessitated by the high prices of all kinds of printing materials, manual labor, editorial services, &c. Two of the other morning papers, it is said, will increase their price from four to six cents each. Of the weeklies, two will probably advance their prices, and the remainder give up the ghost."

The editor of the Portland Advertiser says that for the year past the average price per sheet of white paper, has been as much in cash as he has received from each subscriber for the printed copy, "making a total loss" to him "of all labor, editorial and compositors', rent, fuel, gas, ink, type, press-work and the thousand et ceteras which are incident to a newspaper establishment,—less only the amount received for advertisements." The question now is how long at this rate it will take him to get rich? We of this Chronicle don't believe in that way of doing business; and when we can't get what papers cost and a little more, we don't mean to print them any longer.

— An excitement occurred in Philadelphia over a case of ladies' belt buckles. They remained unsold when the fashions changed, just twenty years ago, were then packed up and consigned to a garret. They were recently reproduced for sale, and taken by the retail trade at a price sufficient to pay twenty-eight years' interest on their original cost, and leave a handsome profit beside.

— Western distillers assert that whiskey must, at the present price of corn, go to 50 cents per gallon above Government tax before distilleries can recommence work. The very high price of hogs is some assistance, but not enough to reduce these figures. Whiskey will, accordingly, by February, have to go to $2,50 per gallon.

— They are now boreing oil wells with a tool the cutting edges of which are made of diamonds. It is anticipated that it will perform the work which now occupies from two to six months, in five days.

— The conductor put a man, who refused to pay his fare, off the railroad train, near Pittsfield, the other day, and the man dropped down into the darkness. The conductor presently found that the train had stopped over a dry gully, and the man was picked up at the bottom of it, quite dead.

— The promise of an abundant apple crop next year in the Eastern States is rendered dubious by the prospect of an immense crop of worms. Anybody who takes the trouble to look can see their embryo nests near the ends of apple twigs.

— Augusto Beall, an old man over sixty years of age, and his five sons, the youngest of whom is nineteen years old, have been arrested in Brooklyn, N. Y., on the charge of highway robbery.

— One Herr Eodres, of Mayence, has invented a machine which will write down music as fast as it is played, thus making it possible to avoid the great labor of composing.

— The Machias Union says a little daughter of Charles Drisko of Columbia, two years old, died recently of strangulation, caused by the lodgment of a bean in her throat.

— Littlejohn, who was so severely stabbed on Tuesday night, in Portland, died on Wednesday morning.

— The entire net proceeds of the New York Sanitary Fair was $1,180,081.27.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and soft iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the rolling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove; and hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, none possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used.

We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Heath, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

The Chronicle.

☞ Death from spontaneous combustion has not unfrequently occurred, the victims in most cases being fat and aged women of intemperate habits. A case is now going the rounds of a man who had been an habitual drinker for years, who was found standing in an out-building completely enveloped in a silver colored flame, like the wick of a candle in its blaze, and being shaken by the shoulder the fire was immediately extinguished, and though nearly all the flesh sloughed from the bones, as the veins remained, and the viscera were uninjured, he lingered thirteen days, though he declared he was suffering the torments of hell.

The Newburyport Herald, from which we get the above item, adds:

Two cases of this kind have occurred in the same town in this vicinity within thirty years, both of them women given to constant indulgence in liquor. One of them was found still alive, enveloped in flames, which proceeded from her mouth and nostrils; and the other was burned to a mass of greasy ashes, while the walls of the room and the furniture were covered with a thick coat of lampblack, the whole house being pervaded with a stench that was intolerable.

☞ "Bill Hammond" was a genius, and had an unconquerable prejudice against Jews. No sooner had Beauregard's shattered army arrived in Corinth, after the battle of Shiloh, than the camp of the Crescent Regiment was crowded with people from New Orleans to learn of brothers, sons or friends. Among them came Mr. Solomon, one of the most influential of all his race in the Crescent City, and well known by sight to Hammond, who was the first man he met on coming into camp. "Can you tell me," said he, naming several of the Jews in the Regiment, among them his own son, "if any of those were hurt?" "Hurt!" said Bill, with an air of innocence, as though ignorant who Solomon was, "there was nary Jew hurt. The Yanks didn't have any guns long enough to reach 'em."

☞ The following, from the Panama Chronicle of Nov. 25, is the latest we find in reference to the pirates captured by Admiral Farragut:

"The representative of the United States Government has not taken the responsibility of sending the prisoners across notwithstanding the withholding of the permission," as the Star & Herald so injudiciously and filibusterisly presumed. Such a defiance of the Sovereignty of the Government would certainly be a fit reason for the recession of the Treaty at present existing between this country and the United States of America.

— The Folsom (Cal.) Telegraph says a house in that place was entered, and robbed of a gold watch, two lockets, two navy revolvers, and several blankets, the robber not being content with what he had stolen, returned to the house, and discovering a demijohn of brandy, he drank more than he could well carry, and fell asleep, he slumbered gently until he was awakened by Constable Carran, who arrested him. Smart thief, that.

— The Grass Valley Union, says a wagon recently passed through that place, from Keokuk, Iowa. Its occupants consisted of of a man, his wife, and a large family of children. It was drawn by three yoke of oxen. They had been six months on the road, looked as if they had seen hard times, and appeared to be in a destitute condition. They were bound for Russian River.

☞ Speaking of large mouths, a remark we overheard one butternut soldier make to another conveys as good an idea of something on a grand scale as can be expressed in a few words. Irate at some remark made about his own mouth, he retorted: "Well your mouth must have been made on an awful hot day and run all over your face."

— The tobacco dealers East and West are raising a great smoke. Those of the Occident wish the weed to be taxed in the leaf, by doing which they state Government would realize an income of about $100,000,000 with the tax at 25 cents per pound.

— Blockade runners are "catching it" just now, with a vengeance. The latest capture is the rebel steamer Armstrong, a beautiful, new and very fast vessel, of 630 tons, captured by the Cuyler and Gettysburg, on the 5th.

— Men with black carpet bags go about stealing from stores in Newark. That sort of a traveling companion will soon be tabooed from respectable society.

— A new temperance paper, to be called "The Old Oaken Bucket," will be started in Portland the first week in January.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1864.

THE REBELLION.

Rebel papers say that Sherman's advance on the 6th was reported skirmishing with the outposts of Savannah, which place it was expected he would reach by the 9th. Deserters state that there is great dissatisfaction in rebel ranks because current information of Sherman's movements is withheld from them. It is also evident from their conversation that Lee had detached troops from his army and sent them to Georgia to assist in arresting Sherman's advance.

No new movements had taken place in the vicinity of Grahamsville. Gen. Foster had fortified himself and maintained his position. The Charleston Mercury thinks he will remain there until Sherman reaches within striking distance of the coast.

Gen. Burbridge and command were at Beans' Station, Ky., on the 6th, and in good spirits. The movement of Gen. Burbridge's on Breckinridge's flank had compelled the latter to withdraw his force beyond Bull's Gap, except a small cavalry force. Vaughan was reported at Chicky Road, with his cavalry, and Bushrod Johnson at Jonesboro', but both reports are considered doubtful.

The Herald's Shenandoah correspondent says the rebel Gens. Early and Breckinridge have both been ordered to make a movement against Gen. Sheridan's army lines.

On Wednesday last, owing to the annoyance by rebels firing upon working parties at Dutch Gap Canal, portions of two colored regiments of infantry and a section of Martin's 5th Regular Artillery under Gen. B. D. Ludlow, crossed to the North side of James river and drove the rebels back and effected a lodgement at the upper terminus of the canal, where they entrenched themselves, thus protecting the laborers on the canal. The rebel batteries subsequently opened upon the position, but did no harm.

Richmond papers of Thursday, 8th, say nothing new has been received at the Confederate War Department regarding Sherman's movements. Georgia papers have not been received of later date than Dec. 3d. Mosby has been promoted to the rank of colonel.

By Telegraph—Sunday noon.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Full files of Richmond papers up to yesterday morning arrived late to-night. The silence of most of them on Georgia matters is probably the most significant fact connected with them. The Whig of the evening of the 8th says: 'Up to a late hour last night no official dispatches had reached the Department from Georgia, and we are confident we shall yet announce the thorough discomfiture of Sherman." Editorially it says: "If Sherman gets through to the seacoast, it certainly will be a great humiliation to the Confederacy. Sherman seems to be comparatively quiet, somewhere near the banks of the Ogeechee river, while his cavalry is sent to explore. The rebels are concentrating troops to obstruct Sherman's route. Under the head of very latest, the Dispatch says: "Latest accounts say Sherman is moving in two colums down the Ogeechee river, one column on either side." The Augusta Constitutionalist of Sunday last says the latest news represents the main body of Sherman's army as vigorously passing through Millen. The Sentinel of the same date says Sherman is below Millen with the main body of his army. This settles the question that he is making direct for Savannah.

Nothing of importance took place in the rebel Congress on Wednesday.

The Despatch of the 8th says: "Gen. Grant is moving troops, but as he does it in a dense fog, we don't know what he means.' All the Richmond papers of the 8th contain an official dispatch saying that the Yankee Gen. Steele, with 15,000 men, had landed at Memphis on the 26th, and gone up the river to reinforce Thomas.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—It is confidently believed that Sherman has reached the seacoast. The steamship Merrimack sailed yesterday with a full cargo of provisions, infantry and field artillery ammunition, and a large number of small arms, to be delivered to Gen. Sherman. There is a report in town to-night that Gen. Grant has captured the South Side Railroad, compelling the evacuation of Petersburg. The report is generally credited, and produced intense excitement. Gold closed at the evening stock exchange at 234.

— Gold 238 1-2.

— A new way of passing worthless money in New York is to engage apartments at a certain rate per month, agree to pay a small deposit to secure the rooms, give a bad bill in payment, and receive good money for change.

— The rebel Senate on the 6th defeated the resolution introduced on the recommendation of Jeff. Davis that certain officers, exempt under State laws, shall be forced into the rebel army.

NATT-HEAD-ISM. — The Portsmouth Stars and Bars is afflicted with a diarrhœa of words and a costiveness of ideas. Witness a column of vituperation of the recent circular issued by our popular and efficient Adjutant General in regard to the volunteer militia of New Hampshire.

We had regarded that circular as a very proper and sensible document. It merely calls attention to the existing law, explains its provisions, and urges upon the people the advantages—for so many years dilated upon by the Democratic rulers of this State—of a well-regulated and efficient State militia.

Our neighbor's superior enlightenment sees in Gen. Head's simple statement of facts a very dangerous incendiary document. Unfortunately he adduces no arguments in support of his position. An opening fling at the Constitution of New Hampshire—a few sneers at the State authorities for well directed efforts which the people at large understand and appreciate—a few scraps of poetry—one or two questions, (which we hardly expected a Portsmouth copperhead to ask) in regard to the localities in which the services of a volunteer militia had ever been needed; these made up the staple of the article, and a very slazy fabric it is. "What sort of invasions have threatened the various sections of the State? Do tell us, Mr. Head," says the Portsmouth wiseacre.

Very likely Mr. Head may not choose to reply. There are unfortunately some men in our community to whom it is not safe to confide such secrets. We may say, from our personal knowledge however, that the circular which has so exercised the Portsmouth man, originated in frequent inquiries at the Adjutant's General's office for information as to the measures necessary to organize a home guard which would secure our citizens from such slight disturbances of the peace as have occurred in one or two instances in the district which Hon. Daniel Marcy so ably misrepresents.

In response to the General's epitome of a law enacted by "the assembled wisdom of New Hampshire," two companies of volunteer militia have already been organized—one in Lancaster and another in Lebanon; more are coming. Our people intend to manage their own St. Albans affairs without telegraphing for U. S. troops the day after peaceful citizens have been shot down in the streets. Any one but an arrant copperhead would rejoice at this evidence of their patriotic spirit. But "copper on the brain" obliterated for the Portsmouth editor all the precedents of the old-fashioned, loyal Democratic party. He cannot even bear the mention of that militia system, which doubtless in other days received his fostering care. Let us quote poetry.—He did.

> "No rogue 'ver felt the halter draw
> With good opinion of the law."

The editor of the Stars and Bars concludes his disquisition by entitling the provisions of the existing militia law "a very sublime piece of humbuggery." Not half so sublime as the cheek of the man who has enriched our vocabulary with the euphonious epithet Natt-Head-ism.—Concord Monitor.

☞ The New York Herald's correspondent, in his account of the battle of Honey Hill, on the line of the Charleston and Savannah Railroad, says:

The Naval Brigade behaved splendidly. When the order came to them to go to the front and take position on the right, they seemed as pleased as though invited to an extra ration of grog. A hundred or two brawny hands were thrust into blue shirts for tobacco, and a hundred cheeks protruded with the battle's supply, and then they went ahead, led by the sturdy Commander Preble, his grey hair fluttering in the breeze. When a straggler was encountered, Jack showed him no mercy. "What ye doing, 'way off here, ye lubber?" would be his salutation; and then, if he didn't 'bout face blows and even kicks were the penalty.

"Starboard a little!" shouted a captain of a gun, apprehending collision in double-quicking past a colored regiment. When they got into action they worked on their knees, and the sand was full of the snake-like tracks they made. When the pieces were discharged they were under and all about them, and when one was fatally shot, his nearest comrade usually informed him that he was "gone up." I cannot say much for their marching or the precision of the naval infantry movements; but I never saw so much coolness, or so much esprit du corps before. One sailor, badly wounded, was laid by the side of a colored soldier shot through the leg. The latter was groaning a good deal, and the sailor imperiously directed him to "shut up." Not complying, he was informed that his nose would be "mashed" if his "mug" remained longer open; and the next groan that came was the signal for a blow from a fist like a sledge.

"SYRIA, THE JEWESS! OR THE MAGICIAN OF TOLEDO."— Such is the title of a new romance from the pen of the famous Louis Leon whose great stories, "The Silver Ship" and "The Step Daughter's Portion," so electrified the reading world but a few months since in the columns of that admirable story and sketch paper the New York Weekly. "SYRIA, THE JEWESS" is now running through the columns of the New York Weekly, and we think we may promise all who will read it a rich literary treat. d 12 1 t — Rev. C. C. Shackford, of Lynn, Mass., has resigned the Unitarian Society there, after fourteen years of service.

— A bill has passed the South Carolina House of Representatives, to conscript all able-bodied males between 16 and 60 years of age.

— On Thursday, one of the most influential business men in Providence was arrested and sent on to report to Gen. Dix. The charge is "furnishing supplies to the enemy."

— The Wisconsin State Prison is vacant and the jailor is away on a vacation.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Mr. William B. Buxton, a graduate of the Meadville Theological School, in the class of the present year, has accepted a call from the Unitarian Society in Wilton, N. H.

—— Rev. Eugene De Normandie has accepted a call from the Unitarian Societies in Fitzwilliam and Troy, N. H., and will give a portion of his time to each; residing in Fitzwilliam.

—— On Wednesday morning a fire broke out in the wood shed adjoining the dwelling-house of Joshua A. Moar, of Londonderry, and before assistance arrived the buildings were burned to the ground. Mr. Moar secured the most of his furniture and the other property in the house except about one hundred dollars' worth of corn and potatoes. Insured for $200 in the Rockingham Farmer's Mutual.

—— The Lebanon Free Press states that a New York company has purchased an excellent water privilege in that village and are laying the foundation of an extensive nail manufactory. They are pushing the work as rapidly as possible, and will complete it in the spring. The machinery is to be manufactured by F. A. Cushman, Agent, of Lebanon.

—— Rev. E. W. Cook, of Hopkinton, has resigned his pastoral charge of the Congregational Church in that town, to accept a call from the Congregational Church in Fon du Lac, Wisconsin. A Council to dismiss him is called for Dec. 13.

—— Rev. Thomas Savage, who has more than 38 years been pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Bedford, has been laid aside some weeks by illness. His friends fear that he will not be able to resume his labors.

—— Congressional District No. 1, in New Hampshire, consists of Rockingham, Strafford, Belknap and Carroll Counties. The official returns from these counties give 12,550 votes for Lincoln, and 11,752 for McClellan, being 798 majority for the former, without the soldiers vote, or a little more than one third of all the majority in the State. In 1863, Mr. Daniel Marcy had 12,059; Mr. Eastman 11,979; —plurality for Mr. Marcy of 30 votes;—and these were 4 scattering. Unless some great disaster overtakes the United States armies between this time and March, it must be uphill work to rub out the large Union majority.

—— Edwin S. Chase was married on the 2d, to a daughter of the late Asa Brewer, of Fitzwilliam. Mr. Chase has of late years become quite wealthy by the oil business in Pennsylvania. He has been married some 17 years, and his wife and four children are still living in Needham, Mass. The new married couple were arrested on the day after their marriage, for adultery, and Chase held in $1000 bonds.

—— Lieut. J. Dudley Lyford, 11th regt. died in Manchester on Friday morning.

—— The Dover Gazette learns that several parties in that city have purchased an iron-clad steamer—a captured blockade runner—with the intention of running her as a passenger and freight boat between Dover and Boston. She cost about $19,000 and as soon as some necessary repairs are made, will be placed on the route. She will make the trip in about six hours, leaving Dover every other day and Boston the alternate days. She will go up to Dover until the river closes, and then only to Dover Point through the winter.

—— On Wednesday James B. Campbell and Amos Griffin, both of Nashua, were arrested in Lowell for passing counterfeit money. They had in their possession counterfeits on the Bay State Bank, Lawrence; Union Bank, Boston; Weybosset Bank, Providence; Merchants' Bank, Springfield—the whole representing $179. They had passed sundry bad bills in the city and were held for examination.

— On the 7th, the Macon Confederate arrived in Richmond for the first time in two weeks. Macon, it says, is safe and all the people have been withdrawn from the trenches. It adds that orders for repairs of the telegraph and railroad from Macon to Atlanta have been issued.

— The brig J. S. Harvey, bound from Milwaukee to Ogdensburg, with a cargo of wheat, went ashore on the 8th, fourteen miles below Oswego. A terrible gale and blinding snow storm prevailed at the time. The captain was frozen to death. The remainder of the crew were taken off. About 100 feet of the east pier at the entrance of Oswego harbor was carried away by the gale that day.

— Admiral D. G. Farragut is now on his way to New York in the flag ship Hartford, and the command of the West Gulf blockading squadron has been turned over temporarily to Comodore James S. Palmer. In all probability the Admiral, who has been recommended for the new rank of vice-admiral, will not return again to the scene of his glorious exploits.

— Another resolution, fiercely denouncing the proposition to make soldiers of slaves and free them, was introduced into the South Carolina Legislature.

The Greatest Story of Modern Times!
There is now in course of publication in the columns of the New York Weekly,
an original and thrilling romance called
SYRIA, THE JEWESS,
—OR—
THE MAGICIAN OF TOLEDO.
From the pen of the renowned romancer,
LOUIS LEON,
Whose powerful romances, "THE SILVER SHIP," and "THE STEP-DAUGHTER'S PORTION" so electrified the reading world while running through the columns of
THE NEW YORK WEEKLY,
Now universally admitted to be the most perfect family literary journal in the world.

We do not hesitate to say that "SYRIA THE JEWESS" IS THE GREATEST STORY OF MODERN TIMES!

Its plot is so complicated and thrilling as to hold the reader spell-bound, and it is worked up with a skill and power which is absolutely wonderful. Nobody can arise from the perusal of this great story without feeling that it was the work of no common mind, and without regretting that it ended so soon. Everybody should read it, for while it is undoubtedly sensational, it is at the same time strictly moral in tone and in the lesson which it teaches.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY
is also publishing
Mrs. Mary J. Holmes'
GREAT STORY,

HALE'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces in such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these two other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "DYE," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

Special Notice.

To the Readers of the Morning Chronicle, Portsmouth, N. H.

The undersigned would respectfully ask attention to the preparations known as

Hunnewell's Universal Cough Remedy

The Great Remedy for all Throat and Lung Complaints.

HUNNEWELL'S TOLU ANODYNE,

A perfect relief for Neuralgia, all Nervous Complaints, and Loss of Sleep.

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS,

Declared to be the most perfect Cathartic and Family Pill; seldom requiring more than One for a dose, without Griping, and one that should be known to every family.

These preparations will be noticed each month, and originating from most potent questions in Medicine, enjoyed for ten years unbounded reputation, readers are invited to accept such notices as a true index of character, and give me their confidence to test them.

Local.

☞ Communications, to secure insertion, should be accompanied by the name of the writer.

☞ Thanks to all those patrons who so promptly responded to our call for settlement, last week. Especially to those distant Weekly subscribers, who also "throw in" good wishes and congratulations worth double the money they send, very acceptable as that is. One gives us, "Success to your little spicy sheet"—and encloses $4 for this year and next; he had failed to receive any bill reminding him of his indebtedness, and wrote requesting one.—Another also sends $4, with request for bill always in advance—(which we have neglected to send in some cases, the past year, on account of press of business,) which he truly says is better for him and us. Yes, long accounts are a benefit to nobody. This subscriber was one of the originals on the old Phenix list, and says:

"The children think more of it than any other paper we take—so push it along. Hoping you will edit it as long as Old Abe is President, and as much longer as a kind Providence will spare your life, I am yours truly, T. C. R.

☞ The people of New Hampshire are perhaps not aware that the First National Bank of this city, Hon. Wm. H. Y. Hackett, President, is not merely the first of its kind in the State, but the first in the United States to adopt the general law.

☞ The following Delegates to the various conventions were chosen by the Republicans on Wednesday evening last:

Congressional—Albert L. Jones, William H. Hackett, Robert C. Sides, George W. Tucker, Onsville E. Pray, Moses Yeaton, Charles H. Hayes, Joseph D. Ackerman.

State.—Marcellus Bufford, Stephen L. Marston, William E. Hadley, John E. Salter, Charles H. Kenney, Lyman D. Spalding, James D. Ackerman, William Doyle.

County and Councillor.—Jonathan Dearborn, William W. Henderson, Samuel H. Kingsbury, Charles H. Sides, Nathan F. Mathes, Rufus K. Oxford, Luther E. Martin, William G. Joy.

Senatorial.—Samuel Rowell, E. Washington Brown, Lewis W. Brewster, Henry A. Yeaton, Alfred J. Hill, John N. Handy, Charles S Prescott, Charles G. Pickering.

TEMPLE OF AMUSEMENT. — Another new and attractive bill will be given at the Temple this evening, consisting of the great drama entitled the "Wild Man of the Woods" and the laughable farce entitled the "Wandering Minstrel." There will be no performance by the Co on Tuesday and Wednesday even as the company go to Manchester. -open here on Thursday evening. DRAMA.

☞ Assistant Surgeon Ver Mellin has been ordered to the Naval Rendezvous in this city.

☞ Several new Advertisements which we could not well insert this morning, will appear to-morrow.

☞ Don't forget Mons. Dubois' French Class, which opens at Mercantile Hall tonight. We should say, judging from the unusally good English he writes, for a foreigner, that Prof. D. is a fine teacher; and he certainly is a very pleasant and agreeable gentleman. His lesson this evening is free, and all interested are invited.

☞ An easterly snow storm prevailed here from an early hour on Saturday morning, and the merry sleigh bells were heard in our streets for the first time this season. The effect of the snow was clearly visible in the delay of the trains on the various railroads.

Extending as far south as Washington, as far to the northward and eastward as we have any telegraphic communication, and as far west as Nashville, the storm will probably interfere with army movements at the latter point. If it only results in robbing Hood's army of its quarrelsome propensity, we shall be pleased.

The cessation of the storm on Saturday night was only that it might start afresh on Sunday, so we may expect more blockading of the railroads to-day.

☞ Mons. Dubois' bludget of bunders, or something of that sort, is to be opened at the Temple, Wednesday night. He is a jolly chap, and says he is not so big a fool as he looks—but to us he looks wise as an owl!

☞ The Washington correspondence of the New York Herald says that there is a very good prospect that a sufficient number of democratic members of the House of Representatives in Congress will yield their opposition to the passage of the constitutional amendment abolishing slavery, and permit it to pass by the requisite two-thirds vote. Some of those who opposed it most strongly at the last session have the matter under consideration, and are disposed to heed the teachings of the late election, and no longer seek to avert the fina blow to the institution which has brought so much suffering and disaster upon the country.

— A large vessel was seen on fire 30 miles southeast of Sandy Hook on Friday night.

— The builder of the revenue cutter Mahoning has issued a challenge to either of the six new steamers recently built by the Treasury Department to race from New York to Hampton Roads and back, for $10,000, provided the Department would sanction it.

— It is now said that our loss at the battle of Franklin will not fall short of 2000 men.

— The Legislature of Virginia, as contra distinguished from West Virginia, is now in session at Alexandria. It has elected Jos. Segar to fill the vacancy in the U. S. Senate, occasioned by the death of Mr. Bowden. We hope his compeers will not make light of the Hon. gentleman.

— Richmond papers continue to assail Gov. Brown of Georgia. They intimate that he is preparing to fight Jeff. Davis in refusing to allow the full execution of the conscription law in his State.

— A nephew of Gov. Vance of North Carolina has been arrested for a highway robbery committed near Matamoras. He holds a commission in the rebel army,

There is no soap that will begin to compare with the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap, and probably no other manufacturer begins to expend one-half as much money to make it worthy of the community, and the maker is richly deserving the patronage bestowed on him. It is a God-send to the world, and all who use it will agree with us that what we say is true. 32

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world affords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

☞ Special attention is asked to Hunnewell's preparations, advertised on our inside columns They are based on true medical laws, used very largely by Physicians, and most undoubted testimonials are in the hands of the proprietor, always open to inspection. Let Portsmouth and its vicinity bear testimony by a confidence to test them, which will be sacred.

SAVE YOUR FUEL!

THE MODEL COOK.

IS, IN FACT,

The Best Stove Out,

for economy, convenience and dispatch.

Many people think it best to use an old stove as long as possible, but it is far better to throw it away and purchase a MODEL COOK, than to keep it at the present high price of fuel.

One of our shrewdest citizens who purchased a MODEL COOK STOVE a year since, says he has saved more than its cost already.

A careful, prudent farmer purchased one, and after it had been in operation some days his son came into the store and said, "something was wrong at their house;" his father and himself used wood off the same pile, he burned three baskets full a day, and his father only one! We sold him a Stove before he left, and there has been no complaint since.

These Stoves are in use in many hotels and boarding houses, and in hundreds of private families in this city and vicinity, and give the best of satisfaction.

PRICES REDUCED.

The subscriber has reduced the prices of the Model Cook Stoves FIVE DOLLARS each, to conform to the decline in gold.

THE DEAD HORSE.

No more whip or spur, my "Billy," for thee,
Escaped from the harness, my pony, art free;
Just as I wished, yet my heart it grows chill
With looking at what was once "Our little Bill."
The brown eyes so brilliant, till Time dim'd their light,
The small, dainty hoofs, so rapid in flight;
Proud, petulant less of the exquisite head,
How vivid they seem as thou lies'st there dead,
Yet, I would not another should drive thee, or own
The best "bit of horseflesh" I ever have known;
Or saw on the mouth, or jerk at the rein
Of one I would willingly save from all pain:
Or leave my pet standing, when every horse
Had been taxed to the utmost the sport to serve;
And the veins raised like whip-cord beneath the fine skin,
With the white foam embossing each sweat-stained limb.
Then left in the cold, or a draught, till a shiver
Chilled the heart, and the ripple hung stiffen'd forever;
Thou art safe from this, pony; I'd rather thou'dst lie
Thus wringing my heart by thy lack-here eye,
Deaf, dead to my chirrup, unheeding my call,
Than a harsh or new master shou'd hold thee in thrall.
I have fed thee, and tended, and petted for years,
How well I have loved thee, be witness these tears;
A whip-stroke on thee stung thy mistress with pain,
Thy nervous start now will ne'er touch me again,
Nor thy quick-heaving flank, or the tremulous quiver
Of overtasked limbs at last resting forever:
And I fain would believe, when my turn comes to die
We shall meet again somewhere, my pony and I!

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now undertaken of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA, GLEET AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pains and distresses in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the mad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotiles, warranted the best preventive. Orders by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate cases yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all diseases of a private character of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston, to whom those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imagines he has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

Smoked Halibut

For sale by N. F. MATHES.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. Tin oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the stove are cooking for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds in families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been contrived, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

— A playful ruffian struck a policeman in Boston who was carrying off a drunken friend, over the head with a slung shot. Policeman No. 2 gave chase to the rascal and brought him down with a pistol ball. The policeman was comfortable on Friday morning, and the "rough" in a critical condition.

— A murderous assault was made on a saloon keeper named Fiske in Charlestown, Mass., by two brothers named Perley, because he refused to open his saloon and give them a drink. They knocked him down, jumped upon and kicked him in a horrible manner, broke his jaw and knocked some of his teeth out.

— A few days since a wild boar, with tusks measuring 7 1-2 inches, was killed in Cumberland county, N. J., and more are thought to be roaming the woods. This specimen weighed nearly 500 lbs., and was about 15 years old.

An impatient boy, waiting for his grist, said to the miller, "I could eat the meal as fast as that mill grinds it." "How long could you do so?" inquired the miller. "Till I starved to death!" was the sarcastic reply.

— Capt. T. S. Fuller of Deer Isle, Me., was robbed of nearly $7000 in money, on the night of the 2nd inst., while aboard the steamer Katahdin, on the passage from Boston to Rockland.

— The Waterbury Clock Company's case factory at Waterbury, Conn., was burned on Friday. Loss $20,000 to $25,000; insurance $12,500.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837,)
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE, than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, with his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on inventors rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1864.

☞ They have some very queer American news out in New Zealand; for instance these extracts we make from the Otago Daily Times of Sept. 16:

Whilst Lee was thus marching in triumph on Washington, success followed the Confederate arms in Georgia, where the Federal General Sherman was beaten by an inferior force under Johnstone. Disasters appear to have fallen thickly on the Federals, and to have awakened them at last to the insanity of attempting any longer to subjugate the South. * * * Meanwhile a change is rapidly coming over the mind of the Northern people; they are beginning to show disgust at the continuance of a struggle so hopeless, and so deadly. A very significant indication of the change in popular opinion is the deposition of the Western States to secede and form a Confederacy of their own, rather than continue to share in the war which is desolating and ruining the nation.

Perhaps the Western vote at the Presidential election will confirm the indication of the disposition to secede by that section.

SENSIBLE.—We are pleased to learn from a correspondent, that the young ladies of the Lexington (Mass.) High School have adopted the plan of wearing the gymnastic costume as their every day dress. It will be no experiment to them, as for some months past it has been worn by the lady patients of Dr. Dio Lewis's Movement Cure in that town, and also by the young ladies attending his seminary. For convenience, comfort, and common sense there is no other female dress to be compared to it, and we expect eventually to see it adopted all through the country from the example of those who have tested it while practicing the "New Gymnastics;" a reform which Mrs. Bloomer, Lucy Stone, Abby Kelly Foster, and other strong-minded woman might have preached till doomsday with but little effect. The Spanish women, than whom no nation of females are more graceful, have worn the short skirt for centuries.

☞ In Aroostook county, Me., resides a widow Bishop, who, at the time of the recent draft, had two sons liable to be drafted, at work at Tobique, in the Province of New Brunswick. When the draft was made, both sons were drafted. The widow immediately dispatched a third son, who was at home, to Tobique, to notify her sons there that they must come home. Their country had called for their services, and they must respond to the call. The sons returned home and reported themselves, and have joined the army. The widow only asked that one son might be left at home.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—Mrs. Sarah Vandegriff, who died in Trenton on the 30th of November, a few months short of the age of ninety-five, was one of the company of young maidens (then Miss Moore) who sang the ode of welcome to Washington when he passed through Trenton to New York, April 21, 1789. This estimable lady never lost the enthusiasm of that day, and within two weeks of her death recited with animation the song she had learned seventy-five years ago, in honor of the first President of the United States.

— The Oxford Democrat says that Francis Linnell of Otisfield, Me., an old bachelor 78 years of age, was committed to jail last Monday, charged with committing a rape upon a lady in Oxford, in July, 1863. An examination was commenced on Tuesday before Justice Hobbs, who required bail in the sum of $800 for the appearance of the prisoner the next day, which was forfeited.

— A noticeable feature of the Convention of tobacconists, at the Cooper Institute, a few days since, was that nearly all present, about two thousand, were smoking, doubtless from a patriotic desire to increase the revenues. A suggestion that gentlemen had better not smoke, as it might prove "offensive to sombody," brought down the house.

GOOD WALKING.—Mr. L. A. Maxcy, an old resident of our county, walked from Carson Valley, Nevada Territory, starting from the foot of the Amador grade, on the morning of the 6th of October, and arriving at his home in Alamo Valley on the afternoon of the 10th, a distance of one hundred and eighty-five miles in four and a half days. This we call good walking.—Contra Costa Gazette.

— The rebel Gen. Witcher has been on a raid in West Virginia, and says he destroyed three forts, two block houses, two steamboats, captured many prisoners, about 100 horses, 300 or 400 fine beef cattle, one piece of artillery, a large amount of stores, and brought out three or four companies of recruits, besides many absentees, and lost only two men.

— A Syrian doctor once called upon one of our missionaries, begging him for some paper. He gave him several copies of the New York Tribune. He took them home and boiled them and administered the contents to his patients with miraculous result. His gratitude for the paper was unbounded.

THE U. S. SANITARY COMMISSION.—A Special Appeal, says the Boston Transcript, is to be made in this and other communities in behalf of the Sanitary Commission; an appeal that should be liberally and promptly met. Mistakes incident to every new and great enterprise may have been made in the conduct of its affairs. Its field has been so immense and its agencies so numerous that a percentage of error and waste—the great wonder is that the percentage has been so very small—was unavoidable. This may properly enough be matter of friendly comment to insure corrections in the management of the details of the institution; but no one, unless actuated by unkind not to say hostile motives, would dream of urging it as the shadow of an argument against the value of the splendid organization. The Commission has survived, and will continue to survive ungenerous hypercriticism. Disingenuous and interested attacks have had and will have no effect upon those best acquainted with the Sanitary.

Our own commendation of it is given as the result of opportunities to know its worth. It is sheer ignorance to assert that the Government can or would do the peculiar work of the Sanitary; although that work can be and has been largely co-operative with Governmental action. A place has been found for special State Agencies, notwithstanding the arrangements of the War Department and the Medical Bureau. So the simple truth is that the military operations have been on a scale of such unprecedented magnitude, that a co-extensive demand is made for all the help that can be rendered to secure the comfort and efficiency of the army.

Notwithstanding all that has been accomplished, the unrelieved suffering has been large; and there is need of quickening rather than of relaxing the succoring efforts. It is easy to sit comfortably at home and doubt this fact. But those personally acquainted with the actual condition of things in and near the fields of battle, and at many of the hospitals know it to be a very serious fact. We believe our Government has done more for its soldiers than any other government was ever known to do; and probably it has done all that it could. And yet it has by no means answered the call for such care of the wounded, sick and destitute as the people would have bestowed upon their brave defenders. The Sanitary has nobly done its part in supplying the deficiency, and its presence and activity are as necessary now as ever.

There have been times and places not a few, when it was almost the sole dependence of the soldier, when its supplies were the only comforts obtainable, its tents the only shelters to be found. To go into details would only be to give a synopsis of its voluminous reports of its philanthropic operations. If any are skeptical as to its usefulness and efficiency we advise them to read of its doings in connection with the siege of Chattanooga at the West, and in the Wilderness in Virginia. These alone are enough to justify its claims to have its treasury replenished, that it may be saved from all fears of any interruption to its benign labors.

In this connection we venture to make what seems to us an important suggestion: Of late the Sanitary has been too dependent upon special and so to say spasmodic exertions for its benefit. These have been well enough under the circumstances. But the institution should be more steadily supported by contributions that can be calculated upon with certainty. In our judgment measures should be taken to provide for regular subscriptions in money or supplies. This might easily be done through the action of the local societies; and thus a system inaugurated to provide something like a definite income.

PROJECTILES VERSUS ARMOR-PLATES.—The Navy Ordnance Bureau claims to have settled a question which has excited a great deal of discussion in England and France—whether ships can be plated so as to resist the heaviest artillery. The annual report, which has just been sent to Congress, says the powers of the guns belonging to the navy, and in common use in the batteries of our ships, have been fairly tested against both solid and built-up plates, and the conclusion reached is wholly in favor of the guns and their solid projectiles—the spherical shot for smooth bores being, however, immeasurably superior to the elongated rifle shot in every form. That is to say, no manner or thickness of iron or steel armor that could be carried on the hulls of seagoing ships will resist the impact of solid spherical shot fired from the heaviest calibres of the navy, at close range, with appropriate charges of cannon powder. This result has been reached by the fabrication of simple globes of iron, solid throughout, a thing heretofore considered impossible with large spherical shot. It is now known, beyond any question, that it is easy to cast a 15-inch or 20-inch shot which will be perfectly sound and solid from circumference to centre of figure, and one of the former has resisted, without breaking, 222 continuous blows of an eight-ton steam hammer. This being decided, the solution of the remaining elements of the problem of guns versus armor is of easy process; for, thanks to the skill of our artisans, the cannon required to hurl these compact masses of iron with the high velocities due to the heavy charges of powder, are readily obtained.

— An importation of fresh grown grapes from New York is noted as an experiment in London.

— General Tom Thumb, wife and suite, had been received at the Marlboro' House by the Prince and Princess of Wales.

— Applications for pensions are now presented at the rate of five thousand per month, and the rate is constantly increasing.

THE REBELLION.

The exchange of prisoners by Col. Mulford has been changed from Savannah to Charleston, on account of having been interrupted at the former city by Gens. Foster and Sherman. During the exchange the bombardment of Charleston will be discontinued.

The Richmond Dispatch of the 9th says information reached there the previous day that a force from Grant's army had struck the Petersburg and Weldon R. R., at Jarrett's, 32 miles south of Petersburg, and were proceeding toward Weldon. It was a heavy column consisting of infantry, artillery, and cavalry, leaving our front at Petersburg on Tuesday night, moving down the Jerusalem road, and reported on Wednesday morning at Proctor's Mill, 20 miles south of Petersburg. Since that time they were not heard from until the morning of the 8th. This column of the enemy is said to consist chiefly of infantry, from which it is inferred to be simply a raiding party, similar to that one which visited Stony Creek last week, and that it is not prepared for a protracted and extensive expedition.

Gen. Thomas telegraphs to Washington on Saturday that nothing could move about Nashville without slipping up.

On 9th inst., the rebels under Lyon captured the Goverment steamer Thomas E. Tutt at Cumberland city on Cumberland river, 20 miles above Fort Donelson. The Tutt was used for crossing the river. The rebels are on the march into Kentucky. The force is estimated at 4000. The Tutt was loaded with Government forage, and was burned to the water's edge after the rebels had crossed the river.

Considerable excitement existed at Memphis on the 9th inst., over a report that Beauregard was marching on Fort Pillow, near that city, with a strong force. No heavy guns are supposed to be used by the rebels to blockade the Cumberland river. Osceola has been occupied by a small force of rebels.

A hundred and fifty negro soldiers were entrapped into crossing the river at Memphis by a small force of rebels, who fled and led them into an ambuscade, when nearly all of them were killed.

☞ Nearly every one is familiar with the item (true or false we know not,) which has gone the rounds of the press to the effect that seventy five substitute recruits to one of our regiments deserted to the enemy on the first night of their arrival at the front, and that a rebel officer sent next morning a request for the colors, as he was "having great success in recruiting the First New Hampshire Rebel Regiment." But a few weeks since a large number of naval recruits from this station made their escape from the guard while being marched through Charlestown to the receiving ship Ohio, and on Sunday last an escapade of substitutes took place in Boston from a lot of 111 who reached that city on Saturday noon from Concord, N. H. We find the following particulars in the Herald:

Owing to the violence of the storm, no boat went to Galloupe Island in the afternoon, and the recruits were marched under a guard to Beach street barracks, where they were to be kept until Sunday, when they would be taken down the harbor. Near the barracks, several became disorderly and made a strong effort to break ranks and escape. They were finally marched into the barracks, taken to the upper story and quartered in what was once the auditorium of the old Beach street Theatre—this being deemed the most secure place. About half-past 1 o'clock on Sunday morning, a sergeant of the guard, who occupied a room on the same floor with the recruits, discovered smoke in his apartment. He gave the alarm, and the fire was extinguished with a pail or two of coffee, judiciously applied. An investigation of the affair showed, beyond all doubt, that the fire was caused by the recruits. The rascals had cut a hole through the floor of the room in which they were confined, with the apparent intention of letting themselves through to the floor beneath, as some of them actually did. One, less fortunate, fell through and broke his leg by collision with the floor beneath. The recruits had torn their blankets into strips, and manufactured them into several long ropes. With the aid of these several of the men let themselves out of the windows upon the roof of a stable on the South street side, and thence to the ground, and escaped. A misfortune also befel one of the number here. He fell and was so disabled as to render escape impossible, even without the intervention of the guard, who subsequently found and secured him. In these ways quite a number escaped, as only 80, out of the 111, could be found for transportation to Galloupe's Island yesterday. Whether the stampede occurred before or during the confusion incident to the alarm of fire, is uncertain, but it is probable that the majority escaped before.

The scheme for firing the building was well planned. A hole was made in the floor, and combustibles were put under it, among the timbers and the lathes of the ceiling below. This body of recruits was evidently composed of a desperate class of men. The officer who gave the alarm of fire, being in a room separated only by a thin partition from that in which the recruits were confined, overheard some of their conversation, and learned that they were from all parts of the country, and some even stated that they were deserters from the rebel service, and that they made "bounty hopping" their profession now-a-days.

The Greatest Story of Modern Times!

There is now in course of publication in the columns of the

New York Weekly,

an original and thrilling romance called

SYRIA, THE JEWESS,

—OR—

THE MAGICIAN OF TOLEDO.

From the pen of the renowned romancer,

LOUIS LEON,

Whose powerful romances, "THE SILVER SHIP," and "THE STEP-DAUGHTER'S PORTION," so electrified the reading world while running through the columns of

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY,

Now universally admitted to be the most perfect family literary journal in the world.

We do not hesitate to say that "SYRIA THE JEWESS" IS THE GREATEST STORY OF MODERN TIMES!

Its plot is so complicated and thrilling as to hold the reader spell-bound, and it is worked up with a skill and power which is absolutely wonderful. Nobody can arise from the perusal of this great story without feeling that it was the work of no common mind, and without regretting that it ended so soon. Everybody should read it, for while it is undoubtedly sensational, it is at the same time strictly moral in tone and in the lesson which it teaches.

HAILE'S

Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these five other ingredients each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired result but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "DYE," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all dandruff, heal, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy, and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

Local.

Geo. W. Curtis, Esq., of New York, gives the Fourth Lyceum Lecture this Tuesday evening—the mere announcement of which will cause every ticket-holder to desire to be present; and also others, strangers in the city, and so forth,—who will see by the advertisement that a few such may be accommodated. We learn that the stage will be cleared this evening, and the Band placed thereon; and the ushers will use all endeavors to seat every attendant—which can easily be done, with room to spare, if the "well-bred" among the audience will themselves see that there is no waste room among them. The remaining season tickets are now offered at $1.50.

An order received from the Secretary of the Navy on the 5th inst., directs that no small boats or skiffs can land at the Navy Yard on and after the 15th inst., which, if carried into effect, will oblige the workmen to land at Kittery Foreside, and reach the Yard by passing through the Navy Yard gate. This is evidently the design of the innovation, in order to lessen the number of avenues leading from the Yard, that thieves can more readily be detected. There are, however, some difficulties in the way of the proposed arrangement.

For example, let there be but one passway from the Yard, and that be by the Navy Yard Bridge, so called; and the result would be that 300 or 400 persons would be passing through the gate at once; whereas under the present arrangement no more than 20 pass at one time, which renders the detection of a thief comparatively easy.

Again, in case of fire on the Yard in the night, as no small boats are allowed to land, no assistance could be rendered, save by landing in Kittery, or taking the highway around, via Portsmouth Bridge.

And in mid-winter it will be impracticable for boats to land even at the Kittery wharves, as the back river, and, in fact, the whole expanse of water from the Franklin ship house to the Vandalia is one sheet of ice, frozen to such a thickness as to render it absolutely futile for a small skiff or boat to attempt to get through it. Last winter, which was not unusually cold, the river in the area referred to, was frozen up for weeks.

We trust some means may be devised by which the working men may be spared unnecessary inconvenience, and at the same time the interests of the Government be secured. There is much complaint in regard to the matter, and it has become of such importance, that one or two prominent officials have written to the Navy Department to learn the cause of such an order.

AMERICAN SPOOL COTTON.—The Commercial Bulletin well says:

The Portsmouth factory, formerly celebrated for their lawns, have for a year past had in the market a very superior six cord, soft finish Spool Cotton, and they gave about a thousand boxes of it to the Sanitary Fairs last winter. The Portsmouth company make not only white in all No's from 8 to 150, but 23 different shades and colors, from the sober drab to the brilliant magenta. Until the falling off of business, a few weeks ago, the demand for their threads was beyond the production, although the mill has turned out 25,000 dozen a week. The greatest care is taken in quality and measure—an important desideratum—the daily trial measurements showing an average of 205 yards. The names of Mr. Samuel Webber, long connected with the Manchester Print Works and now agent of the Portsmouth factory, and of Messrs. Chas. Amory & Co. as agents, are a guarantee that the quality and reputation of the thread will be fully maintained and equal to any in the market.

We notice that the Portsmouth correspondent of the Manchester Mirror states that the little steamer Emerald "runs regularly" to and from the Yard. This is so to a certain extent; that is, she runs regularly once in a while. She was evidently never designed by the builders, for a ferry-boat, but to be used as a little pleasure craft on some back bay or river where she would encounter no sea. As such she would answer finely, but in our opinion she won't be worth much on this river as a transportation craft.

NAVAL.—Carpenter Joseph G. Myers, recently detached from Portsmouth Navy Yard, has been ordered to the Colorado.

The order assigning Carpenter Wm. F. Laighton to the Hartford has been revoked, and he is awaiting orders.

Acting First Ass't Engineer F. A. Bremon has been ordered to medical survey at this naval station.

WRECK.—The schooner New York, of about 72 tons burthen, bound from Ellsworth, Me., to York, with a cargo of spars and lumber, was cast ashore on Gerrish Island on Sunday about 5 o'clock. The crew escaped in their boat and managed to make a landing in a cove not far from the scene of disaster. The schooner broke up into splinters in less than half an hour after she struck, and the cargo scattered to the winds and waves. Some portion of the latter may be saved.

The pilot boat Dragonet, 60 tons, of this port, has been sold to Capt. Benjamin Barker, of New Bedford, for $5600.

Capt. Hussey, formerly of the 69th N. Y. Regt., which won a world-wide fame under Col. Corcoran,—will lecture on Prison Life, at the Temple, next Sunday evening, Dec. 18th. Capt. H. was twice a prisoner—taken at Bull Run and at Antietam, and has been in rebel hands over sixteen months. His recital is said to be deeply interesting.

SOLD—Several of our citizens who hastened to Spring Market the other day on being told that turkeys were selling there for 12 and 13 cents per pound, and came back with the information that they had risen to 25 cents per pound.

The Salem Gazette mentions a foot race which came off in that city not long since, in presence of a large number of spectators; between John Seaver of Portsmouth, and a young man named Carroll, of Salem. "The distance to run was 300 yards in the quickest time. Both started well in the contest. Seaver performed his part in good style; but his competitor, at about half the distance, gave up." We also learn that Seaver won a mile heat there.

Sch. Harp, of Gloucester, 22 73-95ths tons burthen, built at Salisbury in 1846, has been sold to Mr. Nathan Spinney, Jr., of Eliot, Me., for $500.

—— Probate Court in Exeter on Wednesday, Dec. 14.

THE REBELLION.

Richmond papers of the 10th state that on the 7th inst. Sherman was east of the Ogeechee river, 25 miles from Savannah, marching on that city. On the 6th Adm. Dahlgren landed under Gen. Foster, had a short fight, burned Pocotaligo bridge and cut the railroad bridge. Foster's scouts have communicated with Sherman. Dahlgren went up with seven gunboats into Tellifanny Creek, and came down on the evening of the 7th.

Matters are assuming a better shape all along the Mississippi.

—The Georgia papers report the destruction by Sherman of Emory College, at Oxford, in that State. It belonged to the Methodist denomination, and cost, with its extensive cabinets and libraries, half a million dollars.

— The Macon (Ga.) Telegraph of Nov. 28 says: "We noticed on the street yesterday a one-horse wagon, containing exactly six sticks of pine wood, for which the modest sum of thirty dollars was demanded."

— New Orleans advices of the 5th state that Gen. Canby had recovered sufficiently to move about on crutches. Semmes was crippled in the left hand during the engagement with the Kearsarge, and goes to Richmond to stand a trial for the loss of the Alabama.

— The Catholic institution known as the "Ecclesiastical Seminary of Our Lady of Angels," at Suspension Bridge, was totally destroyed by fire on Monday afternoon. Loss about $100,000. One man was buried in the ruins.

—— Major J. L. Gibb, one of the proprietors of the Crawford House, and extensively known as the popular landlord of that house for several years past, died at his residence in Littleton on Sunday, 11th inst.

— The steamer Maria exploded six miles from St. Louis on Sunday morning. It is reported 25 men were killed and 30 wounded. The boat, worth $40,000, is a total loss, as also 187 horses, and all the baggage of the soldiers that were on board.

— The schooner Zion, probably from Rockland, went ashore on Nahant Beach, Saturday, and all on board perished.

— Attorney General Speedo was confirmed on Monday.

Why doesn't a fat dog meditate? Because he's not a thin cur.

SAVE YOUR FUEL!

THE MODEL COOK.

IS, IN FACT,

The Best Stove Out,

for economy, convenience and dispatch.

Many people think it best to use an old stove as long as possible, but it is far better to throw it away and purchase a MODEL COOK, than to keep it at the present high price of fuel.

One of our shrewdest citizens who purchased a MODEL COOK STOVE a year since, says he has saved more than its cost already.

A careful, prudent farmer purchased one, and after it had been in operation some days his son came into the store and said, "something was wrong at their house;" his father and himself used wood off the same pile, he burned three baskets full a day, and his father only one! We sold him a Stove before he left, and there has been no complaint since.

These Stoves are in use in many hotels and boarding houses, and in hundreds of private families in this city and vicinity, and give the best of satisfaction.

N. B.—The sick and afflicted will do well to give him a call. A short consultation will cost you nothing, but a word of friendly advice may save you years of suffering.

P. S.—Ladies who wish to stay in the city under my care a few days, can be furnished with kind nurses. Charges moderate.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting to the community with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND GLEET.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating marriage, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all Disease incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are All treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most delicate constitutions yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of females and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

to the list of choice goods enumerated below, which are constantly on hand in large quantities.

made from Wheat, Rye and Corn, warranted for five years old. Put up in unique style, each bottle in a paper box, in cases of one dozen each, the large and increasing sale of which convinces the proprietor that no extended advertisement is needed to extol its real merits. It will recommend itself on trial.

Golden Sheaf Cordial.

A delightful and healthful beverage, aromatic, with a rich ginger cordial, made from the pure Golden Sheaf Bourbon.

Golden Sheaf Bitters.

The best Tonic Bitter ever offered to the public. Mingled with the rich flavor of the Bourbon are a number of other ingredients for restoring the appetite and imparting life and vigor to the whole system.

Golden Sheaf Punch.

Made from fresh, ripe lemons, and other articles, combined as a whole into a fine rich

Bourbon Whiskey Punch.

All the above put up full strength of the whiskey, and in cases of one dozen each. These articles improve by age, and no exposure of climate can affect them.

Smoked Halibut
For sale by N. F. MATHES.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely done away with, as it is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air will come in contact with the fire-pots in used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fine or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the proportion of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in stock the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

CERTAIN AND SAFE.

They cure or obviate those numerous diseases that spring from irregularity, by removing the irregularity itself.

They cure Suppressed, Excessive and Painful Menstruation.

They cure Nervous and Spinal Affections, pains in the back and lower parts of the body, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysteria, Sick Headache, Giddiness, &c., &c. In a word, by removing the irregularity, they remove the cause and with it ALL the effects that spring from it.

Composed of simple vegetable extracts, they contain nothing deleterious to any constitution, however delicate, their function being to substitute strength for weakness, which, when properly used, they never fail to do.

They may be safely used at any age and at any period, except during the first three months, during which the unfailing nature of their action would infallibly prevent pregnancy.

The Cherokee Pills & Rejuvenating Elixir,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these: those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Postoffice, County, State and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

FRANCE AND AMERICA — The extent of intoxication by brandy, and its constant increase, are beginning to rouse the attention of our medical world. France, brilliant as Paris may be, is seriously affected by three causes which are sensibly deteriorating her population. Her greatest curse is her army, which by annually sweeping 100,000 of the flower of her youth into the army—50,000 of whom never return home valid men—makes her weaker children the father of the next generation. The barrenness of marriage is her next curse; no parents have more than two children, the majority have only one child. Alcohol is another curse.

It is to America that eyes are turned with great apprehension. It is felt in Europe that the last four years of war have in a great measure undone the labors of temperance advocates who had worked in that cause these fifty years gone. Life in camps, the anxieties consequent upon those political and financial throes which must ensure after the war ends, it is believed, must add to the increased rate of consumption of ardent spirits which is now taking place every-where. It is believed that the great disproportion between males and females which has for some years been noticed in the New England States, will add to this increased consumption of ardent spirits by an increase of various vices, and that for years to come the New England population will tend to deteriorate.—Paris Cor. Bos. Gaz.

— Naturalists have remarked that the squirrel is continually chatting to his fellow squirrels in the woods. This, we have every reason to suppose, arises from the animal's love of gossip, as he is notoriously one of the greatest tail bearers among his tribe.

— The Springfield Republican says the present high price of paper is brought practically before the customers of a certain store in that city by the price per pound for crackers—two cents cheaper to persons who bring baskets or the paper to wrap them in.

— The propeller "Mineral Rock" brought to Detroit, on her last trip, from Eagle Harbor, nine masses of copper weighing respectively as follows: 14,353; 16,555; 15,380; 16,150; 12,750; 12,235; 13,570; 14,470; 19,456. This is the largest cargo of masses ever brought from the Upper Lakes.

— Mr. D. J. Wetmore of St. George, N. B., went into a saw-mill one day last week and tripped and fell against a circular saw. Before assistance could reach him, the saw passed through the spinal column, killing him instantly.

A VALUABLE ALBUM.—Rev. J. Milton Holmes, pastor of the Congregational Church York street, Jersey City, has been presented with an elegant album, in which was arranged on the leaves one thousand dollars in ten dollar greenbacks.

— The editor of the Bellows Falls Times acknowledges the receipt of a pair of fine chickens from a subscriber, who said that as he had paid for his paper before the great advance in printers' materials, he guessed it was no more than due.

— The Rokomeka Co., at Livermore Falls, Me., condenses 1000 gallons of milk per day. They also condense cider. The tin cans to contain the prepared articles are made by women, fifty of whom will be required for this branch alone.

— American ingenuity is appreciated abroad. By our New Zealand files we see that the wardens in some of the jails there have been armed with Colt's revolving rifle as an additional security against escape or revolt on the part of the convicts.

— A big cake was made on Thanksgiving day, in New York. It was ten feet long, 22 inches wide, and 15 inches thick. It took 100 eggs, 125 pounds of sugar, 175 pounds of flour, and 80 pounds of butter to make it.

— The Cairo Democrat tells a story of a seedy gentleman traveling over a railroad line by virtue of a free pass. The conductor, when asked who he was, replied: "Oh, he's only one of those Eastern conductors trying to live on his salary."

— The Sultan of Turkey has prohibited the Circassian slave trade, firmans having recently been issued absolutely abolishing the trade, and forbidding the further purchase or sale of slaves of either sex.

— A big cheese has been shipped from California for the use of the army. Its weight is 3,930 lbs. It was made from the milk of 600 cows, given at seven milkings, and is nearly six feet in diameter.

— The Cambria Iron works at Johns town, Pa., give employment to about two thousand five hundred workmen, and turn out an average of over eight hundred tons of railroad iron per week.

— "Overtipulation" is the last way of writing to convey the idea of drunkenness.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1864.

THE REBELLION.

The demonstration made in the Army of the Potomac towards Hatcher's Run, on the 9th, was for the purpose of preventing the enemy from sending a force to intercept Warren, who is operating south of Petersburg. Nothing positive has yet been heard from Warren. Rumor has it that he had a fight at Jarrett's Station on the Weldon Railroad in which he gained a victory and was pressing the enemy.

On Tuesday and Wednesday of last week, the rebels under Gens. Bates and Forrest demonstrated against the fort at Murfreesboro' and the town, coming up within one mile of the fort and skirmishing heavily. Seven regiments and a battery were sent out on the Salem pike, where they encountered the rebels near Williamson's pike entrenched behind breastworks of logs and rails, attacked and utterly routed them, Forrest's cavalry making a race against time in their hurry to escape. Our loss was 30 killed and 175 wounded. We captured 207 prisoners, including 18 officers, two guns and 12 Napoleons. Just previous to Gen. Milroy's attack on the rebels Buford's division of cavalry attacked Murfreesboro' and entered the town, shelling it fiercely, and destroying many houses. Gen. Rousseau with one regiment of infantry and artillery drove them out of the town.

The rebel Gen. Lyon crossed the Cumberland river with his command, about 2500 strong, Saturday, 20 miles below Clarksville. When last heard from he was threatening Hopkinsville, Ky.

Breckinridge is said to be at Sparta, Tenn., with about 10,000 men. Facts indicate that he intends to reinforce Hood, but the position of our troops indicates that that he will have some difficulty in so doing.

The rebels at last dates estimated Sherman's force at 20,000 muskets and say that a most enormous wagon train accompanied the army.

Fights between Kilpatrick and Wheeler on the 3d, 4th and 5th insts., are reported, in two of which the rebels acknowledge they were compelled to retire. In one of them they claim that Kilpatrick was wounded.

On the 6th Sherman is reported to have been 25 miles from Savannah.

Gen. Warren has returned from his advance toward Weldon, having accomplished the object of his expedition, and dealt a serious blow to the enemy. Fifteen miles of railroad which they were using extensively was destroyed.

A force of colored troops have secured a foot-hold across the James river, near Cox's Landing, which protects the head of Dutch Gap Canal from sharpshooters.

It is reported that a large Federal force had landed at Pensacola and is marching on Pollard, Ala.

DIFFERENT COMMENTS.—Two papers of the Copperhead variety are now open before us, one from New Jersey and the other from Maine. Both of them make nearly the same extracts from Secretary Seward's letter in reply to Lord Wharncliffe's Anglo-rebel document. Both contain this paragraph:

Nor will any portion of the American people be disposed to regard the sum thus offered for the relief of captured insurgents as too generous an equivalent for the devastation and desolation which a civil war, provoked and protracted by British subjects, have spread throughout the States which before were eminently prosperous and happy.

The New Jersey paper annexes this comment:

Secretary Seward is evidently in very bad temper from some cause. But whatever may be the cause, the usually genial Secretary is evidently in bad humor, and the British sympathizers have to catch it.

Per contra, the Maine paper says:

Good! That has the right ring, and can hardly fail of being understood by English politicians of the Lord Wharncliffe school. For once, at least, our country has returned a response to one of those insulting meddling interferences of the British aristocracy that will receive a cordial endorsement from every true American; we allude to Mr. Seward's bold manly reply to Lord Wharncliffe's request.

☞ A gentleman and lady who gave the names of "Mr. and Mrs. Sewall," have been boarding at hotels in Webster, Oxford, Southbridge, Bromfield and Ware, for a year or two, and it has been something of a mystery who they were, and where the money to pay their board came from. It turns out that the lady had a husband in the army who sent her regularly $75 per month, thus furnishing means for the support of herself and paramour. The man has a wife and two children in Lynn. The husband of the lady has lately returned from the war and is making investigation.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

— The first visit to the White Mountains was made early in the summer of 1642.

— Quite a business is being done at the Provost Marshal's office at West Lebanon, and a crowd of substitutes is sent into Concord nearly every day.

— Gov. Gilmore, Adjt. Gen. Head, Col. W. E. Chandler, Col. Geo. H. Hutchins, and Rev. J. H. Gilmore, have gone to visit the army.

— A great deal of complaint is being made in Manchester of the high price and poor quality of gas, and many of the traders are putting in lamps to light their stores by kerosene, which it is thought will cost about half as much as gas.

— A fire police has been organized in Concord. There was a fire police organized here a number of years since, but it never went into active operation, as the city fathers of that day could not sanction the extravagance of furnishing the members with badges.

— On Thursday last, the 8th inst., Mr. Wm. Jenkins of Deerfield, while at work in a sawmill, met with an accident which caused his death. He was found in the mill in a dying condition, and it was evident that he had been caught by the machinery in some manner and fatally injured. He was about 40 years of age and leaves a widow and several children.

— Up Laconia way the robbers are getting quite bold. After their being frightened away from the bank on the morning of the 4th, their next raid was upon the wool department of S. W. Sander's store, on Tuesday night last, about 12 o'clock. They deliberately broke open the doors, bagged up the wool, sewed up the bags, and loaded it into a wagon, and left with it. The amount taken was between 400 and 500 pounds, valued at $100 or more. Nothing has been heard of them since their depredations.

— The Monitor says William S. Huntington, Esq., cashier of the First National Bank, Washington, D. C., did a pleasant and patriotic thing in connection with the dinner to New Hampshire soldiers. The Governor had telegraphed to Hon. Larkin D. Mason, State Agent, to provide the dinner, but of course was unable to put him in immediate possession of the necessary funds. Mr. Huntington upon being made acquainted with the facts proposed to cash, as he afterwards did, the drafts of the Military Agent upon the Governor, payable ten days after sight without discount, remarking that he would take that amount of stock in the soldiers' dinner. Mr. Huntington's liberality is equalled only by his good sense in marrying a New Hampshire lady—a worthy and estimable personage from Upper Gilmanton.

☞ The writer of a scientific article in the Paris Patrie relates a singular instance of prolonged lethargy. A farm servant at Rouen, who was about to marry, learned suddenly that his intended bride, with whom he was passionately in love, had deceived him, and was on the point of becoming the wife of another. The young man, although of an excitable nature, betrayed no sign of impatience, but yawned, stretched himself, and then complained of a heaviness in the head and a feeling of drowsiness. He went to bed and fell asleep; but the next day it was found that he could not be awakened. Efforts to arouse him were made continually for a week, but with no better success. He was then removed to the hospital, where he remained four months without giving any other tokens of life than an occasional convulsive movement of the eyes. An attempt was made to make him swallow a little wine and broth, but the process of deglutition did not take place, and the liquids flowed from his mouth. At the expiration of the above-mentioned period he awoke, and manifested his surprise at finding himself in a hospital, and could scarcely believe that he had slept more than a few hours. The alarming leanness to which he had been reduced soon disappeared; he recovered his previous strength, and shortly afterwards consoled himself for his faithless sweetheart by marrying another.

MODESTY REWARDED.—Rev. Mr. Burnham of Manchester, Ct., recently enlisted in the army as a private, and was sent to the rendezvous at New Haven. Next morning after his arrival he was summoned before the commanding officer of the post, and addressed: "Mr. Burnham, I see by your name here" (referring to the list) that you are a reverend. About a dozen reverends have enlisted and come here; and as you are the first one who has stayed over night without asking for a Chaplaincy, I guess we'll make you Chaplain. So they made him Chaplain of the post.

☞ We call attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. George Munroe & Co. of New York—Their Ten Cent works are written by authors of eminence and contain nothing that is offensive, in a moral sense—but are instructive and amusing.

COSTLY POLITICAL FAITH.—There lives in Merrimack County a farmer of the modern Democratic faith who put such implicit confidence in the assertions of "his paper" that he thought McClellan would surely be elected, that peace would certainly follow, gold fall to par, and everything go back to the old standard of prices. He consequently conceived the brilliant idea of converting his stock, hay, &c., into greenbacks, which would soon buy gold, dollar for dollar. Such was his eagerness to sell that he got for his stock only about eighty per cent. of its value.

While he was finding a purchaser for his hay, election came, after which "his paper" told him greenbacks would be would be worthless; so he hastened to buy the same amount of stock he had sold, paying therefor one hundred and seventy dollars more than he had received.

Soon the paper came again, assuring him that Lincoln had adopted McClellan's policy, and that peace was to be the result.—Again our farmer sold his cattle and so hastily that he got ninety per cent. of their worth only, so fearful was he lest peace should come and find him without a pocket full of greenbacks.

But alas for human calculations! The paper came again, and again it said that Old Abe would surely ruin the country, not having wisdom enough to save it on McClellan's plan. Our farmer was in trouble; but finally concluded to once more rid himself of his greenbacks, which he did by purchasing another flock of cattle and sheep, which he finally did with an expense of a little over eighty dollars in addition to what he received the last time he sold.

Thus he has at present the same stock he had previous to election, and is two hundred and fifty dollars out of pocket, on account of the faith he put in his paper. The Democrats are noted for credulity, but we challenge the country to procure the equal of this man.—Manchester Mirror.

— In the U. S. Senate, Monday, petitions were received as follows: From the Western Associated Press, for a reduction in the duty on paper; from Gen. Weitzel and 470 officers of the 18th Army Corps, for increase of pay; from Col. Higginson, for an amendment to the act limiting the increase of pay to certain colored soldiers.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,
WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 19, 1864.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until 1 o'clock P. M. on Thursday, the 29th day of December, 1864, for supplying the Light-house Establishment with thirty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained lard oil, and twenty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter-strained sperm oil, to be divided into four lots, and to be delivered at the times undermentioned, alongside of the government supply vessels, or at the warehouse or other place of deposit, to be designated by the Inspecting Officer or other authorized agent of the Light house Bureau, in strong, tight, iron-bound, well made casks, suitable for shipping, in good order, of a capacity, each, of from fifty to eighty gallons, not to exceed the latter. The lard oil may be delivered at Boston or New York.

Either lot of sperm oil, or both of them, may be delivered at New York, New London, Sag Harbor, Boston, New Bedford, Edgartown, or Nantucket, at the option of the bidders. The place of delivery must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be embraced in the contracts.

The four lots will be delivered as follows, viz:

Lot No. 1. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 5th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 2. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 15th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 3. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 1st day of June, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 4. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 1st day of August, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

No bid will be considered unless from a manufacturer of articles.

No part of the oil proposed for and to be embraced in the contracts under the head of this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, unless it shall have been proved to the entire satisfaction of the person or persons charged with its examination, test, and inspection, to be of the best quality pure winter strained or bleached oil, and free from mixture with other or inferior oils and adulterations.

The same means as for determining the character and quality of the sperm oil will be employed, viz: specific gravity, burning, the amount of residuum, and any other proper tests to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.

The lard oil will be subjected to special tests, and will be rejected unless found to be, in regard to burning quality and fluidity, under reduced temperature, and in every other respect, equal to that of the standard adopted by the Board, of which notice will be furnished, on application to the Light-house Engineer at Boston, Mass.

The casks must be gauged under the direction and personal supervision of the inspecting officer, by a custom-house or other legally authorized and sworn gauger, according to the United States standard, and must be marked and accepted before they are removed from the place of the warehouse of the contractor. The temperature of the oil will be accurately noted, and the measurement reduced to the standard temperature of 60° Farenheit by tables prepared for the purpose.

Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of the lots, at the option of the bidder; but no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified as one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bid must state explicitly the rate per gallon, in writing, the number of the lot or lots bid for, and the time and place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.

Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will not be considered.

The Light-house Board, under the authority of the Department, reserves the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other considerations than the price.

No bid will be considered for any other kind or description of oil than those specially called for in this advertisement.

A bond, with security to the satisfaction of the Department, in a penalty equal to one-fourth of the amount of each contract made under these proposals, will be required of each contractor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, to be executed ten days after the acceptance of the bid.

Each offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and known to the department as such, or certified by a United States district judge, attorney, navy agent, or collector of the customs, to the effect that, if the bid be accepted, the bidder will duly execute a contract in good faith, according to the provisions and terms of this advertisement, within ten days after acceptance; and that in case the said party offering shall fail to enter into the contract as aforesaid, he or they guaranty to make good the difference between the offer of the said party and the next lowest bidder. All bids must be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for oil for light houses," and then placed in another envelope, and directed, prepaid, to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington City.

All bids will be opened, publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.

Payments will be made for the several lots of oil within thirty days after they shall have been received by the United States.

BY ORDER OF THE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD:

d14-31aw2w Secretary.

Munro's Ten Cent Novels

RESEMBLE THE SUN,

In that they totally eclipse all the lesser luminaries.

This is only what the publishers intended from the beginning that they should do. They have engaged all the best talent in this field of literature, and pay the highest prices to their authors. As a natural consequence, their books have received an unexampled popularity. They never get up crude, unsuitable books, and are, therefore, not under the disagreeable necessity of crowding them—unordered—upon good-natured dealers. Their motto always has been, "Merit will assert itself in spite of all opposition," as the following list of novels will abundantly testify:

No 1. The Hunters
2. The Trapper's Retreat.

The Greatest Story of Modern Times!

There is now in course of publication in the columns of the

New York Weekly,

an original and thrilling romance called

SYRIA, THE JEWESS,

—OR—

THE MAGICIAN OF TOLEDO.

From the pen of the renowned romancer,

LOUIS LEON,

Whose powerful romances, "THE SILVER SHIP," and "THE STEP-MOTHER'S POISON," so electrified the reading world while running through the columns of

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY,

Now universally admitted to be the most perfect family literary journal in the world.

We do not hesitate to say that "SYRIA THE JEWESS" IS THE GREATEST STORY OF MODERN TIMES!

Its plot is so complicated and thrilling as to hold the reader spell bound, and it is worked up with a skill and power which is absolutely wonderful. Nobody can arise from the perusal of this great story without feeling that it was the work of no common mind, and without regretting that it ended so soon. Everybody should read it, for while it is undoubtedly sensational, it is at the same time strictly moral in tone and in the lesson which it teaches.

HALE'S

Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these five other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the overy public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "Dye," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the roots or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all scurf, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

☞ Among the last publications of L. Prang & Co., the excellent lithographers, 159 Washington street, Boston, is the well known and most interesting story of "A Visit from St. Nicholas." The book contains twelve new illustrations, bright as life, and is made to extend, so that the whole can be seen at a glance, or, when closed, page by page examined. The version is the time-honored one—old but always good.

They also publish the popular juveniles of "Robinson Crusoe" and "Red Riding-Hood," as well as "Children of the Bible," the latter among their more recent album pictures. For framing, they have just published two plates of "Large Autumn Leaves," 13 x 16, which which will retail rapidly at 75 cents each.

POVERTY IN FRANCE.—It is computed that there are a million of beggars and vagabonds in France. In a recent work Hugo says there are thirteen hundred thousand peasants' cottages that have but three openings; eighteen hundred and seventeen thousand that have that two—the door and one window; and finally, three hundred and forty-six thousand cabins, with only one opening—the door. And this in consequence of what is called the excuse upon doors and windows. In these poor families, among the aged women and little children, dwelling in these huts, how abundant is fever and disease! In Asere, in Var, and in the Upper and Lower Alps, the peasants have not even wheelbarrows; they carry the manure on their backs; they have no candles, but burn pine knots and bits of rope soaked in pitch. And the same is the case all through the upper part of Dauphine.

THE FAITHLESS PHYSICIAN.—On Saturday the eighth day of October, 1864, a rich man was taken to his grave from the city of New York, where, by a life of industry, temperence, economy, and the exercise of a sound judgment, he had acquired a large estate; not suddenly, but in the progress of thirty years. From an obscure cause, he became a great sufferer from general neuralgia. A physician was called, but in the progress of weeks, did not afford the invalid that speedy and decided relief, which he and his friends so much desired. He wanted more potential remedies, and was not willing to submit to those restraints to system and rule in living, which the experience of years had taught his medical attendant were of the highest value ultimately. Another physician was called in, who advised a different course of procedure. He said the man needed strength and flesh and vigor; that these could only be secured by a generous diet and a liberal allowance of stimulants at every meal. Roast beef and the best brandy were regularly provided: the neuralgia was steadily abating and a speedy restoration was looked for. Still, days passed on, and gentlemen calling at his counting house were informed that, the head of the firm was "out of town." This answered very well for a while, but a gentleman who had large business engagements with the invalid, found it absolutely necessary to save a ruinous loss, to have a personal interview; after a variety of obstacles were overcome the rich man was found at his own home in the city, the victim of the most fearful form of Delirium Tremens. Brandy had given relief; but it was soon found that unless it was administered more frequently, and in larger quantities the pains would return, hence there was an unbridled indulgence in the remedy, the result being, that in a few weeks, it was found necessary to keep the patient always under the influence of liquor, that is, always drunk. At length however, the outraged stomach refused to retain the fiery stimulant a single moment, while for want of it a raving delirium sat in, ending in unconsciousness and death, before the business could be consummated by his intelligent signature. Here was a man who temperate all his life, had died a drunkard's death as the result of an unwise medical prescription, the fashionable and almost universal prescription of a certain class of so called "Doctors," of "Bourbon Whiskey;" and there are thousands of deluded persons of every age and sex, especially in New England, on the same road to ruin. A few years ago, cod liver oil was given for everything; now it is Brandy. Shame on the medical colleges of the land, which send out annually so many incompetent and unprincipled graduates.—Hall's Journal of Health.

— The municipal elections in Massachusetts on Monday were very quiet, and the vote polled light. Republican candidates were successful in nearly all cases. In Charlestown local interest prevented the re-election of the present Mayor, and in Lynn—the issue being mainly on the removal of the Eastern Railroad Depot—Neal received for Mayor 1049 votes, and Usher 811. This settles the question—the people of Lynn want the depot to remain where it now stands.

☞ Capt. Hussey, formerly of the 69th N. Y. Regt., which won a world-wide fame under Col. Corcoran,—will lecture on Prison Life, at the Temple, next Sunday evening, Dec. 18th. Capt. H. was twice a prisoner—taken at Bull Run and at Antietam, and has been in rebel hands over sixteen months. His recital is said to be deeply interesting.

The J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap is just the thing to please the ladies. The maker studies their wants and wishes, and leaves nothing undone which will make a washing day a gala day; and from the sale of it we should think it was fully appreciated by them. The lady who does not enjoy the advantage of its good qualities is deprived of a great luxury in the way of nice, white clothes. Go at once and get a supply. 33

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world affords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

TO OUR PATRONS.—We would again remind our readers that this season of the year is a time when they are constantly liable to sudden coughs, influenza, sore throat, &c., while the children are in constant danger from croup, throat and lung complaints. It is important that every head of a family should provide a remedy that is ready at all times for immediate use, whether assailed at the dead hour of night, with the breaking out of a hard cold, the racking of a violent cough, or the children with that most dangerous of all diseases—croup—or at the midday hour, you should always be prepared. In Coe's Cough Balsam you will find a ready and effectual remedy. It grapples and controls instantaneously the most stubborn coughs, while in croup it is a sovereign cure. The price is but forty cents per bottle—the bottle twice the size of any other at the same price. Delays are dangerous. You should always have it in the house. It can be found at all our drug stores. d5dawlm 2

☞ Special attention is asked to Hunnewell's preparations, advertised on our inside columns. They are based on true medical laws, used very largely by Physicians, and most undoubted testimonials are in the hands of the proprietor, always open to inspection. Let Portsmouth and its vicinity bear testimony by a confidence to test them, which will be sacred.

SAVE YOUR FUEL!

THE MODEL COOK.

IS, IN FACT,

The Best Stove Out,

for economy, convenience and dispatch.

Many people think it best to use an old stove as long as possible, but it is far better to throw it away and purchase a MODEL COOK, than to keep it at the present high price of fuel.

One of our shrewdest citizens who purchased a MODEL COOK STOVE a year since, says he has saved more than its cost already.

A careful, prudent farmer purchased one, and after it had been in operation some days his son came into the store and said, "something was wrong at their house;" his father and himself used wood off the same pile, he burned three baskets full a day, and his father only one! We sold him a Stove before he left, and there has been no complaint since.

These Stoves are in use in many hotels and boarding houses, and in hundreds of private families in this city and vicinity, and give the best of satisfaction.

NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

Critical Notices of the Press.

It is the foremost Magazine of the day. The Brandie never had a more delightful companion, nor the million a more enterprising friend, than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant (Baltimore).

The most popular Monthly in the world.—New York Observer.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellences of HARPER'S MAGAZINE—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies, each whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the American People; and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each Number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood-cuts; and it combines in itself the racy monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the determination of a love of pure literature. —Trubner's Guide to American Literature, London.

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, mild and agreeable—not as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is apparent, the combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 30 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

CERTAIN AND SAFE.

They cure or obviate those numerous diseases that spring from irregularity, by removing the irregularity itself.

They cure Suppressed, Excessive and Painful Menstruation.

They cure Nervous and Spinal Affections, pains in the back and lower parts of the body, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysteria, Sick Headache, Giddiness, &c., &c. In a word, by removing the irregularity, they remove the cause and with it ALL the effects that spring from it.

Composed of simple vegetable extracts, they contain nothing deleterious to any constitution, however delicate, their function being to substitute strength for weakness, which, when properly used, they never fail to do.

They may be safely used at any age and at any period, except during the first three months, during which the unfailing nature of their action would infallibly prevent pregnancy.

The Cherokee Pills & Rejuvenating Elixir,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of those: those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Postoffice, County, State and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

We send our 32 page pamphlet free to any address. Address all letters for Pamphlets or advice to the proprietors,

GO FORWARD.—It is impossible to go back. An exchange says:

It is sheer babble to talk at this day of slavery as a 'State institution.' We have too recent, too emphatic, too tragic evidence that it is a matter of the deepest and highest National concern. It was purely a State matter; it ought to have remained so, but would not. When it demanded and secured the annexation of Texas as essential to its own security and perpetuity when it insisted on a like clutch at Cuba for like reason, and insulted the sense of decency of Christendom by its atrocious Ostend Circular, it deliberately cast aside its immunity as a local affair, and launched boldly upon the tempestuous, perilous ocean of National politics. Its later attempt at secession, rebellion and disunion, is a logical result of its pretensions and efforts for twenty previous years.

Slavery has seized the Republic by the throat, resolved that one or the other shall die. There is no such thing as going back to the state of things under the Government as administered by Washington or Jefferson. You might as well demand a barrel of last summer's dew, or to see the shadow of an oak that died before Columbus was born. It is not possible now to put slavery back where the fathers placed her: she is bound to rule or ruin—to conquer or die.

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

Critical Notices of the Press.

It is the foremost Magazine of the day. The fireside never had a more delightful companion, nor the million a more enterprising friend, than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant (Baltimore).

The most popular Monthly in the world.—New York Observer.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellences of HARPER'S MAGAZINE—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the American People; and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each Number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood-cuts; and it combines in itself the racy monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—Trubner's Guide to American Literature, London.

The volumes bound in cloth, form of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading such as cannot be found in the same compass in any other publication that has come under our notice.—Boston Courier.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1864.

☞ At Montreal, on Tuesday the trial of the St. Albans raiders was concluded.

Mr. Justice Coursal, on ascending the Bench, said the matter in question was most important, since his authority had been denied. He had given the arguments on both sides his most serious consideration, and had come to the conclusion that the case was under the Imperial act, and that he was bound to obey the Imperial authority in a National question like the one under consideration. The Imperial act was supreme, and must be his guide. Under our own Provincial act to carry into effect the Ashburton treaty, he had not received the special Royal sanction requisite. The case was a most exceptional one, and being a treaty matter between the two nations he could do no other than allow our own act to give way before the Imperial legislation. The revised Imperial act must rule herein, and that act required that the warrant under which the prisoners were arrested should be signed by the Governor General. If the Court could have reserved the point for a higher Tribunal, it would most gladly have done so; but since the liberty of the subject was invaded, there admitted of no delay. And since he had not had the warrant of the Governor General, he had come to the conclusion that the Court possessed no jurisdiction in the case, and he must order the immediate release of the prisoners.

☞ Secretary Fessenden gives notice of the readiness of the Treasury Department to redeem on presentation by payment in lawful money, or by conversion into bonds, as authorized by law, the 3 years Treasury notes bearing interest at 7 3-10ths per centum, issued under the act of July 17th, 1861. Interest will cease on such Treasury notes not so presented, after 3 months from this date, at which time, under law, the right of conversion ceases. Holders will therefore govern themselves accordingly.

☞ The Boston Traveller has frequently suggested that there ought to be a belt life-preserver for every man and woman on board of every vessel; and they repeat the suggestion at this time, hoping some men may be wise enough to act upon it. With one of these on, there is a possibility of saving life when all other means of safety may fail. Semmes, the pirate, saved his unprofitable life twice with a belt life-preserver—once when the U. S. brig Somers foundered off Vera Cruz, and again when the Kearsarge sent that British thief and incendiary, the Alabama, to the bottom of the British Channel. Many of his companions in iniquity were preserved by the same means.

THE AMERICAN HOYLE.—Dick & Fitzgerald, of New York, have published, in one duodecimo volume, a book under this title, which will be sure of attracting general attention. It assumes to be the "gentleman's hand-book of games;" contains rules, descriptions, and technicalities, adapted to the American methods of playing; an elaborate treatise on the doctrine of chances; and numerous diagrams and engravings. Whist, euchre, cribbage, ecarte, piquet, loo, brag, poker, backgammon, dominoes, chess, billiards, bagatelle and roulette, are among the games described. Received by A. Williams & Co., Boston.

— The announcement that Mr. Ten Broeck was about to retire from the Turf does not appear to be confirmed. He has been picking up a few small prizes lately in England, but on the whole has not been much of a winner.

— The official vote of Kentucky, nine small counties failing to make returns, was as follows: McClellan 63,601; Lincoln 27, 786. Aggregate vote 92,087. In 1860 the total vote was 146,216, showing a loss of voting population in four years of 54,121.

— On Sunday night last, notwithstanding a double guard around camp Coburn, in Augusta, the bounty jumpers succeeded in digging an underground passage under the fence and a number of them escaped and have not since been captured.

— The Buffaloians are disappointed. They have had no raid yet and don't feel at all well about it. The Buffalo Courier says "if the raid doesn't come off soon, our authorities will lose all confidence in the raiders, and conclude that they have only mythical existence."

— The mail carried by the steamer Fulton to Gen. Sherman's army filled 278 bags, and weighed over fifteen tons. It was mostly composed of mail matter which has accumulated at Nashville since Gen. Sherman began his march, and had been sent to New York for shipment.

— During the damp and cold season deficient dress of the feet and legs is a fruitful source of disease. The head, throat, and liver are perhaps the most frequent sufferers.

THE REBELLION.

A new rebel ram has come down the Tombigbee river, and is now being armored at Selma, La. It is reported that there are seven rams and gunboats, besides the water batteries, behind the obstructions in upper Mobile harbor. Four or five blockade runners are still in the harbor with cargoes of cotton.

The U. S. gunboat Otsego, Com. Arnold, was sunk a few days ago by a rebel torpedo in Roanoke river, six miles from Plymouth, N. C. The torpedo was attached to a log and floated in the river, and as the Otsego was moving up the river on a reconnoissance, she struck the torpedo, which, exploding, caused her to sink. There is only six feet of water in Roanoke river where she went down, and she will be raised and repaired. No person on board was injured.

The N. Y. World has an account of a battle in front of Savannah on the 10th, said to come direct from a loyal resident in Richmond. He says 20,000 of Shermans men crossed the Ogeechee river 12 miles south of Savannah, massing between that point and Telfair. The left wing extended so as to cut the Charleston and Savannah Railroad. Communication had been effected the previous day with Gen. Foster, who was again rapidly advancing on Grahamsville, the enemy retreating from their strong positions south of Pocotaliga bridge, evidently alarmed at finding themselves threatened in front and rear by superior forces.

Gen. Sherman found himself confronted by a large force of regulars and militia entrenched. The battle began early in the day and was contested with great fury on both sides. The garrison of Savannah, numbering 12,000 veterans, participating. Toward noon a grand charge made by the Union troops, carried some of the enemy's works on the left and centre, threatening to cut him off from the inlet to the city. The rebels fell back to the immediate vicinity of the works in the rear of Savannah. Here our troops halted, and then fell back on finding the enemy's works very strong.

The loss was severe on both sides—2500 Union and 3000 or 4000 rebels. Among the latter were fully 1000 prisoners, including many officers of rank. Smith, Hardee and Cobb were in command of the rebels. It was believed that all the rebels at the head of the Inlet—4000 or 5000—would be captured.

The greatest consternation prevailed at Charleston.

Matters at Nashville are at a stand still, on account of the ice.

Gen. Lee's bulletin denies that Warren destroyed the long railroad bridge over the Mehermi.

Beauregard is said to be in command at Savannah.

Adm. Lee reports, Dec. 8th, that Lieut. Fitch defeated and drove the left wing of Hood's army on the Cumberland river, with heavy loss to the rebels, including several of their most prominent officers; also recaptured two transports from the rebels.

— The fire at the Brooklyn gas-works is still burning, and will probably consume the largest part of the twenty thousand tons of coal contained in the shed. The whole is valued at two hundred thousand dollars. The fire is at the bottom of the pile, and although the flames at the top have been subdued several times, they burst forth again in a few hours. Several steam engines have worked constantly on the coal since Friday night.

— The N. Y. Sun reports the extraordinary case of a man, at West Point, who went without eating for ninety days, in consequence of a severe catarrh and sore throat. He was, however, eventually cured.

[Communication.]

Mr. Editor—It is to you, I find, we must look to aid us in having again an honest, quiet, peaceable city. Are we to be given up to a set of marauders and burglars, and no efforts made to relieve the community of them? why is not there some means taken for security of property? why are no rewards offered for the apprehension of these men? Are we deficient in Police? If so, why do we not have a stronger force? And for Watch—let us have men who know how to keep a thief, after he is caught. If our city government lacks knowledge and energy and courage at such times, call on the private citizens; we will rally as a guard, and defend our homes.

Why, it is worse than the worst purlieus and dens of New York. We ape the rebel capital, with her dangers and wickedness; soon every man must go armed with his revolver. And this the case where we are governed by "honest old Abe's" officials! It is a disgrace to us all, to be so supine, quiescent and indifferent. Is their no safety? cannot you editors devise means to restore to us our once safe, respectable, little city? z.

We think Z. has rather over-estimated the amount of crime and lawlessness existing in our midst. Though we find much to deplore, still we must say that the city is and has been very quiet. We do not say this from hearsay, but from positive knowledge, as our business calls us out at various hours by day and by night. We are perfectly willing, however, to do our part toward having a quiet, honest and peaceable city, but if it be by our aid alone that existing abuses are to be swept away we imagine our task would be fully equal to that of Hercules in cleansing the stables of Augeas.

☞ On Sunday morning last the house of Mary A. Hodgdon, on Short street, was entered by some person unknown, by breaking a sidelight of the door, taking the key and unlocking the door. The thief went to an upper room, devoid of all but rubbish, excepting a small trunk, which contained $161 in bills; five teaspoons, two large spoons, two butter knives, one salt spoon—all silver; deed of house No 2 Short street; notes amounting to $451, deed of house in Greenland, insurance policy of house No. 2 Short street, and other valuables. The thief carried away the trunk. We understand that on Wednesday evening Marshal Dresser arrested a man on suspicion of being the perpetrator of the above burglary.

POLICE COURT, Wednesday, Dec. 14.—Amos Smith, for brawl and tumult, was fined $3, costs $6.68. Paid.

James Armstrong, for an assault on his wife, was fined $10, costs $4.03. He appealed to Supreme Judicial Court, and gave bonds in the sum of $30.

☞ We publish a long list of Boston Cards, from Pettengill's Agency, this morning. It is to be considered, that besides the general fact that business men sufficiently enterprising to advertise at all, are, as a rule, the best to buy of—the more especial fact that such who take pains to place their notices before our readers, will of course take equal pains to suit them in trading, should not be overlooked.

☞ We are absolutely compelled to omit many new Advertisements till to-morrow. That doesn't look much like suspending, does it?

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

STATE BONDS.—On Saturday, Col. Houshaw sold at auction, in Boston, $100,000 New Hampshire 20 year 6 per cent Bonds at from 99 to 99 1-4 cents on the dollar. There is three month's interest due on them, which makes the price practically 97 1-2. They were sold on State account, we suppose.—Patriot.

—— Mr. Jas. M. Farmer, of Portland, an employee on the Grand Trunk railway, was instantly killed near Gorham, Monday night, by being struck by a bridge which crossed the road. Deceased was about 25 years of age.

—— Deerfield last week voted to pay a bounty of $1000 to all those volunteers belonging to the town who enlist in the United States service.

—— The following N. H. soldiers are among the exchanged prisoners that arrived at Annapolis from Savannah on the 4th:

Jas. Bowers, Co. D. 3d.
Sergt. R. C. Farrand, Co. E. 7th.
Wm. Grant, Co. A. 11th.
John Brown, Co. G. 12th.
Gil. B. Chase, Co. B. 1st cavalry.

Wm. Barnegan, Co. I, 6th, died on the passage and was buried at Hilton Head, and John W. Nate, Co. I, 7th, was buried at Annapolis.

☞ The Charlestown Navy Yard (like the Portsmouth Yard) is altogether too limited in its area for the needs of the Government. Prominent citizens of Charlestown have opposed the extension of the Yard on the Charles River side, and urged that the enlargement should be made on the Mystic river. The Chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks, in his report to Secretary Wells, says that a water-front at or near Charles River Bridge is absolutely required, cost what it may, and that whether the necessity of the service will justify the government in seizing this and other portions of the city of Charlestown for its use, is yet to be decided.

—Of what trade is a clergyman at a wedding? A join-her.

☞ Through A. Williams & Co., of Boston, we have Harper's Magazine for January. The illustrated articles are a continuation of "Tour through Arizona," the "Siege of Vicksburg," and "Defence of New Orleans in 1812." As for the letter press, the reputation of the magazine is too well established to need comment. For sale by J. H. Foster.

☞ The January number of the Lady's Friend is on our table, and fully bears out the high reputation of this new monthly, which is now entering upon the second year of its existence. There are numerous engravings of the fashions, work table department, &c. Price $2.50. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia.

☞ Hall's Journal of Health for December, is a good number. We show our value for it, by copying pieces from it.

"Mr. Jenkens," said a tradesman, at Sidney, to a recent arrival there, "will it suit you to settle that old account of yours?" "No, sir; you are mistaken in the man," said Jenkens, "I am not one of the old settlers."

NOTICE.

☞ Capt. Hussey, formerly of the 69th N. Y. Regt., which won a world-wide fame under Col. Corcoran,—will lecture on Prison Life, at the Temple, next Sunday evening, Dec. 18. Capt. H. was twice a prisoner—taken at Bull Run and at Antietam, and has been in rebel hands over sixteen months. His recital is said to be deeply interesting.

The J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap is just the thing to please the ladies. The maker studies their wants and wishes, and leaves nothing undone which will make a washing day a gala day; and from the sale of it we should think it was fully appreciated by them. Munro's Ten Cent Novels
RESEMBLE THE SUN,
In that they totally eclipse all the lesser luminaries.

This is only what the publishers intended from the beginning that they should do. They have engaged all the best talent in this field of literature, and pay the highest prices to their authors. As a natural consequence, their books have received an unexampled popularity. They never get up crude, unsaleable books, and are, therefore, not under the disagreeable necessity of crowding them—unordered—upon good-natured dealers. Their motto always has been, "Merit will assert itself in spite of all opposition," as the following list of novels will abundantly testify:

No 1. The Hunters
2. The Trapper's Retreat.
3. The Patriot Highwayman.
4. The Hunted Unionist
5. The Track of fire. 6. The Man-Eaters.

HAGLE'S

Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these five other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETTS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "Dye," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new hair in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

Local.

☞ Speaking of the numerous Newspapers which have recently ceased to be published, in consequence of the unequal pressure of the times upon this profession—an exchange remarks:

"If people have any pride in having their locality represented by a newspaper—they should remember that these are times when they must use some effort to sustain them."

The Bath Times adds that this is a hint which it may not be amiss for people in that locality to regard. And we also will suggest that under certain supposable contingencies, some citizens of Portsmouth might regret that they have not acted differently toward this Chronicle. For instance, many men who are amply able to take the paper, and who read it regularly—never pay a dollar towards its support or prosperity. The paper is certainly worth infinitely more to the community—any newspaper is to any community, under similar circumstances—than it can be to the publisher.

Not that in our case this Chronicle has any indications of ceasing to yield income sufficient to render the proprietor able, willing and in duty bound to call upon Mr. Tax-Collector Lovering's very polite and business-like deputy, once a year at least. No, and here is just the point we wish to make; that if ever such a decline in our business should occur, we should immediately discontinue the paper. We work much harder than any man should, or than most men will, or we desire to—on account of the exceeding difficulty of procuring others fitted for such duties—but we decidedly never would wear ourself out thus without good pay; that's all. Which only means, that all those who regard this Daily as a public benefit, should aid it as a mutual local enterprise, rather than risk the remotest possibility of regretting its discontinuance;—and as to any who may not regard the Chronicle in that light, we have nothing to say to them; neither any special favors to ask of any.

When we started this paper, one of our prominent merchants replied to our solicitation for advertising and subscription—that he would wait and see, and do whatever he might deem for his interest. As he has since always been one of our heaviest and best patrons, perhaps we ought not to remember it against him, that he hesitated at the outset, to aid and encourage a doubtful and difficult but valuable public enterprise.

Another of our merchants, who did take hold with the first number, and who holds on yet—one day as he brought in a new advertisement, inquired about, and congratulating us upon, our success; and cheeringly remarked, that if at any time there might be need of extraneous assistance for the success of our enterprise, he was ready to increase his business-contribution, and he knew many others who would willingly do likewise. We wonder if we shall ever forget that—or the other noble merchant, who alone said, "Put me down for two copies."

—The moral of all this talk, (which has grown entirely impromptu out of the above item which by chance met our eye, as we were setting types to help out a press of advertisements—and no word of which has been written,)—we say, the pith of the whole matter is, that every man who deems any Daily paper (or Weekly either, as to that) in any small place especially, to be a convenience to himself or a benefit to the public—should bear in mind, that such institutions always need all the aid which can legitimately be rendered them. F.

A HINT TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS. The cold weather has come, and stormy days. We would suggest to our patrons that newspapers if left on the steps or in door knobs, are liable to be damaged by snows and rains, or blown away by the winds. Now we cannot always furnish papers when thus lost, nor ought the subscriber to expect it. But if he would make sure of his paper, let him have a suitable box near his dwelling, or cut a place in the door of his store or place of business, so that the paper can be slipped through, safe from storms and thieves. This would be a small expense and save much fretting. It may be said the paper can be slipped under the door. We say there is no particular fun at five o'clock of a winter morning, dark and cold, for the carrier to be fumbling round at the bottom of the door—not to mention the occasional rains, and the more frequent obstructions by snow and ice. By attention to the suggestion much trouble will be avoided; and then if the carriers are not faithful, we will get those who will be.—Bath Times.

So say "we too," of this Chronicle,—but must add, if we can, as to this last. Mr. Morse says there is no such thing as getting papers carried well, and we begin to believe him. Perhaps our carriers do as well as anybody's; but between their fallibilities and door-thieves and the elements, our subscribers and ourselves are bothered not a little. Will not patrons consider and act on the above Timely suggestion?—which, by the way, we have often made before.

☞ The order relative to the landing of boats and skiffs at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, has been so far modified as to defer it to take effect on Monday next, in order to give the workmen further time to make the necessary arrangements for this innovation.

DR. POLAND'S WHITE PINE COMPOUND!

THE GREAT AND POPULAR REMEDY

For Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Croup and Whooping Cough.

CURES GRAVEL,

AND ALL KIDNEY DISEASES.

There have been many severe cases in Boston and vicinity cured by the WHITE PINE COMPOUND, which can be referred to. It is a reliable and speedy cure for the above complaints.

This medicinal preparation did not originate in an effort to get up an article to SELL. Undoubtedly very many of the popular nostrums of the day were started for that purpose, and some have given their proprietors vast wealth. Not so with the White Pine Compound.

In the winter of 1854-5, Dr. J. W. POLAND, then of Goffstown Centre, N. H., compounded a small quantity of medicine for a member of his family, who was afflicted with a disagreeable irritation of the throat. Knowing that the White Pine Bark was useful in cases of inflammation, he made that the BASIS of his article. It was necessary to combine the Bark with other ingredients to modify its action as an astringent. Of course it was an EXPERIMENT. It would not injure—it might do good. The result was most surprising. A permanent cure was effected within a week, and there has been no return of the difficulty for Nine Years, though it was of long standing.

A second small quantity was prepared for a lady who had a bad cough, and had raised some blood, and she was cured of it. Two or three other individuals made a trial of it, and experienced wonderful relief. It was then put in bottles. But with all these flattering results, not a thought was entertained of ever putting it on sale till several months had elapsed.

TESTIMONIALS.

A very large number of important testimonials have already been received from Physicians, Clergymen, Apothecaries, and, indeed, from all classes in society, speaking in the most flattering terms of the White Pine Compound.

Dr. Nichols, of Northfield, Vt., says:

"I find the White Pine Compound to be very efficacious, not only in coughs and other pulmonic affections, but also in affections of the kidneys, debility of the stomach and other kindred organs."

Rev. S. K. Chase, of Rumney, N. H., says:

"I have for years regarded your White Pine Compound as an invaluable remedy. I can truly say that I regard it as even more efficacious and invaluable than ever. I have just taken your Compound for a cold, and it works charmingly."

Rev. H. D. Hodge, of West Randolph, Vt., who is also a physician, says:

"I find it (the Compound) an excellent medicine in kidney diseases."

Says Mr. Moody, of the 16th Regiment Massachusetts Heavy Artillery, at Fort Tillinghast:

"The White Pine Compound effected a cure where a fellow was considered in a critical consumption by all who knew him. I know of testimonials this by men in this Company who thought it fully for him to make a trial of it. In colds or coughs, man leaves the care of the surgeon, where treatment can be had for nothing, and try the White Pine Compound."

☞ For sale by all Druggists.

The White Pine Compound will be manufactured in future at the

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1836.)

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,

Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Rejoinders, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Research is made into American, or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of any Patent in the U. S. may be obtained by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to any other which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE WASHINGTON OFFICE; that the celerity and ss SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant testimony, if desired, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, in good faith, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here cut of i ave ders.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAYLOR.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Boston, Dec. 19, 1853.—3mwly

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pains and swellings, Gleet, loss of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D.. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Disturbance of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to office practice, treating all Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

RYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla syrups, &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and other ailments up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till the commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ELDER I. CHESLEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders may be left at Dr. SWETT, No. 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. mar26

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the casting being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. T. oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this invaluable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the dome can be made to consume the gases, as they rise with the heat, with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the ashes of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,
WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 19, 1864.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until 12 o'clock P. M. on Thursday, the 29th day of December, 1864, for supplying the Light-house Establishment with thirty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained lard oil, and twenty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained sperm oil, to be divided into four lots, and to be delivered at the times undermentioned, alongside of the government supply vessels, or at the warehouse or other place of deposit, to be designated by the Inspecting Officer or other authorized agent of the Light house Board, in strong, tight iron-bound, well made casks, suitable for shipping, in good order, of a capacity, each, of from fifty to eighty gallons, not to exceed the latter. The lard oil may be delivered at Boston or New York

Either lot of sperm oil, or both of them, may be delivered at New York, New London, New Harbor, Boston, New Bedford, Edgartown, or Nantucket, at the option of the bidders. The place of delivery must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be embraced in the contracts.

The four lots will be delivered as follows, viz:

Lot No. 1. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 5th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 2. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 15th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 3. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 1st day of June, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 4. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 1st day of August, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

No bid will be considered unless from a manufacturer of the article.

No part of the oil proposed for and to be embraced in the contracts under the terms of this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, until it shall have been proved, to the entire satisfaction of the person or persons charged with the examination, test, and inspection, to be of the best quality pure winter strained or barged oil, and free from mixture with other or inferior oils and adulterations.

The usual means for determining the character and quality of the sperm oil will be employed, viz: specific gravity, burning, the admixture of spermaceti, and any other proper tests to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.

The lard oil will be subjected to special tests, and will be rejected unless found to be, in regard to burning and fluidity, under reduction of temperature, and in every other respect, equal to that of the samples adopted by the Board, of which a sample will be furnished, on application to the Light-house Engineer at Boston, Mass.

The seals must be gauged under the direction and personal supervision of the inspecting officer, by a custom-house or other legally authorized and sworn gauger, according to the United States standard, and must be marked and accepted before they are removed from the cellar or warehouse of the contractor; the temperature of the oil will be accurately noted, and the measurements reduced to the standard temperature of 60° Farenheit by tables prepared for the purpose.

Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of the lots at the option of the bidder; but no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified as one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bid must state explicitly the lot or lots bid for, in writing, the number of the lot or lots bid for, and the time and place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.

Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will not be considered.

The Light-house Board, under the authority of the Department, reserves the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other considerations than the price.

No bid will be considered for any other kind or description of oil than those specially called for in this advertisement.

A bond, with security to the satisfaction of the Department, in a penalty equal to one-fourth of the amount of each contract under these proposals, will be required of each contractor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract to be executed ten days after the acceptance of the bid.

Each offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and known to the department as such, or certified by a United States district judge, attorney, navy agent, or collector of the customs, to the effect that if the bid be accepted, the bidder will duly execute a contract in good faith, according to the provisions and terms of this advertisement, within ten days after notice; and that in case the said party offering shall fail to enter into the contract as aforesaid, he or they guaranty to make good the difference between the offer of the said party and the next lowest bidder. All bids must be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for oil for light-houses," and then placed in another envelope, and directed, prepaid, to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington City.

All bids will be opened, publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.

Payments will be made for the sperm lots of oil at thirty days after they shall have been received by the United States.

BY ORDER OF THE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD:
ANDREW A. HARWOOD,
d14-Staw2w Secretary.

Ayer's Ague Cure

For the speedy and certain cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache, Bilious Remittent, Bilious Fevers; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

FEVER AND AGUE is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its interfusion into the bodies of those among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Hypochondria, Palpitation of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on periodic, or periodic, or remittent periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and, moreover, is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and the importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be overestimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Brackett Hutchings, J. H. Thacher, W. H. Preston, David Kimball, and all druggists.

Young Men and others, who have indulged, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasures of life, cured in a few days, without consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to counsel and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. J. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of the subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr. TELLER's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—200 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery, it contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr TELLER has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

Dr. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Achorn's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 30,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M., and on Sundays from 9 to 5 P.M.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice. N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1864.

INCOME RETURNS AT THE WEST.—The St. Paul (Minn.) Press publishes a list of the returns of incomes made to the assessors in two counties of that State, and remarks: "This table shows that many persons, reported be of considerable wealth and to be making money hand over fist, are really on the verge of extreme destitution, some of our apparently prosperous bankers and money loaners certifying themselves to be really in very indigent circumstances, with an income so small as to suggest the idea that their affairs are in a very bad condition."

☞ In consequence of the discharge of the St. Albans raiders by the Canadian Court, Gen. Dix, in a general order issued Wednesday, instructed the military commanders on the Canadian frontier, in case of further depredations, to pursue the marauders if necessary across the boundary between the United States and that province, and that the fugitives if captured are under no circumstances to be surrendered, but will be sent to the headquarters of this department, for trial and punishment by martial law.

☞ The Jews of this country, often denounced as disloyal, have shown a full share of patriotism since the war begun. No less than forty thousand of them have enlisted in the Federal army. From Ohio 12,000 have gone to fight for the Union flag; from New York 10,000; from Illinois 5000; from Michigan and Wisconsin 3000; and from other States enough to made the above-named total. They have also given of their wealth for the soldiers. They have established five asylums for disabled soldiers, their widows and orphans, the benefits of which are limited to no faith or creed—one at New York, one at Philadelphia, one at Cincinnati, one at Chicago, and one at St. Louis. They have a good record.

☞ The Newark Daily Journal, near the close of a column of adjectives and adverbs on the present condition of Washington City, has this apostrophe:

Mammon and millinery, lechery and lust, turpitude and selfishness, intemperance, epicurism, sensuality, shoddy and greenbacks, these be your gods, oh Capital of the United States!

The article concludes with the following paragraph, which has the true ring of the metal worked by that most deceptive of operatives, "Alexander, the coppersmith":

This new polytheism of infamy has been the growth of four short years, under the fostering tutorage of a reforming Government. Four years more of such growth, such progress, and such reform, and Hell will have been so clean raked of its vampyres and fiends and devils, to people the streets of our national caravanserai, that it will be a safer place of residence for ordinary men than Washington City!

☞ The "Local" of the Portland Argus smooths thus at midnight:

Not a row was heard, that was worthy of note, as our course round town we hurried, not a friend related a single joke, and all that was lively seemed burried. (It was an immensely dull day.) Few and short were the items we got, yet we speak not a word of sorrow, but we go to repose in our snug little cot, and hope "big things" on the morrow. (*classical allusion, original with O. A.) Lightly they'll talk of the labor that's gone, and o'er this dry column upbraid us, but nothing we'll reck if they let us sleep on 'till the breakfast bell awakes us—(not the fire bell to send us on the rampage for particulars.)

—The South American Congress has resolved that the Government of Peru shall give orders for the recovery of the Chincha Islands, and that the President of Peru shall have no power to make terms with Spain until she gives up said Islands, or they are taken by the forces of the Republic. The Spanish flagship at Chinchas was totally destroyed by fire on the 26th ult., giving the Peruvians an excellent opportunity to attack the balance of the Spanish fleet.

☞ Our readers will find in our columns an advertisement of the "Massachusetts and Oil Creek Petroleum Co.," already a producing and dividend-paying property, offering large inducements for investment in this new field of enterprise. The books were opened in Boston for subscription on Wednesday, the 14th inst., and 40,000 shares were taken the first day by the capitalists of Boston and vicinity.

☞ The Clarion says Miss Ella Stevens, daughter of Dr. H. Stevens of Skowhegan, Me., had her collar bone broken in two places on Monday last by being run into by some girls who were sliding on the sidewalk. This reprehensible practice is indulged in to a great extent by boys on some of our streets. Do, Mr. Marshal, have an eye to it.

— Teams cross the Mississippi on the ice at Dubuque, Iowa. On the 10th the mercury stood at 23 degrees below zero.

THE REBELLION.

Capt. Bridgewater with 125 men went into Newcastle, Ky., and drove out the guerrilla Jessie, with a loss to the latter of 13 killed and wounded.

Col. Johnson telegraphs that the rebel Gen. Lyons' advance is moving on Russellville, Ky. His main force, 2500 strong, is at Elkton.

The Louisville Democrat says that the rebel Gen. Lyons' forces burned the depot and several sheds on the Memphis Branch Road, at Huttonsville on the 13th, with large quantities of bacon and tobacco. The rebels are conscripting everybody they can find.

Rebel newspapers speak of the successes of a Union cavalry force in Louisiana, under Gen. Davidson. They were estimated at over 5000 with two pieces of artillery, and about 100 loaded wagons. They reached Tangipaho, from Baton Rogue on the 30th ult., broke up a conscript camp, captured much valuable property, and then left in the direction of Pearl River. The rebels seemed to think their destination was Mobile.

Longstreet is said to be again on the field with the rebel army.

A battle at Nashville is imminent, the weather having moderated. There have been no military operations for four days owing to the severity of the weather.

It is rumored that Savannah was captured on the 10th.

Hilton Head correspondence of the 8th says Gen. Foster, by strategic movements from right to left, has succeeded in obtaining a position from which he will command two bridges and some miles of the Savannah Railroad, even if he does not occupy the road itself. Our casualties at Honey Hill have been found to be 740.

A dispatch from Adm. Dahlgren at Port Royal, Dec. 12, states that he had just received the following dispatch from Sherman's army, dated "Headquarters Army of Tennessee, near Savannah Canal, Dec. 9:"

To Commander of U. S. Naval Force in vicinity of Savannah, Ga.: Sir—We have met with perfect success thus far. The troops are in fine spirits and near by. Respectfully, O. O. HOWARD, Maj. Gen.

The bearer of this dispatch says our forces were in contact with the rebels a few miles outside of Savannah. He says Sherman's army is not in want of anything.

A messenger brings a rumor to the Washington Republican that Savannah is captured, and says the steamer had not fairly got out of the harbor of Port Royal when he saw the fleet decorated with flags and they were firing a salute. The opinion prevailed on board the steamer that after she left the admiral had received news of the fall of Savannah.

The Augusta Constitutionalist says that Federal prisoners report Kilpatrick shot through the head on the 4th.

AN ENTERPRISING SHIP MASTER.—Recently, while the people at Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, were anxiously looking out for news from the United States, a large clipper arrived from San Francisco, and on being boarded by the news boat, the only reply of the captain was, "that there was a devil of a row in the United States, but he didn't learn the particulars."

— At an exhibition of Costello's Circus on Memphis bluffs lately, the Sons of Malta were present. They met at their rooms and marched in procession, with torches and music, to the entertainment. They were in full regalia, and presented an imposing spectacle. This illustriously ridiculous order is about extinct in New York, but seems to still flourish in the West.

— The Patersonian contains an account of the discovery of a mine of plumbago, nickel and iron, in the upper part of Passaic county, N. J. If fully developed, as it now appears in a fair way to be, this will prove a very important discovery. The nickel alone, it is said, will pay the expense of working the mine, irrespective of the plumbago or iron.

— Some ladies in Paris—who are not married, not single, and not widows—who wished to go the opera very much, sent to the director blank checks to be filled up to any amount he might choose if he would sell them a box for the season. But he wouldn't.

Munro's Ten Cent Novels

RESEMBLE THE SUN,

In that they totally eclipse all the lesser luminaries.

This is only what the publishers intended from the beginning that they should do. They have engaged all the best talent in this field of literature, and pay the highest prices to their authors. As a natural consequence, their books have received an unexampled popularity. They never get up crude, unsaleable books, and are, therefore, not under the disagreeable necessity of crowding them—unordered—upon good-natured dealers. Their motto always has been, "Merit will assert itself in spite of all opposition," as the following list of novels will abundantly testify:

No 1. The Hunters
2. The Trapper's Retreat.
3. The Patriot Bridgewyman.
4. The Hunted Unionist.
5. The Duck of fire. 6. The Man-Eaters.
7. Charlotte Temple 8. The Death Face.

HARLEY'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these free other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he at only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

Wanted,
At the the Chronicle Office, A CARRIER, for a morning list, before School.

☞ It is rumored—only rumored, mind ye,—that the cause of the recent order forbidding boats to land at the Navy Yard, was the detection of several workmen leaving in their boats, before quitting time. Another report has it, that the order originated at Washington, on account of the pilfering discovered at the Philadelphia Yard, and elsewhere.

TEMPLE OF AMUSEMENT.—To-night is set apart for the benefit of Mr. G. F. McDonald, on which occasion a most powerful bill will be presented, consisting of Shakespeare's 5-act tragedy of "Othello"; dance by Mrs. McDonald; eccentricities by J. H. Shorey, and a new and laughable afterpiece. Mr. McDonald will appear as Othello and as Jerry Chip. Turn out and give him a bumper. D.

☞ We were pleased to receive a call from Lieut. Samuel C. Hervey, 14th Massachusetts (Heavy Artillery), formerly of this city. Having served his country for three years, without leave of absence, he is now making a flying visit on his friends of old.

☞ The Portsmouth correspondent of the Ballot says:

The milk-men have put up the price of milk to ten cents per quart. The advance it is admitted is not the result of any scarcity of hay, as the crop was large and well harvested, but is caused by the extreme drought of last summer, which has kept the wells in this vicinity in a very low state, thereby with the enhanced price of labor making it more expensive to fit out a milk cart than formerly.

☞ City Marshal Dresser has given fair warning in regard to clearing the sidewalks of snow, as may be seen on reference to his notice, and we hope he will energetically enforce the ordinance, as is being done in sister cities.

☞ Dr. E. B. Goodall has just received a package of the newly patented "Pink Dental Rubber" (used as a base for artificial teeth,) directly imported from London. He considers this article a great desideratum in dentistry, and he is now prepared to counterfeit nature even more perfectly than heretofore.

His very extensive apparatus for generating pure Nitrous Oxyd Gas is still in full and successful operation. As this is the only apparatus now in use in this city, Dr. Goodall will endeavor in the future to meet the numerous calls for this popular anæsthetic.

☞ The Pilots of Portsmouth having sold their yacht Dragonet, are intending to purchase a steamer for passenger and towage use here, next season. But we don't believe the statement of one of the horse marines,—that the Sibyl and Dragonet being too slow for this port, they are going to put on a steamer for pilotage use. Do you?

☞ The High School has been frozen up this week. The furnaces, which it would seem never were well arranged or efficient, gave out, and so the schools were dismissed for repairs — not of the scholars, though most of them need it, but of the stoves. How sorry the boys must be! mustn't they?

☞ We are desired to Chronicle that Bunel's Stereoscopticon (whatever that may be) is now exhibiting at Union Hall, on Market street, in this city.

THE MOTHER OF STATESMEN.—The Wolfborough News claims that old Rockingham county has proved a rival to the Old Dominion as the mother of statesmen. From 1776 to 1792—a period of sixteen years—the office of the Chief Magistrate of New Hampshire was filled by citizens of Rockingham, viz: Meshec Weare, John Langdon, John Sullivan, and Josiah Bartlett. Thirty-three of the seventy-two years since the adoption of the present State Constitution, in 1792, the office of Governor has been filled by Rockingham men, namely: Josiah Bartlett, John T. Gilman, John Langdon, Jeremiah Smith, William Plummer, Samuel Aell, Levi Woodbury, John Bell, and Ichabod Goodwin. The office of U. S. Senator has been filled sixty years of the seventy-five since the adoption of the constitution of the United States, by a citizen of Rockingham county. The names are as follows: John Langdon, Paine Wingate, James Sheafe, Wm. Plumer, Nicholas Gilman, Charles Cutts, Jeremiah Mason, Clement Storer, John F. Parrott, Samuel Bell, Levi Woodbury, Joseph Gilley and John S. Wells. The above names with the large number of those who have been members of the House of Representatives, and those who have filled other important stations of trust and power, give old Rockingham a pretty good claim to be called "Mother of Statesmen."

— A young lady was heard to declare that she couldn't go to fight for the country but she was willing to allow the young men to go and die an old maid, which she thought was as great a sacrifice as anybody could be called upon to make.

MAXIMS.—Never speak badly of others, even with a cause; remember we all have our faults, and if we expect charity from the world, we must be charitable ourselves. Think that a word once spoken can never be recalled; therefore it is often prudent to think twice before we speak.

Broken resolutions are worse than none at all; it only proves to us we do not carry out the dictates of our conscience, and exposes our weakness.

Avoid argument with a person if he is directly opposite to you; if he has a mind of his own he cannot be convinced; and if he has no mind he is a poor convert; it is not only a loss of time, but often of friendship.

Do not judge of a person from first impressions; it is not liberal; often your warmest friends prove to be those you were prejudiced against.

A kind word and pleasant voice are gifts easy to give; be liberal with them; they are worth more than money.—Country Gentleman.

A Scotch minister was once busy catechising his young parishioners before the congregation, when he put the usual first question to a stout girl whose father kept a public house. "What is your name?" No reply. The question having been repeated the girl replied, "Nane of your fun, Mr. Minister, yo ken my name weel enough. D'ye no say when ye come to our house on a night, 'Bet, bring me some ale?'" The congregation, forgetting the sacredness of the place, were on a broard grin, and the parson looked daggers.

— A "monster improvement" is nearly completed at Chicago by the Dock Company, who have planned a magnificent system of docks, embracing a water front of five miles, the whole distance connected by seven ship canals cut at right angles with river. These canals are 100 feet wide, 12 deep, and average 1,760 feet in length. By the same plan, a connection is made with a complete railway system. The capital of the company is $650,000.

—The Philadelphia Ledger, heretofore a penny paper, has increased its subscription price having lost nearly $100,000 during the past year on its circulation at the old price. Mr. Childs, the new proprietor, is said to have paid $400,000 for the paper.

— Within a few days a letter was left at the Presbyterian Mission House, in New York, containing seven words: "For the increased cost of foreign exchange," without date or signature, and two United States notes of $1000 each.

☞ Capt. Hussey, formerly of the 69th N. Y. Regt., which won a world-wide fame under Col. Corcoran,—will lecture on Prison Life, at the Temple, next Sunday evening, Dec. 18. Capt. All efforts to rival the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap have signally failed; we do not hesitate to pronounce it the cheapest and best Soap in existence: it will take out grease, spots or paint, will make nice soft soap, and make clothes of all grades look better after washing than any other article of the kind in the market; it will not injure the finest fabric. Try it,—their Depot is at 112 Liberty Street, New York. Most of the grocers sell it 34

SAVE YOUR FUEL!

THE MODEL COOK.

IS, IN FACT,
The Best Stove Out,
for economy, convenience and dispatch.

Many people think it best to use an old stove as long as possible, but it is far better to throw it away and purchase a MODEL COOK, than to keep it at the present high price of fuel.

One of our shrewdest citizens who purchased a MODEL COOK STOVE a year since, says he has saved more than its cost already.

A careful, prudent farmer purchased one, and after it had been in operation some days it soon came into the store and said, "something was wrong at their house;" his father and himself used wood off the same pile, he burned three baskets full a day, and his father only one! We sold him a Stove before he left, and there has been no complaint since.

These Stoves are in use in many hotels and boarding houses, and in hundreds of private families in this city and vicinity, and give the best of satisfaction.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Research made into the merits of Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure patents, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and conscientious practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1848. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his HUMOR WASH, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From REUBEN I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that precious to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without hardly any rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No. 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. may26

There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From REUBEN I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that precious to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without hardly any rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No. 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. may26

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. Tin oven plates are covered with brick, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every morning.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT" VENTILATING & AIR WARMING FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and use of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for ventilation, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are thus prevented from admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 20 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,
WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 19, 1864.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until 1 o'clock P. M. on Thursday, the 29th day of December, 1864, for supplying the Light-house Establishment with thirty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained lard oil, and twenty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained sperm oil, to be divided into four lots, and to be delivered at the times undermentioned, alongside of the government supply vessels, or at the warehouse or other place of deposit, to be designated by the inspecting officer or other authorized agent of the Light-house Board, in strong light iron-bound, well-made casks, suitable for shipping, in good order, of a capacity, each, of from fifty to eighty gallons, not exceeding the latter. The lard oil may be delivered at Boston or New York

Esther lot of sperm oil, or both of them, may be delivered at New York, New Bedford, Sag Harbor, Boston, New Bedford, Edgartown, or Nantucket, at the option of the bidders. The place of delivery must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be considered in the contracts.

The four lots will be delivered as follows, viz:

Lot No. 1. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 5th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 2. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 15th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 3. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 1st day of June, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 4. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 1st day of August, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

No bid will be considered unless from a manufacturer of the article.

No part of the oil proposed for and to be embraced in the contracts under the head of this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, until it shall have been proved, to the entire satisfaction of the person or persons charged with its examination, test, and inspection, to be of the best quality pure winter strained or lagged oil, and free from mixture with other or inferior oils and adulterations.

The usual means for determining the character and quality of the sperm oil will be employed, viz: specific gravity, burning, the amount of residuum, and any other proper tests to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.

The lard oil will be subjected to special tests, and will be rejected unless found to be, in regard to burning and fluidity, under reduction of temperature, and in every other respect, equal to that of the standard adopted by the Board, of which a sample will be furnished on application to the Light-house Engineer at Boston, Mass.

The casks must be gauged under the direction and personal supervision of the inspecting officer, by a custom-house or other legally authorized and sworn gauger, according to the United States standard, and must be marked and accepted before they are removed from the cellar or warehouse of the contractor. The temperature of the oil will be accurately noted, and the measurements reduced to the standard of sixty-one degrees Farenheit by tables prepared for the purpose.

Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of the lots, at the option of the bidder; but no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified as one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bid must state explicitly the rate per gallon, in writing, the number of the lot or lots bid for, and the time and place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.

Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will not be considered.

The Light-house Board, under the authority of the Department, reserves the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other considerations than the price.

No bid will be considered for any other kind or description of oil than those specially called for in this advertisement.

A bond, with security to the satisfaction of the Department, in a penalty equal to one-fourth of the amount of each contract made under these proposals, will be required of the successful contractor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, to be executed ten days after the acceptance of the bid.

Each offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and known to the department at such, or certified by a United States district judge, attorney, navy agent, or collector of the customs, to the effect that if the bid be accepted, the bidder will duly execute a contract in pursuance of the advertisement, within ten days after acceptance; and that in case the said party offering shall fail to enter into the contract as aforesaid, he or they guaranty to make good the difference between the offer of the said party and the next lowest bidder. All bids must be sealed and addressed "Proposals for oil for light houses," and then placed in another envelope, and directed, prepaid, to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington City.

All bids will be opened, publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.

Payments will be made for the several lots of oil at intervals thirty days after they shall have been received by the United States.

BY ORDER OF THE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD:
ANDREW A. HARWOOD,
d14-Staw2w Secretary.

Ayer's Ague Cure.

For the speedy and certain cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fever; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

FEVER AND AGUE is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "Ague" exists in the system, in the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and, moreover, is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over-estimated. So cure it by its cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

THE UNPRECEDENTED POPULARITY
Which has attended the introduction of our brands of
CALIFORNIA WINES
Is a flattering tribute to their purity and fine qualities.

THE STATE FAIR
At Indianapolis, where our Wines came into competition with all the best WESTERN WINES, have just awarded us a SILVER MEDAL.

At the OHIO STATE FAIR we took Five Premiums out of six.

Surgeon General Dale, after a careful and searching chemical analysis of our wines, pronounces them PURE.

The leading portion of the American Press have extolled their merits; and the unanimous verdict of those who use them is, that

They are the Best.

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.

The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the boot, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.

Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.

Price, 12 Cents per Bottle.

Manufactured in the Chemical Department of the Cabinet Manufacturing Co., and for sale by Boot and Shoe Dealers everywhere.

WYMAN & TYLER, AGENTS,
82 Water St., Boston, Mass.

The Vernatella,
For making the Soles of Boots and Shoes water proof and wear longer, is also for sale as above.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1864.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Thomas telegraphs that he attacked Hood's left on the 15th, and drove it nearly eight miles from Franklin, capturing Chalmers' headquarters and train, another train of 30 wagons, 16 pieces of artillery, and 800 or 1000 prisoners. He adds that he should attack the enemy again the next day if he would stand fight, or pursue him with a heavy cavalry force if he retreated.

A train of 120 government wagons and 20 sutlers' wagons, all heavily laden for Fort Gibson, with a small escort, are said to be closely invested by the rebel Gen. Gaines, with 700 men and 5 cannon, on Neosho river, 100 miles south of Fort Scott.

The rebel Gen. Lyon, with 2500 troops, occupies Eddyville, on the Cumberland river.

A large naval fleet, accompanied by a land force in transports, left Hampton Roads Dec. 13, steering in a southerly direction.

Richmond papers of the 14th state that Savannah advices of the 13th report Sherman deploying his troops in front of the outer line of defences.

THE OLD "NO. 1" GROCERY. — Mr. James A. Blaisdell succeeds to the business of Moulton & Blaisdell, by the decease of the late lamented senior partner of that house; and of course he will spare no effort to maintain the old A 1 repute of the corner stand. Among other specialties of this long-thriving grocery,—made so by the enterprising founder of the great retail business here—has long been the famous Lebanon cheese, an extra and favorite brand with all who once put their teeth in it; and by a certain infallible token from friend Blaisdell, which accompanied his new advertisement, we see that he is to retain the agency of this dairy. Sufficient for us to add now, what everybody already knows—that Blaisdell has always a large stock of the best goods in his line, standard and fancy; and it will be seen that he offers them at the lowest prices. Look out for "No. 1."

The Charleston Courier of the 10th says all Federal prisoners within reach of Sherman were safely removed.

Hardee is in command at Savannah! Beauregard left Charleston on the 7th for the scene of hostilities on the Charleston and Savannah road.

It is unusually quiet in our army around Petersburg. Two deserters from New Hampshire regiments were to have been hung there yesterday.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS

—— Lorenzo D. Brown, Esq., of Ottawa, Canada West, formerly of Concord sent to Gov. Gilmore eighty turkeys, as a contribution to the Soldiers' Thanksgiving Dinner.

—— Hon. William E. Chandler, of Concord, has been appointed to investigate the frauds connected with the Philadelphia Navy Yard, and ordered to report at that place.

—— On Saturday, Dec. 3d, Chaplain Barnes, formerly of the 17th N. H. Vols., picked up a large unexploded shell thrown over from one of the rebel batteries, near Howlett House, and brought it into his Quartermaster's tent. They unluckily commenced a critical examination of the shell, when it exploded, taking off the Quartermaster's leg, and severely wounding Chaplain Barnes in the side, besides other lookers on. Mr. Barnes is now chaplain of a colored regiment.

—— The residence of Rev. Dr. Crosby, in Charlestown, was entirely destroyed by fire on Wednesday morning, the family escaping only with their lives. Dr. C. had occupied the house for over fifty-three years.

—— The 2d Annual Session of the N. H. Musical Convention will take place in Concord, beginning Jan. 2, lasting four days, and closing with an excursion to Boston, and a grand concert in the Music Hall with the great organ.

—— They have set up a twelve-inch steam whistle at the Manchester Locomotive Works, which it is said can be heard ten miles, and has a very decided effect on the sleepers in the morning.

—— Gov. Gilmore has appointed Robert R. Corson, Esq., an aid upon his staff, with the rank of Colonel.

—— Rev. George B. Gow, late Principal of the Literary and Scientific Institution at New London, was installed as Pastor of the First Baptist Church in Gloucester, Mass., on Thursday evening, Dec. 8.

☞ The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has received a report from Wm. Farrell, a clerk in his bureau, who was sent to Detroit to examine into the defalcation of L. G. Berry, Collector of Internal Revenue for that district. Berry confesses to have used over $100,000 for speculations in whiskey and horse contracts, besides accommodating friends with loans. Much of this money has already been recovered, and Berry's private property will doubtless cover the entire deficit, without calling on his bondsmen.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated by UNCLE TOBY.

Tradition of a revelation to Mrs. Strong—Friction in the Government—50 gun ship America.—Lotteries—Rev. Saml. Haven ordained, 1752.

Our last note about Rev. Job Strong, brings up in the memory of an elderly women, a tradition about Mrs. Mary Strong, his wife. It runs on this wise: After their engagement, and just before their marriage, the prospective bride heard a voice, saying "Poor Mary! Poor Mary! Poor Mary!—a maid, a wife and a mother; a widow and childless,—all in one year!" Nevertheless, Mary was married, and the whole prediction was fulfilled. So says the tradition.

We turn away from this touching tradition, to the sober prose of New Hampshire politics more than a century old.

In 1749, the dispute between the Governor and Assembly respecting the right of sending writs to new towns for the choice of Representatives, had subsided during the war, but as soon as peace was established, the Governor [Benning Wentworth] received instructions from the British Court to dissolve the Assembly, and to call a new one; that writs should be sent to those towns whose representatives had been excluded, and that the Governor should protect the rights of the persons chosen.

The Assembly met the beginning of January. Their first act was to exclude the members from the new towns. They then chose Richard Waldron Speaker. The Governor negatived him, and ordered the House to admit the new members, and to choose another Speaker. Neither party was disposed to recede. The Assembly was kept under short adjournments. No business could be transacted, nor could any papers be obtained from the Recorder's office. The Recorder was chosen for three years, his time had expired, and a new choice could not be made, until the Assembly was organized. This suspension of business produced great clamour with the people. Many influential men in the province, attributed the existing difficulties to the Governor. They petitioned the King for his removal, and that Sir William Pepperell might be appointed in his stead. At the same time they addressed a letter to Sir William, who was about to embark for Europe on his private business, requesting him to accept the office, and to use the great influence he had at Court, to obtain it. The petition was sent to an agent in London, who advised them not to present it, for as the Governor had followed his instructions, there was no probability that the King would censure his conduct.

This year a ship of war, called the America, pierced for fifty guns, was built at the north end of the town, for the British government, under the superintendence of Colonel Nathaniel Meserve.

In Portsmouth, in the year 1750, a number of gentlemen associated, for the purpose of establishing a social library, upon the principles of a tontine. They made a small collection of books, some of which they imported from London, consisting principally of divinity and history. This year they set up a lottery for the purpose of aiding their funds, but it is uncertain whether it was sanctioned by law or not.

By a vote in the town of Portsmouth in 1751, the selectmen were authorized and empowered to purchase one hundred and twenty-five tickets in the social library lottery, and to appropriate the money, raised by the same, towards building and supporting a work house.

The readers in 1864 may smile at the greenness of their progenitors, as to the chance of getting money by the tickets—but these was something jocose in the vote to vest the proceeds in a work-house.

The contention between the Governor and the Assembly continued through the term for which the Assembly was elected. The new members were not allowed to take their seats, and the Governor did not approve of the Speaker; no public business was transacted. The Recorder's office was closed; the people were clamorous against the Governor as the source of all their troubles, but he remained firm and inflexible. Neither party was disposed to accommodate the other. The Assembly was dissolved of course, at the expiration of the term, and a new one was summoned, which met on the second day of January, 1752. The members from the new towns were admitted to their seats. Meshech Weare was elected Speaker, who was very acceptable to the Governor, and approved of by him. A Recorder was appointed, and the business of the session proceeded without interruption. The opposition to the Governor gradually declined, and harmony was restored among the members of government.

The Rev. Samuel Haven was ordained over the south church and parish the 6th of May, 1752.

☞ The Calais Advertiser says that a gentleman from Boston, by the name of Gyer, has agreed to build the St Stephen Branch Railroad on his own book, and relieve the company of all further trouble or anxiety. The conditions are that he is to commence opperations before the first of January, 1865, and expend in labor on said road by the first day of July, one hundred thousand dollars; then the Trustees agree to give him up the Charter of the road, government grant, &c. If he fails to fulfil his part of the agreement, that ends the matter and the present Company stands as it did before such agreement was entered into.

A GOOD IDEA.—In the order for the formation of Gen. Hancock's new corps of veterans it is proposed that "each recruit who preserves his arms may retain them as his own upon being honorably discharged." This is as it should be, but as it could not be at the beginning of the war on account of lack of arms. We look forward to the day when the instruments of war thus obtained will be handed down as heirlooms, precious as is the "revolutionary musket" or sword at this day. We have waited in silence for some older member of the corps editorial to dilate upon this subject, but have concluded to lift our feeble voice to applaud this decision, even though we do it alone.

A CONVENIENT BARN CISTERN.—Jas W. Fuller, of Lehigh Co., Pa., has recently constructed a barn with cistern attached; the cistern is situated at the rear of a side-hill barn, the wall forming one side of the cistern. A lead pipe placed a few feet underground connects the bottom of the cistern with the feed-trough in the barn and the trough in the yard. Water can thus be drawn in large or small quantities, without trouble or waste of time, and if properly arranged and having a waste cock, it is perfectly protected from frost.

☞ That valuable trotting horse Garibaldi, recently purchased in Maine by Mr. Nathaniel McKay of East Boston for $3000, was killed on Tuesday, being run into by another team, the shaft of the sleigh striking "Garibaldi" just behind the shoulder, entering the horse one and a half feet. Mr. McKay was thrown out of the sleigh, but soon recovered and pulled the shaft out of the horse and took him to a stable near by, where he died in thirty minutes. Mr. McKay would not have taken ten thousand for him. He was a splendid animal and has trotted this summer in 2:26, 2:28, and 2:30.

— A Washington correspondent of the New York Commercial says: "The owners of the famous Goodyear's patent for manufacturing india-rubber goods hope to secure its extension during the present session of Congress, although there are hundreds of remonstrances from all parts of the country before the Committee on Patents of the House."

CURIOUS TRANSLATION.—In Curwen's Letters he tells us that he saw in the British Museum the first Bible printed by authority:

"Turning to the 91st Psalm, instead of 'Thou shalt not be afraid of the terror by night,' I saw the following: 'Thou shalt not fear the bugs and vermin by night,' &c.—There were other remarkable differences, but I had not time to examine many texts."

— The Liverpool Mercury states that Mr. James Steed, a working joiner of that town, has invented a screw propeller, and that he states from experiments made on the Prince's Park lake, that with this screw he can get four times the speed of the ordinary screw with the same engine and the same pressure of steam.

A rich joke on General Butler is current in army circles, says a Washington letter. It seems that the regular officers have little faith in the Dutch Gap canal, and at a recent court martial in the Army of the James a soldier was sentenced to two years' hard labor on said canal. The report adds that Butler was disgusted, and dissolved the court immediately upon hearing of this finding and sentence.

— Several of the most respectable young ladies in Northampton, Mass., have recently been seized in the streets in the evening and kissed, a very harmless proceeding when properly done, but contraband on the street. The impudent rascals escaped in every case.

An old lady who had insisted on her minister praying for rain, had her cabbages cut up by a hail storm—and, on viewing the wreck, remarked that she "never knew him undertake anything without overdoing the matter."

— The printers and publishers of Maine are arranging to memorialize Congress in favor of the proposition for a reduction of the duty on printing paper, as has been done by the Western Associated Press.

— The Cincinnati Enquirer says a poor family of that city have come into a magnificent fortune of seven millions of dollars. They are the children of a Mrs. Wordell, a native of England, and a celebrated pill maker.

— A young merchant doing business in New York was taken violently, and, it is feared, incurably insane, Saturday evening, the cause being no less than excessive prosperity in business.

— About the 1st of this month four blockade runners went into Charleston, and one ran out. All of them were chased and fired at by Federal cruisers.

MY LABOR-SAVING HUSBAND.—Hints for other husbands.—Some husbands are more plague than profit, and make vastly more work than they do; but mine is one to brag about. When I was married, to my shame be it spoken, I had never made a loaf of bread or a pie. I had no idea of saving time or saving work. But I had a husband who had love enough for me to bear with my simplicity, and not scold when the bread was burned and the pies not fit to eat. Going into the kitchen one morning, he saw me baking buckwheat cakes, and greasing the griddle with a piece of pork on the end of a fork. He said nothing, but went into the wood-house, and soon returned with a smoothly-whittled stick, about six inches long, through the split end of which he had passed a folded strip of white cloth, and then wound it around the end and tied it with a bit of string. So I had a contrivance which could be dipped in melted grease, and put it smoothly over the griddle.

One day he saw me scouring knives with a piece of cloth. "Dear me!" said he, "you will surely cut your fingers." So he contrived a machine by nailing a broad piece of cork to a spool for a handle, sinking the head of the nail into the cork so far that it should not touch the knife. This lifts the hand from the knife and does not cramp the fingers.

I used to call him occasionally to thwack over the heavy mattress and straw bed for me. "What a nuisance!" he exclaimed, and so replaced them by a spring mattress. Of all the nice things for beds, this is the best. It is always in place, requires no shaking up, and it takes only three minutes to replace the bed-clothes, and the bed is made. It always looks round and inviting, and gently yields to the weight of the sleeper.

He saw the dish-towels hanging helter-skelter around the kitchen stove, and forthwith made the most convenient hanging-frame, over the wood-box, where it can take up no room and is near the stove. Here the towels hang smoothly and are always in place.

I fretted because my refrigerator had no shelves, and I could not make room enough for all the meat, butter, and milk. So he made two racks, and fitted ventilated shelves from the one to the other. The shelves are ventilated by being bored thick with auger-holes, and can be removed for scrubbing.

He is troubled to see me sew, sew, and stitch, stitch, and makes sewing-machines the constant topic of conversation. He reads to me every advertisement and every letter from women who praise them in the papers. If he could make one, I should be in possession of one immediately; but as he cannot, I must wait till "the ship comes in." These are some of the ways by which he lightens the labor of the house. Would more husbands were like him. Perhaps another time, I shall tell you how he contrives his own garden tools, and saves time and money by his ingenuity.—Hall's Journal of Health.

HAZLET'S
Honey of Horehound & Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound not within the means of all. At last, after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these five other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

☞ Capt. Hussey, formerly of the 69th N. Y. Regt., which won a world-wide fame under Col. Corcoran,—will lecture on Prison Life, at the Temple, next Sunday evening, Dec. 18. Capt. H. was twice a prisoner—taken at Bull Run and at Antietam, and has been in rebel hands over sixteen months. His recital is said to be deeply interesting.

The Newport, R. I., News says, "the entire time he was in the hands of the rebels was over sixteen months. During this period he had opportunities for making observations concerning Southern character and life, and learning something of the military condition and hopes of the Confederacy; and, especially, as six months of this time he was a paroled prisoner in the city of Richmond, having the liberties of the city, with ample chance of learning the condition of affairs. This temporary kindness was probably shown him in hopes of getting him to desert the Union cause, as his father was a Southern man, a native of South Carolina: but when he refused to take the oath to Jeff. Davis, he was at once cast into a dark dungeon under ground, with chains upon his wrists and feet, and fed only upon bread and water for a month. This course, however, proved equally unsuccessful with the other; for neither bribes nor cruelty could induce him to desert the flag of his country. The recitation of adventures in the South, as given by Capt. H., and especially of the horrors of a rebel prison, were deeply interesting. The speaker was frequently interrupted by applause."

A small admission fee will be charged, and all above expenses will be applied to the relief of our soldiers.

[Communication.]

TEMPERANCE MEETINGS.—The Sons of Temperance—an organization existing in this city, though we are sorry to say but little known among the men of influence here—have made arrangements by which there are to be Sabbath evening temperance lectures delivered by the different clergymen of this city, each one occupying his own pulpit; which meetings all who have an interest in the temperance cause and who desire that some effort shall be made to decrease the evils and sufferings occasioned by the sale and use of intoxicating drinks among us—are earnestly urged to attend, and thus throw the weight of their influence in favor of sobriety and morality in our community. Unless we are dead to a sense of this terrible scurge which is upon us, these meetings will be fully attended and a new interest will be awakened in the temperance cause in our city.

Rev. Mr. Lane, of the Middle St. Church, gave the opening lecture last Sabbath evening, but through an inadvertency no general notice was given, and therefore not so many were present as we could have colud have wished to listen to his able and pointed presentation of truths which every man and woman should hear; but notwithstanding the storm and the limited notice, three or four hundred were there, and doubly paid were they for their efforts to be present.

Rev. Mr. Patterson will deliver the second lecture in his church on Sabbath evening next. Let all who can hear him, and thereby seek for a revival of temperance interest in their own hearts. There is power enough in the moral and christian sentiment here to stop the open traffic in liquor with which we are now cursed, if that sentiment can only be concentrated, as it may be, against it. Let us try what we can do. We appeal to every person to help in this matter. W.

☞ Dental establishment No. 5 Daniel street, managed by Dr. A. P. Stevens, sends compliments to No. 60 Congress street, and begs leave to correct an error found in yesterday's Chronicle, given a place there of course by the request of the gentlemanly and enterprising proprietor of said institution in Congress street. Dr. S. still runs his gas machine, and succeeds in grinding out of it as pure an article of Nitrous Oxyd as can be produced elsewhere.

Having got the start of the other Dr. not only in the introduction of Nitrous Oxyd Gas as an anæsthetic, but also in the using of the Vulcanite Gum as a base for artificial teeth, No. 5 Daniel street will do or die in the effort to still keep ahead in the use of all good things that can tend either to relieve pain or to add "new beauties to the human face divine." S.

☞ The new train that has run between Great Falls and Kittery for the past fortnight carries a large number of passengers. The train leaves Kittery Station on the arrival of the afternoon train from Portland. Quite a number of people have left their boarding places in Portsmouth and have engaged board at Great Falls. Several have gone there also from Kittery, and their places at Kittery have been filled by persons who have boarded on this side of the river.

TEMPLE OF AMUSEMENT.—The great moral drama of George Barnwell, the London Apprentice, together with the glorious drama of Dick Turpin and Tom King will be presented at the Temple this evening. Making a rare and attractive bill for Saturday night. DRAMA.

☞ The New York firemen indulged in one of their good old fashioned fights on Monday evening, during the continuance of which four men were shot. These little altercations, though intensely amusing to the participants, are very disgusting to those of a sensitive mind who happen to be unwilling spectators of such affairs, as was our misfortune a few years since.

— George Gardner, an engineer in a factory at Malden, was arrested on Thursday for obstructing the track of the Eastern Railroad near Malden, and has confessed that he is the person who has recently made the many attempts to throw trains from the track near that point.

Said a crazy woman of a penurious and stingy man, an officer in the church, we regret to say, "Do you see that man? You could blow his soul through a hum bird's quill into a mosquito's eye and the mosquito wouldn't wink!" "La!" she continued, "they won't have to open the door of heaven but a precious little crack, if they let him in, I guess."

— Six mills in the Hagley yard of Dupont's Powder Mills, near Wilmington, Del., exploded on the morning of the 15th, killing ten men and wounding several others. The explosion was the most serious of any for several years.

— The Portlanders are much exercised for a name to apply to their new city hall, though why under the sun they want any other name than City Hall is beyond the ken of common people.

☞ The discharge of the St. Albans raiders has created great surprise in Canada, and meets with general condemnation. New warrants have been issued for their arrest.

— A dispatch from Montreal states that the money taken from the St. Albans Bank would be restored Friday.

☞ The New Hampshire Annual Register for 1865, is just published by G. Parker Lyon, Concord, and for sale by J. H. Foster, Portsmouth.

— The Sisters of Charity in Detroit were robbed of $700 in specie on Tuesday last. Rather a mean species of robbery.

— Jan. 13 is the day set apart for the execution of Green, the Malden murderer, who expects no reprieve.

— Married life too often begins with rosewood and mahogany and ends with pine.

— A sleigh capable of carrying two or three persons, attracted attention in Boston from its light weight—78 pounds.

— Gold 224 1-2.

MANUFACTURING GOBLETS.—A correspondent of the Mobile Register describes a new mode of manufacturing glass goblets.—He says—"I saw mine host, Dr. ——, doing something last evening that was new to me. Crockery and glass ware of the ordinary kind being well nigh obsolete in the Confederacy, and especially at Tangipaho, the doctor was simply manufacturing his own glassware. As his process is cheap, easy, simple and worthy of imitation I will describe it. Take a camer bottle, or any kind of a glass bottle—bottles of thin white glass, with flat bottoms are the best—hold the bottle firmly by both ends; let another person having a cup of water ready, pass a stout cotton cord twice round the bottle, and create a friction by pulling the ends of the cord to and fro rapidly for a minute or so; then let him jerk the cord off, dash the water on quickly, and presto! you hold in one hand as serviceable a tumber or goblet as you need wish, and in the other a neat but not gaudy candlestick. The bottle should be held with a strap, piece of leather, or other substance with a hard, straight edge, firmly around it at the intended point of severance, in order to keep the cord in one place during the friction, and to secure straight and smooth edges to the glassware. Old bottles can be put to good use in this way.

All efforts to rival the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Metal Soap have signally failed; we do not hesitate to pronounce it the cheapest and best Soap in existence; it will take our grease, spots, or paint, will make nice soft soap, and make clothes of all grades look better after washing than any other article of the kind in the market; it will not injure the finest fabric. Try it.—their Depot is at 112 Liberty Street, New York. Most of the grocers sell it. 34

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world affords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

☞ Special attention is asked to Hunnewell's preparations, advertised on our inside columns. They are based on true medical laws, used very largely by Physicians, and most undoubted testimonials are in the hands of the proprietor, always open to inspection. Let Portsmouth and its vicinity bear testimony by a confidence to test them, which will be sacred.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY.

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,

Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American and Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Models of the claim of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none be SECURED SUCCESSFULLY AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring Inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leaves me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on seven rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EXPERT ONE of whom was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Boston, Dec. 19, 1863.—8awly

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 8 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. Dow has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pains and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys; Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which shatters the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Irritation of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Tapeiba, warranted to cure Gonorrhœa in four days by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 8 Endicott street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that the most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated Dr. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

N. B.—The sick and afflicted will do well to give him a call. A short consultation will cost you nothing, and a word of friendly advice may save you years of suffering.

EYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. Long, she had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. Swett's PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and without one bad effect. I have sold more than twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cared me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the diseases above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if they do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No. 1 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. may26

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented. The castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. T. oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes entirely disposed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds in families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—as none of the air is allowed to come in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 30 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the dome can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Chesley, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,
WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 19, 1864.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until 1 o'clock P. M. on Thursday, the 29th day of December, 1864, for supplying the Light-house Establishment with thirty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained lard oil, and twenty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained sperm oil, to be divided into four lots, and to be delivered at the times undermentioned, alongside of the government supply vessels, or at Boston, or at any other place of deposit, to be designated by the Inspecting Officer or other authorized agent of the Light-house Board, in strong tight iron-bound, well-made casks, suitable for shipping, in good order, of a capacity, each, of from fifty to eighty gallons, not to exceed one hundred liters. The lard oil may be delivered at Boston or New York

Either lot of sperm oil, or both of them, may be delivered at New York, New London, Cape Harbor, Boston, New Bedford, Edgartown, or Nantucket, at the option of the bidders. The place of delivery must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be embraced in the contracts.

The four lots will be delivered as follows, viz:

Lot No. 1. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 5th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 2. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 15th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 3. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 1st day of June, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 4. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 1st day of August, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

No bid will be considered unless from a manufacturer of the article.

No part of the oil proposed for and to be embraced in the contracts under the head of this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, until it shall have been proved, to the entire satisfaction of the person or persons charged with its examination, test, and inspection, to be of the best quality pure winter strained or lagged oil, and free from mixture with other or inferior oils and adulterations.

The usual tests for determining the character and quality of the sperm oil will be employed, viz: specific gravity, burning, the amount of residuum, and any other proper tests to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.

The lard oil will be subjected to special tests, and will be rejected unless found to be, in regard to burning and fluidity, under reduction of temperature, and in every other respect, equal to that of the standard adopted by the Board, of which a sample will be furnished, on application to the Light-house Engineer at Boston, Mass.

The casks must be gauged under the direction and personal supervision of the inspecting officer, by a custom-house or other legally authorized and sworn gauger, according to the United States standard, and must be marked and accepted casks be taken from the Venetia Blacking on the cellar or warehouse of the contractor. The temperature of the oil will be accurately noted, and the measurement reduced to the standard temperature of 60° Farenheit by tables prepared for the purpose.

Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of the lots, at the option of the bidder; but no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified in one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bid must state explicitly the rate per gallon, in writing, the number of the lot or lots bid for, and the time and place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.

Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will not be considered.

The Light-house Board, under the authority of the Department, reserves the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other considerations than the price.

No bid will be considered for any other kind or description of oil than those specially called for in this advertisement.

A bond, with security to the satisfaction of the Department, in a penalty equal to one-fourth of the amount of each contract made under these proposals, will be required of each contractor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, to be executed ten days after the acceptance of the bid.

Each offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and known to the department as such, or certified by a United States district judge, attorney, navy agent, or collector of the customs, to the effect that if the bid be accepted, the bidder will fully execute a contract in good faith, according to the provisions and terms of this advertisement, within ten days after acceptance; and that in case the said party offering shall fail to enter into the contract as aforesaid, he or they guaranty to make good the difference between the offer of the said party and the next lowest bidder. All bids must be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for oil for light houses," and then placed in another envelope, addressed, prepaid, to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington City.

All bids will be opened, publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.

Payments will be made for the several lots of oil within thirty days after they shall have been received by the United States.

BY ORDER OF THE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD:
ANDREW A. HARWOOD,
d14-3taw2w Secretary.

Ayer's Ague Cure
For the speedy and certain cure of Intermittent Fever, Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers; indeed, for the whole disease of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the miasmatic or miasmatic countries.
FEVER AND AGUE is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Nausea and Vomiting, Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. Ayer's Ague Cure expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and, moreover, is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be overestimated. Ayer's Ague Cure is the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is too good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush; but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, while it imparts to the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.
Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.
Price, 12 Cents per Bottle.
Manufactured in the Chemical Department of the Calicoon Manufacturing Co., and for sale by Boot and Shoe Dealers everywhere.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1864.

THE REBELLION.

Dispatches from Nashville up to Friday afternoon at a quarter past 2 o'clock, show a battle on that day, with victory on the side of the Union. The dispatches say:

Hood has fallen back, and is apparently doing his best to get away, while Thomas is pressing him with great vigor, frequently capturing guns and men. Everything so far is perfectly successful, and the prospect is fair to crush Hood's army.—Just returned from the battle-field. Battle severe and terrific. Our forces victorious.

On Friday the Baltimore American received a dispatch from Annapolis stating that the steamer Varuna had arrived from Charleston harbor with the news that Gen. Sherman captured Savannah with 1100 prisoners after eight hours' fighting.

Richmond papers received at Washington Friday,—state that Gen. Sherman carried Fort McAllister, commanding the entrance to Ogeechee river, by storm, and that the capture of this position puts Sherman in communication with the Yankee fleet and necessitates the reinforcement of Savannah.

Richmond papers confirm the reported capture of Bristol by an expedition under command of Generals Stoneman and Burbridge; also the surprise and capture of the Glade Spring depot on the railroad, 13 miles south of Abington. They also contain the rebel Gen. Hood's official report of the battle of Franklin, in which he acknowledges the loss of many gallant officers and brave men, among whom he enumerates 12 generals killed and wounded, and one a prisoner.

Official dispatches from Gen. Canby, show the complete success of an expedition sent by him from Vicksburg to co-operate with Gen. Sherman's operations and cut Hood's communications with Mobile.

Gen. Davidson's great raid from Baton Rouge has been heard from. He reached Tangipaho on the 30th ult., burnt a conscript camp, destroyed all the stores and dwellings, capturing a large number of horses, and carried along with him immense numbers of negroes. Mobile papers of the 4th say he was marching on that city. He has a force of 5000 cavalry.

Price claims to have accomplished all he intended in Missouri and returned with immense stores at his leisure.

It is reported in Washington that the President has stated that Sherman reached Savannah with forty thousand more men, black and white, than he started with from Atlanta.

The Commercial's special Washington dispatch says Savannah is known to have been fortified in the rear by a triple line of earthworks, and may, therefore, demand a brief siege ere its fall.

Admiral Stribbling reports the destruction of a set of salt works in Tampa Bay by an expedition from his squadron on the 3d inst.

The Lawrence Tribune says the notorious brigand Quantrell was removed in an ambulance in Price's retreating army—sick beyond hope of recovery.

At Washington on Saturday, the President received dispatches announcing the complete defeat of Hood's army, which is rapidly being dispersed or captured. 200 guns were fired at noon, flags displayed, and every one jubilant. The account is official, from Gen. Thomas at Nashville. Already the capture of over 30 guns is announced and of some thousands of prisoners. Gen. T. says:—

The woods, fields and entrenchments are strewn with the enemy's small arms, abandoned in his retreat. In conclusion, I am happy to state that all this has been effected with but a very small loss to us. Our loss does not probably exceed 300, and very few killed.

— The Washington correspondent of the New York Independent says in one of the soldiers' hospitals of that city, the wife of a distinguished General has charge of a ward, and has lived in the hospital since last July, through the terrible August heats. While her husband risked his life upon the field of battle, she could not remain contentedly at home. Another ward in the same hospital is superintended by a daughter of a prominent New England Senator.

— A cruel practical joke was that of Mr. Lowe, the "aeronaut," when in a recent ascension in the vicinity of Philadelphia, he dropped a straw image of a man from his balloon at the height of a mile and a half. The inhabitants of the region, who were of course eagerly watching the balloon, rushed from all quarters to the spot where the figure fell and were doubtless greatly disappointed to find something less horrible than they expected.

By Telegraph—Sunday noon.

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington, Dec. 17.—To Maj. Gen. Dix:—Dispatches have been received to-day from Gen. Foster, who had a personal interview on the morning of Wednesday, the 14th inst., with Gen. Sherman at Fort McAllister, which had been taken by assault on the preceding day. Savannah was closely besieged and its capture with the rebel forces there was confidently expected. It was to be summoned to surrender in two days, and if not Sherman would then open his batteries upon it. Gen. Foster reports that Sherman's army is in splendid condition, having lived on its march on the turkies, chickens, sweet potatoes and other good things of the richest part of Georgia. Nothing has been heard from Gen. Thomas to-day. An unofficial dispatch states that the Provost Marshal of Louisville reports 5000 prisoners and 49 pieces of artillery as being already secured. It is ascertained that in transmitting Gen. Thomas' report last night a telegraphic mistake was made at Louisville or Nashville, in the estimated number of our casualties.—Gen. Thomas stated that his whole loss would not exceed 3000, and that very few were killed.

A dispatch from Lexington this evening states that on the 13th inst., at Kingsport, Tenn., Gen. Burbridge had a fight with Basil Duke's brigade (formerly John Morgan's) and routed it, with a loss to the enemy of 150 killed, wounded and prisoners, and their wagon train. Dick Morgan, a brother of John, was captured.

E. M. STANTON, Sec. of War.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—The Richmond Dispatch of the 15th says: "Since the failure of Warren's expedition against Weldon and his return discomfited, quiet has prevailed with the army of the Potomac." All Richmond telegrams announce that at Franklin, Tenn., Hood had captured 6000 prisoners. Hood in his official dispatch, however, only claimed 1000.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Gen. Dix, by command of the President, has revoked so much of his recent order as related to pursuing invading forces from Canada into neutral territory, directing military commanders in the frontier to report any invasion to him.

Gold closed at the evening exchange at 224 7-8.

☞ Our thanks to Mr. Charles Main, for a copy of the "Speech of Rev. Horatio Stebbins, delivered Oct. 25th in Platt's Hall, San Francisco," before the Union Central Committee. It is of course eloquent and patriotic—worthy of the golden State and the golden opportunity.—We are also under obligations to Mr. H. B. Rand of this city, for California papers at various times; also to Mr. C. C. Cushman, for Victoria papers; and frequently to others, whose favors if not always acknowledged, are not the less appreciated.

We are also indebted to a gifted lady subscriber in San Francisco, for copies of papers containing her able, earnest and sound writings against the divorce law of that State, and lax law and practice regarding the question anywhere. And by the way, in one of those papers, we are surprised to see a regular heading of "Divorced," among the Born, Married, and Died. The lady referred to was a school-girl in Portsmouth, and is as glad to hear the news from her old home, as we are to receive her favors referred to.

☞ We remember some years ago, the joker of the Boston Post, on the arrival of English news stating that Prince Albert was sick, and had been "confined" to his bed several days, remarked that he was glad he was taking his turn at last. So in the San Francisco Daily Morning Call, we notice a son "born to the wife of G. W. Stacy." Now we never heard of such a case before; and if true, this will be another added to the inducements for the ladies to migrate to that wonderful and prolific State,—though we doubt if their lords would be so ready to go; for if children be born "to" a wife, they must be "of" the husband, unless indeed she give him her maid for the purpose, as in bible times.

— Hard times are reported in California, chiefly on account of the droughts, and thousands of stalwart young men who went thither to avoid the pleasures of a draft, are said to have been compelled to accept enlistment with a bounty less than that paid here, even though the premium on gold be reckoned.

— A Boston merchant on Thursday paid the excise on 700 bbls. domestic spirits, which amounted to the snug little sum of $66,300. This is said to be the largest amount paid at any one time since the present internal revenue law has been in operation.

— Gen. Sherman's youngest child, six months old, died last week at South Bend, Ind., at the residence of Speaker Colfax. The General's eldest children are pupils in the Catholic College in the vicinity of that town.

— The "oldest General" in the world is not Gen. Scott, although that veteran thinks so, but Field Marshal Combermere of the British Army. He is Scott's senior by seventeen years.

— Artemas Ward notifies the gentleman who left phosphorus in his bed at the St. Nicholas Hotel, that if he will leave his name with Gen. Dix, he will hear of something to his advantage.

GOLD in Boston, Saturday, varies from 221 to 226 1-2, in consequence of good news from our advices.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS

—— Col. John Bedel of the 3d N. H. was captured on the 18th of July, 1863, at the storming of Fort Wagner. He was taken a few days afterward to the jail at Columbia, where he has remained till the 9th inst.—five months of that time in solitary confinement. He arrived at Annapolis, on the 14th, among the paroled Union officers from Charlestown. Capt. V. H. Hill, A. Q. M., and Lieut George H. Drew of the 9th, both New Hampshire officers, were left by Col. Bedel in jail, doing well.

—— The Democratic State Convention for the nomination of candidates for Governor and Railroad Commissioner, will be held at Concord, on the 11th of January next.

—— While the down train from Concord was in motion before Hooksett bridge, Thursday forenoon, a substitute jumped from one of the cars. He was fired at by the guard, and brought down, the ball taking effect in his shoulder.

—— Mr. Ezra E. Hardison, a watchman in the Cocheco Mills, Dover, while on duty on Thursday night last, fell from a walk in the rear of the mill a distance of about twenty feet, fracturing his skull and receiving other injuries which caused his death in three or four hours.

—— Deerfield last week voted to pay a bounty of $1000 to all volunteers who belong to the town and enlisted in the United States service.

GROWTH OF TOWNS.—The Concord Statesman gives from Lyon's "New Hampshire Annual Register," some interesting statistics of the relative growth of some of the largest towns in the State, which show the effect which has been produced in the course of a hundred years by the changes which have taken place in that time in the pursuits of the people. These statistics are gathered from the census returns of ten successive decades from 1767 to 1860. In the census of 1767, Portsmouth was the largest town in population in the State and so remained until the census of 1850.—Dover stood fourth in the list, being exceeded by Londonderry and Exeter, while there were twenty one towns larger than Concord. In 1790 Rochester stood next to Portsmouth, being the second town in the State. In 1800 Gilmanton stood next to Portsmouth, followed by Barrington. Dover stood tenth in the list and Concord next. In 1820 Dover stood fifth in the list and Concord sixth, having Portsmouth, Gilmanton, Sanbornton, and Londonderry above them. In 1830 Dover became the second town in the State, Gilmanton third, and Concord fourth. In 1840, the four largest towns were Portsmouth, Dover, Nashua and Concord. In 1850, Manchester came at the head of the list, with 13,933 inhabitants, followed by Portsmouth, Nashua, Concord and Dover. In 1860, these places had all become cities, and ranked as follows: Manchester, Concord, Nashua, Portsmouth and Dover, which order they doubtless retain at this time. Dover was the largest town in the State from the early settlements in New Hampshire down to about 1695, when Portsmouth took the lead and kept it until outstripped by Manchester in 1846.

A SINGULAR CASE.—A gentleman in one of our suburban cities raised a company two or three years since for one of our regiments and departed for the battle-field, leaving behind a young wife. A few months after the lady gave birth to a child, and subsequently the name of her husband appeared among those killed in one of the battles fought by the Potomac army. A body, said to be that of her husband, was sent to her, and the remains were interred, she believing all the time that she was burying her husband. The lady remained single about a year, then removed her mourning, was married again, and now has a child by her second husband. A few weeks ago the wife was somewhat surprised at reading the name of her first husband in a list of Massachusetts soldiers who had recently been released from a rebel prison, he having arrived at Annapolis, Md. She now has two living husbands, and children by both.—Traveller.

HARPER'S MONTHLY for December and January, are before us, by mail from the publishers. They contain Nos. 1 and 2 of "Heroic Deeds by Heroic Men," by John S. C. Abbott. These papers are nothing less than a lively description of some of the most stirring events of the present war, by a celebrated writer—illustrated with numerous engravings. These papers are worth the price of the numbers;—and there is a rich table of contents besides.

What quadrupeds are admitted to balls, operas, and dinner parties?—White kids.

KEARSARGE.

Hail to thee, battle-ship,
Home from the fight
With traitors, and bastards,
And pirates outright!

Fighting 'em—odds given—
Sinking their craft,
Proudly, oh, battleship,
Forward and aft.
Let me behold
Thee and thy flag!
Flag against rag,
Scouting 'em, routing 'em,
But never doubting 'em,
Spite of their tender,
Semmes's defender,
What did inquire thee?
Never an eagle swooped on his prey
As thou on the rebels and pirates that day!

Oh, 'twas a manly, a glorious fight,
Greenock's headlands almost in sight—
Driving 'em, sinking 'em, serving 'em right!

Hurrah for thy Winslow,
Thornton and tars!
Hurrah for great hearts,
Triumph and scars!
Glorious battle-ship,
Fight to the last;
In grimmest sea-battles
Lightnings and blast!
Screaming the wild birds,
Heaving the sea,
Fight, with thy might, for the right,
Fight for the free.

God bless thy quarter-deck, God bless thy rails;
God bless thy bulwarks, stanchions, and sails;
God bless thy ropes and shrouds, timbers and knees;
God bless thee always, pride of the seas!

— A Scotch lady thus writes of a gentleman who uses tobacco:

May never lady press his lips, his proffered love returning,
Who makes a furnace of his mouth, and keeps his chimney burning.
May each true woman shun his sight, for fear his fumes would choke her:
And none but those who smoke themselves have kisses for a smoker.

HALE'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, or all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into one form, so that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a tedious and costly chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these five other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

A Card to Invalids.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, Free of Charge.

Please inclose a stamped envelope, addressed to yourself.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETTS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "DYE," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

SIDEWALK DELINQUENTS.—Several persons are before the Boston Police Court daily for neglecting to remove snow and ice from the sidewalks, according to law. The penalty imposed is $5, without costs. One party appealed and was held in $50 to appear at the Superior Criminal Court. Why don't Marshal Dresser bring out his delinquents? There are plenty of them.

☞ Orders were received at the Naval rendezvous at this station, last week, to cease enlisting substitute recruits in the Navy. So at present they must enlist in the Army or nowhere.

☞ We are informed that it is the design of the Hospital Steward at Fort Constitution, to form a Library and Reading Room for the invalid soldiers there. There are books and magazines in almost every house, of little or no value where they are, but which would confer much pleasure if given to the soldiers. Any such books or pictorial papers and the like, left at the Chronicle office or Mr. S. W. Moses' store, will promply reach their destination.

☞ We learn that Mr. Thomas A. Swords, formerly clerk in Paymaster Emery's office at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, has received the appointment of Acting Assistant Paymaster, and is awaiting orders. We are sorry to part with so genial a fellow-clerk, and we think we speak the sentiment of all who are acquainted with him when we say that a finer gentleman and a better-hearted individual can seldom be found. He came into this port as Paymaster's Clerk in the ill-fated DeSoto, and has, since his stay among us, secured the esteem and confidence of all who know him.

☞ The recent order from the Navy Department relative to the landing of boats elsewhere than at the Yard, has been deferred again to the 22d inst. In the mean time the government is to provide landing-places at Kittery Foreside, by removing the floating stages that are now used at the Navy Yard wharves to Kittery shore.

☞ The Portsmouth correspondent of the Ballot, speaking of the contemplated prohibition of workmen's boats landing at the Navy Yard, says that "if the order goes into effect, the Portsmouth men will be obliged to seek some landing place at Kittery, which must be constructed at great expense, or walk around to the Navy Yard. The effect will prove a 'big thing' for Kittery, as the rental of landing privileges will be great, and chances for rental and sale of real estate will be multiplied.

Kittery has thrived under the new era of things at the Yard, and while not a half a dozen dwellings are being built in Portsmouth, there are about a dozen nearly fifty buildings in the course of construction. Quite a lot of houses have been bought of the Great Falls Manufacturing Co., at Somersworth, taken down, and the materials have been taken to Kittery, and the houses reconstructed there. The average number of applications for a vacant tenement were over twenty-five per day. On one spot of land on the road leading from the village to Portsmouth Bridge, quite a number of squatters have put up cheap houses for temporary accommodation. Many lots of land have changed hands at high prices, and the building fever is at extreme height.

Portsmouth still reposes. The holders of large lots of land do not wish to sell. Why should they? It is pleasant to see large fields near their houses, and the assessors kindly omit to tax them for more than a nominal sum, because they do not pay their owners any profit! The result is, Kittery grows rapidly in wealth and has added an enormous amount to her taxable property during the present year in the shape of new houses, while we here and there get a new house where an old one stood before, and our large unoccupied tracts of land remain undeveloped and untaxed, and while with an increased expenditure we have no corresponding increased amount of property to be taxed.—The result will make Portsmouth "the dearest spot" to live in, and Kittery the cheapest."

CAMILLE.—This great play was brought out in fine style by Bidwell & Pike's Company last Thursday evening and made a most decided sensation, unusual pains being taken to make it a success. The beautiful furniture, carpets, &c., added tenfold to the effect of the piece, and the costumes were magnificent, and expensive, and Camille has proved the great hit of the season. It will be presented again this evening, and we advise all who wish to see a good play well acted to avail themselves of this opportunity. Good order is enforced.

DRAMA.

☞ The very high tariff on Spool Cotton Thread, hitherto mostly imported, has resulted in extensive home works, the Portsmouth Factory taking the lead. The war will be the occasion of perfecting, as well as introducing, the richest and finest goods hitherto exclusively imported, and especially keep our workshops at home.

HISTORICAL LECTURE.—The Journal learns that "Mr. William Seavey is soon to deliver in our city a historical lecture on the 'Life and Times of Petrarch, the Italian Poet.' The subject would indicate the lecture to be an interesting one. The century in which Petrarch lived, the dawn of that brighter era which shown upon Europe in the Reformation, was marked by the revival of letters in Italy, the decline of the Venetian Republic, the revolution of Rienzi, "the last of the tribunes," at Rome, and other important events. Mr Seavey, who is a graduate of the Journal office, has for the past year or two been a student of medicine; and is now induced to appear before the public as a lecturer that he may raise the means to prosecute the studies of his profession. We wish him success in the enterprise."

☞ Quite a crowd assembled on Saturday evening, to witness a fight which was appointed to come off between two Navy Yard workmen in front of the Post Office building at 7 o'clock. The prompt interference of the police, however, prevented the disgrace of the two individuals, whose names we withhold for the credit of their families. The quarrel originated on the Yard, and as fighting is against the regulations of that place—save for the purpose of repelling invasions—they proposed to meet on the public square of this city, being green enough to suppose that Portsmouth, demoralized and corrupt though it be, would tolerate such proceedings.

POLICE COURT, Saturday, 17th.—The notorious pickpocket, Fanny Kusick, was arrested on Friday and taken before the Police Court on Saturday morning. She confessed as to having picked a number of pockets in the Post Office, and is an adept in the business. Bound over in the sum of $100 to appear at the S. J. Court to be held at Exeter in April. Mittimus issued.

———, a common night-walker, was sentenced to the House of Correction for three months and pay costs of prosecution, $3.86.

☞ Mr. J. G. H. Shorey, formerly agent of Duprez & Green's negro minstrels, was arrested on Friday on suspicion of having "lifted" the pocket of Mr. Farwell at the Eastern Depot in October last, and was bound over in the sum of $700 for his appearance at the Police Court on Monday.

☞ Three fast young men from this city, while on their way from Kingston on Friday, amused themselves by assaulting a gentleman from Exeter. They were pursued to this city, arrested here by the police, and taken to Exeter, where they settled the affair by paying $25 each.

STREET LAMPS.—"As times are hard, and taxes may soon be high, and there is a rage for economy in city expenditures, and little or no use in sending light into the sky, we suggest that reflectors over the street lamps would send down the light that now goes toward the fixed stars; and the taxpayers would get the benefit of it. Gas has been burned in the streets for near half a century, during which time a third of it has been wasted." This is what the American Artisan says about gas in New York; and if true, perhaps it may be worth while to think of it here.

☞ Ship Southerner, 1386 tons, of Liverpool, England, Capt. Mosher, from Quebec for London, in a leaky state, endeavored to make the harbor of St Pierre, Miq, on the night of the 24th ult, struck on the south point of Dog Island and immediately bilged. Crew and portion of the cargo saved. The Southerner was built in this city in 1851 by Messrs. Fernald & Pettigrew, and was known as the Levi Woodbury.

☞ Mons. Dubois desires us to state that his French Class for ladies, will commence at Mercantile Hall, this Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The place is very pleasant, and so far as we have had opportunity to judge, we should say Mons. D. will prove a competent teacher.

☞ Our brief mention of Mr. Blaisdell's No. 1 grocery, Saturday morning, by mistake got sandwiched in between—items of news—which it should not have been, as it is not "news" that he keeps a good store, though it is true that you can find the best of materials there for sand-wiches.

We were never aware that there was so great a difference in the qualities of bar soap until after using the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap; our advice to our readers is, go without delay to your grocer and get a supply, for it is a truly wonderful article, and will not injure the finest fabric; our experience is that it is the best and greatest dirt-extracter known among the many different brands in the market. Their Depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York. 3S

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,
WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 19, 1864.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until 1 o'clock P. M. on Thursday, the 29th day of December, 1864, for supplying the Light-house Establishment with thirty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained lard oil, and twenty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained sperm oil, to be divided into four lots, and to be delivered at the times mentioned, alongside of the government supply vessels, or at the warehouse or other place of deposit, to be designated by the Inspecting Officer or other authorized agent of the Light-house Board, in strong, tight, iron-bound, well-made casks, suitable for shipping, in good order, of a capacity, each, of from thirty to thirty gallons, not to exceed the latter. The lard oil may be delivered at Boston or New York.

Either lot of sperm oil, or both of them, may be delivered at New York, New London, Cape Harbor, Boston, New Bedford, Edgartown, or Nantucket, at the option of the bidders. The place of delivery must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be embraced in the contracts.

The four lots will be delivered as follows, viz: Lot No. 1. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 5th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 2. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 15th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 3. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 1st day of June, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 4. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 1st day of August, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

No bid will be considered unless from a manufacturer of the article.

No part of the oil proposed for and to be embraced in the contracts under the head of this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, until it shall have been proved, to the entire satisfaction of the person or persons charged with its examination, test, and inspection, to be of the best quality pure winter strained or bagged oil, and free from mixture with other or inferior oils and adulterations.

The usual means for determining the character and quality of the sperm oil will be employed, viz: specific gravity, burning, the amount of residuum, and any other proper tests to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.

The lard oil will be subjected to special tests, and will be rejected unless found to be, in regard to burning and fluidity, under reduction of temperature, and in every other respect, equal to that of the standard adopted by the Board, of which a sample will be furnished, on application to the Light-house Engineer at Boston, Mass.

The casks must be gauged under the direction and personal supervision of the inspecting officer, by a custom-house or other legally authorized and sworn gauger, according to the United States standard, and must be marked and accepted before they are removed from the cellar or warehouse of the contractor. The temperature of the oil will be accurately noted, and the measurements reduced to the standard temperature of 60° Farenheit by tables prepared for the purpose.

Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of the lots, at the option of the bidder; but no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified as one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bid must state explicitly the price per gallon, in writing, the number of the lot or lots bid for, and the time and place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.

Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will not be considered.

The Light-house Board, under the authority of the Department, reserves the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other considerations than the price.

No bid will be considered for any other kind or description of oil than those specially called for in this advertisement.

A bond, with security to the satisfaction of the Department, in a penalty equal to one-fourth of the amount of each contract made under these proposals, will be required of each contractor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, to be executed ten days after the acceptance of the bid.

Each offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and known to the department, to be such, or certified by a United States district judge, attorney, navy agent, or collector of the customs, to the effect that, if the bid be accepted, the bidder will duly execute a contract in good faith, according to the provisions and terms of this advertisement, within ten days after acceptance; and that in case the said party offering shall fail to enter into the contract as aforesaid, he or they guaranty to make good the difference between the offer of the said party and the next lowest bidder.

All bids must be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for oil for light houses," and then placed in another envelope, and directed, prepaid, to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington City.

All bids will be opened, publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.

Payments will be made for the several lots of oil within thirty days after they shall have been received by the United States.

BY ORDER OF THE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD:
ANDREW A. HARWOOD,
d14-3tw2w Secretary.

Ayer's Ague Cure,
For the speedy and certain cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.
FEVER AND AGUE is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, the malignancy of which only shows as Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most spectacular remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and, moreover, is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over-estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.
Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Brackett Hutchings, J. H. Thacher, W. H. Preston, David Kimball, and all druggists. n30d1aw 2m Tu

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and beautifies the leather.
Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.
Price, 12 Cents per Bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1864.

THE CONFEDERATE ARMY.—The Military Committee of the Confederate Congress has reported a bill for the employment of free negroes and slaves as laborers with the army. All free male negroes between 18 and 50 years of age are to be liable to service, and are to receive eighteen dollars per month, with rations and clothing. Forty thousand slaves are to be hired at rates to be fixed—payable to masters—who are also to receive compensation if they are killed or wounded. If the 40,000 cannot be hired they are to be impressed. —Exchange.

Well well, says Uncle Toby, that is something; but it is no more like the threat of aiming all the slaves, than a boy on stilts is like a man six feet high. If the negroes are to be only laborers, than the bill proposes nothing new; for they have been so employed, in considerable numbers, ever since the rebellion broke out. If, on the other hand, the 40,000 slaves are to be armed, then the rebels cannot be too quick about it: for if the slaves are to fight, and their masters to be paid, the blacks will desert worse than our bounty jumpers; and no reasonable men can blame them.—But the proposition, in all its forms, is evidence that soldiers are getting scarce down that way.

☞ The Panama Chronicle says that Chas. Golden, 2d Vol. Sergt. of steamer Golden Age, shot and killed a sailor named Daily, who was a little obstreperous and disobeyed the order to enter the boat; "and threatened to shoot another for contradicting him, and would doubtless have done so but for the stern attitude assumed by Admr. Pearson," who chanced to be near, and interested himself in the matter, and reported it to the Am. Consul. The wretch Golden also jumped on the corpse, as it lay in the ship's boat.

The Chronicle also blames Adm. P. for not arresting the murderer at once, and handing him over to the authorities—instead of giving him opportunity to do more mischief or escape, by going on board his ship. Golden was afterwards arrested, on board the Golden Age at the instance of the Consul; but before that when the Police called on the Adm. for aid, he "declined to act the part of Police officer for that Govt." To which the Chronicle replied:

Although we are not police officers nor any other kind of officers whatever, when we see a thief trying to filch the Admiral's watch out of his fob, whilst his attention is diverted in his usual gallant manner to the ladies, we will be the first to assist in arresting the thief and saving the watch, and we think the gallant Admiral will thank us.

TERRIBLY DEFEATED. One who has made the matter one of special observation, says that Wheeler has defeated Kilpatrick's cavalry at least forty times since Sherman commenced his march, although the latter was usually aided by from one to three brigades of infantry; and he should not be surprised if, on the total result of all these defeats, Kilpatrick's cavalry should reach the seaboard nearly as strong as when it left Atlanta.

TRUE AS A BOOK.—A man may become rich by being poor in desires—Exchange.

Yes, but is it any easier to crucify desire, than to "become rich?" Happiness consists in the gratification of reasonable desires; and a man's external circumstances really seem to have very little to do with it.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS.—Ticknor & Fields, Boston, have just issued Number 1, for January—a beautifully illustrated, worthy Magazine, for boys and girls. It is edited by J. T. Trowbridge, Gail Hamilton, and Lucy Larcom: contains 80 pages,—and sold at 20 cents per number, or $2 per annum.

— The Panama Chronicle says that the presence of F. W. Rice as U. S. Consul at Aspinwall, has done more to prejudice the world against that port, than all the malarious fevers that ever existed there—and adds, that the distress which he has been accustomed to inflict on sea-captains who do not pay him homage, ought long ago to have been publicly rebuked.

— There was a report in some paper a few weeks ago, that by running two Union electoral tickets in Kansas, the people there had really chosen McClellan's electors. It was not true. The National Intelligencer gives the figures. The Union ticket was chosen, having 13,000 votes for two candidates, and 8,600 for the third; while 5,000 were thrown away on a rival candidate.—The opposition mustered 3,600 only,—out of which to make a stupid falsehood, as useless as it was stupid.

THE BEST ITEM YET.—Gosse, the local editor of the Portland Argus, has taken to himself a wife—his best item yet, beyond all question. We congratulate him, her, them. Gosse is a good fellow,—and we would add more, but fear the press will spoil him with the compliments they are showering on him;—but we must say, they are all deserved, though,—by Gosse!

— Bishop Fitzpatrick, of the Catholic Church, is dangerously ill in Boston.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Keene Sentinel says in reference to the matrimonial imbroglio referred to last week: "Mr. Chase, who so imprudently married while a former wife was living, and before she was lawfully divorced was, on his arrival here from Brattleboro', examined by medical experts from Boston, acting under the State authority of Massachusetts, and pronounced not of sound mind. Under the proper certificate issued, he was taken to a hospital. Miss Brewer has returned to her mother, in Fitzwilliam."

—— H. Jordon, Co. I, 3d regiment, is reported to have died in prison hospital at Savannah; and J. Stewart, Co. E, 4th regiment, at the rebel prison in Florence, S. C.

☞ The Boston Courier folks are wise in changing their's to an evening paper, Jan. 1st. It will hardly cost half as much to publish it then, as in the morning. A morning paper is an absurdity, any way,—a horror to printers and all connected with it—entailing night-work on all hands.

We should like to change this Chronicle also to the afternoon; and mean to do it the first good chance we get. When the present able managers of the Boston Traveller took that concern in charge, their first step was to cut off the morning edition.

What matters it if people do wait an hour or two for their "news?" Better that, than wear out printers, and editors, and telegraph operators so fast. How useless, for instance, to exhaust human nature, steam and lightning, the other night, to get the President's excellent Message before the people, an hour or two earlier than the mail!

HONORS TO THE PRESIDENT.—When the news of President Lincoln's re-election, or rather of the success of the Union party, was received on board the noble U. S. frigate Niagara, at Antwerp—Commander Craven informs Sec. Welles:

"The Niagara was immediately dressed with our national flag flying at her masthead. Considering this to be the greatest and most important contest of the war, and most glorious in its results, I have again dressed ship to-day, and at noon fired a salute of twenty-one guns. It is, I believe, the first time since our national existence, that such a demonstration was made by any of our ships of war; but the occasion seems so momentous and all-glorious to me, that I could not resist the impulse to thus manifest my joy."

— The St. Albans Messenger states that during the two hours Judge Coursol pretended to take his judgement in the case of the raiders into consideration—adjourning the Court for that purpose—he busied himself in copying the opinion he was to deliver, which had been drawn up by the prisoners' counsel.

— The old "Hingham Stationary Packet" has foundered at her moorings, after lying afloat at the head of Long Wharf, Boston, for upward of forty-four years. She had been a stationary packet so long that she had come to be regarded as a land mark of the past.

— A schism has arisen among the Roman Catholics in Greenock, Scotland, between the Scotch and Irish priests, to such a hight that the R. C. bishop has withdrawn from the former the power of giving absolution, thus virtually excommunicating two congregations with 12,000 souls.

— It looks as though Russia was about to inaugurate another eastern war. News from Odessa, via Vienna, says that a Russian army, sixty thousand strong, is about to be stationed along the frontiers of Austria, and the Vienna papers predict an immediate attempt on the part of Russia to overturn Turkey.

— In the Supreme Court at Portland on Friday, Isaiah Dalcey, indicted for keeping a drinking house and tippling shop, also indicted for keeping a nuisance, pleaded guilty to both indictments and paid the cost, amounting to $46.03. The cases were continued for sentence.

— A soldier named Richard Hoffman writes to the Cincinnati Commercial that inasmuch as he lost an arm at the battle of Stone River, and his brother a leg at Buena Vista, he considers it hard that both have been summoned to pay a fine of $5.20 for non-performance of militia duty in Cincinnati.

— On Thursday morning, a barn belonging to Mr. John Lester, of Factory Pond, Vt., 20 by 60, was taken up and carried ten feet by the wind. Two men were in it at the time, and had just finished nailing down the floor.

— One day last week as a couple of Middletown (Ct.) men were driving through Main street in that city, a concealed bomb exploded under the horses' heels, tearing off one of the wheels, but inflicting no further damage. It made a hole in the ground.

— Some of the vendors of "shoddy" have got themselves into trouble by selling boas and muffs made of colored rabbit fur, which they represented to the purchasers as marten or other valuable pelt.

— Maj. Gen. Dix has been authorized by the War Department to raise one regiment of cavalry for service on our frontier.

THE REBELLION.

An official dispatch of Gen. Sherman, Dec. 13th, says:

"I estimate the population of Savannah at 25,000, and the garrison at 15,000. Gen. Hardee commands. We have not lost a wagon on the trip, but have gathered in a large supply of negroes, mules, horses, &c., and our teams are in far better condition than when we started. My first duty will be to clear the army of surplus negroes, mules and horses.

We have utterly destroyed over 200 miles of rails and consumed stores and provisions that were essential to Lee's and Hood's armies. The quick work made with McAllister, and the opening of communication with our fleet and consequent independence for supplies, dissipates all their boasted threats to head me off and starve the army. I regard Savannah as already gained."

Gen. Thomas, in his place near Franklin, Tenn., Saturday, Dec. 17, says:

"We have pushed the enemy to-day beyond Franklin, capturing his hospitals, containing over 1500 wounded, and about 150 of our wounded in addition to the above. Gen. Knipe, commanding a division of cavalry, drove the enemy's rear guard through Franklin to-day, capturing about 250 prisoners and 5 battle flags, with very little loss on our side.

The citizens of Franklin represent Hood's army as completely demoralized.

In addition to the capture of yesterday, reported in my dispatches of last night, I have the honor to report the capture of Gen. Rucker and about 250 prisoners of the enemy's cavalry in a fight that occurred last night between Gen. Rucker and Gen. Hatch's cavalry.

The enemy has been pressed to-day both in front and on both flanks. Brig. Gen. Johnson succeeded in striking him on the flank just beyond Franklin, capturing quite a number of prisoners—number not yet reported. My cavalry is pressing him closely, and I am in hopes of getting many more prisoners to-morrow."

Other dispatches (unofficial) from Nashville, states that 1000 prisoners were captured by Wilson, and that Gen. Rosseau, commanding at Murfreesboro', reports 1500 of his men captured.

Richmond papers are laboring hard to explain away Gen. Sherman's march through Georgia to Savannah.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 15th, has a semi official editorial in favor of arming the slaves. It says Gen. Lee is in favor of the proposition.

The Enquirer says when we supplicate Eropean nations for help we must be prepared to receive it on their conditions, which will be the abolition of slavery. It also asks: "Shall we prolong the war, sacrifice our children, exhaust our country, destroy our noble defenders, for the sake of our negroes?" It concludes; "But we hate, detest and despise the enemy far more than we love and admire slavery."

The Petersburg Express of the 15th says the enemy now has nearly four corps south of Appomattox, independent of cavalry, but the roads are in too bad a state to use them.

A letter from Admiral Dahlgren, dated the 14th inst., to the Secretary of the Navy, states that he was busy buoying the Savannah river for an attack on Savannah in aid of Sherman. Dahlgren and Foster held an interview with Sherman on the 14th.

Richmond papers concede the capture of Savannah.

NAVAL.—A powerful naval fleet sailed from Fortress Monroe on Monday last, under Admiral Porter, with Generals Butler and Weitzel on board. It is understood that Weitzel's corps is also on board. The fleet was spoken on the 15th inst., fifteen miles north of cape Hatteras, bound South, and pretty well in shore.

News from the fleet is due by Wednesday. It comprises sixty-four vessels, carrying five hundred and ninety-seven guns.

There are nearly one hundred and fifty vessels of all kinds, including "devils" and torpedo craft, with the fleet; also several mammoth torpedoes, some of them made on a new plan. Fourteen of these have been towed with the expedition.

— The recent glorious news from our armies South and West has produced a considerable fall in gold, that metal having gone down 17 per cent. in two days.

— Gold closed at 213 in New York on Monday.

— In the Senate, on Monday, Mr. Sumner presented a petition from Henry Ward Beecher and 3000 citizens of New York for the abolition of slavery. Referred.

— A first class passenger locomotive, which could formerly be built for eight or ten thousand dollars, now costs twenty-five or twenty-eight thousand dollars.

— A dull person does some things better than a man of genius; as an ivory paper-folder cuts the leaves of a book better than a keen blade.

— A bankrupt was condoled with the other day for his embarrassment. "Oh, I'm not embarrassed at all; it's my creditors that are embarrassed."

— A late invention is the moustache Spoon, having a bridge across the centre, and an opening at the point, very like the moustache cup.

— An exchange asks if Speed in the Cabinet will hasten the termination of the war.

— Women are like riddles. They please us no longer when they are known.

— Two of the students of Yale walked from New Haven, Ct. to the city of Hartford (thirty-six miles) week before last, in seven hours and a half.

— A married monster said he lately dreamed that he had an angel by his side, and upon waking found it was nobody but his wife.

HALE'S

Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of TAR extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound brought within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these five other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE. 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "DYE," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy, and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "BALD HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

PORTSMOUTH, Dec. 17.

Messrs. Editors:—Will you be kind enough to inform the writer of this communication through your columns, how it is and why it is, that we have only three Police Officers in our city? Our city government is throughout, to my way of thinking, a one-horse affair; but allowing that, why should they not carry it on in even a one-horse style? Our public streets are so blockaded by loafers from 6 o'clock to 10 P. M., that it is very disagreeable, if not entirely unsafe, for a lady to walk through Islington, Congress, Market or Pleasant streets, at or between either of these hours. On every corner of the above-mentioned streets, after sunset, and at almost all hours on the Sabbath, are collected together crowds of males (we cannot class them men) making vulgar remarks on respectable people as they pass,—spitting tobacco juice, &c. Strangers visiting the city the past year have said repeatedly that they never saw so many rowdies, male and female, and never heard such language used on the street, as in Portsmouth.

Messrs. Editors, this is too true. We all know that City Marshal Dresser does the best he can; but when one man is obliged to do the work of ten or twelve, is it to be expected that the work can be well accomplished? And how much longer (for a rough estimate, I mean,) is this thing to continue? I suppose until some serious trouble occurs, and the city finds itself obliged to pay several thousand dollars for sundry damages. If so, for future benefit, the sooner it takes place the better.

A short time ago I read in your columns a communication signed "Physician," in regard to the great nuisance of dogs, and giving a true and moving account of a little child's being attacked on one of our streets on its way to school, by one of these useless creatures. Yes, a child disfigured for life by a dog, and no notice taken of it by the public, and no redress given. Now why not,

Messrs. City Governors do turn over a new leaf, and before the new year begins have the nuisance of dogs removed from our streets, and the creatures more disgraceful than dogs, from our corners after sunset.

A CITIZEN.

Reply.—"A Citizen," although he omits to give us his name, shall be heard; but we doubt the effectiveness of denunciation, in this as in other matters. As to Police, we are not informed of the number we have or should have; but we have no doubt they do as much work as they are paid for, as it is. The loafers in the streets are an intolerable nuisance—we too think, worse than we ever saw anywhere else; but the Police are not alone accountable for it—public opinion is decidedly averse to the enforcement of almost any law; and many people who consider themselves, and perhaps are really respectable, would think it rather hard that our walks should be cleared of all loafers, as they should be. This is indeed a crying, and a growing evil; but the people must help reform it—the Police alone can't do it, unsupported.

Look at the Snow Ordinance, for instance—which requires every resident to clear the sidewalks, and level down the snow thrown off! Who obeys that—which enjoins only what common sense demands, in the absence of all law? Why, scarcely half our best citizens pay any regard to it—and not ten men in town ever think of levelling the snow. What nonsense, to talk of a City Marshal enforcing a law which nobody means to obey! Why, on the way to our residence on High street, we daily pass the spacious premises of an officer receiving a most liberal salary from Government, who pays no more regard to the Snow Ordinance than if he lived among the stars; and he, we are sorry to say, is not more outrageously negligent than are others—for it is certainly an outrage to be so, regardless of the public comfort and safety, not to mention public law.

Dogs we have had our say on, before this, many a time and oft, and if we had our way there should never be one in the streets; but we are not the public, and are not likely soon to have our way, that we see. People like to have noisy, dirty, dangerous dogs about, and so will have them, despite all license and other laws—which, also, nobody pretends to obey.

Then, also, though we believe there is no law against chewing tobacco, there is one we think against smoking in the street: who obeys that? Why, the City Officers themselves violate it!

The fact is it is useless to call on a City Government, new or old, or any other government, to make a people better than they are, or try to be. Our laws and our officers are not half so much to blame as the people generally—perhaps, in some points, even the very ones who cry out the loudest for reforms.

☞ There are entered on the November pay-roll of the Portsmouth Navy Yard the names of upwards of 2900 workmen, to whom will be paid in a few days the sum of $147,000. The most of this is distributed among the traders and business men of this city and its immediate vicinity, thus keeping up the brisk tumult of business where, were it otherwise, "silence would reign supreme."

☞ Speaking of Police, we may mention that Officer Johnson (with Mr. Harry Hall, clerk in the Prov. Marshal's dept. here,) did a pretty good thing in catching a bounty-jumper, on the freight-train at Hampton last Friday night. He was one of two who escaped from the Guard—who were also put in irons on charge of conniving with the villains. The fellow walked to Hampton; and Johnson, with his usual keenness, was on the spot at the right time to nab him. The other escaped.

The arrest of Fanny Cusick by Mr. Johnson is also worthy of mention—for she has only been caught after much watching and trouble. That vigilant officer has detected her in several thefts of the sort; but until now the parties aggrieved were foolishly averse to appearing in Court. We have always regarded Mr. J. as one of the best officers the city ever had.

BOOK FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—The editors of the "Poets of Portsmouth" inform us that the volum is in the binder's hands and will be issued this week. We have not seen a copy, but are informed that is printed and bound in the best style, and will probably be a popular gift book of the season. The price to subscribers is $3; other copies will be $3,50. Subscription papers are yet open at the bookstores, but will be closed as soon as the work is issued.

☞ We learn from the best authority that recruiting at this Naval rendezvous has only been stopped until the receiving ship Vandalia can be cleared; there being now on board her several hundred recruits, which are to be transported to Boston by steamer in a few days. About 800 men have been enlisted here for the Navy since June, besides a large number also at Kittery.

☞ A citizen wants to know if Substitutes and their hangers-on have a right, more than other persons, to obstruct the sidewalks in front of the Substitute Brokers' offices, so as to prevent ladies and gentlemen from walking the street?

☞ Question for this week—which day shall we all "keep" for Christmas (holiday)—Saturday or Monday?

For next week—Are your bills all made out ready for settlement?

☞ Acting Assistant Paymaster Thomas L. Tullock, Jr., is detached from the Adela, and ordered to settle his accounts.

☞ Capt. G. Frank Towle, of this city, (we believe he sports no higher title yet, though well he merits it,) is spending a short furlough among his friends here. We are glad to see him looking so well, and employing his time in so agreeable a chase as he was when we, while out sleighing, met him, a day or two since.

Capt. Geo. W. Towle, his father, also still remains at home, on sick furlough though improving in health slowly.

And we are here reminded to say, that the senior Capt. Towle deserves well of his country also, for his untiring efforts in years past, always to develope and cultivate a military spirit among the young men here; and the fact that his only son above mentioned, was given a thourough private military education, at his own expense, and is now devoting himself to the service of his country, like his father, compares favorably with the numerous graduates of West Point, who turned traitors to the country which nurtured and educated them—the pauper ingrates that they are.

☞ The citizens of Charlestown, Mass., at their late municipal election, selected J. Prescott, Esq., Supt. of the Eastern Rail road, as one of the Aldermen. Mr. Prescott is a gentleman of business experience, and he will be an acquisition to the City Government, not only on account of his unimpeachable integrity, but by reason of his sound practical common sense, which has never failed him in any of the various responsible positions he has been called to fill.

— The examination of Gardner and Edmester on the charge of attempting the destruction of trains on the Eastern Railroad was postponed in the Police Court at Charlestown until Monday next. The prisoners were placed under bonds in the sum of $3000 each.

We were never aware that there was so great a difference in the qualities of bar soap until after using the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap; our advice to our readers is, go without delay to your grocer and get a supply, for it is a truly wonderful article, and will not injure the finest fabric; our experience is that it is the best and greatest dirt-extracter known among the many different brands in the market. Their Depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York. 3S

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837,)

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,

Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into any invention or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by forwarding One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE, than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to compile a late a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior inducements for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved in Boston.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to procure his services for their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOSEPH L. TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, before the Examiner-in-Chief, in the Patent Office.

Boston, Dec. 19, 1853.—3tawly

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pains and swellings in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating a matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 & 9 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new system of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the care of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extensive practice gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

Boston, April 7, 1864.—eodly.

"EAST, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this case was selected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

"PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

"I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it. Your medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841

Dr. Swett: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No. 1 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. may26

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming closet attached, to which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would invite those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe as much as possible.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some producing little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of hot air brought in the fire-pots, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a portion of the best generated, thus making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron B. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

DR. W. R. MERWIN & CO., Sole Proprietors,

No. 63 Liberty street, New York

The Cherokee Pills & Rejuvenating Elixir,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these: those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others

If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Postoffice, County, State and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

We send our 32 page pamphlet free to any address. Address all letters for Pamphlets or advice to the proprietors,

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.
OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,
WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 19, 1864.
SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until 1 o'clock P. M. on Thursday, the 29th day of December, 1864, for supplying the Lighthouse Establishment with thirty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained lard oil, and twenty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained sperm oil, to be delivered into four lots, and to be delivered at the times undermentioned, alongside of the government supply vessel at the navy yard at the place of delivery, or at a place of deposit, to be designated by the Inspecting Officer or other authorized agent of the Light-house Board, in strong tight iron-bound, well-made casks, suitable for shipping, in good order, of a capacity, each, of from fifty to eighty gallons, not to exceed the latter. The lard oil may be delivered at Boston or New York.
Either lot of sperm oil, or both of them, may be delivered at New York, New London, Sag Harbor, Boston, New Bedford, Edgartown, or Nantucket, at the option of the bidders. The place of delivery must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be embraced in the contracts.
The lard oil will be delivered as follows, viz:
Lot No. 1. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 5th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.
Lot No. 2. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 15th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.
Lot No. 3. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 1st day of June, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.
Lot No. 4. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 1st day of August, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.
No bid will be considered unless from a manufacturer of the article.
No part of the oil proposed for and to be embraced in the contracts under the head of this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, until it shall have been proved, to the entire satisfaction of the person or persons charged with its examination, test, and inspection, to be of the best quality pure winter strained, free of sugged oil, and free from mixture with other or inferior oils and adulterations.
The usual means for determining the character and quality of the sperm oil will be employed, viz: specific gravity, burning, the amount of residuum, and any other proper tests to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.
The lard oil will be subjected to special tests, and will be rejected unless found to be, in regard to burning and fluidity, under reduction of temperature, and in every other respect, equal to that of the standard adopted by the Board, of which a sample will be furnished, on application to the Light-house Engineer at Boston, Mass.
The casks must be gauged under the direction and personal supervision of the inspecting officer, by a custom-house or other legally authorized and sworn gauger, according to the United States standard, and must be marked and accepted before they are removed from the cellar or warehouse of the contractor. The temperature of the oil will be accurately noted, and the measurements reduced to the standard temperature of 60° Farenheit by tables prepared for the purpose.
Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of the lots, at the option of the bidder; but no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified as one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bid must state explicitly the rate per gallon, in writing, the number of the lot or lots bid for, and the time and place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.
Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will not be considered.
The Light-house Board, under the authority of the Department, reserves to itself the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other considerations than the price.
No bid will be considered for any other kind or description of oil than those specially called for in this advertisement.
A bond, with security to the satisfaction of the Department, in a penalty equal to one-fourth of the amount of each contract made under these proposals, will be required of each contractor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, to be executed ten days after the acceptance of the bid.
Each offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and known to the department as such, or certified by a United States district judge, attorney, marshal, or collector of the customs, that if the bid be accepted, the bidder will duly execute a contract in good faith, according to the provisions and terms of this advertisement, within ten days after acceptance; and that in case the said party offering shall fail to enter into the contract as aforesaid, he or they guaranty to make good the difference between the offer of the said party and the next lowest bidder.
All bids must be sealed and endorsed, "Bids for oil for light houses," and then placed, in another envelope, and directed, prepaid, to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington City.
All bids will be opened, publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.
Payments will be made for the several lots of oil when thirty days after they shall have been received by the Light-house Board.
BY ORDER OF THE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD:
ANDREW A. HARWOOD,
Secretary.

Ayer's Ague Cure
For the speedy and certain cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Bilious Fever, Chills and Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.
FEVER AND AGUE is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of diseases arise from its irritation in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach; all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "Ague" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most efficacious remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and, moreover, the safest to use. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Ague and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over-estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.
Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass.
and sold by Brackett Hutchings, J. H. Thacher W. H. Preston, David Kimball, and all druggists.

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.
Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1864.

DIETETICS.—Vegetable vs. Animal Food.

"If a man live exclusively on vegetables, is the fluid in his veins blood or sap?"

Baron Liebig says: "Vegetables produce in their organism the blood of all animals, for the carnivora in consuming the blood and flesh of the graminivora, consume only the vegetable principles which have served for the nutrition of the latter."

For a brief exposition in favor of vegetarianism we would simply say that pure blood and pure flesh are made entirely of vegetable material, and hence man, as a physical, intellectual and moral being, can become most completely developed in al his faculties by subsisting on the direct productions of the vegetable kingdom; while in taking his nutrition indirectly by eating animals, must most certainly get the original nutriment more or less deteriorated or impaired from the unhealthful conditions and accidents of the animals he feeds upon, and the impurities, putrescent matters, and the excretions always mingled in the blood and flesh of all animal substances.

If we take the nutritive value of food by chemical analysis as given by the most reliable chemists, we find in 100 pounds of flesh, only 21 parts or pounds are of the blood-forming principle, or in other words 36 lbs. of solid matter and 64 lbs. of water or "sap"; while maize meal contains 90 lbs. solid matter and only 10 lbs. of water; rice 92.4 lbs. solid matter, and only 7.6 lbs. of water, etc.

It is found that all parts of the food which can form blood, and thus renew the physical structure of the body, are due to the protein compounds which have their sole origin in the vegetable kingdoms And moreover, as a general rule, those things which produce the least disturbance of the digestive organs, and of the other organs of the body, as well as the least heat, make the best blood, and are best adapted to our use. Among the best things to submit to the process of digestion are: bread made of wheat flour, unbolted; of corn and rye meal, either separate or mixed; plain puddings, made of rice, sago, etc.; potatoes and other garden vegetables, apples, pears, peas, beans, etc.

No well-informed person will dispute the fact that food which a man puts into his stomach has an influence for either good or bad over the body and mind. It is possible for man so to live that he shall be healthy in body and mind,—and he is criminally at fault if he disregards the the holy laws that govern his being.

It is said, and we think with much truth, that National traits and characteristics are often developed by the use of certain kinds of food. And peradventure, if there is ever written a physiological history of the Southern Rebellion, hot bread and hot coffee, wine and whiskey, tobacco and opium, and the universal leg of ham, will be found to have been strong agents controlling the great mass of the people. M. D.

☞ The Army and Navy Journal of Dec. 17, reviews the rebel Price's campaign in Missouri, as a great failure, and says:

Price entered Missouri with 12,000 men, and 16 pieces of artillery. He took with him over 200 wagons. Perfectly trustworthy information shows that, on his arrival at Arkansas river, on his return, his force was less than 10,000 men, including his conscripts and volunteers from Missouri. His artillery was reduced to three Parrott guns and one 12-pounder mountain howitzer, and his entire train was 53 wagons—only 12 of which had more than two animals attached. He had, in his precipitate flight from Newtonia, Missouri, abandoned or destroyed his trains, and worn out his horses so that less than 7,000 of his men were mounted, and those in a wretched manner. Not 6,000 men had arms. Notwithstanding the great losses suffered by the people of Missouri and by the Government, this campaign is a purification of fire and blood, which was necessary to entirely crush out the rebellious feeling heretofore existing in that State.

☞ The following is promulgated from the Department of State, under date of Dec. 17, by Sec. Seward:

The President directs that, except immigrant passengers directly entering an American port by sea, no traveller shall hereafter be allowed to enter the United States from a foreign country without a passport. If a citizen, the passport must be from this Department, or from some United States Minister or Consul abroad; and if an alien, from the competent authority of his own country; the passport to be countersigned by a diplomatic agent or consul of the United States. This regulation is intended to apply especially to persons proposing to come to the United States, from the neighboring British Provinces. Its observance will be strictly forced by all officers—civil, military, and naval—in the service of the United States; and State municipal authorities are required to aid in its execution. It is expected here that no immigrant passenger, coming by sea in the manner aforesaid, will be obstructed, or any other persons who may set out on their way hither before intelligence of this regulation would reasonably be expected to reach the country from which they may have started.

— Thirty companies of Canadian volunteers will be sent to the frontier this week

☞ Col. Bedel of the 3d N. H., is said to have incurred the hostility of Howell Cobb, when a clerk in the Treasury Department, during Buchanan's administration, and was the object of marked cruelty during his imprisonment. He and his comrades have been treated with great rigor, and nothing was left undone to annoy them. The rations have been cut off gradually, and for the last five months they have had no meat of any kind—subsisting on corn meal and sorgho molasses.

He says Maj. Bogle of Mass., had been taken from Andersonville to Millen as a private; and was just going on board a boat at Savannah, when a deserter to the rebel ranks, recognized him and informed the rebel officer of his rank.

Col. Bedel desires to inform our government that the rebels are taking advantage of a growing discontent among those Union prisoners whose terms of service have expired. Rebel emissaries represent to these men that our government will do nothing for them; and as the rigors of winter and want of food are having effect on them they are enlisting in the Foreign Legion, and taking the rebel oath, to obtain work in the government shops.

Col. Bedel estimates that there are 20,000 Union prisoners in South Carolina and Georgia. So far as he knows negro prisoners have been turned over to persons claiming them as slaves, or set at work, excepting those captured when he was at Fort Wagner, many of whom were butchered. There have been 1600 Union officers in the vicinity of Columbia since October last, without any shelter, and with scanty rations. The condition of these officers is deplorable, and they have to pay the most exorbitant prices for everything. An authorized agent named Potter, who claimed to be a native of Rhode Island, gave two dollars in Confederate money for orders of one dollar payable at the North. No one dares to show the least sympathy for the Union prisoners, but the negroes are their friends. Escaped prisoners always find negroes ready to aid them. It is believed that several hundred Union officers and soldiers have escaped this fall.

[Communication.]

NEW YEAR'S PRESENT WORTH HAVING. At this holidays season the children are on the tiptoe of expectation; and they will dance with delight at the presents which so mysteriously come to them from the repository of Santa Claus. It is a joyful time for parents also, when they look upon the unbounded happiness which the bestowal of a few trinkets will bring forth: and at the season of a new year there is with most men a generous feeling toward their partners in life as well as toward the children, a desire at the commencement of a new year to bestow some surprising present of greater or less value as a renewed testimonial of affection and esteem; but often the puzzle is to know what to give; perhaps these very lines are under the eye of many a husband who is just in that dilemma; you are ready and anxious to bestow something upon the wife, the partner of your joys and sorrows, as well as upon the children, but cannot tell what will best suit the taste, and prove just the thing she most wishes for.

Now let me ask you one question: "Have you a policy on your life, made payable to your wife as your death," or payable to yourself at the age of 50 or 60, should you live to that age? If you have not, then let me tell you that the most sacred, the most lasting, the most satisfactory to yourself in health and in sickness, and the present that will bear you on forever in the grateful remembrance of those you most love, is such a LIFE POLICY.

Delay not, go at once, make your diligent inquires, select the best Company for Life Insurance, and on the first day of January 1865, lay the beneficent document before your family as YOUR NEW YEAR'S PRESENT, with the assurance that you will renew that present each year of your life; and you will commence a new year with the proud satisfaction that whatever may betide you in this changing and uncertain life, you have done your duty so far as to provide the most certain and reliable means of support and comfort for those who are dearer to you than life itself. PRUDENCE.

— On Saturday, Dec. 17, a hearing was had before Justice Short of the Superior Court of Lower Canada, at Shortbrooke in the extradition case of Wm. H. Crawford of Stratford, N. H., who stabbed several persons at North Stratford in July last, upon an attempt being made to arrest him as a deserter. A warrant for the prisoner's arrest having been issued by Judge Short Crawford was found at Hereford, C. E., and brought before him. Counsel for the prisoner moved for his discharge on the same grounds that the St. Albans raiders were discharged, and, after a full discussion, His Honor Judge Short decided that he had juridiction and the hearing must proceed on its merits. The decision overroles that of Judge Coursol in the St. Albans case. The trial is not concluded.

— The beggars in Richmond now ask "Will you give me five dollars to buy a loaf of bread?"

THE REBELLION.

The Richmond Sentinel of the 17th confirms the report that Gen. Sherman has destroyed all the bridges across the Savannah river on the north side of the city, thus preventing the escape of its garrison in that direction.

Telegraphic dispatches from Gen. Thomas, near Spring Hill, on Sunday evening, state that in his pursuit of the enemy he has found the railroad but little disturbed, and trains will be running in a day or two. The rebel Gen. Johnson's entire division, with all the brigade commanders, was captured in the action of the 16th inst.

Small arms, ammunition, lead and forage are becoming scarce with the rebels in East Tennessee.

Forrest is not dead, but in command of the rebel cavalry, a short distance south of Spring Hill.

Richmond papers of Saturday announce that Sherman had demanded the surrender of Savannah, and was refused. They admit that Sherman had occupied the Savannah river besides, thus cutting off all escape.

The Whig says editorially, that there is no longer any doubt but that Sherman has marched to the sea-coast. It admits that if Savannah is fully invested it will have to be given up.

The Examiner says: "The factious spirit which prevails to so great an extent, is the greatest peril that visits the Confederate cause."

The Herald's Fort McAllister correspondent says when Gen. Sherman arrived in front of Savannah, he had driven 1200 head of cattle through, though he started with only 200, and had led his army on full rations on a march of 300 miles. He also gathered on the way over 7000 able-bodied negroes and so many horses, &c. as to embarrass him. His army during a considerable portion of the march extended over a breadth of country 60 miles wide and 40 miles at times intervening between the right and left wings. The whole loss of men from wounds, sickness, captures, straggling and all other causes up to the time of arriving in front of Savannah was only about 1,000 The average daily march was 12 miles. When Savannah was invested the city was unprepared for a siege and could not hold out more than a few days.

The results of the second great victory at Nashville, in the way of trophies, were 5000 prisoners, 30 guns and 7000 small arms.

It is again reported that Lee is evacuating Petersburg.

The total of prisoners in the two days' fight at Nashville, is set down at 5000, and Hood's loss in men since he advanced from Colombia toward that place at 15,000. Franklin is full of wounded rebels; over 3000 were left there. Every church and public building there has been taken for hospitals.

There was an attack on Murfreesboro' on Thursday by Forrest and Bain, but the rebels were badly beaten, and it is believed that Forrest was killed. Their loss was 1500, all of whom are in our hands.

Breckinridge has certainly crossed the Cumberland Mountains with his forces, and is trying to join Hood. His situation is precarious.

It is reported that there has been a battle in East Tennessee, in which Gen. Gillem badly defeated the enemy and recaptured all the cannon he lost some time since.

There is much excitement at Caryville, Ky., and vicinity, in consequence of the reported advance of Lyon's rebel force. Reinforcements have been sent there. The steamer Morning Star was captured by the rebels and burned on the 16th, at Island No. 4, Miss.

Rebel deserters report that Beauregard escaped from Savannah to Charleston on the 11th in a special train. He narrowly escaped capture, the train being the last which passed over the road.

Thomas has pursued Hood to Duck river. Our captures amount to 9000 prisoners and 54 guns, leaving Hood but 11, while our loss is about 3500.

Gen. Stoneman has given Breckinridge a cleaning out in East Tennessee, capturing most of his artillery.

— Gold 222 1-8.

— There is a rumor at Washington of the capture of Wilmington.

— A call and draft for 300,000 troops, to make up the deficiency occasioned by credits on the last call, has been ordered by the President.

— By the death of Hon. Wm. L. Dayton, reported by the steamer Cuba, at New York, this country has lost one of its best citizens and most useful ministers. He was 57 years of age, has held a seat in the U. S. Senate, and was a candidate for Vice President on the Fremont ticket.

— The New York Commercial supposes Wilmington to be the destination of the great expedition which sailed from Hampton Roads the 18th inst.

— Edwin. J. March, Esq., formerly a lawyer at Biddeford, has been commissioned Colonel of the 2d Michigan regiment.

— A snow slide occurred from the roof of the Central church in Hartford, during the session of the ecclesiastical council. As the tremendous body of snow came down into the alley between the church and lecture room, one of the eminent divines remarked, "If that had happened when we were passing, we should all have been settled ministers."

— The gross earnings of the Illinois Central Railroad for the quarter ending Oct. 31, was $3,363,699.48—a very handsome income.

—— Mr. Dana Perkins, formerly of Manchester, was lately elected a State Revenue Collector in one of the California districts, an office said to be worth $30,000 a year.

A new Volume of which commences Jan. 1, 1865.

This valuable journal has been published nineteen years, and during all this time it has been the firm and steady advocate of the interests of the Inventor, Mechanic, Manufacturer and Farmer, and the faithful chronicler of the progress of Art, Science and Industry.

The SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN is the largest, the only reliable, and most widely circulated journal of the kind now published in the United States. It has witnessed the beginning and growth of nearly all the great inventions and discoveries of the day, most of which have been illustrated and described in its columns. It also contains a Weekly Official List of all the Patent Claims, a feature of great value to all Inventors and Patentees.

In the MECHANICAL DEPARTMENT, a full account of all improvements in Machinery will be given. Also practical articles upon the various Tools used in Workshops and Manufactories.

STEAM and MECHANICAL ENGINEERING will continue to receive careful attention, and all experiments and practical results attained will be fully recorded.

WOOLEN, COTTON, and other Manufacturing Interests will have special attention. Also: Firearms, War Implements, Ordnance, War Vessels, Railway Machinery, Mechanics' Tools, Electric, Chemical and Mathematical Apparatus, Wood and Lumber Machines, Hydraulics, Pumps, Water Wheels, etc; Household and Farm Implements: this latter department being very full and of great value to Farmers and Gardeners; Articles embracing every department every department of Popular Science, wich everybody can understand.

PATENT LAW DECISIONS and DISCUSSIONS will, as heretofore, form a prominent feature. Owing to the very large experience of the publishers, Messrs. MUNN & CO., as SOLICITORS OF PATENTS, this department of the paper will possess great interest to Patentees and Inventors.

The year's numbers contain several hundred superb engravings; also reliable practical recipes useful in every shop and household. Two volumes each year—832 pages—total, 832 pages.

HALE'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,
For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these five other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

"A Wonderful Discovery."
DR. TEBBETS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "Dye," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off, and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy, and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

THE POETS OF PORTSMOUTH. Compiled by AUBIN M. PAYSON and ALBERT LAIGHTON. Boston: Walker, Wise & Co.; Portsmouth: Joseph H. Foster.

Simply beautiful and elegantly neat, is the new volume of 400 pages, in purple and gold, now before us—on our type-case, not our table; and of which we are expected to make early if brief mention, at this very unpoetical hour of three o'clock in the morning.

The only motto, "Sweet are the memories of home;" the brief but fit inscription, "To the Sons and Daughters of Portsmouth, at home and abroad, this volume is dedicated, by the compilers;" and the short but genial and highly-complimentary preface, by Rev. Dr. Peabody, (who will always be treasured as chiefest among our own prose-poets,)—all, all is pleasing, grateful. We are "pressed" for time, and can only say now, that the public-spirited, arduous and generally-discriminating labors of the editors, have been well seconded by publishers, printers, and all concerned—and here we have, as the preface hath it, a "book which we send forth with satisfaction and pride, and we can ask nothing better than that our city may be judged by its poets."

We are desired to state that subscribers (and others) can procure copies at Mr. Foster's bookstore; but those who do not call for them, will be supplied as soon as may be. The whole of this first edition of 1000 copies, ought certainly to be taken up here at home in Portsmouth. What more beautiful and acceptable Present for any "son or daughter of Portsmouth, at home or abroad?"

POLICE COURT, Monday.—J. G. H. Shorey was bound over in $700 for re-appearance before this Court on Wednesday, on charge of pocket-picking. The evidence against him does not appear very conclusive.

Mrs. Henry B. Nutter, for drunkenness, fined $3 and $3.86 costs—paid.

Henry Pool, for keeping open shop on Sunday in violation of the city ordinance: case continued until Saturday afternoon next.

Two lads, named John Hennessey and Michael Reagan, for brawl and tumult, were each fined $1 and costs, $1.93.

Communication.

Messrs. Editors:—Please say to our surveyors of the highways, while we are destitute of proper City Authorities, that if they will pay a little attention to the filling up of some of the worst of those places, such as may seen between Mr. Call's and Dr. Burroughs', they may save the city several hundred, if not thousands, of dollars' cost, and some poor fellow a broken limb.

DOCTOR.

☞ We don't like to see men standing around a news depot and hear them wonder what the news is, or see them waylay a person who pays for his paper as a decent man should do, requesting a look at his paper or information as to its contents. Do those men hang around a saloon and wonder whether the ale is sparkling and good, or the oysters fat and salt? Do they stop a customer as he emerges, to ask for a whiff from his cigar, or to question him whether the "filling" grew in the "Vuelta de Abajo" or a Connecticut cabbage patch? They would scorn any one guilty of such littleness. Gentlemen, don't be so lavish to your appetite and so grudging to your intellect, unless you believe that you have more stomach than brains. Walk in and Avery will serve you with most anything in the newspaper line, from the States and Union to the New York Tribune, and that certainly is a field broad enough to suit almost any reasonable man.

TEMPLE OF AMUSEMENT.—To-night is set apart for the benefit of Mr. B. W. Seaver, one of the favorite members of Bidwell & Pike's popular company. An immense bill is offered, consisting of an entire new drama entitled "Ambrose Gwinnette," lots of singing and dancing, and an entire new farce entitled "Betsey Baker." Such a great bill will no doubt fill the Temple to overflowing. D.

A cotemporary, noticing a postmaster, says: If he attends to the mails as he does to the females he will make a very attentive and efficient officer."

"Come here, my lad," said an attorney to a boy about nine years old. "A case between the Devil and the people; which do you think will be most likely to gain the action?" The boy replied, "I guess it will be a squeeze: the people have the money, but the Devil has the most lawyers."

— "We record," says the N. Y. Times, "as a fact at once gratifying and novel, that a man has actually been convicted of illegal voting in New York city, and is awaiting sentence. The world moves."

— The ladies of the Soldiers' Relief Association, of Newburyport, will hold a fair for the benefit of the sick and wounded soldiers, at the City Hall, Dec. 21st, 22d and 23d.

— All officers and men absent from their commands are ordered to return, by an order from the War Department, in order to fill up the ranks, strengthen our armies and aid the patriotic and gallant troops now dealing the enemy such victorious blows.

THE DANVERS CARPET COMPANY is about to be organized, making Newburyport, where the principal part of the stock is owned, the centre of its operations. The property is close to the line of the Newburyport road in going to Boston, known by an old ropewalk on the premises. The factory is already there, having been owned and run with success for seventeen years by Mr. Tapley, who now turns it over to this stock company, retaining in his family $20,000, and the rest has been taken up in Newburyport by shrewd business men who see a large profit in it. It is well established in the markets, furnishing desirable goods, and with business as at present cannot fail to pay for itself in three or four years at the longest.

The factory is 180 feet long by 30 wide, three stories high; contains 49 looms and all the machinery necessary for operation: has an engine house, with the steam engine already runing; a dyeing house, and other buildings; and in addition 22 dwelling houses of 58 tenements—all of them occupied by operatives in the mill, mostly Germans and Scotch, who pay $3000 annual rents, or 6 per cent. on half the total stock of $100,000, of which 40,000 is working capital.

The capacity of the factory is 600 yards per day. Mr. William S. Coffin on Ferry Wharf, is to be the treasurer. We wish the same parties, now they have their hand in and plenty of money, would build a half dozen such factories on the river Parker in Byfield, which is an admirable stream for the purpose, and so build up a town of two or three thousand people, as a suburb to Newburyport. The whole capital would be back in dividends before a supply of cotton can be had to lower the prices of woolen goods.—Herald.

— A Vermont Paper says a man came into Rutland, last Tuesday with a load of wood, for which he asked $12. Nobody purchased it and the owner sat upon it until he got chilled through, caught a violent cold and went home and died. The obituary suggested is "Served him right."

— Gloucester Telegraph says a woman died in that town last week, thirty years of age, who had given birth to twelve children in ten years. Eleven of these children were born at five births, four pair of twins and one triplet.

The J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap is the best article in the market. It requires a little less than one half the quantity to do the same work, and when done, leaves the fabric in much better condition than any other kind of Soap. One trial will convince the most skeptical. Use no other, have no other, and be put off with no other. 36

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world affords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or Soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

☞ Special attention is asked to Hunnewell's preparations, advertised on our inside columns. They are based on true medical laws, used very largely by Physicians, and most undoubted testimonials are in the hands of the proprietor, always open to inspection. Let Portsmouth and its vicinity bear testimony by a confidence to test them, which will be sacred.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,

Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American, or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not incontrovertibly superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

There, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full records of patents granted in the United States and Europe, renders him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on 13 of which 12 out of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leaves me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of them was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 2 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most inveterate cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleets, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, Painful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and lamentable effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotins, warranted the best preventive. Orders by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the use of his treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

EXE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest, and it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as she was cured after more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many fall cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up what I may food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1836, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, No. 7 High street, Portsmouth, N. H. promptly attended to. mav26

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large upper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes can be entirely dispensed with. The draft regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in the city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 50 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the ashes of the coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron R. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

The Cherokee Pills & Rejuvenating Elixir,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these: those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Postoffice, County, State and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

We send our 32 page pamphlet free to any address. Address all letters for Pamphlets or advice to the proprietors,

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.
OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,
WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 19, 1864.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until 1 o'clock P. M. on Thursday, the 29th day of December, 1864, for supplying the Light-house Establishment with thirty thousand gallons of the best quality of pure winter strained lard oil, and twenty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained sperm oil, to be divided into four lots and to be delivered at the times undermentioned, alongside of the government supply vessels, or at the warehouse or other place of deposit, to be designated by the Inspecting Officer or other authorized agent of the Light-house Board, in strong, tight, iron-bound, well-made casks, suitable for shipping, in good order, of a capacity each, of from fifty to eighty gallons, not to exceed the latter. The lard oil may be delivered at Boston or New York.

Either lot of sperm oil, or both of them, may be delivered at New York, New London, Sag Harbor, Boston, New Bedford, Edgartown, or Nantucket, at the option of the bidders. The place of delivery must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be embraced in the contracts.

The four lots will be delivered as follows, viz: Lot No. 1. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons lard oil on the 5th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 2. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 15th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 3. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 1st day of June, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 4. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 1st day of August, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

No bid will be considered unless from a manufacturer of the article.

No part of the oil proposed for and to be embraced in the contracts under the head of this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, until it shall have been proved, to the entire satisfaction of the person or persons charged with its examination, on a careful inspection, to be of the best quality pure winter strained or lagged oil, and free from mixture with other or inferior oils and adulterations.

The usual means for determining the character and quality of the sperm oil will be employed, viz: specific gravity, burning, the amount of residuum, and any other proper tests to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.

The lard oil will be subjected to special tests, and will be rejected unless found to be, in regard to burning and fluidity, under reduction of temperature, and in every other respect, equal to that of the standard adopted by the Board, of which a sample will be furnished, on application to the Light-house Engineer at Boston, Mass.

The casks must be gauged under the direction and personal supervision of the inspecting officer, by a custom-house or other legally authorized and sworn gauger, according to the United States standard, and must be marked and delivered before they are removed from the cellar or warehouse of the contractor. The temperature of the oil will be accurately noted, and the measurements reduced to the standard temperature of 60° Farenheit by tables prepared for the purpose.

Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of the lots, at the option of the bidder; and no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified as one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bid must state explicitly the rate per gallon, in writing, the number of gallons of oil in each bid for, and the time and place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.

Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will not be considered.

The Light-house Board, under the authority of the Department, reserves the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other considerations than the price.

No bid will be considered for any other kind or description of oil than those specially called for in this advertisement.

A bond, with security to the satisfaction of the Department, in a penalty equal to one-fourth of the amount of each contract made under these proposals will be required of each contractor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, to be executed ten days after the acceptance of the bid.

Each offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and known to the department as such, or certified by a United States district judge, attorney, navy agent, or collector of the customs, to the effect that, if the bid be accepted, the bidder will duly execute a contract in good faith, according to the provisions and terms of this advertisement, within ten days after acceptance; and that in case the said party offering shall fail to enter into the contract as aforesaid, he or they guaranty to make good the difference between the offer of the said party and the next lowest bidder. All bids must be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for oil for light houses," and then placed in another envelope, and directed, addressed, to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington City.

All bids will be opened, publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.

Payments will be made for the several lots of oil within thirty days after they shall have been received by the United States.

BY ORDER OF THE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD:

d14-Saw4w Secretary.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1864.

THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE.—The Portland Advertiser said, not many days ago, "The Majority of the People have declared for Lincoln's policy of Emancipation, which is Abolition in the rankest form."

Now, says Uncle Toby, we have no idea that the majority of our people are abolitionists in any philanthropic sense;—but they see plainly now, that the slave power made the rebellion, and meant to break down our government and our nation, erecting on its ruins a great empire whose corner-stone was to be slavery, and whose rulers of course were to be the slave-lords.

A majority of our voters have declared their purpose to break down this wicked confederacy, and to put down the rebellion, corner-stone and all together. Not that they care so much for the slave;—but that they will not submit to be ruled by an oligarchy of slave lords, nor cajoled as they have been, by the dogs to whom these lords grant the crumbs that fall under their tables.

☞ On Monday last as the steamer Cambria, freighted with the 15th Connecticut Regiment, was passing through Hell Gate, New York, on her way to sea, the current carried her broadside on the rocks at the Old Fort. No sooner had the vessel reached the shore than a number of soldiers jumped on land and scattered in every direction, hotly pursued by the guard. One man was shot dead while crossing the open lots near the gas house, and three others were drowned.

THE TEN-FORTY LOAN.—It is said that this five per cent loan, which can be redeemed in ten, or extended to forty years, at the option of the Government, and the interest and principle of which are payable in gold, will be withdrawn from the market as soon as the present subscriptions reach a hundred millions. Only $17,000,000 remain, the subscriptions amounting to $83,000,000. As there is a probability that a club of capitalists will hasten to take the whole as soon as it is announced that the amount is limited, it would be well for those who desire specie paying bonds at par not to lose a moment in sending in their subscriptions.

— A live woman is on her way from Bryegate, Vt., to San Francisco, in a close pine box about the size of a coffin. She has a nervous affection of the brain, and this mode of transportation is resorted to, to protect her from the noise incident to the journey. The box has a small aperture to admit air, contains a bed and is muffled. On stopping for the night she exchanges her box for a bed.

— The New York correspondent of the Journal writes that "A company of gentlemen in New York has fitted up a fast sailing clipper ship in elegant style, placed on board every conceivable luxury, manned her completely with a fine crew, put her in charge of one of our ablest captains, and tendered her to Gen. George B. McClellan for one year, to sail where he will with his family and friends—the entire expense to be borne by the gentlemen."

— The annual report of the Commission of Agriculture for the year 1864, is just issued. It shows that notwithstanding the devastation and drains of the war, our agriculture during the year, has been prosperous, the farmers of the country, with somewhat less than an average in amount, having stored in value, owing to its superior quality, a larger paying crop than was ever before gathered.

BUNTING.—Among the statements of the Secretary of the Navy was one which is not to the credit of American industry. The bunting under which our soldiers fight and citizens burrah is not the product of American hands. We rely upon foreign factories for the principal material of which the thousand flags of the Republic are composed. How long shall this reproach last? Manufacturers of America, see to it that foreign looms shall no longer have the monopoly of producing the bunting which floats from our mast-heads and flag-staffs, as the emblem of our assailed yet surely triumphant nationality.—Washington Chronicle.

— A very suspicious box was left at a railroad office in Cincinnati, last November, and was a source of terror to all hands for four weeks, at the end of which time the police were sent for, and the box was carefully taken to an upper window and thrown to the ground. The explosion which followed showed that the "infernal machine" had been packed full of Baltimore oysters.

— The Springfield Union states that some of the tobacco raisers in the Western part of the State say, that although this crop brings a good return, yet, taking into consideration the impoverishment of their lands now devoted to its culture, and the present high price of grain, they can do about as well in raising the latter as the former.

Gen. Thomas's Christmas present to the wayward sisters—A worsted Hood.

NEWSPAPERS.—The Portland Courier says: "The cost of printing paper has advanced to a price that threatens to seriously embarrass, if not actually ruin the newspaper business. To correspond with it, weekly papers should be furnished for $5 and dailies from $15 to $20 per annum. But this cannot be done; and so many papers are being driven to the wall." The Courier goes on to say that "the cause of this enormous advance is to be found in the combination of the paper manufacturers,"—but we do not feel sure of this, nor do we believe that speculators and combinations of any such character, have half the power for evil with which they are charged. If there is so great profit in paper-making, over other business, why don't people start new mills? No, no, we don't believe the paper-makers are much different from other folks,—but have generally found them a pretty good set of fellows.

Let us see—the Courier says paper is only 8 or 10 cts. per lb. in Europe, in gold of course; here it is 28 and 32. Well that is not much, if any, more than the difference in currency and exchange, or the price of stock and labor, and other circumstances, it seems to us. The fact is, the real trouble lies with the publishers themselves, more than all else; they have always been cutting down their own business, instead of building it up as other traders try to. Papers have been the cheapest things in the world, till they got down to almost nothing.

And an unmitigated nuisance to the profession, have been the 1 and 2 cent dailies, and the city weeklies (such as the N. Y. Tribune, &c.) shoved out into the country for a dollar a year and even less. We hope every such one will fail, for they have done more evil than good. A Tribune is said to contain more matter than Harper's Magazine—why should it be sold for one-twelfth the price? Better were it to have less papers, and let them be paid for.

The Courier calls for a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull all together, to crush the paper monopoly and bring back the days of cheap papers. We tell them, as we told them last summer at the Printers' Convention, that the days of cheap papers are over, for this generation at least; and the tendency is for them to go higher and higher.

THE LITTLE BAY MARE.—Wilkes' Spirit says of Flora Temple, the Queen of the trotting-turf, now about twenty years old—that when he recently saw her at Philadelphia, she was looking bright as a three-year old colt about the head and eyes, but through her coat intrusive spears of gray were thickly strewn, indicative of age. She stood with the same clean, muscular, flint-like looking feet and legs under her, as in her palmiest day; but was marvellously thickened, without being fat, from her long period of ease. The Queen was harnessed up, and watched with an evident interest the adjustment of every strap and buckle, and then tacked away toward the track with her old shoemaker's trot, where she blew one of her old bursts of speed, squatting to the work like a low flying bird. Miss Flora was then allowed to return to her stable, and was playfully nibbling at the groom, evidently much elated with the frolic of the afternoon. Little Flora's fine temper is half the secret of her success.

☞ A novel trot came off a few days ago over the Flora Temple Trotting Course, Baltimore, Maryland, which attracted an immense concourse, a great portion of whom were of the fair sex. The trot was a match against time for a purse of five hundred dollars. The horse Hiram Temple was driven in a common road wagon by Mrs. Colonel Dickey. The wager was that the lady was to trot the horse one mile in three minutes, and to have three trials. At three o'clock the lady appeared on the track with her team, and at the word "go," she uttered a few words to her noble animal, and away he sped with fearful velocity. At the start on the last trial, the lady grasped the ribbons in true style, and dashed away at a furious rate. Upon passing the half-mile score, it was apparent to every person present that she would reach the starting point in season, which she did in 2 58, amid the cheering of all present. The fair driver, upon alighting from her buggy, was greeted by the waving of handkerchiefs from the ladies, and hearty applause from the gentlemen. This is the only race on record where a lady has endeavored to get ahead of time. Upon the result of the trot being announced, Mrs. Colonel Dickey was handed $500 by the judges.

— The lady's maid of a fashionable matchioness, whose style of dress far exceeds that of her mistress, having occasion to write an order to a perfumer, actually requested him to send a dozen bottles of "O Dick Alone."

— The "Trade's Assembly" of Albany, N. Y., have adopted a resolution that the price of butter has been advanced beyond the cost of production in proportion to other articles of food, and they have resolved to abstain from the use of butter in any way whatever.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— It is said that a son of Rev. Dr. Livingston, the great African missionary and traveller, was a private, under an assumed name, in the 5th regiment, but is now a prisoner in the hands of the rebels.

—— The Merrimack River Bank, Manchester, has declared a semi-annual dividend of eight per cent. for the six months ending Jan. 1865.

—— The shoe-peg manufactory in Lebanon, from which the machinery was lately removed to Lisbon, is to be started again about the first of January. Mr. R. E. Palmer is putting in new machinery.

—— Mr. Ezra Haselton, of Littleton, while entertaining friends who had called upon him, the 9th inst. was taken suddenly ill, and retired to his room; continued to fail until next morning, when he expired.

THE REBELLION.

A Lexington, Ky., dispatch of the 20th says a movement, in which the gunboats are co-operating with the army, is commenced, for obstructing the fords and lines of retreat of Hood's forces over the Tennessee river.

A notorious rebel scout named Waterburg, who has for a long time evaded all efforts to trap him, was recently mortally wounded by a Union soldier within our lines in front of Richmond.

PETROLEUM. Statistics regarding the product of this great commodity seem most startling and while the Capitalists of New York and Philadelphia, have for the past two years been sensible of its great value, and have invested largely in developing the oil region, the Eastern cities have looked on rather credulously awaiting proof positive. Its value and immense profits from a judicious purchase of lands, has now become so much a matter of certainty, that within the past two weeks, the shares of several large companies have been taken up almost exclusively by the citizens of Boston. The New England Petroleum Company of Boston now offers its prospectus, and without disparaging in the least other companies, the property here presented must convince all who read it of its great value and certainty of large dividends. The high respectability of the officers is a sufficient guarantee that the affairs of the Company will be managed with fidelity and enterprise.

☞ Rio Janeiro dates of the 10th ult. are received. There is little or nothing of the views of or designs of the Brazilian Government concerning the seizure of the pirate Florida. The official Gazette says full directions have been sent to their minister at Washington to demand proper satisfaction.

War between Brazil and Uruguay is continued. The blockade of Montevideo has been ordered by Brazil. The Brazilian Minister had notified foreign vessels to Uruguy that they would be searched for contraband of war. England denied that there was a war, and said Brazil is merely engaged in suppressing a rebellion.

— A letter from a traveler in the new oil regions of Pennsylvania says:—"We were paddled across the creek by an oil prince, aged fifteen, heir to a million, coatless and hatless, and with but one suspender to keep his courage and his trowsers up."

— The Belfast Me. Journal, opposition, has suspended publication for the present. Mr. Simpson, the Editor and Proprietor, is a better citizen than a stranger would judge by his political writings. The Saco Democrat has been reduced in size, and the price fixed at $2 a year.

— A Providence clergyman, in a sermon preached last Sunday on the subject of tobacco, stated, among other things, that a smoker, commencing at fifteen years old, and ending at seventy-five, averaging five cigars a day, would smoke over five miles of cigars.

— Sergt. E. D. Woodbury, 1st Vermont cavalry, belonging in Manchester, N. H., who won honorable mention and a medal in Sheridan's battles in the valley, has been promoted to the rank of Lieutenant.

The question was recently proposed to a down east editor: Are hoopskirts dangerous? He almost immediately answered that they are very dangerous indeed when they have anything in them.

— The raiders who went east from Montreal, have been arrested, and a proclamation issued offering a reward for the arrest of the remainder of the party.

— In the attempt of the rebel prisoners at Johnson's Island to get away, Lieut. R. Bowles was killed, and four men who escaped were all recaptured.

— Twenty-five seamen got away from the frigate Niagara, at Scheldt, and most of them escaped into Holland.

— "No champagne" is appended to dinner invitations in New York now by the economical.

—Mr. Hale takes the place on the Senate Judiciary committee declined by Mr. Foot.

The Empress Eugenie again pouts and vows she won't go to Nice. She evidently is not a nice girl.

WHO CARES!

Who cares for the last year's rose?
Or the flower of last year's May?
Or the leaf dried sweet in a mouldy book?
Or the love who is away?

Who cares for the cloud gone by?
Or last week's rain and wind?
Or a golden crescent of folded curl
The dead one left behind?

A tress of hair and a faded leaf
Are paltry thing of to a cynic's eyes;
But to me they are keys that open the gates
Of a paradise of memories.

THE NEW CHIEF JUSTICE AND ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

The Supreme Court no longer will move at snail's pace.
In this all the lawyers of course are agreed:
For while at its meetings there must be a Chase,
The Government causes can go off with Speed,

— By the credits allowed in accordance with the act of Congress on the call for 500,000 men, made July 18th, 1864, the number of men obtained under that call was reduced to 250,000.

— Wm. L. Dayton, U. S. Minister at the French Court, died on the 2d inst., in Paris, of apoplexy, aged 58.

HALE'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the reach of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these five other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "DYE," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color, it promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling out and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy, and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing, it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

THE PORTSMOUTH POETS.—The idea of the book, so far as we know, is novel, and is certainly a very pleasing one; and the industrious and enterprising editors are entitled to more than the thanks of the community, for their pains. We understand, however, that so great is the cost of the book, that they are unable to bestow copies on contributors, as they would prefer doing; and we say it entirely of our own idea, that we doubt if they get back anything more than their outlay, on this edition—even if they do that.

Of course there will be mistakes discovered, and omissions of authors found out when too late; but all such should be reported to the editors, and so the next issue improved. Of the two hundred and eighty-three selections from the writings of the forty authors included,—T. B. Aldrich has 9, Rev. J. G. Adams 6, Rev. Dr. Burroughs 7, Michael W. Beck 8, Esther W. Barnes 6, Mrs. Sarah Roberts Boyle 6, Chas. W. Brewster 4, Mary Cutts 3, Sam'l M. Demeritt 3, Dan'l A. Drown 5, Jas. T. Fields 17, Rev. Woodbury M. Fernald 6, Sarah H. Foster 5, Fannie E. Foster 3, Rev. Dr. Haven 4, Nath'l Appleton Haven 6, Caroline E. Jenness 9, Harriet McE. Kimball 11, Jas. Kennard jr. 10, Albert Laighton 21, Benj. D. Laighton 3, Mary E. B. Miller 7, Thos. P. Moses 3, John N. Moses 1 Jas. R. May 1, Catherine M. McClintock 3, Edward P. Nowell 9, Mrs. C. E. R. Parker 10, Mrs. Adelaide E. M. Parker 6, Aurin M. Payson 4, Edward A. Rand 6, Jonathan M. Sewall 12, B. P. Shillaber 16, Louisa Simes 13, Mrs. Eliza O. Shores 3, Rev. Wm. B. Tappan 11, Jas. P. Walker 5, Mrs. Caroline E. Whiton 9, Mrs. Julia V. N. Whipple 3, S. Adams Wiggin 2—the selections being arranged in alphabetical order.

Of course these writings are not to be criticized, coming before the public as they do. Yet Rev. Dr. Peabody, in his preface, "regards them as indicating a high average order of taste, sentiment, culture and poetic ability in the writers;" of whom "not more than four or five have placed themselves prominently before the world as candidates for fame"—and most of the pieces were written for anonymous newspaper publication, and many of them for more private use still. "All but two of the poets represented belong to the present generation, and the greater part are still living." Dr. Peabody also pays a very touching and well merited tribute to his old contemporary pastor here, the venerated former rector of St. John's Church.

Neither would we detract one jot from the disinterestedness of the labor of love, which the compilers of the work have evidently bestowed upon the book; but it will look a little strange to those who are acquainted with the local history of our town for the past quarter of a century—that of the writings of that son of Portsmouth, who possessed more artistic talent and devotion than perhaps any other, and as much poetry of soul if not of pen, room should be found for but three brief selections; while three times that number are given of the scribblings of more recent aspirants for fame, who, poetically speaking, are not worthy to at-tempt his muse.

We must close saying three times as much as we meant to, by advising everybody who cares anything about Portsmouth and her literary fame, to be sure and get the "Poets of Portsmouth."

ANTIQUES.—We have in our counting-room, a Chair which once belonged to Jonathan M. Sewall, the revolutionary poet; an Inkstand formerly used by Daniel Fowle, the first printer in New Hampshire; and a Whip given by Gov. Wentworth, to Joseph Moulton, who shod his horses. All these articles are more than one hundred years old.—We have also, as curiosities, a lot of type and other office fixtures, fifty to a hundred years old, from the office of the late John Melcher,—in good order and well conditioned, and equally beautiful with the absurd old style types the craft have recently introduced as new fashioned.

☞ Preparations for landing Navy Yard workmen at Kittery Foreside not having been completed, they are allowed to land at the Yard for the remainder of this week; after which, it is stated, there will be—as the public performers say—"positively, no postponement." A landing-place has been secured at an expense of $150 per year, the government furnishing floating stages and other necessary facilities.

☞ A learned Professor in a Western College closes a business letter to us with the remark that he "wishes he had time to express his admiration of the scheme for the Musical Convention to be held at Concord," Jan. 2d—of which we have already given the details. Well he might; but strange to say, people in this vicinity—most of them—don't appreciate such advantages, even when brought to their doors; much less, to go a journey and enjoy them. Quite a delegation from Portsmouth talk of going to this one, however—which will be of great value to all interested in music—and also a glorious time.

☞ The blocking snow of Wednesday of course delayed the railroad trains, interrupted telegraphs, &c., so that news is scarce and slow.

☞ Repairs are being made on the steamer Emerald at the Navy Yard, and she will commence ferrying from the Yard again in a day or two.

☞ The present high price of coal is causing the railroads to go back to the use of wood again, and Mr. Superintendent Prescott of the Eastern road, ever looking to true economy in all things pertaining to the road, is having the coal-burning locomotives changed to burn wood. The same course is being adopted on the Boston and Maine road. The Eastern road have recently put on one of the finest locomotives in New England, and in a few days will add another of the same class.

THE OCTOROON.—This great play which has been in preparation for a long time, will be produced this evening for the first time by Bidwell & Pike's company. This play has met with a success whenever it has been played, equal to the renowned "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and has been witnessed by all classes, old and young, rich and poor. It will no doubt meet with the same success here that has been bestowed upon it in other cities. D.

Said a venerable preacher—Fellow sinners, if you were told that by going to the top of those stairs, (pointing to a rickety pair at the other end of the church) you might secure your eternal salvation, I really believe hardly one of you would try it; but if I should proclaim that J. Monroe Taylor had put a few bars of his celebrated Gold Medal Soap on the top stair for the one that would get it first, I'll be bound there ain't one of you but what would use your utmost exertions to gain the prize; my wife says there ain't anything like it, and she would recommend the whole parish to use it. 37

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world affords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

☞ Special attention is asked to Hunnewell's preparations, advertised on our inside columns. They are based on true medical laws, used very largely by Physicians, and most undoubted testimonials are in the hands of the proprietor, always open to inspection. Let Portsmouth and its vicinity bear testimony by a confidence to test them, which will be sacred.

SAVE YOUR FUEL:

THE MODEL COOK.

IS, IN FACT,

The Best Stove Out,

for economy, convenience and dispatch.

Many people think it best to use an old stove as long as possible, but it is far better to throw it away and purchase a MODEL COOK, than to keep it at the present high price of fuel.

One of our shrewdest citizens who purchased a MODEL COOK STOVE a year since, says he has saved more than its cost already.

A careful, prudent farmer purchased one, and after it had been in operation some days his son came into the store and said, "something was wrong at their house;" his father and himself used wood of the same pile, he burned three baskets full a day, and his father only one! We sold him a Stove before he left, and there has been no complaint since.

These Stoves are in use in many hotels and boarding houses, and in hundreds of private families in this city and vicinity, and give the best of satisfaction.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using it, can and are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

CHEROKEE PILLS!

Health Preserver!!

CERTAIN AND SAFE.

They cure or obviate those numerous diseases that spring from irregularity, by removing the irregularity itself.

They cure Suppressed, Excessive and Painful Menstruation.

They cure Green Sickness (Chlorosis).

They cure Nervous and Spinal Affections, pains in the back and lower parts of the body, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysteria, Sick Headache, Giddiness, &c., &c. In a word, by removing the irregularity, they remove the cause and with it ALL the effects that spring from it.

Composed of simple vegetable extracts, they contain nothing deleterious to any constitution, however delicate, their function being to substitute strength for weakness, which, when properly used, they never fail to do.

They may be safely used at any age and at any period, except during the first three months, during which the unfailing nature of their action would infallibly prevent pregnancy.

OR ESSENCE OF LIFE.

Prepared from Pure Vegetable Extracts,

Containing nothing injurious to the most delicate.

"As the Phœnix rises from the ashes of its fire, animated with new life,"—so does this Elixir rejuvenate the system and OVERCOME DISEASE.

The Rejuvenating Elixir is the result of modern discoveries in the Vegetable kingdom; being an entirely new and abstract method of cure, irrespective of all the old and worn-out systems.

This medicine restores to manly vigor and robust health the poor debilitated, worn-down and despairing devotee of sensual pleasure.

The listless enervated youth, the over-tasked man of business, the victim of nervous depression, the individual suffering from general debility, or from weakness of a single organ, will all find immediate and permanent relief by the use of this Elixir or Essence of Life.

☞ Price, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5, and forwarded by express, on receipt of money, to any address.

Sold by all druggists everywhere.

Dr. W. R. MERWIN & CO., Sole Proprietors, No. 63 Liberty street, New York.

The Cherokee Pills & Rejuvenating Elixir,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these: those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Postoffice, County, State and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

We send our 32 page pamphlet free to any address. Address all letters for Pamphlets or advice to the proprietors,

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.
OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,
WASHINGTON CITY, NOV. 19, 1864.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until 1 o'clock P. M. on Thursday, the 29th day of December, 1864, for supplying the Lighthouse Establishment with thirty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained lard oil, and twenty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained sperm oil, to be delivered into four lots, and to be delivered at the times undermentioned, alongside of the government supply vessels, or at the warehouse or other place of deposit, to be designated by the Inspector Of Oil, or other authorized agent of the Light-house Board, in strong, tight iron-bound, well made cases, suitable for shipping, in good order, of a capacity, each, of from fifty to eighty gallons, not to exceed the latter. The lard oil may be delivered at Boston or New York.

Either lot of sperm oil, or both of them, may be delivered at New York, New London, Gay Harbor, Boston, New Bedford, Edgartown, or Nantucket, at the option of the bidders. The place of delivery must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be embraced in the contracts.

The four lots will be delivered as follows, viz:

Lot No. 1. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 5th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 2. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 15th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 3. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 1st day of July, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 4. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 1st day of August, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

No bid will be considered unless from a manufacturer of the article.

No part of the oil proposed for and to be embraced in the contracts under the head of this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, until it shall have been proved to the entire satisfaction of the person or persons charged with its examination, test, and inspection, to be of the best quality pure winter strained or bagged oil, and free from mixture with other or inferior oils and adulterations.

The usual means for determining the character and quality of the sperm oil will be employed, viz: specific gravity, burning, the amount of residuum, and any other proper tests, to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.

The lard oil will be subjected to special tests, and will be rejected unless found to be, in regard to burning and fluidity, under reduction of temperature, and in every other respect, equal to that of the standard adopted by the Board, of which a sample will be furnished, on application to the Light-house Engineer at Boston.

The casks must be gauged under the direction and personal supervision of the inspecting officer, by a custom-house or other legally authorized and sworn gauger, according to the United States standard, and must be marked and accepted before they are removed from the cellar or warehouse of the contractor. The temperature of the oil will be accurately noted, and the measurements reduced to the standard temperature of 60° Farenheit by tables prepared for the purpose.

Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of the lots at the option of the bidder; but no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified as one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bid must state explicitly the rate per gallon, in writing, the number of the lot or lots bid for, and the time and place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.

Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will not be considered.

The Light-house Board, under the authority of the Department, reserves the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other considerations than the price.

No bid will be considered for any other kind or description of oil than those especially called for in this advertisement.

A bond, with security to the satisfaction of the Department, in a penalty equal to one-fourth of the amount of each contract made under these proposals, will be required of each contractor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, to be executed ten days after the acceptance of the bid.

Each offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and shown to the department as such, or certified by a United States district judge, attorney, navy agent, or collector of customs, that if the bid be accepted, the bidder will duly execute a contract in good faith, according to the provisions and terms of this advertisement, within ten days after acceptance; and that in case the said party offering shall fail to enter into the contract as aforesaid, he or the guarantyers will make good the difference between the offer of the said party and the next lowest bidder. All bids must be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for oil for light houses," and then placed in another envelope, and directed, prepaid, to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington City.

All bids will be opened, publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.

Payments will be made for the several lots of oil at intervals of thirty days after they shall have been received by the United States.

BY ORDER OF THE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD:
ANDREW A. HARWOOD,
Secretary.

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by the disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELICIOUS PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and beautifies the leather.
Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1864.

GRATUITOUS AND USELESS LYING.—We have recently seen and published the following item:

The Confederate General Granberry, recently killed in Tennessee, was a Methodist clergyman, formerly of Washington, but Chaplain of the Charlottesville University at the opening of the war.

The same item has gone the rounds of papers, generally, and it is true we suppose. One copperhead journal, after copying the item, appends these remarks:

Would to God that some of our clergymen would give the same token of sincerity! But, excepting the Chaplain of the 12th, Ambrose, we don't know that one has exposed himself to a fate they so richly deserve. While they have bounded hundreds of thousands of better men to a bloody grave, they take precious good care of themselves.

The principal statement here, says Uncle Toby, is utterly false, as the writer knows or ought to know. It is a vain thing for him to take shelter under the plea that he "don't know," one,—or under the quibble that might be raised on the word our: for the statement is in substance, that the clergymen complained of, who have sent 100,000 or hundreds of thousands of men not only to the war, but to the grave, have taken such good care of themselves, that not one of them has been under fire, or exposed to death on the field. Perhaps the writer may not know that half a score of ministers from our own State, and some hundreds from New England, have gone into the Union armies, not merely as chaplains, nor wholly as officers, but part of them as privates,—and that not a few have fallen. Yet these are facts that he might have known, and ought to have known, as an editor who claims to instruct his readers. But as the case stands, he gives them as above, either an ignorant falsehood or a willful lie. He is either grossly ignorant himself, or he intends to deceive his ignorant readers.

FROM ST. DOMINGO AND MEXICO.—From St. Domingo we learn that Soleed' the late leader of the Dominican patriots, was shot by his countrymen for endeavoring to bring about an end of the war by submission to Spain.

Two thousand French troops, homeward bound, from Mexico, have arrived at Havana.

Maximilian, by proclamation, makes aggression on the British Colony of Honduras. He declares that the Peninsula of Yucatan, with the entire territory of the Colony of Honduras and its Cayes and islands, are incorporated into his empire from the 1st of October last. England's treaty claims to Honduras seem to be entirely ignored.

THE NEW DRAFT.—A Washington dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune says:

It is thought and intended in the War Department that the new call for men shall produce the number called for. The last call produced but forty per cent. of the amount. The balance was lost in credits and other contrivances and accidents to which this new draft will not be liable. Cutting and running to Canada and elsewhere was a very large leak in the last endeavor to recruit the army. Plenty of time to do this was allowed to the unwarlike and knavish. The draft will be fetched up with a short turn this time. It is understood that a system of passports, to be rigidly enforced at Detroit, Buffalo, Suspension Bridge, and Sackett's Harbor, will be invoked to hold men to the sacred duty of fighting for their country.

The people of Atlanta are returning to their homes. They find the dwellings generally standing, only the stores and public buildings having been destroyed.—N. [H. Union.

What becomes then of all the howling and fuss made by the copperhead papers over Gen. Sherman's destructive action?

FIRE IN ANDOVER.—The building occupied by the English Department of Phillips Academy, at Andover, Mass., was entirely destroyed by fire Wednesday morning Dec. 21. The fire broke out about half-past six o'clock, and is supposed to have originated from a defective furnace. The building was of stone, about 80 feet by 50, and two stories high, with a basement. It contained a library and a valuable cabinet and philosophical apparatus, all of which were lost.

☞ The North Congregational Church and Society in Newburyport, have extended a unanimous call to Rev. Mr. Dennin to become their pastor. Mr. Dennin has supplied the pulpit for some months, during the absence of Rev. Mr. Hooker and since his resignation; and a mutual affection exists between him and the parish. He is a preacher of eloquence and ability; and that is one of the best parishes in the State, made so by such men as Drs. Spring and Dimmick, who so long labored there, and Rev. Mr. Hooker, whose pastorage was short but is pleasant in the recollections of the people. So says the Herald.

THE REBELLION.

The flag of truce in Charleston harbor is ended. Col. Mulford arrived at Fortress Monroe on Wednesday evening from Port Royal on the steamer New York, accompanied by the remaining steamers of the flag of truce fleet, the Illinois and George Leary. These three steamers brought about 1000 prisoners, being the last instalment of the entire number, 12,000.

At the time the New York sailed from Port Royal—the 18th—Savannah had not surrendered, but vigorous preparations were being made by Gen. Sherman to either compel the city to immediately surrender or carry the intrenchments by assault.

In the rebel House of Representatives Saturday, resolutions were offered in favor of sending Commissioners to Washington for the restoration of peace.

The Herald's correspondent in front of Richmond says it is reported that Gen. Lee was wounded in front of Petersburg last Saturday, and will be unfit for duty for some time. Deserters say desertions from the rebel army will be heavy in future.

The rebel Senate on Saturday went into secret session, and had a stormy time. The measure of immediately arming the negroes was passed almost unanimously. For several days every able-bodied negro has been quietly seized and carried off to a camp of instruction. This may account for their general stampede to our lines.

The N. Y. Herald's correpondence contradicts all the rebel papers' romance about resisting Sherman and Kilpatrick,—and says the spoils of Sherman's campaign are 4000 prisoners, 15,000 horses, 10,000 negroes, 30 pieces of artillery and a million dollars' worth of cotton burnt. The people of Savannah are reported to be willing to give up the city.

From Kentucky, we learn that Gen. Ed. McCook struck part of the rebel Gen. Lyon's force on the 16th, defeated them and captured all their artillery. He is rapidly pursuing them.

— Gold, Thursday, 222 1-2.

THE NEWSPAPERS.—Oh, how they do groan all round. The old Portland Argus, long one of the most flourishing papers in New England, says "there is not a paper in Maine, with perhaps a single exception, that is paying the interest on the capital invested;" and adds that "the proprietors of the Argus have invested thirty thousand dollars (gold currency) in the establishment, and on this capital they have not received a cent of interest for two years; this is in fact the condition of nearly all the country newspapers, and the question with the publishers is how long they can hold out in this struggle with the pressure of the times. It now looks as if most of us will be compelled to give up the contest before the coming year expires."

The Concord Patriot, for many years the strongest newspaper establishment in this State, says, "Our brother editors in this State are reminding delinquent subscribers that pay day has come. We have about a hundred who will miss the weekly visit of the Patriot after a few weeks if they don't take the hint we have sent them. Never was it so necessary to the very existence of newspapers that their subscribers should pay promptly, and even in advance, as it is now. That will not save many of us, unless 'the times' change before many months pass."

The States and Union in this city complains that their big list they boast of, don't pay up. Well, we guess they pay all the thing is worth. However the fact is, all the leading political papers (not that we mean to say that the Stars and Bars leads anybody, although it may mislead a few,) get up a great circulation for political effect, which never pays, and never ought to. We say, let newspapers stand on their own business basis, and politics take care of themselves—the two should never be united, more than church and State. The difference between the two ways of doing business, which we allude to, is illustrated by the fact that we announce to stop our paper at once if not paid for; while the cotemporary referred to states that he will not stop papers till paid for, &c. We don't desire to send a single copy of any paper we print, to one man who don't want it; and we will not send it to one who won't pay for it, if we know it.

A CONVENIENT WITNESS.—A man in Detroit, named Peter Alvord, was lately sent to the house of correction for habitual drunkenness. During the progress of the trial the defendant's counsel, who made every effort to have his client acquitted, called a witness on the stand, who wore a huge pair of spectacles and a carefully adjusted wig. This witness testified, in answer to the inquiry of the lawyer, that he had known the defendant for thirty years; had frequently been in his company, but had never seen him intoxicated. This would doubtless have been treated as perjury but for the fact that the witness referred to was—blind.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS

—— Maj. Carroll M. Wright has been appointed Colonel of the 14th N. H. Volunteers, in place of Col. Gardner who was killed near Winchester. Col. Wright enlisted as a private from Swanzey.

THE UNION CONVENTION for Congressional District No. 1, met at Concord on Wednesday. Ex-Gov. Goodwin was chosen President, and the convention nominated Gen. Marston for Congress by 135 to 108.

In the Second District Hon. E. H. Rollins was nominated for re-election to Congress by acclamation.

THE REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION, for District No. 1, at Dover, Dec. 21st, was called to order by Hon. T. L. Tullock of this city, and temporarily organized by the election of George W. Burleigh, Esq., of Somersworth, as Chairman, (Mr. Burleigh receiving 139 votes to Hon. Thomas E. Sawyer of Dover 99.)

A committee of five on permanent organization (Major Frank G. Wentworth of Greenland, Chairman,) reported as officers of the convention: Hon. Ichabod Goodwin of Portsmouth, President; Hon. Oliver Wyatt of Dover, Hon. Hanson Beedee of Meredith, Col. Joseph Wentworth of Sandwich, James B. Shapleigh, Esq., of Somersworth, Albert B. Currier, Esq., of Kingston, ——— Platt, Esq., of Londonderry, Vice Presidents; Hon. Thomas L. Tullock of Portsmouth, Col. William M. Weed of Sandwich, Secretaries.

After considerable discussion, it was voted that the several county delegations report the name of one person from each county, who shall nominate to the convention the names of three persons from their respective delegations, to constitute a committee of twelve on credentials; and Hon. Charles H. Bell for Rockingham, Hon. Oliver Wyatt for Strafford, Jeremiah C. Tilton, Esq., for Belknap, Jotham Harmon, Esq., for Carroll, reported as Committee on Credentials:

Rockingham County—Wm. H. Hackett of Portsmouth, Dearborn of Deerfield, Leavitt of Hampton.

Strafford—Ross of Dover, Lawrence of Lee, Eastman of Farmington.

Belknap — Seavey of New Hampton, Beede of Meredith, Mudgett of Gilmanton.

Carroll—Weed of Sandwich, Shackford of Conway, Scammon of Ossipee.

Mr. Hackett, of Portsmouth, reported the list of delegates to the convention, which was accepted; after which the convention proceeded by formal ballot to nominate a candidate for Member of Congress, with the following result:

Whole number of votes	243
Necessary for a choice	122
Benj. J. Cole of Gilford had	7
Jacob Ela of Rochester	10
John D. Lyman of Farmington	19
Samuel M. Wheeler of Dover	72
Gilman Marston of Exeter	135

And Gen. Gilman Marston was afterwards unanimously declared the nominee.

Messrs. Wheeler, Lyman, Ela and others addressed the convention, urging an earnest and cordial support to the nominee of the convention. Col. Joseph Wentworth, of Sandwich, introduced Resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

Col. Albert L. Jones of Portsmouth, Hon. Oliver Wyatt of Dover, and Col. Joseph Wentworth of Sandwich, were appointed a committee to notify Gen. Marston of his nomination; after which the convention dissolved.

WOMAN ON THE BATTLE FIELD. The Memphis Democrat of the 9th inst. gives a very interesting account of the manner in which the women of Franklin, Tenn. ministered to the wounded in the recent conflict near that town. They left their houses to attend to the sufferers, regardless of danger from the whistling bullets and the shrieking shells; and many of the soldiers belonging to both of the contending armies will have reason to bless these volunteer and fearless nurses.

— The mother of a Connecticut soldier who died in the rebel stockade at Andersonville, still awaits his arrival at Annapolis—still scans each haggard skeleton that debarks from the transports, still comes each day with a full suit of clothing for her boy—and when at last she finds him not, she stands wistfully, longingly looking over the waters of the Bay, refusing to believe that he has joined that unreturning company who have passed through martyrdom to a patriot's reward.

☞ We should infer that it has been customary in Bath, Me., for the City authorities to keep the sidewalks clear of snow, from the fact that Mayor Putnam now issues a notice that as it is advisable to keep the city expenses as low as possible, he would request every citizen to cause the snow to be removed immediately from the walks; the difficulty of procuring men for the above purpose rendering this service on the part of the citizens more necessary.

— The Forbes Medal, which was this year presented to the best scholar of the graduating class of the Female High School, Newburyport, for the first time, was taken by Miss Abby L. Harris. This is a beautiful gold medal, properly inscribed, from a fund donated for such an annual presentation, by Mr. Wm. Forbes.—It is given upon the recommendation of the teachers, who are the sole judges of scholarship.

VICE ADMIRAL FARRAGUT.—On Wednesday, at Washington, the President signed the bill to establish a grade of Vice Admiral. Immediately afterwards the President nominated to the Senate Rear Admiral Farragut for that position, and the Senate confirmed the appointment without the usual formality of referring it to the standing committee. Vice Admiral Farragut, who is in New York, was immediately notified by telegraph of this mark of honor conferred upon him.

☞ A Quebec dispatch of Dec. 21, states that Young and two others of the St. Albans raiders were recaptured Wednesday, at St. Francois, 16 miles from Riviere du Loup, on their way East. It is thought that all will be arrested. It is evident that they are making for New Brunswick by different routes.

— Ex-Senator Iverson, of Georgia Militia, is reported to have recently said to a Federal prisoner, that for the rebellion there could be no longer any hope of success, and the fact might as well be recognized by the authorities at Richmond, as it already was by the great body of the people.

— Italy, the land of lazzaroni and poetry, produces other more marketable commodities in a commercial view, as for instance: 10,000,000 kilogrammes of raw wool, honey worth £60,000, wax worth £200,000, cocoons worth £9,000,000, hides to the amount of £5,500,000, and 720,000 kilogrammes of cheese.

— The Post's Washington despatch says Secretary Fessenden has decided to issue another one hundred millions of ten forty bonds, interest payable in gold.

— Wm. A. Cromwell, of South Berwick, Me., has been appointed chief clerk in the 4th Auditor's office at Washington.

BANKS.—Of the four in Newburyport, two are National. Just so are they divided in this city. The Herald says one-half their bank stock is owned by their own citizens. How long the local banks can successfully compete with the Nationals, is doubtful. Under the national law there are great advantages.

HALE'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these two other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desiderata, but in fact greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the sick public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

For sale by B. Hutchings, Portsmouth, and all Druggists.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a Dye, and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy, and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. Will it in every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

DRAFT NOTICE.

All persons who have been before the Committee of the City Government on account of disability, and all those persons claiming exemption for physical disability, are hereby requested to be at the Provost Marshal's office, this, Friday, evening, at 7 o'clock, when the Committee will present their cases to the Board of Enrollment.

CHAS. A. SHANNON,
W. E. HADLEY,
JOHN F. RIDER,
Com. on Enrollment.

☞ The Marine Barracks at the Portsmouth Navy Yard have, during the past few months, undergone a process of alteration, enlargement and renovation, which has resulted in furnishing both officers and men spacious, comfortable and convenient quarters, which reflect much credit on the designer of the buildings, as well as the Government in caring for the comfort of its soldiers.

The former quarters were "narrow-contracted," poorly-ventilated, seven-by-nine compartments, inconvenient and uncomfortable; and it having been suggested many times by the different officers stationed there that better accommodations should be afforded, the Constructing Engineer of the Yard, B. F. Chandler, Esq., several years since set about making designs for the present buildings, and then presented the matter to the proper authority, asking that a sufficient sum of money be appropriated to carry out his plans, which was ultimately granted.

The buildings have been altered by raising the two wings (used for officers' quarters) one story, enlarging offices, cook room, mess room, cells, &c., on the lower floor,—while on the second floor are large sleeping apartments, good enough for anybody. Two roomy piazzas in front overlook the river and lawn, also affording a fine view of the sea in the distance, altogether making it a place of residence which the most fastidious might covet.

POLICE COURT, Dec. 22.—John Norton, an Irishman, for drunkenness, fined $3 and costs $3.86. Paid.

George Allen, William Brown, Henry Campbell and Patrick Harrigan, for brawl and tumult, fined $1 each and costs, $3.86. These gentlemen were amusing themselves by disturbing the performance at the Temple on Wednesday evening, incited by the exhilarating effects of whiskey, but their fun was suddenly brought to a terminus by the rigorous officials, who caused them to be taxed as above.

☞ The Atlantics, Sixes, announce their second annual Ball, at Irving Hall, next Tuesday evening. You may depend that things won't go "all at sixes and sevens" there.

☞ Capt. Daniel Marcy has accepted the nomination of the copperheads in this district as a candidate for re-election to Congress. The letter of acceptance shows the Captain to be a far more successful hand at letter writing than any one had supposed, and we trust the author of the letter referred to will be too modest to contradict this statement. By the way, the Captain pays a tax on $600 income? No wonder he wants an office to increase such a paltry revenue for a man who stands such political assessments.—Cor. Ballot.

☞ Mr. Wm. B. Trask, for some years past a successful dry goods merchant, on Daniel street, is closing his business, preparatory to a removal to Boston to engage in the jobbing business. May his success continue.

☞ The Portsmouth Mutual Fire Insurance Co. are about winding up their affairs, and policy traders are affecting insurance with other companies. The agents of stock companies are busy with new applications at this time, while real estate holders cannot be too careful in what companies they place confidence.

☞ The fall term of Mr. Samuel Lamprey's dancing school for masters and misses was concluded by an exhibition on Wednesday evening, to which the parents and friends of the children were invited. The affair was enjoyed most heartily by the visitors.

THE OCTOROON.—This celebrated drama was presented at the Temple last night to a large, fashionable and delighted audience. This piece is the most celebrated of the talented Bourcicault's sensation dramas. It has been a great success on both sides of the Atlantic, and always draws good houses wherever it has been produced. Let no one fail to witness this great drama. It will be withdrawn after Saturday night.

DRAMA.

☞ Rev. Mr. DeNormandie's Thanksgiving sermon on "Christian Peace" has been printed at the request of Rev. Daniel Austin, who with his usual liberality at his own expense has presented copies to the South Parish and the public.

☞ Our railroad men must have worked like Trojans, Wednesday night; for though the trains were somewhat late Thursday, the delay was nothing to what might reasonably be expected. Hard times these for railroaders.

☞ Persons in search of holiday presents will save much time and labor by consulting our advertising columns. There is no need of travelling from store to store, and making a personal inspection of masses of goods, when a glance at our paper will give them more information than they would so obtain in a half day.

☞ Where is the man who promised us an open winter? We may have it yet, but things don't look much like it now. Our two very heavy snow-storms have given us a quantity unusual before Christmas—too much to expect first-rate sleighing at present; and as for the skaters they are nowhere.

☞ Gilman Marston has been twice elected to Congress from this district; he would have been elected again if nominated two years ago; and will be again elected next March. He ran over Daniel Marcy before, and can do it again, standing on true Union ground.

DRESS.—The New York Tribune "doubts if any pure-minded, modest woman would wear one of the half masculine, half feminine garments, which fashionable modistes call 'dress-coats;' and are quite sure at any rate, that she would not wear it a second time. It is a fashion which fortunately will soon die out, because it is wholly unsuited to the usual style of woman's dress. In the drawing-room it looks like attire designed for a fancy dress ball; in the street, the partial disguise of a woman in search of adventures; everywhere it is unwomanly, and unnatural. And as having some reference to the coat, we will mention the 'coat-sleeve', which has been in vogue for some time, and which grows straighter, and more unbecoming, with every variation. Why does not Madame Demorest, or some other fashionable modiste demolish them by one imperial edict, and restore to us sleeves which will not reveal so painfully the national defect of thinness of the upper part of the arm, and want of breadth of shoulder. A coat-sleeve has its uses. Twice in a woman's life it may find a place round her neck or waist, but it is not on those occasions her arm which should be in it. We are glad to indorse, however, the double-breasted waists, which are so fashionable for house and street dresses. They are comfortable and very becoming, just the style for Winter wear, and for making up in dark winter materials."

The Tribune also says, "the tendency of the present day among young girls, is altogether to over-dressing. In the street, or at any place of public resort, they are always to be seen in the largest numbers, and decked out most extravagantly a la mode. The impression conveyed is that they have nothing to do beyond dressing themselves to appear in public; and the fact, if it is a fact, is as little to their mother's credit, as their own. Idle, extravagant girls, will make idle extravagant women—a sorry prospect for the future."

Misapprehension. — Common taters, said Mrs. Partington, after the preacher had ended his sermon—he having alluded to some commentators of the good book—common taters, she continued, well all sorts of taters this year are poor enough, but what has that to do with the gospel? Not half so much as the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap has, for that will make the outside of the platter clean, if not the inside, besides it keeps folks from scolding or complaining; it is the best soap and needs no revival. 38

Would you save yourself from suffering after eating, or from acidity of the stomach, or burning sensation, or indigestion? Use Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Never use soda if you can procure this article. It will strengthen weak stomachs and relieve dyspepsia; is a saving in the quantity of flour, &c., &c. Try it. Grocers and Druggists most all sell it. The Wholesale Agents are Wholesale Grocers.

☞ We have had occasion to test the merits of Speer's Sambuci wine lately in one of those complaints for which it is recommended, and are convinced that it must eventually take the place of port and the adulterated stimulants prescribed heretofore in cases of debility. H. H. Hay has just received a large invoice of the wine direct from the vineyard.—Portland Advertiser.

A TRUE AIM.—It has not been the aim of the proprietor of Hunnewell's great preparations, advertised on our inside columns, to base a false reputation by long and unmeaning advertising, but a real one by true results, to which all who try them will cheerfully assent. See advertisement.

SAVE YOUR FUEL!

THE MODEL COOK.

IS, IN FACT,

The Best Stove Out,

for economy, convenience and dispatch.

Many people think it best to use an old stove as long as possible, but it is far better to throw it away and purchase a MODEL COOK, than to keep it at the present high price of fuel.

One of our shrewdest citizens who purchased a MODEL COOK STOVE a year since, says he has saved more than its cost already.

A careful, prudent farmer purchased one, and after it had been in operation some days his son came into the store and said, "something was wrong at their house;" his father and himself used wood off the same pile, he burned three baskets full a day, and his father only one! We sold him a Stove before he left, and there has been no complaint since.

These Stoves are in use in many hotels and boarding houses, and in hundreds of private families in this city and vicinity, and give the best of satisfaction.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large oven for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the unsewing up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any Stove now in use. Hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management, it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—and no none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

The Furnace consumes all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.
OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,
WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 19, 1864.
SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until 1 o'clock P. M. on Thursday, the 29th day of December, 1864, for supplying the Light-house Establishment with thirty thousand gallons of the best quality, pure winter strained lard oil, and twenty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained sperm oil, to be divided into four lots, and to be delivered at the times under mentioned, alongside of the government supply vessels, or at the warehouse or other place of deposit, to be designated by the Inspecting Officer or other authorized agent of the Light-house Board, in strong, tight, iron-bound, well-made casks, suitable for shipping, in good order, of a capacity, each, of from fifty to eighty gallons, not to exceed the latter. The lard oil may be delivered at Boston or New York.
Either lot of sperm oil, or both of them, may be delivered at New York, New Bedford, Edgartown, Harbor, Boston, New Bedford, Edgartown, or Nantucket, at the option of the bidders. The place of delivery must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be embraced in the contracts.
The four lots will be delivered as follows, viz:
Lot No. 1. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 5th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.
Lot No. 2. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 15th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.
Lot No. 3. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 1st day of June, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.
Lot No. 4. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 1st day of August, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.
No bid will be considered unless from a manufacturer of the article.
No part of the oil proposed for and to be embraced in the contracts under the head of this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, until it shall have been proved, to the entire satisfaction of the person or persons charged with its examination, test, and inspection, to be of the best quality pure winter strained or bagged oil, and free from mixture with other or inferior oils and adulterations.
The usual means for determining the character and quality of the sperm oil will be employed, viz: specific gravity, burning, the amount of residuum, and any other proper tests to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.
The lard oil will be subjected to special tests, and will be rejected unless found to be, in regard to burning and fluidity, under reduction of temperature, and in every other respect, equal to that of the standard adopted by the Board, of which a sample will be furnished, on application to the Light-house Engineer at Boston, Mass.
The casks must be gauged under the direction and personal supervision of the inspecting officer, by a custom-house or other legally authorized and sworn gauger, according to the United States standard, and must be marked and delivered before they are removed from the cellar or warehouse of the contractor. The temperature of the oil will be accurately noted, and the measurements reduced to the standard temperature of 60° Farenheit by tables prepared for the purpose.
Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of the lots, at the option of the bidder; but no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified as one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bid must state explicitly the rate per gallon, in writing, for the number of gallons of one lot for, and the time and place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.
Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will not be considered.
The Light-house Board, under the authority of the Department, reserves the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other considerations than the price.
No bid will be considered for any other kind or description of oil than those specially called for in this advertisement.
A bond, with security to the satisfaction of the Department, in a penalty equal to one-fourth of the amount of each contract made under this proposals, will be required of each contractor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, to be executed ten days after the acceptance of the bid.
Each offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and known to the department, that the bidder, or certified by a United States district judge, attorney, navy agent, or collector of the customs, to the effect that, if the bid be accepted, the bidder will duly execute a contract in good faith, according to the provisions and terms of this advertisement, within ten days after acceptance; and that in case the said party offering shall fail to enter into the contract as aforesaid, he or they guaranty to make good the difference between the offer of the said party and the next lowest bidder.
All bids must be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for oil for light houses," and then placed in another envelope, and directed, prepaid, to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington City.
All bids will be opened, publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.
Payments will be made for the several lots of oil within thirty days after they shall have been received by the United States.
BY ORDER OF THE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD:
ANDREW A. HARWOOD,
Secretary.

Ayer's Ague Cure
For the speedy and certain cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache, Bilious or Malarious Headache, and Bilious Fevers; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.
FEVER AND AGUE is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and, moreover, is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over-estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.
Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Brackett Hutchings, J. H. Thacher and W. R. Preston, David Kimball, and all druggists. n30 1taw 2m Tu

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.
Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.
Price, 12 Cents per Bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1864.

☞ The Richmond papers don't believe in our increase of men of voting age, since the war began, though the returns of the Presidential election show an increase of 145,557 votes over the election of 1860.—The Sentinel says "the aggregate of votes in the federal States proves nothing, unless we could know what deductions to make for frauds and pipelaying. It is not uncommon, if we may believe the opposing prints, for a town to give more votes—that is, to contain more males over twenty-one years—than the total number of its men, women, children and babies combined. An order for votes, like an order for pegged shoes, is filled by contract, and illustrates the venality and corruption of the population more than the numbers."

If the Richmond rebels are green enough to believe such stuff as they find in the copperhead papers,—they are welcome to continue their self-deception as to our numbers and resources. It must tend to our advantage if they do so. It is a remarkable fact, however, that in New Hampshire, a nicely balanced State, with a very large vote, the increase was mostly in the "democratic" vote. Query, did President Lincoln or his Cabinet order that?

JEFF. DAVIS' DEMOCRACY.—Mr. J. R. Gilmore (Edmund Kirke), in a lecture on matters at the South, delivered at New Bedford, stated that during an interview he had with Jeff. Davis, the rebel President said that slavery was the natural position of the laboring classes, without distinction of race or color; that the majority at the North was the scum of Europe; that every white man who did not own a negro ought to be a slave himself; that at the South there was a class as low as the negro and that the laborers in the free States were as much slaves as the blacks.

☞ The Herald has details of Sherman's grand march through Georgia. His army moved 300 miles, devastating 42 counties, and capturing 4000 prisoners, 10,000 negroes, 15,000 horses and 30 pieces of artillery. He lost not a gun, and his entire casualties are only 1500 men. Kilpatrick defeated Wheeler in a skirmish near Macon, and could have easily taken that city had Sherman desired it. The rebel resistance at Oconee bridge caused but a few hours delay. At Grisswoldville, where the rebels were reported to have repulsed us, one of our brigades (Walcott's of the 15th corps) defeated three rebel brigades under Gen. Phillips, we losing only 37 men and the rebels nearly 400. The rebel militia stood 15 minutes, though the battle lasted four hours, our forces constantly following up the flying foe. There was not a real serious battle during the whole march. Our cavalry was not at any time repulsed, nor was Kilpatrick hurt. He had several small fights, but wears the same hat with which he started from Atlanta.

SISTERLY.—The Cincinnati Gazette remarks that the Republican majority in New England shows an increase of nearly 15,000 over that of 1860. But the increase in the nine northwestern States is 280,000. It adds:

"Let New England, therefore, understand that the West most emphatically declares that she cannot spare from the great Continental Republic her genius, her science, her literature and her education, though her comparatively barren soil is of little worth."

— It is said that Madame Vestris, the famous English actress, used to have her white satin boots sewed on her feet every morning, in order that they should fit perfectly the exquisite shape of her exquisite foot. Of course they had to be ripped off every night, and the same pair could never be worn but once. She is said to have made more conquests with her feet than with her face, beautiful as it was.

— The Tribune's Shenandoah correspondent says a couple of poor, starved and naked rebel soldiers came into our lines on the night of the 12th, saying that flesh and blood could not stand the treatment they received. They say that Early has two divisions at Newmarket, amounting in all to not over 5000, and no cavalry.

— The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald says that the committee of Ways and Means are almost unanimously in favor of the repeal of the duty on paper. Mr. Morrill of Vermont is understood to be the only member of the committee opposed to this policy.

— One of the largest distilleries in the West has just been completed at Dubuque, at a cost of between $300,000 and $400,000. Its daily taxes will average about $5,000 when in full operation.

☞ We are indebted to Senator Hale, Asst. Sec. Navy Fox, and some other M. C. whose franking name we can't read for favors in the way of pub. docs.

— Mr. Daniel Hussey, while picking up stones on his place at Littleworth, found under one a nest of sixty-three snakes.

— The rebel Sec. of War is in favor of arming the slaves.

THE REBELLION.

At last accounts General Thomas was at Columbia, 46 miles south of Nashville. A portion of the rebel force had crossed Duck river and were proceeding southward.

The entire country about Nashville, is filled with deserters from the rebel army, many of whom are constantly coming in.

A report that Hood crossed Duck river, with sixty-two pieces of artillery, is untrue. His artillery was mostly lost between Franklin and the river, and in the battles before Nashville, and the number of pieces left in his possession on his retreat must have been few.

Hood's army is represented by deserters and prisoners as in a deplorable condition. Weather very cold. The water on the Shoals is 17 feet deep and rising.

The naval and military expedition under command of Admiral Porter and General Butler arrived at Beaufort, N. C., on the 15th inst., after experiencing very rough weather. The vessels, both naval and army, are concentrating there, preparatory to making the grand movement against the fortifications seventy miles further down the coast. Close up to the town are anchored a large number of schooners, filled with supplies and ammunition, while at the distance of two or three miles from the pier, lie the heavy vessels of the naval fleet. The iron-clads will take on a fresh supply of coal at this point, and all the minor details of the attack will be arranged.

The cattle and sheep—1800 of the former and 1000 of the latter—captured recently in Loudon Valley, Va., by the Federal cavalry, have been driven to York, Va., where they are being sold by public auction by the order of the Treasury Department. It is believed that over $40,000 will be realized from the sale.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch says Gen. Grant has telegraphed that the Richmond papers just in, say an official dispatch from Wilmington, dated the 21st, 10 A. M. states that the advanced of the enemy's fleet arrived off that port during the previous night. Over 30 steamers are now assembling and more are following.

Late Richmond papers have further reference to the Union raid into Southwest Virginia. The Richmond Examiner says "it turns out to be an extensive and damaging one. The raiders are reported within 8 miles of Saltville."

The peace resolutions were defeated in the North Carolina Senate, 24 to 20.

The Richmond Examiner of the 20th says the Government received official dispatches from Savannah yester day, when all was quiet. The Whig of the 20th, says the situation in Tennessee is melancholy enough. It was a black day for the army of Tennessee when Johnston lost his command. Hood was soon flanked, beaten and compelled to abandon Atlanta and allowed Sherman to walk through Georgia. He (Hood) himself moved up into Tennessee where he has again got himself beaten and this time we fear badly enough.

The Examiner also says that the Campaign in Northern Tennessee has concluded disastrously, we have no doubt.

The Richmond Examiner notices the successful operation of a newly-invented machine at the rebel laboratory in that city, which will turn out 340,000 percussion caps complete in 8 hours. Hog Winder, as he his called by our prisoners, has received the appointment of rebel Commissary General of prisoners, and will establish his headquarters at Augusta.

A PRETTY MOWER IN SAXONY.—At Dresden I saw the Sistine Madonna with inexpressible delight; but I saw another sight not quite so poetical and ideal, yet still to be looked upon with interest and pleasure. One day I was walking through the public square to the picture gallery. I happened to notice a woman mowing. I stopped; sat down and looked at her for half an hour. She was apparently two or three and twenty. Her head was finely formed, and set firmly on her shoulders. Her hair was neatly braided round it; her features were regular; complexion brown as a berry; eyes bright, blue; form vigorous, well rounded like that of Dorothea in Goethe's poem. From her ears hung golden ear-rings. She wore a bright colored petticoat, reaching a little below the knees; her legs were bare, and her feet encased in embroidered shoes. She was the picture of health and robust beauty. She swung the scythe with an inimitable ease and grace; and as she did so, there was a placid expression on her pleasant countenance, which spoke of a good conscience, a contented spirit, and a willingness to do the work which her destiny pointed out. I examined the swaths; the grass was cut as smooth as velvet; you could not tell where one swath ended and the next began. An English lawn looked no smoother. It was a work of art, high art; and an American farmer might have taken a useful lesson. I wish I could have taken her portrait as she stood before me.—Prof. Felton.

HAY SEIZED.—Saturday afternoon, a squad of soldiers of the regular army, from Fort Preble, arrived in town, and by authority seized a lot of hay on the wharf near the Flour Mills, belonging to parties up river. It appears that there had been some efforts made by agents of the Government to purchase the hay, but the price asked being regarded as exorbitant, Government took possession of the hay, for which they will pay a fair price as determined by commission.—Bath Times.

— Twenty wild animals of various kinds from India, for a menagerie, arrived at Boston, recently.

DEAD.

Written by a husband on the death of his wife

Dead! dead! ah! how little ye think,
As ye whisper that cruel word to my ear,
How it goads me on to the awful brink
Of a great despair.
Ye bring her children a tear to steal,
Or to woo a smile from my pallid lips,
But what henceforth can I fear or feel,
In love's eclipse.
Take them away! All the mother outspeaks
In his frank blue eye and her shining curls;
And the laughing lips and the dimpled cheeks
Are but half my girl's.
Fool! in my madness I never dreamed
That she would e'er pass through death's dark portal,
To my blinded vision it always seemed
That love was immortal.
What she could I read in her glowing face,
Or the heavenly depths of her amre eye?
How tremble or shrink in her sweef embrace,
Lest she might die?
Dead! what's dead? not our love, I ween!
She does not stir at my passionate kiss;
But although a thousand years rolled between
That hour and this,
She would seem the same in her snowy dress,
My beautiful bride with the golden hair!
And the pale, calm forehead I stoop to caress
Is still as fair—
As when at the altar I pledged my life
To honor and cherish and keep her for aye,
And she rose, all blooming, my own true wife,
As she is to-day!
I know that those eyes have lost their light,
Those fringes are sweeping a marble cheek,
They will never more kindle with soft delight
To words that I speak.
And the hands that love has so often pressed—
Dear hands! so eager to work my will—
Now dumbly crossed on her waveless breast,
Are cold and still.
But her heart is mine by her wifely vow,
In her maiden troth she gave it to me,
And I claim dominion over it now,
Wherever it be.
You may bury her deep in her earthy bed,
But love is stronger than death or the grave,
And will follow for aye the loving dead
That it could not save.
But somewhere beyond the rolling stars,
Farther than swiftest thought can rise,
She watches me still through Heaven's bars
With tenderest eyes.
And losing no thread of love's dear tie,
When my spirit its mortal cords shall sever,
She will spring to my arms in that realm on high,
And be mine forever.
Dead! but on her dead heart I pray
To God who giveth no love in vain;
When his angels shall roll the stone away,
It will rise again.

—Boston Courier.

A young New England mamma, on the important occasion of making her little boy his first pair of colored trousers, conceived the idea that it would be more economical to make them of the same dimensions behind and before, so that they might be changed about and wear evenly—and so she fashioned them. Their effect when, donned by the little victim, was ludicrous in the extreme. Papa, at first sight of the baggy garments, "so fearfully and wonderfully made," burst into a roar of laughter, and exclaimed, "Oh, my dear, how could you have the heart to do it? Why, the poor little fellow won't know whether he's going to school or coming home."

— The rebel Sec. of War, in his report, recommends the rebel Congress to place every white male person, from 18 to 60, in the army, without regard to any profession or occupation.

Misapprehension. — Common taters, said Mrs. Partington, after the preacher had ended his sermon—he having alluded to some commentators of the good book—common taters, she continued, well all sorts of taters this year are poor enough, but what has that to do with the gospel? Not half so much as the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap has, for that will make the outside of the platter clean, if not the inside, besides it keeps folks from scolding or complaining; it is the best soap and needs no revival. 38

Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these few other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

For sale by B. Hutchings, Portsmouth, and all Druggists.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETTS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern organic chemistry. It is not a "Dye," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy, and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not it money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

Local.

☞ Thursday forenoon, Mr. A. W. Parsons, a farmer who lives near Boyd's road, informed our City Clerk that Hon. Wm. Claggett, who lives still further back from a travelled road, was blockaded in his house by the deep snow and driving wind; and that as the woman who lived there was known to be sick, before the storm, they might be in a suffering condition.

The Overseer of the Poor for that district being absent at the Navy Yard, Mayor Dearborn made a visit to the City Farm for supplies, and with Mr. Norton, the superintendent, rode in a sleigh as far as they could towards the place, and with their hands full of provisions, wallowed through the drifting snow, with great difficulty, a quarter of a mile to the house Being admitted, they found the woman dead,—she having died at an earlier hour in the morning. She was about 50 years of age, and was a Mrs. Varrell, wife of John Varrell of the "Fine Tree Cottage." Her remains have been properly cared for.

The relief to the sole living tenant must have been grateful; and those persons who fancy that the highest officers in our city are sinecures, might have changed their base, had they been called upon to wade across the marshes on such an excursion.

Possibly also the writer who sneered at the city government as a one horse concern, might have found it slightly disagreeable to travel where horses could not go.

☞ Our City Missionary is certainly one of the most useful, if not the most useful man in the city. He literally "goes about doing good;" and there is no end to the good he does, too; and none to the calls upon him, either. And then he always makes the cause of the public, so much his own; as if each case of need or suffering alleviated was a special favor to himself. Verily, he is the right man in the right place.

☞ Mayor Dearborn's veto to the bill for payment of bounties to volunteers, was sent to the Common Council, Thursday night: but the bill was declared by President Hackett, to have become Law by delay in receipt of the Mayor's communication.

No business of importance before the Board of Aldermen.

☞ After all said, Mr. Carter's Christmas Advertisement is one of the most tempting of the whole lot. Perhaps it don't possess as much sentiment, or appeal to so high an order of feeling, as if treating of less material articles; but still, beauty in form and color is by no means lacking here; and if not as durable as some others, they can well be endured, in small quantities.—After exchanging Presents with your friends, you can take one home from Carter's, and mutually enjoy it with all the folks. That's the way we shall do with our very handsome donation.

Carter's Molasses Candy is lappin' good. Different people have various tastes about molasses candy; but for our part, Carter's is nice enough for us. And those Breton Pears; ah! there you have us: Just try them. And for everything else in the fruit and candy line—you will find Carter will serve you well from his rich profusion.

COLDEST YET.—Thermometer 8 below zero Friday morning. No work on Navy Yard—the first ball-day for the winter. At the City Farm in the morning 11 below.

THERMOMETER yesterday, at noon, 3 above zero, at sundown 6 above; this morning at four o'clock, 10 above.

☞ Capt. James Lewis, U. S. Marines, has assumed command at this station, vice Col. Jas. H. Jones, furloughed for 3 months Capt. C. D. Hebb is ordered hence to Washington Navy Yard.

☞ Avery announces a very nice lot o' things for Christmas. That box was good—yes, we would "give a fig for it." Mr. A. is the agent here for Southmayd's famous Molasses Candy.

☞ The City Marshal is directed by the Board of Aldermen, to strictly enforce the snow ordinance. Glad of it—and we hope he'll do it.

☞ Citizens generally are expected to observe Monday as Christmas-Holiday. No session of the Schools will be held. We shall observe.

☞ Penhallow Street begins to look quite like itself again—or rather, better than ever before. Messrs. Coffin, Tripp, and Grogan & Gardiner, have built themselves three new Paint Shops, and are on hand as usual, at their old stand. Mr. Murphy has also had his new Dye House in brisk operation for sometime.

☞ Indispensable for the counting room: one of McAdams' little revolving Calendars, sold by Mr. Shores, for only a quarter. We are indebted to him for a sample.

☞ We have been furnished by Mr. W. H. Berry of this city, with a bottle of "free-flowing, unfading, non-corrosive black Ink," which we find on trial to be a good article, worthy of commendation, purchase and use.

Communication.

OUR POLICE.—There is a great deal of fault found with our police from time to time, in one way and another, and while fault-finders are plenty, no one has yet proved himself a good critic, by showing how or in what better way a thing can be done. Any one can break a law, but not every one can make one; and while there are many capable of making laws, there are less that have the faculty of properly enforcing them. We would therefore suggest to those carping persons who wish to see a model police, that they can greatly assist the officers by giving their influence and example in favor of a thorough enforcement of the law.

For instance, in the matter of obstructing the sidewalks, which we admit is a great evil, there is hardly one person in one hundred who would not deem it harsh and indeed meddlesome, to be told by a police officer to "move along," in case the said person formed one of a party of two or more in conversation together in the middle of the sidewalk.

Again, if our critic friend fails to come to time in regard to clearing his sidewalk of snow or other obstructions, and he is tapped on the shoulder by a policeman who gently hints to him the propriety of attending to the same forthwith, or meet the penalty of the law, he indignantly replies that "he has a right to obstruct his own sidewalk as long as he chooses."

If there is a street fight, it is the object of the officers to disperse the crowd in attendance, the better to allay the strife, and in order to do it each man is told to go on about his business; but at this juncture, our fault-finding friend informs the P. O. that he "has no right to order him away," and declares him to be infringing on the privileges of a free country.

These are no fancied illustrations; they have actually occurred, and will occur again and again, just so long as the public love to preach rather than to practice.

We believe that our present police force is active and vigilant, and will compare favorably with any other in any city in New England, in point of faithfulness in the execution of the law to the extent of their means. They are not properly compensated; therefore they cannot be expected (as they must live and support their families in some way or other) to devote that amount of time necessary to the proper performance of the great amount of police duty. Neither are they encouraged and supported as they should be, as we have before shown. With these obstacles in their way, we ask every candid reader if any more could reasonably be expected of them under existing circumstances?

During the riot of a year or more ago, these same officers acquitted themselves in a manner that would have reflected credit on an M. P. of New York city; also, during the prevalence of the yellow fever last summer, when, at one time, it assumed a most alarming aspect, and while many predicted a general spread of it over the entire city, our police officers labored indefatigably; in some instances, when it was impossible to obtain help to bury the dead, personally assisting in the performance of that task, thus perhaps exposing themselves to the ravages of that dire disease, and receiving but a small compensation therefor.

These are facts, and in view of them, we would recommend to those who blame them for discharging their duties no better, to encourage and assist them in every possible manner by precept and example, thus promoting the peace and welfare of the community. GOOD ORDER.

☞ The Steamboat recently purchased by citizens of Dover and Boston, to run between the two places, has been chartered by parties in Provincetown, to run between that place and Boston during the winter, at the price of forty dollars per day. There being ice in the Cochecho river during the winter, she will commence her trips between Dover and Boston, early next Spring.

A NATIONAL PRESENT.—A Library of 300,000 volumes for our brave soldiers and sailors who are with Sherman, Meade, Sheridan, Butler, Farragut, can be sent if every purchaser of holiday gifts will buy one book for the absent boys! Buy your favorite book, write in it your name and address, and the U. S. Christian Commission will engage to send it to the Army or Navy, place it in a library, and see that it is carefully used. The heroes deserve a new year's gift from you. Send the best books, Historical, Biographical, Scientific, Religious, Poetical; Essays, Sermons, Travels, Fiction.

Persons making such purchases of the Booksellers in Portsmouth, can leave them in the same store where they are bought, directed to Rev. Mr. Waterhouse: or they can leave them at his residence in State street.

☞ Auction of Furniture, &c., at Mr. Wendell's store, this (Saturday) evening.

The New York and Philadelphia Petroleum Company has been organized with the greatest care by experienced capitalists of the two cities whose names are united in its owns. It will be managed EXCLUSIVELY

For the Interests of its Stockholders.

No pains have been spared to place it on a genuine and substantial footing. Most valuable and extensive tracts of Oil and Coal Land have been secured IN FEE, and leasehold PRODUCING INTERESTS in the heart of the Venango County (Pa.) Oil region. Attention is invited to the following schedule of the Company's property, including FEE SIMPLE TERRITORY, LEASEHOLD PRODUCING INTERESTS, and wells in various stages of completion:

No. 1.—20 acres of bottom land in fee, on the Alleghany river, having a water frontage of nearly one mile. New 15 horse power engine and fixtures. Two wells sunk to the depth of 300 feet and already filled with oil. Room for forty more wells.

No. 2.—320 acres of rich oil land in fee, lying nearly opposite the above, having a mile of water frontage. Farmer and Bennett runs. Well supplied with timber.

No. 3.—1-16 lease interest on the famous "Wildcat McClintock Farm," Oil Creek. One well down and boiling; another just ready to tube; a third just started. Two first-class engines. Tubing tools, fixtures, team, wagons, &c.

No. 4.—Same interest in lease on the well-known "HAMILTON McCLINTOCK FARM," Oil Creek. One well now being tested: already yielding 15 barrels daily, and rapidly increasing. Others going down. Two new engines, with fixtures complete.

No. 5.—1-32 of two leases on the CLAPP FARM, near the great Williams and Stanton 100 barrel wells. On this property is "Sherman well No. 2," now down 500 feet, engine, &c.—Room for 40 wells.

No. 6.—1-16 of the fee in 57 ACRES OF COAL LAND, adjoining the Cranberry Coal Company's beds. This property is of the highest value to our operations, supplying us with coal at all seasons, and when the works of other companies are found to be idle for want of fuel.

From these estates, the Trustees are assured of their ability to declare LARGE and REGULAR MONTHLY MONTHLY DIVIDENDS and of the speedy appreciation of the shares to a MARKET VALUE FAR ABOVE THE SUBSCRIPTION PRICE.

DR. POLAND'S WHITE PINE COMPOUND!

THE GREAT AND POPULAR REMEDY

For Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Croup and Whooping Cough. CURES GRAVEL.

AND ALL KIDNEY DISEASES.

There have been many severe cases in Boston and vicinity cured by the WHITE PINE COMPOUND, which can be referred to. It is a reliable and speedy cure for the Gravel.

This medicinal preparation did not originate in an effort to get up an article to SELL. Undoubtedly very many of the popular nostrums of the day were started for that purpose, and some have given their proprietors vast wealth. Not so with the White Pine Compound.

In the winter of 1854-5, Dr. J. W. POLAND, then of Goffstown Centre, N. H., compounded a small quantity of medicine for a member of his family, who was afflicted with a disagreeable irritation of the throat. Knowing that the White Pine Bark was useful in cases of inflammation, he made that the BASIS of his article. It was necessary to combine the Bark with other ingredients to modify its action as an astringent. Of course it was an EXPERIMENT. It would not injure—it might do good. The result was most surprising. A permanent cure was effected within a week, and there has been no return of the difficulty for Nine Years, though it was of long standing.

A second small quantity was prepared for a lady who had a bad cough, and had raised some blood, and she was cured of it. Two or three other individuals made a trial of it, and experienced a wonderful relief in throat difficulties. But with all the flattering results, such thought was entertained of ever putting it on sale till several months had elapsed.

TESTIMONIALS.

A very large number of important testimonials have already been received from Physicians, Clergymen, Apothecaries, and, indeed, from all classes in society, speaking in the most flattering terms of the White Pine Compound.

Dr. Nichols, of Northfield, Vt., says:

"I find the White Pine Compound to be very efficacious, not only in coughs and other pulmonic affections, but also in affections of the kidneys, debility of the stomach and other kindred organs."

Rev. S. K. Chase, of Rumney, N. H., says:

"I have for years regarded your White Pine Compound as an invaluable remedy. I can truly say that I regard it as even more efficacious and invaluable than ever. I have just taken your Compound for a cold, and it works charmingly."

Rev. H. D. Hodge, of West Randolph, Vt., who is also a physician, says:

"I find it (the Compound) an excellent medicine in kidney disease."

Says Mr. Boody, of the 14th Regiment Massachusetts Heavy Artillery, at Fort Ellinghast:

"The White Pine Compound effected a cure where a fellow was considered in a critical consumption by all who knew him. I can fully substantiate the statements in the Company who thought it folly for him to make a trial of it. In colds or coughs, men leave the care of the surgeon, where treatment can be had for nothing, and try the White Pine Compound."

For sale by all Druggists.

The White Pine Compound will be manufactured in future at the New England Botanic Depot,

Where the subscriber will have the supervision of its preparation. Dr. Swett will retain the care of business department, to whom orders should be addressed.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as numbers of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT" VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management, it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—and at a none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

They cure Nervous and Spinal Affections, pains in the back and lower parts of the body, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysteria, Sick Headache, Giddiness, &c., &c. In a word, by removing the irregularity, they remove the cause and with it ALL the effects that spring from it.

Composed of simple vegetable extracts, they contain nothing deleterious to any constitution, however delicate, their function being to substitute strength for weakness, which, when properly used, they never fail to do.

They may be safely used at any age and at any period, except during the first three months, during which the unfailing nature of their action would infallibly prevent pregnancy.

The Cherokee Pills & Rejuvenating Elixir,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these: those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Postoffice, County, State and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

We send our 32 page pamphlet free to any address. Address all letters for Pamphlets or advice to the proprietors,

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,
WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 19, 1864.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until 1 o'clock P. M. on Thursday, the 29th day of December, 1864, for supplying the Light-house Establishment with thirty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained lard oil, and twenty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter strained sperm oil, to be divided into four lots, and to be delivered at the times and at the places hereinafter mentioned, alongside of the government supply vessels, or at the warehouses or other place of deposit, to be designated by the Inspecting Officer or other authorized agent of the Light-house Board, in strong, tight, iron-bound, well-made casks, suitable for shipping, in good order, of a capacity, each, of from fifty to eighty gallons, not to exceed the latter. The lard oil may be delivered at Boston or New York

Either lot of sperm oil, or both of them, may be delivered at New York, or at London; or at Harbor, Boston, New Bedford, Edgartown, or Nantucket, at the option of the bidders. The place of delivery must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be embraced in the contracts.

The four lots will be delivered as follows, viz:

Lot No. 1. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 5th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 2. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 15th day of April, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 3. Ten thousand (10,000) gallons sperm oil on the 1st day of June, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 4. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons lard oil on the 1st day of August, 1865, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

No bid will be considered unless from a manufacturer of the article.

No part of the oil proposed for and to be embraced in the contracts under the head of this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, until it shall have been proved, to the entire satisfaction of the person or persons charged with its examination, test, and inspection, to be of the best quality pure winter strained or lagged oil, and free from mixture with other or inferior oils and adulterations.

The usual means for determining the character and quality of the sperm oil will be employed, viz: specific gravity, burning, the amount of residuum, and any other proper tests to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.

The lard oil will be subjected to special tests, and will be rejected unless found to be, in regard to burning and fluidity, under reduction of temperature, and in every other respect, equal to that of the standard adopted by the Board, of which a sample will be furnished, on application to the Light-house Engineer at Boston, Mass.

The casks must be gauged under the direction and personal supervision of the inspecting officer, by a custom-house or other legally authorized and sworn gauger, according to the United States standard, and no other gauge will be accepted before they are removed from the cellar or warehouse of the contractor. The temperature of the oil will be accurately noted, and the measurements reduced to the standard temperature of 60° Farenheit by tables prepared for the purpose.

Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of the lots, at the option of the bidder; but no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified as one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bid must state explicitly the rate per gallon, in writing and numerals, of the lot or lots bid for, and the time and place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.

Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will not be considered.

The Light-house Board, under the authority of the Department, reserves the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other considerations than the price.

No bid will be considered for any other kind or description of oil than those specially called for in this advertisement.

A bond, with security to the satisfaction of the Department, in a penalty equal to one-fourth of the amount of each contract made under these proposals will be required of each contractor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, to be executed ten days after the acceptance of the bid.

Each offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and known to the department, or vouched for certified by a United States district judge, attorney, navy agent, or collector of the customs, to the effect that, if the bid be accepted, the bidder will duly execute a contract in pursuance with, according to the provisions and terms of this advertisement, within ten days after acceptance; and that in case the said party offering shall fail to enter into the contract as aforesaid, he or they guaranty to make good the difference between the offer of the said party and the next lowest bidder.

All bids must be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for oil for light houses," and then placed in another envelope, and directed, prepaid, to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington City.

All bids will be opened, publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.

Payments will be made for the several lots of oil within thirty days after they shall have been received by the United States.

BY ORDER OF THE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD:

d14-3taw2w Secretary.

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.

THE REBELLION.

Rear Admiral Porter, under date of the 15th inst., informs the Navy Department of the destruction of the blockade-runner Petrel, which was driven ashore at New Inlet, Cape Fear river. She was then fired upon and sunk, and finally was totally destroyed by a northwest gale. She had on board a large cargo of arms and munitions of war, all of which was lost.

The Admiral also reports that within the last 15 days the fleet had captured or destroyed $5,500,000 worth of the enemy's property in blockade runners, about two-thirds of which covers captured property.

The Potomac is covered with ice and the channel completely closed up, so that navigation is suspended and boats do not attempt to approach or leave Washington.

The Navy Department received intelligence of the death of Acting Master Charles Thacher of Maine, commanding the Gazelle, which is attached to the Mississippi squadron. He was wounded by guerrillas.

Early Thursday morning a party of guerrillas belonging to White's command, attempted crossing to the Maryland shore on the ice about Muddy Branch. They were discovered by the pickets of the 1st New Hampshire cavalry, and driven back. One guerrilla was shot dead. Major Andrews, who commands at that point, is in nightly expectation of raids now that the river and canal are frozen, and has accordingly strengthed his picket line.

Several days ago a portion of our cavalry scouted as far up as White Plains on the Manassas Gap railroad, and coming up to a large party of guerrillas, a fight ensued, resulting in the defeat of the latter with the loss of one Major and one Lieutenant, mortally wounded, and 15 prisoners taken by our troops.

By Telegraph—Sunday noon.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—It is reported here this evening that Adm. Porter attacked Fort Fisher off Wilmington on Thursday, and that after a cannonade of three hours the fire of the fort was silenced. None of our vessels were materially damaged, they having bombarded the fort at long range. The smaller vessels under cover of the larger ones, stood up Cape Fear river, and when the dispatch boat left were busily engaged in removing the obstructions and shelling the sand batteries and minor fortifications along the river for 5 miles.—It is rumored that rebel Congressman Foote of Tenn. has worked his way out of rebeldom and is in town awaiting an opportunity to get to Europe by steamer in quest of that sequestered spot where he can enjoy a little freedom from taxation.—The choice of successor to Mr. Dayton lies between Mr. Everett and Gen. Fremont; chances in favor of the latter, as New England has a representative abroad in Mr. Adams.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 25.—The Richmond Enquirer of the 22d, alluding to the raid by Sheridan on the north of Richmond, significantly says that the city was cut off for a short time from all railroad and telegraphic communication—it also says: "From Savannah we have nothing later. At last accounts it was closely invested on the south and west by Sherman."

The Richmond Daily Dispatch says "a dispatch received gives information that a column of Sheridan's forces, estimated at 8000 men, had crossed the Blue Ridge at Chester Leap, and were moving towards Gordonsville. Another account says the force consists of 5000 infantry and cavalry and 4 pieces of artillery. They are said to have reached Madison Court House on Tuesday evening. Since then nothing has been heard from them—their object is believed to be the Central R. R. and Gordonsville.

There has been no confirmation of the report that Breckinridge had beaten Burbridge near Glade Springs, though the intelligence received on Tuesday relating to the fight at that place may be correct.

An official dispatch from Wilmington received Tuesday night, announced that 30 of the 65 Yankee war vessels that recently sailed from Hampton Roads had arrived off that place. Nothing was heard from Wilmington Wednesday. It is to be hoped that the gale which sprung up last night swept the North Carolina coast with greater violence than it manifested here.—We have no advices from Hood except through Northern papers. If half they tell us is true, Hood is in a bad fix indeed."

Gold closed in New York, on Saturday, at 221 1-2.

☞ Our Canadian trouble seems to be drawing to a close,—as the Gov. General is to pass the rascals over to the U. S. government as fast as they are caught. The Tribune says: Mr. Justice Coursal has achieved a short-lived notoriety. He is not the first goose whose cackling has saved a State.

PORTSMOUTH CITY MISSION.

FIFTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

In presenting the fifteenth annual report of this Mission, we would, with profound gratitude, acknowledge the guiding hand of an all wise and merciful Providence, which has ever watched over and fostered all its interests. For more than eight consecutive years it has been our privilege, in conjunction with its Board of Directors, to do what we could to secure the great objects contemplated by this Mission. Yet, though we believe that much good has been accomplished through the agencies which have been here put forth, though the heavy burden of many a sad and desolate one has been lightened, the heart of many a widow and orphan made to rejoice, and the feet of many a wayward youth turned from the ways of death into the paths of virtue and peace, still we have deeply to lament that so little has been accomplished compared to the greatness of the work before us.

The year now closing has been to our mission one of unparalleled excitement. In addition to the dreadful struggle for National existence, we have just passed safely through the most exciting and momentous political campaign the country has ever witnessed. These combined influences have tried, as with a terrible strain, our glorious institutions. But they have nobly and successfully endured the test. We have been troubled on every side, we have been perplexed, but not in despair; we have been persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed. We are still successfully exhibiting to the world the inspiring and blessed truth, that a brave, enlightened, free, and patriotic people are fully competent to govern themselves. The good old Ship of State has safely weathered the furious storm, and bearing us on in triumph to a magnificent and glorious future. During all this our own city has been comparatively quiet; yet we have more or less felt the influence of the times in which we live. Though far distant from the centre of the storm, we have not been beyond the reach of its retreating surges.

The labors of this Mission, as well as almost every other department of business, have been in some degree modified by these our National trials. Here our work has been made lighter, and there it has been greatly increased, while the difficulties to be overcome in its prosecution have in many respects been augmented. Still, by the good providence of God, we have been enabled to pursue our labors quietly, and uninterruptedly through the year. With much to dishearten and discourage us, we have also much to strengthen and cheer us, in our attempts to relieve the wants of the poor and suffering, or to persuade the wayward and profligate to forsake the paths of sin and aspire to a new and holy life.

We are most happy here to state that the numerous and pressing calls made upon the benevolence of our citizens in behalf of the sick and wounded soldiers and seamen, have not prevented their contributing liberally for the relief of the poor and destitute in our own midst. Indeed, in contributions for this object, the present year has given an increase over the last. And, such is our confidence in the liberality of our citizens that, however numerous or pressing may be the calls upon their charities from other objects, we believe they will never cease to respond to the calls of the deserving and suffering poor in our own city. As a matter of fact we think there has been less of suffering and want in our community within the last twelve months than in any preceding year since our labors here commenced.

Taking the year as a whole the health of our city has been remarkably good. We have had an unusual number of sudden deaths, but no prevailing sickness. At one time that dreadful scourge, the yellow fever, seemed threatening us; but, by the timely efforts of our City Authorities in taking sanitary precautions, and especially by the good providence of our heavenly Father, we were saved from the ravages of this dreadful disease. The usual fall business, from such and every cause, is believed to be below the average of former years. Of these about twenty were persons who were under our own particular care. We have stood by their bed-sides, and in some cases it was our privilege, at the closing scenes of life, to bear to them the consolations of that religion which to the believer is a real comfort in a dying hour, and which alone can light up the dark valley and shade of death.

While many in various parts of our country are suffering every possible calamity from the ravages and desolations of a bloody and cruel war, it is truly a cause for profound gratitude to the bountiful Giver of all our mercies, that our city is enjoying such a measure of prosperity; especially that our laboring classes have been so fully employed and have received such liberal compensation for their services.

Yet in a community like ours there is always a class of poor who from sickness, infirmity, old age or misfortune are unable to earn their daily bread, and must be provided for by the benevolent. We have some of this class for whom we have done for years, and shall probably have to do for years to come. Some have passed away, while others are being added. We have some families whose husbands and fathers, or sons and brothers, have gone out at the call of their country to return to their homes no more; and some from other cities who, having been thus deprived, have come here hoping to find employment. Many professing to be refugees, or to have been maimed in battle, are also here, as in every other part of our country, and, whether deserving or not, must have their cases looked into, and their most pressing wants supplied.

In July last we were visited with a destructive and desolating fire, which at one time seriously threatened to destroy millions of the northern section of our city; but by the energy of our fire department and by the providence of God the flames were arrested—not however until about 30 families were for the time being rendered homeless. — Our labors from this cause were for sometime greatly increased. All that was in our power was done to relieve the sufferers. Some thing more than three hundred dollars was collected by several of the churches, which in conjunction with a committee of two from the board of Aldermen, we distributed among the sufferers, and thus their most pressing wants were supplied.

Within the year we have had our full complement of wayfaring strangers asking pecuniary or other aid. Experience has taught us to be extremely cautious how we receive the statements of this class, with whom honesty seems to be the exception. Even with the utmost vigilance and caution we cannot always distinguish between the true and the false. In no case, however, do we turn persons from our house hungry, thirsty, or cold; nor, if it be evening, fail to secure for them some place for the night.

Young persons have in some instances been cared for in our own family until we could procure for them suitable homes. We might instance the case of an orphan boy some 13 or 14 years of age who a short time since came to us in a state of great destitution.—We kept him several days until we found a place where he is now happy and useful. Still later we took a young girl for about the same length of time, for whom we have also procured a pleasant home in one of the families of our city. Both of these are now doing well for their employers as well as for themselves.

In some branches of our work the field of labor has been greatly enlarged during the present year. This is especially true of our efforts for the benefit of seamen. The increase of our Navy has brought to this station a large number of seamen, for the moral and religious improvement of whom we have endeavored to do all that we could consistently with our other numerous engagements. As we have had opportunity we have conversed with them in order to learn something of their personal history, have distributed among them numerous copies of the New Testament, have warned them against visiting places of dissipation and vice, and have counselled them to lead lives of honesty and virtue, that they might be an honor to the service of their country, and a comfort to the friends they have left behind.

We have several times preached to those on board the Receiving Ship in our harbor, also three or four times to more than one thousand on board the U. S. ship-of-war New Hampshire, before she left our port. To the freedmen connected with our navy we also preached a number of times, both at their barracks and at the sail loft in the Navy Yard.—In all these labors we have been uniformly received with great kindness both by officers and crews. Never have we addressed more attentive audiences, and we can but hope that impressions were made which will prove salutary and lasting.

In this department of our labors there is indeed a great and growing field of usefulness. Away from friends and home, as these men are, and exposed to every species of temptation and dissipation, deceived and wronged, as they often are, by unprincipled and wicked beings in the shape of men, they need, above all others, a friend and counsellor. We have embraced every possible opportunity to benefit such and to shield them from temptation and vice. Indeed we ever wish to make it the prominent feature of our Mission to exert a moral and religious influence upon every class of our fellow men with whom we come in contact.

We have supplied several merchant vessels with bibles and testaments from our City Bible Society, and have also furnished several of our National ships with bibles and testaments, from the N. H. Bible Society, as well as with other religious reading.

One of our most prominent agents for diffusing religious knowledge among the community for whose benefit we labor, is our Mission Sabbath School, which has been continued without interruption through the year. Our faithful and efficient superintendent, with our noble band of teachers, are doing what they can to promote the interests and prosperity of the school. We have at the present time a large number of boys who have never before been connected with any Sabbath school than we have had at any former period. Through these scholars we send from week to week into the families from which they come, a large number of testaments and sabbath school papers, which we know are in most cases read and preserved.

It is with much care and anxiety that we are able to prosecute this branch of our labors; yet we fully believe that our efforts in this direction will be more than repaid by the results. And in no other department of our work are we more cheered by the promise that "in due season we shall reap if we faint not." The school is now held in the northern part of the city, having been removed from the south end for want of a suitable place in which it could be held.

What we very much need is a mission chapel, located in some convenient part of the city, where our school might be permanently established without being subject to interruption or removal. Some friends of the Mission have expressed a willingness to contribute liberally towards such a building, on condition of a suitable building for this purpose. We hope that a successful effort may be made for the accomplishment of so desirable an end.

A large amount of our work consists in visiting from house to house; in many cases bearing relief to the destitute, and every where seeking to impress on those in whose behalf we labor, that their moral and religious wants are paramount to all others—that man is an immortal being, and that the gospel of Christ alone can satisfy the cravings of the human soul and fit it for the sublime and heavenly employments of the spirit world.—Thus have we endeavored to blend the spiritual with the temporal, and, while relieving the wants of the body, have tried to impress upon all the fact that the soul must not be neglected. To the sick we have been accustomed to present the blessed hopes and consolations of the gospel, and to lead their devotions at the mercy seat before the throne of the heavenly grace. Among the aged whom we visit are two who have lived almost an entire century. As we have conversed and prayed with them, we have felt that we were treading on the very margin of the river that divides the present from the future world.

In regard to the moral aspect of our city we are pained to say that we have nothing cheering to report. The large increase of strangers among us, connected with the public works in our immediate neighborhood, has tended greatly to the demoralization of certain classes of our community. Not so that the great majority of those there employed are men whom we are glad to hail as our fellow-citizens—persons who are exerting a salutary and redeeming influence among us. But among so many there are generally found those who, having themselves yielded to temptation, in their turn draw others after them; and, where intemperance, profanity and other kindred vices are alarmingly on the increase in our midst. In passing along the sidewalks of some of our principal streets, in the evening, the sensibilities of our citizens are frequently shocked by the sound of profane oaths, the shameful exhibition of intoxication, or of other improper conduct. Most ardently do we wish that something might be done to stay the fearful progress of profanity, intemperance and licentiousness.

We are happy to learn that, at the request of the Sons of Temperance in this city, a series of Temperance Lectures is to be delivered Sabbath evenings by our city pastors in their several churches. We hope the effort may be blessed.

In this connection we feel called upon to repeat the caution which we addressed to parents in our last Annual Report, upon the danger of permitting young and inexperienced girls to be upon our streets in the evening, except accompanied by some judicious friend. Unaccustomed to the dangerous temptations incident to such a course, they become easily entangled in the fatal snares laid by those artful and wicked beings who lurk and watch for their destruction. When once fallen there is little hope of their ever being reclaimed. Being at once excluded from the society of the virtuous, they are hurried on to the lowest depths of degradation. Many, too many, cases of this kind have come under our own personal knowledge since we commenced our labors in this city.

We have long and most earnestly desired that some way might be devised to secure a temporary home, where these friendless and unfortunate beings might, if possible, be reclaimed from their sinful and degrading course, become useful members of society, and again take their places among the virtuous and the good.

And we would here suggest that perhaps those to whom God has given a large share of wealth, and who wish for the best interests of these their most unfortunate fellow beings, could make no better investment of a portion of the treasure entrusted to them than to appropriate it to the establishment of such an institution. Other cities have tried it with great success, and there is a growing call for something of the kind here.

Our Jail and Almshouse have been frequently visited by us in this as in former years. In these visits we have been accustomed to converse with and counsel the inmates, endeavoring to adapt our remarks to the varying condition of those whom we there meet. We have occasionally preached at the Almshouse, and as we have attended the funerals which have occurred there we have ever improved those opportunities to impress upon the mind of the living such sentiments as the solemnity of the occasion required.

It affords us pleasure here to express our decided conviction that the above named institutions are conducted in a most humane and judicary manner, reflecting much credit upon the skill and judgment of the keepers.

For several years past we have had occasion to acknowledge the receipt, from two benevolent gentlemen in this city, of a number of barrels of hard bread for distribution among the poor. We are glad to say that they have not forgotten us this year, and that by this generous contribution a large number of families have been from time to time been relieved.

We ought also to express our warmest gratitude to those families and individuals who have sent us valuable second-hand garments and shoes. Such contributions are often more valuable than money itself, and enable us to relieve many destitute families, as we otherwise could not do, particularly at this time of high prices.

We are most happy here to testify that we have had the cordial co-operation of every branch of the city government in the prosecution of our labors. And we wish to express to them, and to all who have in any way contributed to the aid of this mission, our heartfelt thanks.

The Howard Benevolent Society, and the other benevolent associations in this city, are faithfully doing their work and contributing to the relief of the deserving and suffering among us.

The statistics of the year are as follows:

And now, in closing this report, permit us to make a brief appeal in behalf of this mission. It seems to us that the plan here embraced exhibits the very genius and spirit of the gospel. We go forth not as the agents of a single sect, but on a platform so broad that all the friends of Christ and humanity may work upon it. One of the greatest blessings bestowed upon our race by the Master of Christ was, that the poor have the Gospel preached unto them. This gospel requires that we should support the weak, reclaim the wanderer, feed the hungry, clothe the naked, visit the sick, and do good unto all men. Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to visit the widow and the fatherless in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

If then, as we have freely received, we shall freely give, to relieve the wants of the poor, the unfortunate, and the needy, whom the providence of God has placed in our midst, we may hope, when the cares and toils of life are closed, to have the Saviour say unto us,—"Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was anhungered and ye gave me meat, I was thirsty and ye gave me drink, I was a stranger and ye took me in. I was naked and ye clothed me, I was sick and ye visited me, I was in prison and ye came unto me."—"For inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

—The heads of the Departments in Washington have given notice that henceforth clerkships will only be given to those who have served honorably in the Union armies. Aspiring politicians who have no honorable scars to show, are thus left out in the cold as they should be.

—Miss Bremer bears witness to the cunning of the Swedish crows, and relates the story of a fisherman, who having found his lines on one occasion all confusion, watched and saw the crows come and pull up the hooks with their claws from under the water, and eat off the baits.

—At Troy, N. Y. the other day, one boy tried to lift another by placing his hands under the boy's jaws near the ears. The consequence was that the boy screamed and fell insensible. He can't see out of one eye, and has no control over the muscles of his neck. His recovery is doubtful.

HALE'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,
For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the reach of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these five other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the venerable public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

"A Wonderful Discovery."
DR. TEBBETTS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR RE-GENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "DYE," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all dandruff, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy, and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

LYCEUM.—The fifth lecture will be given by Dr. Holland, to-morrow evening. He is one of the most eloquent and popular lecturers in the field; and the Band will also give one of their grand Concerts.

☞ The new Steam Fire Engine "Sagamore" is expected in this city on Tuesday. She is to be tested on Market Square at about 1 o'clock, under the direction of the Com. on Fire Department.

Engine Company No. 2 are to receive her, and intend to parade in their new uniform, with the Cornet Band; and will wind up the affair with a supper in the evening.

This is the first of the new steamers; she is from the Portland Machine Company, and cost $5000.

☞ "The Poets of Portsmouth" can be sent by mail to any part of the country, for 29 cents postage; and will be one of the most acceptable presents, to absent sons and daughters of our city.—It occurs to us, on looking at the notices of the contents of the work, that the mention of the number of selections of each author, might give a wrong impression to any reader who did not see the book, and so could not know that some writers with fewer long articles, are given more space than others who number more short pieces.—The book is a rare one, worthy of all commendation, and the highest success; let every one interested in Portsmouth and her fame, do his best to secure it.

☞ The Temple came very near burning up last Wednesday evening, in all the storm. A wet umbrella back on the stage caught fire, probably from a spark blown from a kerosene lamp in extinguishing it, when closing up; but after burning the umbrella to a cinder, and destroying a few small sticks and a little rubbish standing near, the fire was smouldering next morning when workmen entered the building.

☞ As we shall observe today as our (only) Christmas holiday—there will be no Chronicle Tuesday.

☞ The order relative to the landing of Navy Yard workmen at Kittery Foreside, takes effect to-day, (Monday); and no boats, save those belonging to the Yard, are allowed to land after this date. Part of the landings have been removed from the Yard to Kittery, and the remainder will be transferred in a day or two. This new regulation obliges the workmen to start for the Yard about ten minutes earlier than formerly, and delays their embarkation for this city about the same length of time at night.

☞ Company K, 1st Regt. N. H. Unattached Artillery, Capt. Hamilton, now stationed at Fort Constitution, has been ordered to report at Washington forthwith; and will probably leave for that destination in a day or two.

By mistake, Gen. Dix' order came for the First Company to go; and as this company has just returned here from service in the defences of Washington, considerable surprise, excitement and expensive telegraphing was the result.

POLICE COURT, Dec. 24.—Henry Pool, arrested for keeping liquor shop open on Sunday in violation of the City Ordinance, whose case was continued from Monday last, was fined $5 and costs, $5.74.

☞ Capt. M. T. Betton is spending a short furlough with his friends in this city. His command is near Dutch Gap.

A "MERRY CHRISTMAS" AT THE TEMPLE.—A glorious bill is offered by Bidwell & Pike's popular company to-night. Those who wish to have a hearty laugh and enjoy a "Merry Christmas" cannot do better than to go the Temple this evening. There will be no performance on Tuesday eve. A great Bill on Wednesday. D.

☞ The Irish residents of Amesbury Mills, held a meeting on Thursday evening, to form a lodge of the Fenian Brotherhood. We understand the same action will be taken in this city. Their aim is the restoration of an Irish nationality; and when our war is closed, they will be able to rally a veteran army, under experienced generals who will be able to give England much trouble.

☞ The Boston Transcript says that at a concert at the Music Hall, Wednesday evening, Miss Adelaide Phillips was applauded to the echo, and Miss Abbie Plumer made a very favorable impression.

— An accident occurred on the Cheshire Railroad, above Keene, Wednesday afternoon. A freight train ahead of the mail train got out of water, and both were brought to a halt. A flag was sent back to stop another freight train which was following the mail train, but the snow was so thick that it could not be seen, and the freight train ran into the rear of the mail train. A Frenchman and his wife, who reside in Keene, and a little boy six years old, who lived in Walpole, were killed.

— The Atlantic Monthly begins the new year with a circulation of more than 43,000 copies, which is rapidly increasing, particularly in States like Maryland and Tennessee.

☞ The London Daily News publishes a letter from Professor Goldwin Smith, giving a description of his visit to the Army of the Potomac. He says:—"Probably no army in history ever was so well cared for as this, and such being the case, it is surely very strong proof that the war is not being waged with mercenary and worthless lives." He regards the officers in manners and cultivation as at least the equals of any soldiers he ever saw.

At a numerous meeting of working men, in South London, Rev. Newman Hall presiding, an address was adopted congratulating Mr. Lincoln on his re-election and the consequent emphatic denunciation of slavery by the American people.

An imposing reform demonstration had taken place at Bradford. Resolutions demanding the extension of the franchise and in favor of an energetic agitation of the question were adopted. Sir F. Crossley and Messrs. Forster, Baines, and Stanfield, members of Parliament, were the principal speakers. Mr. Forster replied to the taunts raised by the opponents of reform as to the position of affairs in America, and denied that they furnished any argument against universal suffrage. He regarded the contest as a life and death struggle between the American democracy to free their country from the grasp of a slave-holding oligarchy, and he claimed that it was not the aristocracy, or even the middle classes, but the workingmen that preserved England from interfering in American affairs.

Capt. Craig, Governor of the model prison at Pentonville, London, has proved a defaulter, and disappeared.

— One of the Richmond ladies of the pave was recently fined for getting drunk, and a negro was whipped for allowing her to lean upon his arm while wending her way home. The lady pleaded that the colored gentleman was her own negro, and she had a right to walk with him. Whether the slave was whipped for disgracing himself or the "white citizen," does not appear.

—An inventor of a hay-press in Maine has experimented with his machine in pressing pine shavings for kindling. They make very neat packages, and can be sawed into blocks like timber. About a hundred bushels of shavings can be put in the space of an ordinary hogshead, and when once pressed the spring is all taken from them.

A FIRE occurred at Augusta, Me., on Thursday morning at 4 o'clock, in the Portland and Kennebec Railroad Depot, and in less than two hours the building, together with cars and merchandise, was totally destroyed. Loss $50,000. Insurance of $3000 on the depot, and $25,000 on the rolling stock and freight.

— Col. Cyrus Hamlin, eldest son of the Vice President, has been promoted to the rank of Brigadier General. Colonel Hamlin was one of the first officers in the army to offer his services to command colored troops.

We would again call attention to this indispensable article of Gold Medal Soap, for the laundries and the ladies. What the dear creatures will do when the manufacturer, in the course of human events, steps into another sphere of being, we are at a loss to imagine. Make the most of him while you have a chance to do so, for nature, art or science can never produce a second J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap. We cannot say half enough in its favor. After using, you will say the same. 39

Ayer's Ague Cure.

For the speedy and certain cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

FEVER AND AGUE is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "Ague" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and, moreover, is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over-estimated; for there is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass. and sold by Brackett Hutchings, J. H. Thacher W. R. Preston, Davis Kimball, and all druggists.

SAVE YOUR FUEL:

THE MODEL COOK.

IS, IN FACT,

The Best Stove Out,

for economy, convenience and dispatch.

Many people think it best to use an old stove as long as possible, but it is far better to throw it away and purchase a MODEL COOK, than to keep it at the present high price of fuel.

One of our shrewdest citizens who purchased a MODEL COOK STOVE a year since, says he has saved more than its cost already.

A careful, prudent farmer purchased one, and after it had been in operation some days, he soon came into the store and said, "something was wrong at their house;" his father and himself used wood off the same pile, he burned three baskets full a day, and his father only one! We sold him a Stove before he left, and there has been no complaint since.

These Stoves are in use in many hotels and boarding houses, and in hundreds of private families in this city and vicinity, and give the best of satisfaction.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and cast-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

CHEROKEE INJECTION,

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an allyr or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack Injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

The Cherokee Remedy, Cherokee Injection, and Cherokee Cure,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these: those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Postoffice, County, State and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

We send our 32 page pamphlet free to any address. Address all letters for Pamphlets or advice to the proprietors,

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and may be had in a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.
Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1864.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS

—— A detachment of 124 men of the 7th N. H. Regt., arrived at Concord at midnight of Saturday; and in the absence of the Governor and Secretary of State, they were received by Asst. Sec. of State Gerrish, and furnished a good supper at the Phenix Hotel. The regiment left the State with 1003 men, and have since received, at various times, some 636 recruits.

One hundred and eighty men re-enlisted, and are now with Col. Abbott at Deep Bottom. All of the field officers remain with the re-enlisted portion of the regiment, together with Lieuts. McCabe, Lawrence and Lovell.

—— A beautiful little girl, step-child of Hospital Steward Parks of the Concord General Rendezvous, died suddenly on Monday from the effects of a large dose o morphine, taken by mistake.

—— Saturday, the 24th, Mr. Martin Bean of Warner, who had been in the woods some distance from his house chopping, was found dead. It was evident that while he was at work, he had accidentally struck his foot with his axe, cutting it nearly off, and bled to death. He had tied a handkerchief around his ankle, but not tight enough to stop the flow of blood. He was about 60 years of age.

—— A Fair held at the house of William P Newell, esq., Manchester, for the benefit of the soldiers' library at the Hospital, realized nearly $150.

—— The Mirror "does not call to mind a time when the paths of Manchester were so well cleaned out in all parts of the city as at present, a task of no small magnitude in the prevailing amplitude of skirts."

—— A set of buildings situated on Liberty street, in Concord, owned by Conductor J. C. Langley of the Portsmouth Railroad, were mostly consumed by fire on Monday afternoon. Loss $1800, insured for $1200.

—— The second annual session of the New Hampshire State Musical Convention is to be held at Eagle Hall, Concord, during the first week in January, and in connection therewith there is to be a grand musical festival at the Music Hall in Boston, all the members of the Convention making an excursion to Boston, and returning to Concord in the evening. The excursion and concert will take place on Friday, January 6th, and it is anticipated that upwards of one thousand singers will take part in the exercises.

—— The Manchester Five-Cent Savings Institution has paid a dividend of nine per cent. from the earnings of the Bank the past year, above all expenses and taxes.

New Hampshire M. C's.—The Newburyport Herald says Hon. E. H. Rollins "as a politician is one of the most efficient in New England; and has done much to keep New Hampshire where she is." Also, that "Gen. Gilman Marston is a strong nomination which can't be beat."

The Boston Transcript says, Hon. Daniel Marcy "has always voted as if representing a South Carolina constituency."

☞ A steamer which arrived at New York from the Azores, Saturday, reports that the new steamer Ganges, built ostensibly for the Hong Kong and Calcutta trade, had arrived at the Azores and was being fitted up as a rebel pirate. She is a fast screw steamer, about 1100 tons burthen and was built at Laird's. Her armament will be, six 32 pounders and 2 100-pounder Blakely guns. Under her new flag she will be called the Petersburg, and will be commanded by Lieut. Griffin. Her crew are all English and so are all her officers but four. Lieut. Griffin is from Mobile.

☞ The rebel Gen. Magruder, commanding the Department of Texas, was recently caught in violation of private rights, similar to that for which Gen. Van Dorn met his death. In Magruder's case, the indignant husband promptly challenged the offending officer and met him with pistols the following day. Magruder was wounded in the right knee so badly that amputation became necessary. His adversary escaped unhurt. The affair transpired at Austin, about the 20th of November last.

— Geo. Francis Train has accepted an invitation to inaugurate the ceremonies of the grand ball to come off in Washington city, at the academy of Music, on the 12th of January, 1865. The ball is given under the auspices of the young men of the Republican Invincibles. A man better qualified for the duty could not be selected, for he can dance to any tune.

— The late Printers' Strike in Boston has indeed a number of printers to attempt the publication of a daily paper, The Voice, devoted to the interests of workingmen generally. They have made a commencement and been running two weeks.

Hon. John M. Wood, of Portland, died on Saturday, Dec. 24, in Boston, after a week's illness of lung fever, aged 51. After making railroads in New Jersey, he became a contractor for building the Portland section of the Grand Trunk Railway, by which enterprise he made a fortune, and adopted Portland as his place of residence. He was a member of the Legislature of Maine, and in 1854 was chosen to represent the First District of Maine in the Thirty-fourth Congress, and re-elected to the Thirty-fifth Congress. Of late years he has been engaged in various railway enterprises in New England, and his friends have long feared that his energies were too severely tasked by the large amount of labor thrown upon him. He was a loyal, humane, public spirited and enterprising citizen, greatly esteemed by those who best knew him.

R. H. Eddy, Boston, Solicitor of Patents.—We have before spoken in commendation of Mr. Eddy, the importance of his business, and the unusual success that has attended his efforts during a long and extensive practice; and we again desire at this time to call the attention of inventors and others to his well conducted agency for securing patents. Probably there is no man who is more thoroughly acquainted with the innumerable patents granted, their condition and value, from the formation of our government to the present time. Mr. Eddy also procures patents in foreign countries, and executes all documents necessary to secure the rights of inventors, and he may be relied upon as highly honorable, prompt and entirely devoted to their interests. He is constantly employed on cases that have been rejected, and his success in securing patents after all others have failed, is well known. His drawings, specifications and other writings, are prepared in the most business-like manner, and his charges for professional services will be found very moderate indeed. The advertisement in another column gives full particulars, and we recommend all who are in any way interested in patents and inventions to give it a careful perusal.

Pardon of Tuckerman, the Mail Robber.—The Hartford (Conn.) Courant says that Wm. S. Tuckerman, convicted and sentenced to twenty years' imprisonment, about eight ago years, for robbing the mail between New York and Boston, received on Thursday, a full and unconditional pardon from the President of the United States, and was to leave the Wethersfield prison on Friday. Since his incarceration he has conducted himself in such a manner as to gain the sympathy of all connected with the prison, and of persons who have visited the institution, His history has often been written in the newspapers, and a sad story of domestic affliction, connected with his imprisonment, went the rounds of the press less than a year ago.

☞ Letters from officers of Sherman's army concur in stating from their experience in moving through the interior of the Confederacy, that the rebels have a plentiful supply of provisions, and the Confederate government has, therefore, very little trouble in supplying their armies with everything the country produces. How then can the rebel authorities excuse themselves for their barbarous conduct to Northern soldiers, their prisoners, who, to the number of ten thousand or more, were allowed to die by the cruel and agonizing process of slow starvation.

— The London Times referring to the grand campaign of Sherman in Georgia, and before its result was known, said, "It may either make Sherman the most famous general of the North, or it may prove the ruin of his reputation, his army, and even his cause together."

— The Rockland Milk Association, New York, denounces as a great extortion the attempt to advance the price of milk to fifteen cents, and will not participate in the movement. This Association furnishes vast quantities of pure milk for the city, and evidently does not ignore the "milk of human kindness."

— James Brooks, a son of Maine, has just crowned his record by making a labored defence of slavery in Congress. One year ago he insisted that slavery was dead. Now he finds more to admire in slavery dead than in liberty living and triumphant.

— The editor of the Cohoes (N. Y.) Cataract announces that the publication of that paper will cease after the 1st of January, owing to the high price of paper and printing material.

— Rev. Wm. A. Patten, late Chaplain of the 31st Maine Regt., (which has been consolidated with the 32d,) has been appointed Chaplain of the 16th Me.

— The Lady's Almanac for 1865, published by Geo. Coolidge, No. 3 Milk street, Boston, is for sale by Jos. H. Foster. A nice little book for the ladies.

— The Maine Grand Division, Sons of Temperance, have engaged Rev. Wm. Ross of Illinois, as State Temperance Lecturer.

— Artemus Ward is in Boston, to exhibit, not his "wax figgers," but his paintings of Mormondom, at the Melodeon.

A silent wag—the wag of a dog's tail.

THE REBELLION.

The N. Y. Herald's Washington dispatch says: Since Gen. Sherman left Atlanta 11,000 rebel prisoners have been exchanged, and during the same time we have captured nearly 30,000 of the enemy. At this rate three months will give us the whole rebel forces.

Governor Watts, of Alabama, has issued a proclamation: he says a Federal force, several thousand strong, is marching on Mobile, and on the 16th was within twenty miles of that city. He says more men are needed immediately, and if they do not respond, in bodies or even single, the city is lost. Judging from the proclamation, a Union force is moving on Mobile from Pensacola and another from Mississippi.

Beauregard sends an official dispatch, dated Charleston, Dec. 23, in which he says that a federal force moving east on Mobile was met at Pollard, seventy miles from the city, and defeated.

The Richmond Whig of Saturday says that Gordonsville has been occupied by a force of federal cavalry. A telegram from General Lee is published in Saturday's papers stating that Rosser had met and defeated Custar, nine miles from Harrisonburg, in the Valley, capturing from him forty prisoners, and that General Torbett had been driven away from Gordonsville.

The Dispatch of Saturday contains the following: "The report reaches us from Petersburg that a Yankee column has started from Suffolk in the direction of Weldon. This force is supposed to be the same as lately encamped near Portsmouth."

The city of Savannah was entered and occupied by the U. S. army under Gen. Sherman, on the 21st day of December, without a battle with the rebel force,—as on the preceding afternoon and night, Hardee escaped, with the main body of his infantry and light artillery, blowing up the iron-clads and navy yard,—and crosing the river to get away. All the rest of the city is intact and contains 20,000 citizens, quiet and well disposed. No mention is made of the present position of Hardee's forces, which had been estimated at about 15,000.

Gen. Foster's dispatch from Savannah, of the 22d, says:

The captures include 800 prisoners, 150 guns, 13 locomotives in good order, 190 cars, a large supply of ammunition and material of war, 3 steamers, and 33,000 bales of cotton safely stored in warehouses. All these valuable fruits of an almost bloodless victory have been, like Atlanta, fairly won.

I opened communication with my steamers to-day, taking up what torpedoes we could see and passing safely over others. Arrangements are made to clear the channel of all obstructions.

The U. S. squadron moving against Wilmington, N. C., had to put to sea in consequence of the late storm; and though a number of vessels have returned, operations there must be delayed in consequence.

A despatch dated near Columbia, Tenn., Dec. 23d, announces another victory over Hood's rebel force. Gen. Hatch's division captured 15 guns, 42 wagons, 10 ambulances 738 prisoners and three division battle flags. His loss was 400. Hood's pontoon equipage was captured. Hood's cavalry abandoned most of their wagons and trains.

The rebel Gen. Lee has addressed a letter to the Chairman of the Military Committee in the rebel House of Representatives, advising that the able-bodied slaves be liberated and put into the army.

Rebel telegraphic dispatches from Wilmington, N. C., say the Union gunboats and transports appeared at Fort Branch, on the Roanoke river, last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and attempted to land a corps of troops, but we repulsed by the rebel forces each day.

Gen. Hooker is in possession of information that a band of rebels is organized in Canada for the purpose of making a raid on Chicago. The General is prepared for their reception.

The Richmond papers of Saturday report that Gordonsville was occupied Saturday by 65 Union troops. Considerable skirmishing took place.

The Richmond Dispatch says: Allowing Savannah, Charleston, Mobile and even Richmond to be captured, still the war is not over. The Sentinel says the negroes frightened by the prospect of being conscripted are leaving Richmond by droves, taking all their goods with them.

The latest Richmond papers doubted the reported capture of Savannah, but console themselves with the thought that if true it was all for the best. No doubt it is.

Richmond papers claim that the Union raiders under Stoneman and Burbridge, who have done so much damage in Southwestern Virginia, have returned to East Tennessee. They also say Gen. Davidson's expedition from Baton Rouge has done incalculable damage to railroads and destroyed immense quantities of supplies.

It is said Price is reorganizing his army in Arkansas, and that it numbers 33,000—all Missourians.

— An attempt was made on Monday evening, on the Saugus R. R., to throw the train off the track;—but it failed.

— Gold in Boston, Tuesday, 214 to 217.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,

Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

HALE'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,
For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the reach of all. At last, after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these five other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE. 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

"A Wonderful Discovery,"
DR. TEBBETTS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "DYE," and will not stain a particle. It will "REVIVE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy, and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

SNOW.—Messrs. Editors:—You publish much about clearing the sidewalks of snow; and the City Officers obliging the citizens to do it, as they ought. But one thought does not seem to be expressed, which is that a great many men leave the city early to go to the Navy Yard; consequently if the work is done at all, a large portion of it is left for women and boys to look after; besides there are many widows and others who cannot conveniently either do the work or have it done. Why not (as I have several times suggested,) do as most all other cities of this size do, from New Haven to Bangor, run the sidewalk snow-plough.

B.

Remarks.—It does certainly seem that machinery and horse-power ought to take the place of hand work, in this work and in these times; and we wish that somebody would take subscriptions to clear the walks thus, or that the City would take the matter in hand, as they now do to keep the streets in repair.—Ed. Chron.

CHRISTMAS.—A lovelier Winter day than Sunday, was never seen in this climate. The churches were well attended. —Monday was not so pleasant; but few cared for atmospheric clouds, after hearing from Sherman. The day was quite generally observed as a holiday—though not so much as in most other cities.

☞ Our city church bells were rung an hour at noon of Monday, in honor of the fall of Savannah—or rather of its rise, to the dignity of a Union city once more. So they go—but then the great arch rebel says the surrender of all their cities, is nothing to rebeldom. We shall see.

Communication.

Mr. Editor:—I was one of the gratified spectators at the dance of Mr. Lamprey's pupils, at Irving Hall, a short time ago. For the length of time the class had been taught, I thought they had made great progress; Mr. Lamprey's unwearied labor was crowned with success. He deserves, and I trust will receive, a good share of the public patronage. X.

ROCK. CO. AGRIC. SOC.—The Annual Meeting of the Rockingham County Agricultural Society, met in this city, on Monday. The old board of officers was re-elected, with the exception of Mr. Lane the Secretary, who having removed from the State, Mr. Geo. W. Wiggin of Exeter was elected in his place.—It was voted to call a meeting of the Society, at Exeter, in March next, to ascertain the opinion of the members as to holding a Fair in the fall of '65.

☞ Company K, 1st Regt. N. H. Unattached Artillery, Capt. Houlton, which has been stationed at Fort Constitution, left this city for Washington, on Monday, per rail.

☞ The sleighing goes, this weather, faster than the sleighs do.

☞ The steam fire engine celebration didn't come off Tuesday, either because the machine didn't arrive or the weather wasn't suitable.

— A Penny paper is among the things that were. The Philadelphia Ledger and the Baltimore Sun were both of this class, but have been compelled to advance the price to two cents. The proprietors of the Sun say they have been furnishing their subscribers for a long time back at but little more than one-third the actual cost of the white paper.

— The interesting discovery has been made in New York, that some of the gold bags transferred in sales have been tampered with, and instead of containing all gold, there have been mixed with the coin stones, old iron, new pennies, old brass and other make-weights.

FARRAGUT.

Col. A. J. H. Duganne recited the subjoined ballad at the reception of the fighting Admiral in New York, Dec. 13:

Shipmates! together meet,
Now the first watch is set,
Drain we a can to-night;
God keep good sailors all!
Rest to the brave who fall;
God bless our Admiral,
Leading the van to-night!
Soon from yon rebel spars,
Wearing the traitor's bars,
We shall fling out the stars,
Blazoned with stripes again:
High over battle-scars,
Liberty's types again!
Now, may the song I bring
Loud, like a bugle, ring;
Farragut's name I sing—
Fill up your pipes again.

Down drops the setting sun;
Swift rolls the darkness on;
Shipmates! the night cometh:
Silent are trump and drum—
Silent are shot and bomb—
All the dark fleet is dumb,
Dumb till the fight cometh!
Messmates! we'll fill the can:
Life's but a little span;
Yonder's our battle-van—
Yonder is Farragut:
Drink to the Iron Man—
Drink to bold Farragut!
Shells be the cups we plight—
Cannons our beakers bright;
Blood be our wine to night;
Fill up to Farragut!

Tell us ye planets true!
Tell us, ye waters blue!
Whither do eagles fly!
Out of what ocean's foam,
Out of what branch's comb,
Born from what coral home,
Soar up the sea-gulls high?
Then shall our answer rise,
Higher than eagle-flies,
Higher than sea gull vies,
Upward with Farragut;
Upward, through Glory's skies,
Sailing with Farragut!
So from the seas arose,
Grand with their deep repose:
White with their silver snows:
God bless old Farragut!

Out of war's baptism,
Sprinkled with fire-chrism,
Glory reveals her own;
Thus, like his namesake bold,
David, renowned of old,
Boyhood the man foretold;
Glory but seals her own.
Scarce had twelve Summer-suns
Passed him, like halcyons,
When with immortal ones
Mingled young Farragut;
Breasting the British guns,
Battled young Farragut!
Read ye our hero's scroll,
Shrined in the Capitol:
Fifty years back, its roll
Bears the name—Farragut!

* * * * * *

So, when, from blazing ports,
Hurtling at rebel forts
Cannon blows thunderous,
Down on Mobile he led,
War-ships, like dragons red,
While all the deep sea fled,
Quaking, from under us;
Where the blue rockets flashed,
Where the hot shell was dashed,
Where the slot machine belched,
There we saw Farragut;
High, at the masthead lashed,
There was our Farragut!
Castles once more we pass'd,
Ships on the shore we cast;
Lashed to our banner fast,
Still was bold Farragut!

Messmates! at morn we fight!
This may be our last night!
Fill up the can again!
If we must bravely fall,
God keep our free ones all!
God shield the Admiral,
Leading our van again!
When, o'er you channel bars,
Stream out the rocket stars,
Then to the signal spars
Up will climb Farragut!
Listening to cannon jars,
There will be Farragut!
Wrapped in his battle-cloak,
Woven from fire and smoke—
God bless his heart of oak—
There we'll see Farragut!

As we have said scores of times, the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap is, without exception, the nicest and best soap made; is the only kind that can be called a perfectly pure article, and goes nearly three times as far as any other soap, and will always turn out whiter and nicer clothes than washing with any other article. Try it, and you will find what we say is true. 40

TO OUR PATRONS.—We would again remind our readers that this season of the year is a time when they are constantly liable to sudden coughs, influenza, sore throat, &c., while the children are in constant danger from croup, throat and lung complaints. It is important that every head of a family should provide a remedy that is ready at all times for immediate use, whether assailed at the dead hour of night, with the breaking out of a hard cold, the racking of a violent cough, or the children with that most dangerous of all diseases—croup—or at the midday hour, you should always be prepared. In Coe's Cough Balsam you will find a ready and effectual remedy. It grapples and controls instantaneously the most stubborn coughs, while in croup it is a sovereign cure. The price is but forty cents per bottle—the bottle twice the size of any other at the same price. Delays are dangerous. You should always have it in the house. It can be found at all our drug stores. d5dawlm 2

For the speedy and certain cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fever; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in miasmatic countries.

FEVER AND AGUE is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Blindness, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "TRUE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most efficient remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and, moreover, is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be overestimated. No one is to be sure to have Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

SAVE YOUR FUEL!

THE MODEL COOK.

IS, IN FACT,

The Best Stove Out,

for economy, convenience and dispatch.

Many people think it best to use an old stove as long as possible, but it is far better to throw it away and purchase a MODEL COOK, than to keep it at the present high price of fuel.

One of our shrewdest citizens who purchased a MODEL COOK STOVE a year since, says he has saved more than its cost already.

A careful, prudent farmer purchased one and after it had been in operation some days his son came into the store and said, "something was wrong at their house;" his father and himself used wood off the same pile, he burned three baskets full a day, and his father only one! We sold him a Stove before he left, and there has been no complaint since.

These Stoves are in use in many hotels and boarding houses, and in hundreds of private families in this city and vicinity, and give the best of satisfaction.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and tea-drum heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 50 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they are off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

The Long Sought For Discovered at Last,

Cures in from one to three days.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

—AND—

CHEROKEE INJECTION,

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent, removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack Injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

☞ This medicine is a simple vegetable extract and one on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousands treated it has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to gain victory over the most stubborn cases.

☞ To those who have trifled with their constitution, until they think themselves beyond the reach of medical aid, we would say, Despair not! the CHEROKEE CURE will restore you to health and vigor, and after all quack doctors have failed!

☞ For full particulars, get a circular from any drug store in the country, or write the proprietors, who will mail free to any one desiring the same, a full treatment in pamphlet form.

The Cherokee Remedy, Cherokee Injection, and Cherokee Cure,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these: those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.
Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1864.

DRUNKENNESS IN THE NAVY.—The Commercial Bulletin,—which is always ready to stand up for the right and denounce the wrong,—says that "all who wished the men of the sea well, rejoiced when the grog-ration in our ships-of-war was discontinued, because to it was attributed much of the insubordination which disgraced the discipline of the service. But we learn with regret that although our seamen have been benefitted by the discontinuance of grog, the officers in too many instances still continue the habit of drinking deeply, thereby setting a bad example to the men. It is alleged that drunkenness is quite common among the volunteer officers from the merchant service, disgraceful conduct that the Navy Department will doubtless use some means to put a stop to."

SPECIAL INCOME TAX.—The Concord Monitor gives a list of those persons in Merrimac County who pay tax on $1000 or more income. The whole amount paid in the county is about $23,000. But one man, Nath'l White of Concord, pays on 10,219; Onslow Stearns, B. F. Holden and Dan'l Holden of Concord, and Moody Kent of Pembroke, each pay on $9000 and upwards; Almen Harris of Boscawen, Benj. F. Caldwell, Henry H. Amsden and Robt. E. Pecker of Concord, on 8000 and more; J. S. Abbott and Geo. G. Fogg of Concord, on 6000 and upwards; R. N. Corning and Asa Fowler of Concord, and J. B. Allen of Franklin, upwards of 5000; John Proctor of Andover, 4400; J. V. Barron of Concord, 4200; Geo. Clough of Concord, 4665; James R. Hill, Concord, 4356; E. H. Rollins, Concord, 4366; John S. Kimball, Hopkinton, 4669; Lewis Downing 3304; L. Downing, jr., 3341; Alonzo Downing 2369; Benj. Grover 3466; J. A. Gilmore 3577; Geo. Hutchins 3229; Franklin Pierce 2591; Ira Perley 3522; D. A. Warde, Jos. B. Walker and Chas H. West $3000 and upwards.

— It is reported at Richmond that Gen. Kirby Smith, commanding the rebel trans-Mississippi Department, was recently placed under arrest. He has been sending large amounts of cotton and extensive droves of cattle across the border, ostensibly on Confederate account, but really having the proceeds placed to his own credit. He has thus secured a million dollars in gold in his own name, and was preparing to cross into Maximillian's dominions when the fraud was discovered. Gen. Herbert, commanding at Shreveport, La., promptly placed him under arrest. He is now in irons in that city, awaiting the decision of the Richmond authorities.

— Speaking of the high prices at which Lord Lyon's wines sold, Mr. Seward says: "years ago, when living in Auburn, I was somewhat astonished at learning through the newspapers that the wines of Daniel Webster had been sold at auction at Washington, for seven hundred dollars. But large as this sum appeared to me then, I learn to-day that the purchases of one colored man at the sale of Lord Lyon's wines, amounted to nearly three thousand dollars." The colored man was Mr. Normley, who caters for the givers of dinner parties in Washington."

☞ The London Times has an editorial strongly urging negotiations in America, and says it must come to that at last, and the sooner the better for America and the world. It emphatically disclaims all selfish motives, and in the interest of humanity urges pacific advances. [Its emphasis is gross hypocrisy—its humanity a false pretence.]

It believes that the war, unless ended in negotiations and mutual compromise, must go on until the South be made a howling wilderness, and prostrated financially and commercially for years.

[Its ignorance of America affairs, resources and prospects, is only equalled by its mendacity and impudence. Being thoroughly in the interest of the rebels, its opinions are to be taken cum grano salis.]

☞ Dr. Charles T. Jackson of Boston, the distinguished chemist and geologist, announced at a recent meeting of the Boston Society of Natural History, his discovery of the existence of a rare mineral in Massachusetts, of incalculable commercial value. It is a vast bed of emery in the town of Chester, only three-fourths of a mile from the Western Railroad. Dr. Jackson read an elaborate paper before the Society, giving a full account of this discovery, his analysis of the mineral, with its combinations, and its practical application at Chickopee, where it was found to be superior to any of the foreign article.

— A rock face has been at last unearthed in the deep cut on the west side of the Hoosac Mountain, and tunneling will be commenced immediately.

— The piano forte factory of the united piano forte makers in Brooklyn was burnt Tuesday night. Loss $30,000.

BOSTON, MASS., Dec. 26.

Editor Chronicle:—After a long silence your correspondent is happy to wish your readers a "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year." Gen. Sherman's Christmas present to the nation is, in the oft-quoted language of the President, "a big thing." Many will regret that Gen. Hardee with his army could not wait to become a New Year's present; still as they were compelled to march to the northward, we may hope that, with the balance of the rebel armies in that region, they will be crushed between the upper and lower mill-stones of Grant's and Sherman's armies. If they were to escape at all, Sherman would not allow them to remain on his flank and rear, and therefore closed the southern approaches to Savannah at the earliest moment by promptly assulting Fort McAllister, which had resisted two fierce attacks by our iron-clads. All loyal men will rejoice that at last there is a prospect of South Carolina being made to feel the consequences of this accursed rebellion, in which she was the prime mover. The capture of Savannah will probably result in a similar bisection of the Confederacy to that which occurred on the capture of New Orleans; but Augusta will hardly prove another Vicksburg.

This city is about to have its ward lines changed, and in view of the possible results of the recent call for troops, it bids fair to be a troublesome question. Wards 13 and 7 are our "foreign wards," and are at the foot of the list in the number of men furnished the army and navy; therefore their friends in other wards are not over-anxious to form an alliance with them.

Desertions from N. H. regiments have been of late too frequent for the benefit of the old Granite State: for although they are not natives of the State who thus desert, among the rebels at least New Hampshire will have the credit of increasing their armies and demoralizing our own, as a recent insulting message of a rebel officer proves. All this is the result of a policy that employed substitute brokers to fill your quotas. Last Thanksgiving your correspondent found a soldier in the hospital at Readville belonging to a N. H. regiment; he had been in the service about a year and "had been sick most of the time," which meant that he was too much of a coward to desert. He was a foreigner, enlisted at Portsmouth, was rejected by the surgeon, placed himself in the hands of a broker and was accepted on a second trial, but, as he said, "didn't get so much bounty." In the name of all the old soldiers in the army, I urge every man who has any influence, to use it in keeping such men out of the army, for they do more harm than good.

Capt. J. Libby, late of the 3d N. H. regiment, was married in this city on the 18th inst. He entered the service in 1861 as Orderly Sergeant of the Exeter company, was three times promoted as a reward for meritorious services, and in October last was discharged on account of a severe wound received in June. No officer in that regiment was more universally respected, and all will unite in good wishes for his future happiness. Lieut. C. A. White, of the 3d, is on hospital furlough in this city. He has just received a Captain's commission for services in the summer campaign, and expects to be detailed for duty in this Department until able to return to the field.

The 10th Company N. H. Heavy Artillery passed through this city yesterday afternoon. It was raining hard at the time, but many of the boys looked as though they had been through storms where bullets and not rain had to be met, and thought little of the inconvenience of a thorough wetting.

The nomination of Gen. Marston in the 1st N. H. District meets the cordial approval of New Hampshire men in this vicinity. The patriotic and conciliatory remarks of Gov. Goodwin in the Convention did him honor, for no internal dissensions of the Union party should hazard the prospect of having your district represented by a loyal supporter of the Government after the 4th of March next. Happily, this time the office seeks the man, as Gen. M. is understood not to desire the office, but will consent to serve if elected. He will be missed in the field, but probably during the ensuing year his practical experience and executive ability will be needed in Congress. The General is a true friend to the soldiers, and will receive their support without regard to party. His opponent belongs to a party who have stolen the name of the old Democratic party, but so long as it clings to a pro-slavery platform there is no danger of its succeeding. Slavery is dead and beyond resurrection, and as the leaders of that party insist on binding it to the corpse, it will be buried in the same grave.

MANNING.

— The Lockport (N. Y.) Bee announces the death of an eccentric individual named William Colly. He lived alone, kept a grocery, and willed his property, valued at $18,000, to his relatives in England. He kept his specie in an old boiler buried in the cellar. Among the deposits in this private vault were fifty thousand three cent pieces.

THE REBELLION.

It appears from rebel papers, that the U. S. naval forces attacked Fort Fisher, below Wilmington, on Saturday, and kept up the fire on Sunday; under cover of the fleet, the U. S. infantry landed and attacked the fort, but were repulsed. The Richmond paper says:

"Fort Fisher is situated on a sand pit on the right bank of the Cape Fear river at its mouth, 20 miles below Wilmington. The enemy, we presume, reached their position above the fort by landing on the beach east of the mouth of Cape Fear river. The enemy having effected a landing above the Fort is a serious matter. It will cost double the force to dislodge him that would have prevented his landing."

The rebel dispatches make out our fleet nearly all safe, as they say: The enemy's fleet of over fifty vessels, including two monitors, several armored vessels and many heavily armed frigates and sloops-of-war, made a furious attack on Fort Fisher about one o'clock yesterday, and kept up an average fire of 30 shots per minute until night.

Our War and Navy Departments have received advices from the expedition against Wilmington. The intelligence is favorable. The Secretary of the Navy declares that Porter will capture Forts Fisher and Caswell, and then Butler will be prepared to operate directly against Wilmington.

Gen. Sherman announces that he intends to move up the Savannah River immediately and capture Augusta, and the news is that he has already moved. Sherman also says that after this he will swing around upon the rear of Charleston, destroying railroad communications on the way.

The news from Thomas is glorious. He has brought Hood to a stand on the north side of the Tennessee. The river being impassable, and Hood without artillery and pontoons. Thomas proposes to move upon Hood and force a flight or surrender.

It now appears that our forces do not occupy Gordonsville, Va., though the rebel papers said they did.

It is reported the rebel Moseby is mortally wounded by one of our scouts.

The Savannah Republican advises the people there to be obedient to the new rulers.

It is said the rebel Commodore Hunter has gone up the Savannah river with a couple of light draft gunboats. Wheeler's cavalry, Hardee's infantry, and Hunter's gunboats, combined, are the rebels' formidable obstacle to Gen. Sherman's march on Augusta with water transportation. Gen. Kilpatrick is hunting for our poor starved prisoners.

The World's correspondence says when Fort McAllister was captured it was found that Maj. Anderson, the rebel commander, lived in style. Nearly $4000 worth of wines and cigars were found stowed away in his quarters. This, and our prisoners starved nearly within sight.

The Richmond Whig of the 29th states that Stoneman's command had captured Saltville, Southwestern Virginia. The valuable salt works which supply nearly the whole Confederacy were there, and they have been defended with great persistency by the rebels.

Gen. Sherman considers Branchville, S. C., of much greater importance than Charleston, as it is the great railroad centre, and seated there he could open ready communication with Beaufort, when Charleston would fall from its own weakness.

The Natchez correspondent of the New Orleans Times says a rebel force, 1200 strong, crossed the swamps of the Black river on the 15th, to escort Semmes across the Mississippi.

The Richmond Whig of Monday evening announces that one boat of the Wilmington fleet ran aground on Friday night, on the coast above Fort Fisher, and was blown up by the Federals on Saturday morning. The name was not known, and the supposition was that no lives were lost.

SURRENDER OF SAVANNAH. These are some particulars of the capture of Savannah, as obtained from Major Gray, of Gen. Sherman's staff: The surrender was made by the Mayor and Council. Sherman's and Slocum's headquarters are in the city. The demand for the surrender was made on the 16th, and Sherman closed his dispatch with Hood's words to the negro troops at Dalton, to the effect that if his demand was not complied with he would take no prisoners. Hardee replied that he could and would hold the city. Sherman proceeded to complete the investment of the city, but owing to the swamps on the north side, could not at once extend his lines in that direction.

Gen. Hatch's division of Foster's force held the left of our line, occupying the upper part of Hutchinson's Island, completely blockading ingress and egress over the river below. Ferry boats were discovered plying between the city and the Union causeway. This was the hole through which Hardee got out. Our prisoners are increased by constantly finding them secreted. The city is so full of citizens, refugees and others, that many live in the streets. Nearly 300 Union prisoners have succeeded in reaching our lines. The Millen prisoners are supposed to be 40 miles south of Savannah.

☞ An army officer writes from Nashville:

Among the curiosities of the time, is the presence here in Nashville of Thomas Sims as a recruiting agent for colored troops. Thomas Sims, to send whom back to slavery Boston got on its knees, shed its tears and brandished its weapons, and the whole United States trembled and shook; he, who was in his day the most famous of martyrs, is now a quiet and energetic recruiting agent.

I think nothing could better illustrate the antagonisms of the two powers than this incident, or give a more cheering indication of our progress and triumph. Ten years ago this man was dragged through the streets of Boston in the midst of the entire military and police of the city, to be returned to slavery because what called itself 'the government' said he must go back. Now, in the midst of the very community to which he was then sent a slave, he is laboring, a free man, to aid in the maintenance of free institutions.

☞ The military authorities of Kentucky have suppressed the "True Presbyterian," printed at Louisville,—a very religious paper of a coppery complexion, veiled by a great concern for the purity of the ministry—and doing what it could under cover, to weaken the loyal arm.

— In reference to a paragraph in the Journal of Commerce, upon the increasing number of cases of assault with deadly weapons, one cannot but recall a statement of General Scott, in his lately published and most interesting "Memoirs," that he never carried a concealed weapon in his life.

☞ Our readers as well as ourselves, will be glad to see a letter from our long-silent Boston correspondent this morning.

HALE'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,
For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Breast, Lungs and Lungs, leading to Consumption.
This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.
He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable and illiterate common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these five other inoxensive, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.
PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.
For sale by B. Hutchings, Portsmouth, and all Druggists.

"A Wonderful Discovery."
DR. TEBBETTS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "DYE," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy, and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

CLARIFIED MOLASSES CANDY.

Local.

☞ By the wreck of the schooner H. R. Bishop, before reported, parties in this city lose goods stated to the amount of about $30,000, on which there was absolutely almost no insurance. To keep clear of the increased tax coming on liquors, several of our dealers had bought largely.—Tucker & Son, Downs & Son, G. V. Rowe, M. Cummingham, C. J. Colcord; and Oliver Cutts & Son of Kittery, lose in groceries and varieties, from $500 to $5000 each. Geo. Tompson & Co. were part owners of the vessel, and had the only insurance so far as we learn, of $5000 on $7000. The wreck was to be sold where she lay, yesterday.

☞ The number of the Gazette which is published to-day completes the year 1864; and all who wish to renew their subscriptions, are invited to do so immediately. We tender the compliments of the season to all our readers—always excepting those who steal their reading.

☞ Nothing new yesterday, but the warm, dirty storm. Local items, like everything else, keep housed such weather as this.

A topographical change is reported by the Portsmouth Chronicle as occurring at the Shoals. It says: "A large hill on Appledore must have sunk about one foot each year for ten years or more—or the valley of the Appledore House must have risen without the hill—or the island holding the church must have risen." We fear, Frank, the change is all in your eye. Gallivanting round the country with congressional committees is very apt to produce mirage. The idea of Appledore rising with Laighton on it, is simply absurd.—Bos. Sat. Eve. Gaz.

Now, we'll tell you what it is, Uncle Ben; you needn't go to putting on airs, since you've got to be a grandpa. You have laid that paragraph at the wrong door this time, sure; Rev. George Beebe and your Uncle Toby are responsible. As to "the change," we have the authority of all the Gosporters for it; and while it is not "all in my eye," anybody with half an eye can see it. If Mr. Laighton has kept down Appledore, then the Gazette must allow that Mr. Beebe has raised Gosport. As to that "gallorious" Congressional excursion, there wasn't a single gall there, we are sorry to say; and if there had been, U. T. isn't liable to mirage from that sort of cause, "for at his time of life the heyday in the blood is too cool" to be affected thus—more especially as he wasn't there.

ANOTHER WRECK AT PLUM ISLAND.—Plum Island appears to be directly in the way of coasting vessels this winter. Before the wreck at Sandy Beach is cleared away, we have another on the upper end of the Island. The sch Ocean Belle, of Jonesboro, Me., from Newburgh, with timber for the Portsmouth Navy Yard, went ashore about 10 o'clock Monday night, nearly opposite the Bug Light. This part of the Island is a peninsula, with the basin inside, which probably prevented the crew and two lady passengers from going up to the house. They built a fire on the shore to keep warm, which was seen through the mist from the Fort on the opposite side of the river, appearing as distant as Cape Ann, but Tuesday morning the men at the Fort went to the assistance of the party and ferried them over the Basin to the lightkeeper's house. The schooner, which is unsound, will probably go to pieces; but the timber is in a good place to be saved.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— On Tuesday, in Concord, five men were arrested at the general rendezvous, by order of Major Whittlesey, commanding, who are strongly suspected of being a part of the St. Albans raiders. Steps have been taken to identify them. They were sent from West Lebanon as substitutes on Saturday.—Another account says, three of the St. Albans raiders escaped from Canada by secreting themselves in the cars until across the line. They came to Lebanon, N. H., where they enlisted and received the bounty, hoping to get back to Dixie at Uncle Sam's expense, but were detected and are now in the State Prison. They have in their possession a large amount of the money stolen at St. Albans.

The Lancaster Republican says: "Our Colebrook correspondent informs us that on election day several skedaddlers crossed the line, voted in Stewartstown, and returned to Canada without molestation. We have the same statement from other sources."

—— The dwelling house of John Murdough in Deering, N. H., was burned on Monday. Loss from $2000 to $2500. No insurance.

SUNSHINE IN CHURCH.

Into the tall church windows
The western sun shone red,
And like the smile of God it lay
On many a bended head.
Light of the year's last Sabbath!
Athwart the solemn shade,
With tender, mild pathetic glean
That farewell splendor played.
O, Church above the Heavens!
Where our beloved throng,
Soul after soul, in saintly white,
To join th' angelic song;—
Through thine illustrious arches,
Thy shining courts of bliss,
The smile of God doth shed a light
Transcending even this.
December 25th, 1864.

VICTORY.
BY DANIEL A. DROWN.

Victoriously our Flag has waved
Upon a southern yard,
Upheld by Freemen's hands inured
To strength and worthy toil,
The "Stars and Stripes" borne in the van
Have proved their magic power,
And treacherous foes have quickly learned
The lesson of the hour.

Let traitors of the Union's weal
Be taught, abased, to know
That who invades Columbia's peace
Is doomed a vanquished foe;—
That he who desecrates the land
Which Washington has trod,
Must deeply feel the scorpion sting
Of an avenging rod.

Let principles our fathers knew
Be held most sacred now,
While victory exalts our flag,
Propitious even now.
Let patriots join both heart and hand,
And form a double chain,
Protection to a freeman's rights,
Exempt from every stain.

May patriotic ardor burn
Within each valiant heart,
Who manfully must face the foe,
And act a soldier's part;
May fadeless laurels crown all those
Who in the conflict stood,
Perfumed with that undying praise—
A nation's gratitude.

Respected may our standard wave,
In honor o'er the land,
Till safely 'neath its ample folds
All shall protected stand
God speed the Right! defend our Cause!
Ensure our victory!
Let welcome sounds soon greet our ears,
Of Peace and Liberty!

—The cotton presented by Gen. Sherman to President Lincoln, for "a Christmas Present", is worth at present market rates, from fifteen to twenty millions of dollars, and will make at least ten cargoes for large sized ships after compression.

SOAP! SOAP! SOAP!—The Gold Medal Soap has no equal, but will go further and do much better work than any other Soap made. It works as if by magic. One trial, and our word for it you will never use any other. Go get a bar and find all we say to be true. 4t

Would you save yourself from suffering after eating, or from acidity of the stomach, or burning sensation, or indigestion? Use Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Never use soda if you can procure this article. It will strengthen weak stomachs and relieve dyspepsia; is a saving in the quantity of flour, &c., &c. Try it. Grocers and Druggists most all sell it. The Wholesale Agents are Wholesale Grocers.

A TRUE AIM.—It has not been the aim of the proprietor of Hunnewell's great preparations, advertised on our inside columns, to base a false reputation by long and unmeaning advertising, but a real one by true results, to which all who try them will cheerfully assent. See advertisement.

Ayer's Ague Cure.

For the speedy and certain cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

FEVER AND AGUE is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation in marshy districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, yet on the remotest part, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and, moreover, is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over-estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dose of this emulsion is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass. and sold by Brackett Hutchings, J. H. Thacher W. R. Preston, David Kimball, and all druggists.

SAVE YOUR FUEL!

THE MODEL COOK.

IS, IN FACT,

The Best Stove Out,

for economy, convenience and dispatch.

Many people think it best to use an old stove as long as possible, but it is far better to throw it away and purchase a MODEL COOK, than to keep it at the present high price of fuel.

One of our shrewdest citizens who purchased a MODEL COOK STOVE a year since, says he has saved more than its cost already.

A careful, prudent farmer purchased one, and after it had been in operation some days his son came into the store and said, "something was wrong at their house;" his father and himself used wood off the same pile, he burned three baskets full a day, and his father only one! We sold him a Stove before he left, and there has been no complaint since.

These Stoves are in use in many hotels and boarding houses, and in hundreds of private families in this city and vicinity, and give the best satisfaction.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. Tin, oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large air warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for ventilation, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Siss, and others.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

—AND—

CHEROKEE INJECTION,

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack Injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

Important to the Afflicted.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a
PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.
By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of
GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest failings of a child.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.
Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.
Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.
Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotte, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.
DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So implicitly certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.
Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.
Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.
Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.
Among the thousands cured by Dr. Dow, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.
Boston, April 7, 1864.—eodly.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT
—TO—
UNFORTUNATE FEMALES!
DR. BRISCOE'S FEMALE DROPS are unsurpassed by virtue and efficacy in removing all complaints, of whatever nature, incident to females. He continues, with his usual success, to medically and surgically remove Obstructions, Engorgements, Leucorrhœa, Whites, General Debility, &c., and Suppressions of all kinds; also all complaints of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Spleen, Bladder, &c.
His medicines will be sent to any part of the country by express or mail; addressed by a communication stating particulars, will receive prompt attention.
Office, No. 23 Endicott street.
Persons at a distance can consult Dr. BRISCOE, by letter, describing the case, and have the medicines securely put up, and forwarded to any part of the United States, with full directions for use. Office address, 23 Endicott street, so that patients see none but the Doctor himself.
Address Dr. BRISCOE, at No. 23 Endicott St., Boston, Mass., stating symptoms. All communications are confidential.
Patients furnished with rooms and board if desired, and secrecy observed in every case.
Office hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.
Boston, July 16, 1864. ThSly

DR. M. BRISCOE still continues his successful treatment of all Private Diseases and also Female Complaints, at his old established office, No. 23 Endicott street.
N. B.—The sick and afflicted will do well to give him a call. A short consultation will cost you nothing, but a word of friendly advice may save you years of suffering.
P. S.—Ladies who wish to stay in the city under my care a few days, can be furnished with kind nurses. Charges moderate.

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.
Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.

Communication.

POLITICAL CORRUPTION.

Friend Miller,—That was a splendid achievement that supplied the missing link in the broad gauge railway from New York to Cleveland, Cincinnati and St. Louis. Soon after its completion, I chanced to meet an agent of the enterprise. I complimented him on the tact that manœuvered bills through Legislatures hostile to the grand and good design. He ingenuously replied, "We had something more efficient than tact—we had money: money will do anything with a Legislature." A more fearful truth or dreadful slander could scarcely be uttered. Is it true? if so, why?

The vast majority of Pennsylvania is very hostile to the interests of that railroad which its Legislature chartered, carrying the trade of the northeast part of the State to New York city. Legislators must have known what they were doing when they chartered the patch or two of railroad that form the links of the Broad Chain stretching from Jersey City to Illinoistown.

A legislature of New York adjourned at the end of the time for which it could draw its pay. It passed no appropriation bills and thought it had imposed on the Governor the necessity of calling it together again, to enjoy a second mileage and another hundred days of pay. In fact it passed but about one bill. That was for bridging the Hudson at Albany, to help a railroad. It never met again.

In Illinois, a bill was engineered through the last Legislature, by concealment of its purpose in the Senate, and by bribery (as all suppose) in the House, authorizing a robbery of Chicago so monstrous that "Dick Yates" could have earned one million dollars by not vetoing it. Ostensibly it was a Wabash Valley Railroad, but the corporators had almost unlimited power to lay and control tracks in every street in Chicago.

But why multiply instances. They are so numerous as to justify my conclusion that there is now rarely a legislature in any State where the party in power has not enough of purchasable members to make, with the other, a majority. Some clear cases of bribery in my mind were where the Democrats were in majority, and others where they were not.

The press has not denounced these transactions as it should. The vote of individuals on those measures where bribery is most unquestionable, is hardly to be found recorded.

Congress is not above suspicion. None deny that immense sums are spent in carrying bills through it. When an act of Congress suddenly added a large sum to the price of each gallon of liquor in the United States, immense sums were spent to keep that increase in the hands of those who held the liquor, and with success. Patents that have made their owners rich have been renewed.

All these transactions in legislatives date, I believe, from since the last election of President that was not contested by a party. In other words: assuming that there existed no political parties at the time of the second election of Monroe, bribery of legislators has come in vogue since the formation of the Democratic party and its opponent or opponents, that have contended from the days of Jackson to those of Lincoln. Perhaps it could be found that this beginning was since first a President of the United States became the head of the great political party that elected him.

Such are the facts. What are the causes of the evil and what its cure? The wickedness of the human heart is no greater than it was. It is not so certain that our nation has not become more wicked. Our legislators certainly have.

The existence of a permanently organized party certainly tends to deteriorate the character of the elected. A high degree of morality or patriotism would unfit a man for a party leader. The interests of no party can be identical with those of the nation, though they do not always equally conflict. The instinct of self-preservation demands of the party, that it shall put in nomination the men the most devoted to its own interest that it can elect. It often requires rotation in office, thus excluding all men who are pursuing a steady and profitable occupation; and making the emoluments of office the spoil of men who have no steady, lucrative business to forsake for public service. Fidelity to either the interests of the party or the public will not continue them in place, even while their party retains the power. Thus a great motive to faithfulness in every other business of life is wanting to the creature of a party.

The maintainance of a party requires a vast expenditure of time and money. The National Convention at Chicago must have cost more than the entire annual operations of the A. B. C. F. M. "Hundreds of men in Indiana, too poor to own a cow, sport a revolver," says a contemporary with but moderate exaggeration. Papers with bankrupt subscription lists are kept alive. Documents, costly as paper is, fly as thick as leaves of Valambrosa. In England this condition of things limits office to the rich, here it tends to place men in office to make money from it. A man's aptitude to steal may be a quality useful to his party.

Vast monied interests to be favored by legislation, tend to induce corrupt legislation. Five billions of dollars invested in slaves: the rum interest: railroad corporations: steamship lines: all these are dangerous in proportion to their monied power. The "lobby" of a legislature is a set of desperate men, with an experience of long years, in whose office there is no rotation, to whose place truth, honesty and honor would be an impassable barrier. A "ring" is formed among them, of men who are a unit in favor or against any measure, good or bad, by which any of these bodies controlling millions of dollars could be benefitted. There are few if any legislatures in which an act could be passed of such a nature, without paying tribute to the lobby: acts can be defeated still against its will. Their power is irresistible negatively only.

Such is the influence of party that certainly a fifth, possibly one-half, of one great one in Illinois and Indiana would have appealed to arms after election, had there been a reasonable prospect of success. I know whereof I affirm, though I would not blame Eastern men for doubting my correctness. A man high in social and political rank, a respectable lawyer and a Presidential elector of his party, told me before election that "revolution was a proper remedy for unconstitutional action, if the Supreme Court would not or could not annul it." Each man had a right to judge for himself. This is the influence of party spirit. Perhaps it was about the same fifty years ago, but never since in our land.—This state of things is hateful in the eye of God. Perhaps it is the greatest evil that he would remove from our nation by the fiery trials he sends upon us. Here is the darkest view I get of this war, and the chief reason that I can see why it should not end this fall, and without a great and general outbreak at the Northwest. Of little county wars, we have had several requiring the presence of troops, though as yet without a battle.

Now all the facts stated above are patent; and better informed men could largely add to the shades of this dark picture. But what is the remedy? My trust is in God that a remedy will be discovered or invented. But a more partial reformation, such as good men attending political caucuses, is not to be hoped for, nor would it be adequate. But unless some remedy be applied, republicanism among our people will be proved a failure, though there may still be hopes of it in a higher stage of piety.

THE REBELLION.

The Tribune's special Washington dispatch says 5000 colored troops landed near Fort Fisher, Wilmington, on Saturday.—They took up a strong position and held it against a vigorous attack. They then attacked and carried at the point of the bayonet an earthwork in front of Fort Fisher. The rebels being reinforced, returned and retook the fort, driving out our black troops with heavy loss. What remained of them were re-embarked, and the men-of-war again opened fire on Fort Fisher.

Hood's infantry were crossing the Tennessee river at Florence Dec. 22, leaving the State of Tennessee clear of rebel armies.

The Herald's Washington dispatch says a confirmation of the report that Mosby was killed at Middlebury by a Union cavalryman is furnished in a captured rebel mailbag, which contains a letter from a Mrs. Stinson, a friend of the partisan chief, describing the manner of his death.

The Herald's dispatch from the front of Petersburg says Lee is sending troops south in a great hurry to reinforce Gen. Bragg.

New Orleans dates to the 21st say that Gen. Davidson's expedition has returned after successfully accomplishing its object. The force travelled 100 miles in 15 days, burnt 15 bridges and many miles of railroad, and destroyed enormous quantities of property.

Large numbers of rebels continue to desert from Gen. Slaughter at Brownsville.

— Gold, Thursday, 223 7-8.

— Chief Justice Chase is the author of the phrase, "Congress has no more power to make a slave than to make a king." The sentence is contained in one of the resolutions adopted by the National Liberty Convention, held at Buffalo in 1856.

— Sherman and Thomas's soldiers have sent $650,000 of their pay to their friends.

— The Bangor Whig trots out the biggest hog yet—a 940 pounder, 18 months old.

— It transpires that before the election, Gov. Seymour sent a cannon to his friends at Watertown, N. Y., to be fired in honor of his success. It happened not to arrive till after his defeat, and the parties to whom it was sent refused to pay the freightage on it. It still lies in the railroad depot.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS

—— The Haverhill Publisher has a long account of the doings of a person calling himself F. A. Herman of Pittsfield, Mass., who has represented himself as a secret agent of the Post Office Department. His operations were boldly conducted, and it was only when his doings came in conflict with those of Mr. Hammet, the regular agent for New England, that he was discovered to be a bogus official. For several months past Herman, was in the regular habit of entering post offices in N. H. and Mass. with perfect freedom, and overhauling office matters just as it might please him. His figurings in New Hampshire have been quite extensive in making arrests, but we never heard of a case of his that passed beyond a preliminary examination.

—— The dry goods, fancy goods and millinery traders in Manchester, close their stores Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings during the winter. This arrangement will give an opportunity to the proprietors and clerks of these establishments to recreate themselves without any disadvantage to the customers.

—— A brakeman on the B. & M. freight train was struck on the head by the bridge at Webster's crossing, East Kingston, Wednesday morning, and severely and probably fatally injured. He is a man about thirty-five years of age, and had been in he railroad employ but a short time. We could not learn his name, but understand he is a single man and belongs in Boston.

—— The Ballot says a Christmas Ball at Exeter Town Hall passed off to the general satisfaction of the participants; but a set of furs worth $25 also passed off to the disappointment of a young lady to whom they belonged—stolen from the clothes-room.

—— The Eighth Regiment N. H. V., left Natchez the early part of last week, for home. All the Field officers are coming with the detachment. Capt. Landers remains in command of the re-enlisted portion of the Kegiment.

—— At a recent town meeting in Merrimack, it was voted to refund all that has been paid out for substitutes by any citizen of the town.

ST. DOMINGO. Advices from St Domingo represent the Dominicans still fighting resolutely against the Spaniards. A manifesto entitled "The Peace" has appeared at St. Domingo, and has been widely circulated. It insists upon a recognition of the independence of St. Domingo as the foundation of any treaty of peace. At a meeting of the principal officials of St. Domingo they had formally repudiated the provisional President, Gen. Salcedo, and in his place had appointed as President General Gaspar Polanco. The soldiers of the Dominican army joined in this movement. After his election the new President issued a proclamation to the troops and manifesto to the people.

☞ The U. S. steamer Saginaw sailed from Panama 7th Dec., carrying the seven rebel conspirators who were captured on board the Salvador. She will probably touch at San Juan del Sur and send the prisoners across that route if no objections be made. Others assert that she will take them on to California.

Ensign Rockieway was accidentally shot and killed, on board the Saginaw, Dec. 6.

— The suppression of the rebellion in China is not altogether favorable, so far as concerns the propagation of evangelical truth. From testimony lately received, it would appear that the people are returning with new zeal to the old idolatry, which had received such heavy blows at the hands of the insurgents. Idolatrous temples are being rebuilt, and idol services resumed.

— The Irishmen are coming. A late Cork paper says that the winter season appears to have no effect in deterring emigration from that country. On the contrary, there is a steady increase in the number of persons leaving that port for the United States; and the country people now say that the coming spring will, in all probability, witness a rush even greater than at any former time.

— The Troy Times says that box after box loaded with arms from the Watervliet Arsenal and Sprinfield armory, have gone up by the Troy & Boston railroad since the St. Albans raiders were liberated.—They are destined for Vermont, and are intended to give a practical effect to Gen. Dix's order.

— San Francisco supports forty-five periodicals, viz. ten dailies, twenty-two weeklies, eight monthlies, one semi-weekly, one tri-weekly and two annuals. Three are German, three Spanish, two French, and one is owned, edited and supported principally by American gentlemen of African descent.

— There are now six privateers commissioned by the rebel government. These are the Tallahassee, Olustee, Chickamauga, Suwanee, Edith and Shenandoah. All but the one last named ran into Wilmington, where they received their armaments. They are English built and very fleet.

WHAT WORK MAY A GENTLEMAN DO. In an address before an agricultural society, Dr. Tuthil thus touches on this delicate subject:

"The day has already come in our cities that if a man stout as Milo of old has a load of wood brought to his door, and he really aches for the pleasure of handling it, yet must he hire a man to pitch it into the cellar, while he stands idly by, nor so much as touch a stick of it on pain of losing caste. If a stout and vigorous citizen, whose muscles swell with an excess of strength, has a load of wood lying on the sidewalk, he may as well hang himself at once as to be foolish enough to save a dollar and saw it up himself. Yet if a man has pitched it in, and the grate is down so that he shall not be seen, we are not sure but that he may saw on till doomsday, and no one esteem him less a man and a gentleman.

If he curry and tackle his own horse, or lead him to the stable when he is done with him, he is unpardonably vulgar.

He would no sooner be caught carrying a trunk the length of a block to an omnibus, than stealing a body from a grave yard: yet he will boast among his friends of the enormous weight he carries in the gymnasium, having paid a fee of thirty dollars a year for the privilege. And his friends applaud his gymnastic expenditure as wise and exceedingly judicious; for sure, they say, 'How can a man live without exercise?' In short, labor which promotes the end of economy is an abominable thing; that which advertises their imbecility is a source of pride. Those soft-headed gentry may be our sons and brothers; but we fancy they must at times feel ashamed of our common father, old Adm, who farmed it in Paradise."

HALE'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtues of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by boiling these five primitive ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

For sale by B. Hutchings, Portsmouth, and all Druggists.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "DYE," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off, and removes all dandruff, heat, humors and itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy, and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

THE INCOME TAX.—The Ballot thinks "all will be interested in the perusal of the list of income taxes published in another column, and many will doubtless be surprised at the small incomes upon which some people live in luxury and splendor. It will be observed that many men repute wealthy, and whose style of living justifies the repute, do not acknowledge an income of $1000 a year, which amount is confessed by some mechanics who feel compelled to economonize. It is a decidedly cool thing in Hon. Daniel Marcy, with all his wealth and a salary of $3000 as representative in Congress, to return an income of only $600 on which he is liable to taxation."

The whole amount paid in Rockingham County is $29,024. Portsmouth citizens pay $16,341, Exeter $4664.

SPECIAL INCOME TAX.—List of persons in the County of Rockingham who pay tax on $400 or more, or who acknowledge an income exempt from taxation amounting to $1000 annually:

☞ Mr. J. G. H. Shorey, who was arrested in this city recently on suspicion of picking Mr. Farwell's pocket of $500 in October last, was fully discharged in Police Court on Wednesday—there being no evidence against him, while he brought numerous witnesses to prove an alibi, as to the charge of being in Saco and elsewhere, to pass certain money resembling Farwell's.

☞ The new steam fire engine, "Sagamore," arrived in this city last evening, and is to be tested on Market Square this (Friday) afternoon at 2 o'clock.

TEMPLE OF AMUSEMENT.—The great drama of "Moll Pitcher the Which of Lynn" will be produced in fine style this evening. Moll Pitcher lived in the town of Lynn; she was the wonder of New England during the Revolution, being of great service to the colonies as a spy. Her services were of so much consequence that even the great Washington called on the Fortune Teller for assistance. This is the only chance to see this great DRAMA.

☞ A deserter from the rebel 10th Georgia Regt. arrived in this city a few days ago. He was doing picket-duty at Richmond, and while exchanging newspapers, made his escape. He is a German, named Marx Alexander; and was in Savannah on furlough a month since. He says he was forced into the works, and has done lots of fighting and marching; he has been wounded two or three times, and is almost worn out, as we hope the rebels are. He may be seen at Messrs. Loveen & Co's.

☞ That iron steamer is not chartered to run from Provincetown, after all—nor is she to run between Dover and Boston, though she may run up to the Point occasionally; but we are informed by the agent, that this steamer, Alice Briggs, will commence regular trips between Portsmouth and Boston next week—of which we shall give an advertisement in a day or two.

☞ The following appears among the obituary notices in the Winsted (Ct.) Herald. The subject was once a mechanic in that village, in comfortable circumstances, but brought to the poor house after years of suffering from rheumatism and inability to labor had used up his little property. Through all his misfortunes he maintained a spotless character and a cheerful spirit:

"Exchanged his poverty for eternal riches, and his rags for a crown which fadeth not away—at the Winchester poor house, Nov. 6, 1864, James C. Smith, aged 67. The pall-bearers were few on this side—not so many perhaps as they that waited on the 'shining shore,' and went up with the old man to 'his Father's house.'"

— A drunken and disorderly passenger was put off the Boston and Maine train, between North and South Berwick last Tuesday evening. The fellow then drew a pistol and snapped it three times. The third time it went off and lodged a bullet in the car, fortunately injuring no one.

— Montaigne, the celebrated French essayist, whose clear style, as well as vigor of thought, has been the praise of good critics the world over, made his boast that he never used a word that could not be readily understood by anybody in the Paris markets. Plain words are ever the best.

— Some of the friends of Gen. Early, doubtless fearing his capture by Gen. Sheridan, have presented him the famous warhorse "Tar River," costing $10,000.

— At a meeting of the Saco Temperance Society, on Wednesday week, forty-six persons signed the pledge.

— Two prominent merchants of Louisville, Ky., have been fined $500 and costs each, amounting to $700, for making fraudulent income returns. Served them right.

— An old man and his wife in Putnam County, Indiana, put a kettle of live coals in their bedroom, during the late cold snap, and were smothered to death.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For the speedy and certain cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in bilious derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

FEVER AND AGUE is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most efficacious remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and, moreover, is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be overestimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy, and the only complaint that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass. and sold by Brown Stalebridge, J. H. Thacher W. H. Preston, David Kimball, and all druggists.

SAVE YOUR FUEL!

THE MODEL COOK.

IS, IN FACT,

The Best Stove Out,

for economy, convenience and dispatch.

Many people think it best to use an old stove as long as possible, but it is far better to throw it away and purchase a MODEL COOK, than to keep it at the present high price of fuel.

One of our shrewdest citizens who purchased a MODEL COOK STOVE a year since, says he has saved more than its cost already.

A careful, prudent farmer purchased one, and after it had been in operation some days he soon came into the store and said, "something was wrong at their house;" his father and himself used wood off the same pile, he burned three barrels full a day, and his father only one! We sold him a stove before he left, and there has been no complaint since.

These Stoves are in use in many hotels and boarding houses, and in hundreds of private families in this city and vicinity, and give the best of satisfaction.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging stoves, to examine this before doing so, feeling it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and drum heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal; producing a current of warm air, which is pleasant and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of our dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

—AND—

CHEROKEE INJECTION,

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Strictures, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

DR. W. R. MERWIN & CO., Sole Proprietors,
No. 63 Liberty street, New York.

Cherokee Cure, the great Indian Medicine,

ROOTS, BARKS AND LEAVES.

An unfailing cure for Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, and all diseases caused by self-pollution; such as Loss of Memory, Universal Lassitude, Pains in the Back, Dimness of Vision, Premature Old Age, Weak Nerves, Difficult Breathing, Trembling, Wakefulness, Eruptions on the Face, Pale Countenance, Insanity, Consumption, and all the direful complaints caused by departing from the path of nature.

☞ This medicine is a simple vegetable extract and one on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousands treated it has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to gain victory over the most stubborn cases.

☞ To those who have trifled with their constitution, until they think themselves beyond the reach of medical aid, we would say, Despair not! the CHEROKEE CURE will restore you to health and vigor, and after all quack doctors have failed!

☞ For full particulars, get a circular from any drug store in the country, or write the proprietors, who will mail free to any one desiring the same, a full treatment in pamphlet form.

☞ Price, $2 per bottle or three bottles for $5, and forwarded by express to all parts of the world.

Sold by all respectable druggists everywhere.

DR. W. R. MERWIN & CO., Sole Proprietors
No. 63 Liberty street, New York.

The Cherokee Remedy, Cherokee Injection, and Cherokee Cure,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these: those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Postoffice, County, State and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

We send our 32 page pamphlet free to any address. Address all letters for Pamphlets or advice to the proprietors,

Important to the Afflicted.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a
PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.
By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of
GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attendant on this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.
Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.
Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.
Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.
DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system, Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.
Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.
Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.
Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imparts and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.
Boston, April 7, 1864.—eodly.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT
—TO—
UNFORTUNATE FEMALES!
DR. BRISCOE'S FEMALE DROPS are unsurpassed by virtue and efficacy in removing all complaints, of whatever nature, incident to females. He continues, with his usual success, to DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
Persons at a distance can consult Dr. BRISCOE, by letter, describing the case, and have the medicines securely put up, and forwarded to any part of the United States, with full directions for use. Office arranged with separate apartments, so that patients see none but the Doctor himself.
Address Dr. Briscoe, at No. 23 Endicott St., Boston, Mass., stating symptoms. All communications are confidential.
Patients furnished with rooms and board if desired, and secrecy observed in every case.
Office hours from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.
Boston, July 16, 1864. TThSly

DR. M. BRISCOE still continues his successful treatment of all Private Diseases and also Female Complaints, at his old established office, No. 23 Endicott street.
N. B.—The sick and afflicted will do well to give him a call. A short consultation will cost you nothing, but a world of friendly advice may save you years of suffering.
P. S.—Ladies who wish to stay in the city under my care a few days, can be furnished with kind nurses. Charges moderate.

THE VERNATELLA
LIQUID BLACKING
Gives to the Leather not only a
Splendid Jet Black Polish,
But an elegant and Fashionable Perfume.
The neatness and convenience of using Liquid Blacking and the superior polish which it gives over other kinds, has heretofore been in a great measure counterbalanced by its disagreeable vinegar odor and the trouble of fitting something into the stopper of each bottle in order to apply it to the brush, but the Vernatella Blacking has only the most DELIGHTFUL PERFUME, which remains with the leather as long as the blacking lasts, and each bottle has a stick ready fitted in the stopper. The Vernatella Blacking also softens and benefits the leather.
Be sure and inquire for the VERNATELLA Blacking.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1864.

THE NEW YEAR'S EVE

OF THE UNHAPPY.

From the German of Jean Paul Richter.

Translated for the Chronicle.

It was New Year's eve. An old man stood at midnight near a window, gazing with a look of fixed despair, now up towards the heavens, forever steadfast and forever young; now down upon the still, fair, snow-white earth, whereon was none so joyless and sleepless as he. His grave stood open near by,—hidden only by the snows of age,—no longer covered by the bloom and greenness of youth; and from his whole rich life he had brought with him nothing but errors, sins and infirmities,—a wasted body, a desolated soul, a heart full of evil, an old age full of remorse. The beautiful days of his youth rose like spectres before him, and led him back to that fair morning when his father placed him where the paths of life divide; which lead, on the right hand, by the sun-path of virtue, into a wide and tranquil land, full of light and harvests and angels; but on the left, through the mole-track of vice down to a black and dismal cavern, dripping with poisons, full of darting serpents, and of damp and stifling vapors.

Ah! the serpents were preying on his heart, the poison drops were on his tongue, and now he knew whither he had come.

Wild with unutterable grief he called aloud to Heaven, "Give me my youth again! O Father! place me once more at the parting of the ways, that I may choose the other!"

But his father and his youth were no more. He saw the will-o'-wisps dance over the meadows and flash in the grave-yard, and he said, "Thus are my days of folly." He saw a star falling from Heaven, glittering in its fall, and extinguished as it touched the earth. "I am that star," groaned his bleeding heart, and the serpent teeth of remorse struck deeper into its wounds.

His excited fancy showed him stealthy sleep-walkers on the roofs: the wind-mill lifted its giant-arms, as if threatening to crush him; and a mask left in the charnel-house gradually changed into features like his own.

In the height of his agony, the New Year chimes flowed down from the town, like singing from a distant church. His grief became more gentle. He looked over the snow-white earth, around to the wide horizon, and remembered the friends [of his youth, now happier and better than he,—teachers of the world, fathers of joyous children,—men in all things blest. "I too,' he said, "had I but willed it so, I too, like you, might have slept this New Year's eve with tearless eyes. Ah! I might have been happy, beloved parents, had I but fulfilled your New Year's wish and counsel!"

Amid these feverish remembrances of his youth, the mask in the charnel house seemed to rise,—until, through the superstition which on New Year's eve sees into the world of souls and into the future,—it became a living youth.

He could look no more; he covered his face. His tears fell fast and hot into the snow. Distracted and comfortless he could only moan, "Come, only come again! O beautiful youth! Come once again!"

And it did come; for this had been but a frightful dream on the New Year's eve. He was still a youth,—his errors only were not a dream. And he thanked God that it was not yet too late to turn back in the way of vice, to walk once more in the sunny path, which leads to the fair Land of Harvest.

Turn back with him, young reader, if thou standest in his way of error. This terrible dream hereafter shall be thy judge.—Then, though full of sorrow, thou mayest call, "Come back, O beautiful youth!" yet will it never return.

☞ A letter from Hilton Head, states that an order has been received to place the rebel prisoners at that point on reduced fare, in retaliation for the brutality shown to our soldiers in the prison pens of Georgia and South Carolina. On the day the letter was written, hard bread and water were dealt out to the two hundred and fifty or more rebel officers held at that point, in compliance with this order.—In close connection with this retribution in self-defence,—we see a northern hypocrite making a miserable covert plea against it.

"Every hour you lose by loafing, is a dead loss to the world as well as yourself."

So says an extract from somebody, which is going the rounds. Of course anything which you "lose" is "lost;" but we are not sure that all loafing is wasted time. Any body who does nothing but loaf," is a poor miserable creature; but to a man who works hard, what is more pleasant than entire indolence occasionally?

NUMBERING THE DAYS OF THE YEAR.

Mr. Editor: Your "Oldest Newspaper," on the 25th Feb., 1864, gave the world the first suggestion of expressing the date by the number of the day of the year, instead of that of the month. One at least of its juniors, The Boston Recorder of Nov. 18, adopts the suggestion. With this I send you an almanac for 1865, which I hope you will give your readers.

The introduction of the U. S. loan of cent-a-day notes—seven-thirties—renders such a table needful. The interest coupons are payable on the 46th and 227th days of the year, and the time elapsed since the last payment is readily found by this almanac, but not by any other. So to,if notes for 30, 60, or 90 days were dated in this way, (as I predict they all will be within five years,) the time of maturity would be much more readily seen. A letter mailed in the latter part of the month, if delayed in transit shows, if thus post-marked, the amount of delay. When your paper of 25th Feb. came, it was something of a problem to tell the exact date of the next. These are specimens of a thousand inconveniences, all of them little indeed, for which the use of months has no compensation whatever. No one reads the war news just at the beginning of a month, without suffering from the transition. The varying length of months aggravates this. In June, if we would reckon on what day the 4th of July will occur, we must first notice how many days June numbers.

Will you not with the announcement of the new year give us the date in both forms at the head of your paper? Thus: 1865: 5, Thursday, Jan. 5, 1865. So will you aid in a good cause in which you have been the pioneer. Yours truly, I. F. H.

Hillsgrove, Ill., 1864: 359.

We are unable to publish the new Almanac this morning, but shall endeavor to give it early next week. We believe we shall conclude to adopt our correspondent's other suggestion, as to the date of our paper by both old and new style, the coming year.—Ed. Chron.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 28th.

Mr. Editor:—Some time since I sent you a note, stating that there were two penny papers published in this city. Such is not the case now, as the "Clipper" several weeks since raised their price to two cents, and last week the "Sun" followed suit. The latter says that for some time past they have been furnishing their paper for one-third the actual cost of the white paper!

Christmas was observed here very generally, although the weather was very disagreeable and the streets in a horrible condition. Many prominent citizens kept open house, and provided "food and drink" in abundance of the choicest kind.

The most amusing thing that occurred was the presentation of a bat which was won by a live Vermont Yankee, Mr. John T. Rich, from a gentleman of Pittsburg, Pa. The bet was on the result of the election in Pennsylvania and New York, Mr. Rich betting that Mr. Lincoln would carry both States. The bat is 15 inches high, 15 inches in diameter at the top, and 6 inches brim; and Mr. Rich, according to agreement, wore it all day. The presentation and reception speeches are represented as being "rich," and the whole affair was the source of much amusement to thousands of people during the day. Mr. R. intends sending the hat home to Vermont.

We have had a little sleighing here, but it's nothing like our New England kind.

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY.

The 14th of December being the third anniversary of the death of Prince Albert, Queen Victoria, accompanied by the Royal family, paid a protracted visit to the Royal Mausoleum and spent the day in complete retirement. The London Times, alluding to the subject, trusts that now three years have elapsed and every honor that a nation's gratitude could pay to the memory of a Prince has been offered, the Queen will think of her subjects' claims and the duties of her station, and not postpone them longer to the indulgence of unavailing grief.

What does the Times wish the Queen to do? She was the happy wife of a good husband, chosen by herself, and worthy of her love. Not neglecting her duties as a Queen, she probably sees no good reason why she should flutter among the butterflies of the court; and probably she may know her own business as well as the scribblers in the Times.

Some years ago the Shakers had a spiritual revelation forbidding the use of pork, and most of the branches of this peculiar sect still shun the forbidden meat. Those at Enfield, however, have, it is stated, so far softened their prejudices as to keep swine and sell the pork to the outside barbarians. —Exchange.

We doubt whether all this is strictly accurate; but it is true that the Shakers now raise some pork to sell to outsiders,—while they themselves eat none of it. They formerly ate it freely, as do most other Gentiles. They now deem it unwholesome, and therefore they shun it as they do distilled spirits and tobacco.

— Gov. Smith of Virginia, takes decisive ground in favor of arming the slaves.

THE REBELLION.

Admiral Porter's official account of our attack on Wilmington, shows that the powder boat or torpedo, though it exploded as was planned, did not produce any great effect on Fort Fisher.

The firing of the fleet was magnificent. The fire of the fort was speedily silenced and the enemy driven to the bomb-proofs. Two magazines were blown up and several buildings set on fire. During the heaviest of the bombardment 115 shots per minute were fired. The enemy was silenced so quickly that no one was injured on board the fleet from their guns. Six 100-pounder Parrott guns in the fleet exploded, killing and wounding 54 our officers and men.—On the 25th, about 3000 troops were landed and moved to within 500 yards of Fort Fisher. One officer mounted the parapet and brought away the flag. A soldier led out a horse, killing the orderly riding him, and brought off his dispatches. Another fired his gun into a bomb-proof among the rebels. Several of our men were wounded by our own shells.

Gen. Weitzell sent word that an assault was impracticable. The army landed about 2 o'clock and commenced re-embarking at 5 P. M., one brigade staying on shore during the night, covered by the gunboats. Sixty-five rebels soldiers surrendered as our troops landed, and 200 more gave themselves up to a small reconnoitering party. The loss of our land forces is not stated.

After the usual compliment to his officers Admiral Porter closes by saying that there are about 1000 men left on shore by the army, who have not got off on account of the surf. These will be taken off in the morning, and the soldiers will then be sent home.

Gen. Burbridge's official account shows his expedition to Saltville, to be highly successful. First, he says his mounted force (500 strong) in conjunction with Gen. Gillem's brigade, the whole under the command of Gen. Stoneman, marched from Bean's Station on the 15th of December, at daylight. They encountered the enemy, under Duke and Vaughn, at Bristol, Abington, and Mount Airy, at the latter place on the 14th, and drove him in confusion, captured some prisoners, 7 pieces of cannon and a large wagon train. Col. Brown with his brigade, later in the day, charged the home guard at Wytheville, capturing 5 pieces of cannon and eight caissons. He says: Maj. Harrison, with 300 picked men and horses, struck the Virginia railroad on the 15th, near Glade's Spring, cutting it and capturing two trains of cars. He then got in Vaughn's front, and continued along the road, destroying the bridges and depots as far as Wytheville, and a large amount of rolling stock, and the great iron works near Macon.

Col. Brown destroyed bridges for ten miles above Wytheville, when the expedition started on its return, the men and horses being nearly worn out. I came on Breckinridge, who was following, and an engagement of 36 hours ensued, at the close of which Breckinridge retreated towards Saltville, but Col. Buckley with his brigade, having got in his rear, forced him in confusion towards North Carolina. Col. Buckley effectually destroyed the lead mills near Wytheville. On the night of the 20th, after some resistance, our united forces captured the salt works and 8 pieces of cannon. The expedition has been entirely successful, and will be more felt by the enemy than the loss of Richmond. The salt works and lead mines are in ruins and cannot be repaired during the war. My forces are now at Catletsburg, Ky., and safe.

☞ At a breakfast party given to a distinguished foreigner by the Union League Club of New York, Rev. Dr. Cox, in the course of a speech, took occasion to say that, as a clergyman, he felt bound to abstain from secular contests, and he had therefore not felt at liberty to vote at elections, or give his voice at any meetings called for the promotion and encouragement of the war. He then went on to speak with some severity of the management of the Sanitary Commission. Rev. Dr. Bellows is said to have retorted, in his speech which followed, by the suggestion that "Cocks that will neither vote nor fight, had better abstain from crowing.

— The demand of some of the Richmond papers that General Lee shall be made a dictator over the Confederacy, is a confession of weakness. Should Lee accept such a position, he would soon prove as great a failure and become as unpopular as Jeff. Davis. This demand shows the change of sentiment at the South.

Wendell Phillips was riding in a railroad car, when he was addressed by a man of such rotundity that he seemed to carry everything before him. This man asked Mr. Phillips what was the object of his life. "To benefit the negro," was the bland reply. "Well, then, why don't you go down South to do it?" "That is worth thinking of. I see a white cravat around your neck; pray what is the object of your life?" "To save souls from hell." "May I ask you whether you propose to go there to do it?"

"PRACTICAL DUTIES."—The Stars and Bars, speaking of these, wants to know,

"If Democrats can agree as to their present, practical duties? and agreeing, will have the boldness to fight the thing through and take the consequences fearlessly? * * Pluck and energy are everything. Have we them both combined for the practical duties before us? If so, we can conquer, and the gates of hell cannot prevail against us."

Now a good many folks believe that the coppery secessionists are bound for that place, at good speed; and don't think they will be refused admission. F.

HALE'S
Honey of Horehound Tar,

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption.

This sovereign remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of an illustrious Physician and Chemist, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice.

He had long been profoundly impressed with the wonderful virtue of the honey of the plant Horehound, in union with the Cleansing and Healing properties of Tar extracted from the Life Principle of the forest tree Abies Balsamea, or Balm of Gilead. For years he was baffled in his attempts to blend these great medicinal forces into such a union that the original power of each would be preserved, the disagreeable qualities of common tar removed, and the price of the compound be within the means of all. At last after a long course of chemical experiments, he found that by adding to these five other ingredients, each one valuable in itself, he not only obtained the desired results but greatly increased the curative power of the compound. This having been thoroughly tested by practice, is now offered to the general public as a safe, pleasant and infallible remedy.

PRICE, 50 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

For sale by B. Hutchings, Portsmouth, and all Druggists.

"A Wonderful Discovery."

DR. TEBBETTS' "PHYSIOLOGICAL HAIR REGENERATOR" is compounded in strict accordance with the well known laws of Physiology and modern vegetable Chemistry. It is not a "DYE," and will not stain a particle. It will "RESTORE GRAY HAIR" in all cases to its original color. It promotes a luxuriant growth of new HAIR in all cases on BALD HEADS, when the glands or roots of the hair are not completely disorganized. It prevents the hair from falling off and removes all dandruff, humors and other itching from the scalp. It keeps the hair soft, moist and perfectly healthy, and gives it a glossy and beautiful appearance. It is highly perfumed, and as a Dressing it has no superior. The "REGENERATOR" is warranted to produce the above results in all cases, if not the money to be refunded. With it every "GRAY HEAD" in New England can be restored in less than sixty days.

A Card to Invalids.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, Free of Charge.

CLARIFIED MOLASSES CANDY.

Local.

☞ Watch night services will be held in the Methodist Church this evening at 7 1-2 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Adams of the North Church and Rev. Mr. Lane of the Middle St. Church, will preach on the occasion.

☞ Rev. A. J. Patterson will deliver the next Lecture of his series at the Universalist Church next Sunday Evening, Jan. 1st, at 7 o'clock. Subject: The Prison—or Crime, its cause and cure.

☞ The Mis-States and Dis-Union gives a very glowing account of the recent Union Congressional Convention in this District. Of course the copperheads don't like anything that favors the true Union; and of course they know more about the meeting, than its friends and members. The abuse of some of the best men in the District was of course to be expected, from that sorcee. It closes the tirade with the prophecy that "The people of this Congressional District will consign them all (the Union candidates) to obscurity, and keep their present worthy Representative at his post in Congress."

Does our amiable cotemporary know of anybody who wants to risk a trifle on that? If so, we can find a cover for him, for from $100 to $1000, in greenbacks, or gold if he likes that better. F.

☞ We would most respectfully inform the publishers of several Weekly papers with which we have been exchanging our Daily "even"—or rather not even, for we got no pay for the difference between them, to make the trade even—that we cannot longer afford to give our Daily for their Weeklies. We prefer to pay in cash for their papers, if we want them; or to exchange Weeklies even, or let them pay us the difference if they want our Daily.

COMPLIMENTARY BENEFIT to Bidwell & Pike.—To-night is set apart for the Benefit of these popular managers of the Temple of Amusement. For some months past they have succeeded in catering satisfactorily for the amusement of our citizens, and have been untiring in their exertions to please all classes. They offer a bill which for fun and novelty can't be beat. The great play of "Don Cæsar de Bazan," and "Richard III. on Horseback," a new pantomime, and Shorey in his "Negro Comicalities." Give them a bumper, and let it be to them in reality a "Happy New Year." D.

☞ At the last attempt to throw a train from the Eastern track near Maplewood, as usual a sleeper was placed across the track, and the passengers all felt a severe concussion, but the train was not injured. After an un-successful hunt after the perpetrators of the villainous deed, the train proceeded. It is hoped the criminals may be brought to speedy justice. Supt. Prescott and the Boston police, are sharply after the fiends.

☞ It was to be expected that there should be omissions from the tax list.—Among them, was Dr. E. B. Goodall of this city, $600.

RICH—the Stars and Bars lecturing our good City Missionary on morality and good citizenship.

☞ The American Agriculturist for January 1865, is a capital number, with nice wood cuts enough to make a good pictorial, and reading matter for the improvement of Farm, Garden, and Household. It is published by Orange Judd, New York; and may be obtained at Mr. Shores' bookstore in this city.

☞ The steamer North America, which left New Orleans Dec. 6 for New York, sprung a leak Dec. 22, and sunk about 1 o'clock next morning. She left N. O. with 200 sick soldiers, 92 cabin passengers and 44 crew. 62 persons were saved on board bark Mary E. Libby. 197 are lost in the steamer and in one boat.

☞ Rev. Dr. Jaazaniah Crosby, aged 85 years, died at the residence of his son in Cambridge, Mass., on Friday. The old gentleman's house at Charlestown, N. H., was burnt a few days ago, in the night time: escaping only in night clothes, he took cold, and death ensued.

— The Northern Monthly (Maine) Magazine has been suspended, the patronage which it had acquired not being sufficient to warrant its continuance in these times of high prices. We regret this, for it gave promise of becoming a useful publication.

— The Swedes in Minnesota manufacture their own dry goods, raising wool and flax in sufficient quantities to supply them for their present wants, and also to lay away for the future.

— Gen. McClellan has declined the magnificent sword offered him by some of his admirers. A spade would have been a more appropriate gift. Other friends have fitted up a magnificent yacht in which he is invited to spend a year of his retiracy. His making a gunboat his headquarters while his army was in action, probably suggested the idea of his penchant for "life on the ocean wave."

— An army correspondent, among other incidents at City Point, tells the story of a person wearing the uniform and eagles of a colonel, who attempted to go on board the boat for Washington, and was very indignant at being asked for a pass. Something in the haughty airs of the prisoner caused suspicion, and she was arrested—for the colonel proved to be a woman, and is now imprisoned as a rebel spy.

— There is a class of persons who are always growling about and finding fault with our cold "down East," and always looking West for an Eldorado. Are they aware that the sun never rises in the West.

The instrument known as the Cabinet Organ is quite as great an improvement upon the melodeon, introduced some twenty years ago, or its successor, the harmonium, as a concert grand-piano-forte of to-day is over the imperfect pianos in vogue a quarter of a century since. The melodeon lost favor from a lack of capacity for expression. Its music was monotonous to a degree annoying to cultivated ears. The harmonium was an improvement upon the melodeon, but still failed to satisfy to the extent demanded by its use in chapels, schoolrooms, or halls, as a support to choral singing. Within a couple of years, Messrs. Mason & Hamlin, who have always taken the lead in this country as manufacturers of reed instruments, have succeeded in largely overcoming the defects noted in instruments of this class.—New York World.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For the speedy and certain cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

FEVER AND AGUE is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysteria, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and, moreover, is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be overestimated. Be sure to try it. Cure for Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass. and sold by Brackett Hutchings, J. H. Thacher W. R. Preston, David Kimball, and all druggists.

SAVE YOUR FUEL!

THE MODEL COOK.

IS, IN FACT,

The Best Stove Out,

for economy, convenience and dispatch.

Many people think it best to use an old stove as long as possible, but it is far better to throw it away and purchase a MODEL COOK, than to keep it at the present high price of fuel.

One of our shrewdest citizens who purchased a MODEL COOK STOVE a year since, says he has saved more than its cost already.

A careful, prudent farmer purchased one, and after it had been in operation some days his son came into the store and said, "something was wrong at their house;" his father and himself used wood off the same pile, he burned three baskets full a day, and his father only one! We sold him a Stove before he left, and there has been no complaint since.

These Stoves are in use in many hotels and boarding houses, and in hundreds of private families in this city and vicinity, and give the best of satisfaction.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber, having received his Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration; the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned in passing in succession of solid air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert E. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Siss, and others.

The Long Sought For Discovered at Last.

Cures in from one

CHEROKEE REMEDY

—AND—

CHEROKEE INJECTION,

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic, cures all diseases of the urinary organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Strictures, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two tablespoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the CHEROKEE REMEDY, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

☞ By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free, to any address, a full treatise.

Dr. W. R. MERWIN & CO., Sole Proprietors
No. 63 Liberty street, New York.

The Cherokee Remedy, Cherokee Injection, and Cherokee Cure,

Are sold by all enterprising Druggists in the civilized world. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to sell worthless compounds in place of these: those which they can purchase at a cheap price, and make more money by selling, than they can on these medicines. As you value your health, aye, the health of your future offspring, do not be deceived by such unprincipled Druggists, ask for these medicines and take no others. If the Druggists will not buy them for you, enclose the money in a letter, and we will send them to you by Express, securely sealed and packed free from observation.

Ladies or Gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence, stating fully and plainly their diseases and symptoms, as we treat all diseases of a chronic nature in male or female. Patients need not hesitate because of their inability to visit us, as we have treated patients successfully in all portions of the civilized globe, by correspondence.

Patients addressing us will please state plainly all the symptoms of their complaints, and write Postoffice, County, State and name of writer, plain, and inclose postage stamp for reply.

We send our 32 page pamphlet free to any address. Address all letters for Pamphlets or advice to the proprietors,
